CRAWFORD COUNTY

In the Matter of the Adoption of Rules of Criminal Procedure; No. 1995-771

Order

And Now, February 25, 1998, it is ordered as follows:

1. The following amendments are made to the Crawford County Rules of Criminal Procedure and will become effective thirty (30) days after publication in the Pennsylvania Bulletin.

2. The Clerk of Courts is ordered and directed to:

a. File seven (7) certified copies of this order with the Administrative Office of Pennsylvania Courts.

b. Distribute two (2) certified copies of this order to the Legislative Reference Bureau for publication in the Pennsylvania Bulletin.

c. File one (1) certified copy of this order with the Criminal Procedural Rules Committee.

d. Keep continuously available for public inspection a copy of this order and the amended rules.

3. Rule C9020 "Motions" is amended in two respects.

Rule C9020 B (2) shall be amended to read as follows:

Filing of uncontested motions. Uncontested motions shall be filed with the Clerk of Courts, properly timed stamped and docketed, and then sent to the Court Administrator. The Court Administrator will set an appropriate hearing or argument date or present the same to the Motions Judge for the entry of any order.

Rule C9020 C is amended with the addition of the following:

While contested motions should be filed with the Clerk of Courts pursuant to Pa.R.Crim.P. 9022 a motion may be presented to the Court in Motions Court under the procedure set forth above because the Court immediately files the motion and order with the Clerk of Courts during Motions Court.

4. A new rule C9025 is hereby adopted and reads as follows:

Rule C9025 Notice and Docketing of Orders

In order that the Clerk of Courts may comply with Pa.R.Crim.P. 9025 counsel and pro se defendants shall list their addresses on any initial filings and are required to file a notice of any change of address that occurs during the pendency of the proceeding. When the Clerk of Courts sends a first class mailing, postage prepaid to the last known address of record there is created a presumption of service/receipt of said mail article and the contents thereof.

SUPREME COURT

Administrative Office of Pennsylvania Courts; Request for Proposal

The Administrative Office of Pennsylvania Courts (AOPC) of the Supreme Court of Pennsylvania is issuing a Request for Proposal (RFP) on March 16, 1998 for the development of application software in Microsoft Visual Basic and Seagate's Crystal Reports. This is to implement a new Administrative Support Application Project (ASAP) based on a completed set of functional requirements, database design and an associated conceptual design completed in Visual Basic.

The project schedule, terms and conditions and scope of work are outlined in the RFP. A copy of the RFP may be downloaded from the Pennsylvania Judiciary's web site on the Internet (www.courts.state.pa.us). Copies may also be requested by calling the AOPC at (717)795-2000 or E-mailing the AOPC at aness@courts.state.pa.us. A Procurement Library has been established at AOPC Mechanicsburg Office and may be scheduled for use by calling the number listed above. The Procurement Library is also available electronically at the Judiciary's web site.

Vendors interested in bidding for this procurement must submit their questions by March 30, 1998 and Letters of Intent to Bid by April 22, 1998. See the RFP for a detailed schedule of the procurement process. Each vendor must include the sample ASAP application code with the Letter of Intent to Bid. Detailed information about the sample application code is located in Chapter 1, Section C, Subsection 1.3 of the RFP.

NANCY M. SOBOLEVITCH,
Court Administrator of Pennsylvania

In Re: P.I.E. Mutual Insurance Company; Petition of Harold T. Duryes, Rehabilitator; 288 M.D. Misc.
Dkt. 1997

Order

Per Curiam:

And Now, this 18th day of February, 1998, it is hereby Ordered:

1. That the Ex Parte Application for Substitution of Party is granted, and Harold T. Duryes, Rehabilitator, is substituted as Petitioner for the party P.I.E. Mutual Insurance Company.

2. That this court's order of January 23, 1998, is hereby vacated.

3. That there is in effect a stay of proceedings for ninety (90) days in any and all cases in which a P.I.E. Mutual Insurance Company insured is being represented in proceedings pending in Courts of the Commonwealth of Pennsylvania, which list of cases is attached as Exhibit "D" to Petitioner's Application for Extraordinary Relief filed with this court on December 30, 1997 ("Petitioner's Application").

4. That Petitioner's Application, Petitioner's Motion for Reconsideration and this Order granting the stay be served by Petitioner upon all unrepresented parties and counsel of record in accordance with the list attached as Exhibit "D" to Petitioner's Application, and by means of publication in the Pennsylvania Law Weekly, Pennsylvania Bulletin, and The Legal Intelligencer, and upon the clerks of all courts in which any of these matters are pending.

5. That any party aggrieved by this order may petition this court for special relief within twenty (20) days of the serving of this Order upon them.

Madame Justice Newman did not participate in this consideration or decision of this matter.
