READER'S GUIDE TO THE PENNSYLVANIA BULLETIN AND PENNSYLVANIA CODE

Pennsylvania Bulletin

The Pennsylvania Bulletin is the official gazette of the Commonwealth of Pennsylvania. It is published every week and includes a table of contents. A cumulative subject matter index is published quarterly.

The Pennsylvania Bulletin serves several purposes. First, it is the temporary supplement to the Pennsylvania Code, which is the official codification of agency rules and regulations and other statutorily authorized documents. Changes in the codified text, whether by adoption, amendment, repeal or emergency action must be published in the Pennsylvania Bulletin. Further, agencies proposing changes to the codified text do so in the Pennsylvania Bulletin.

Second, the Pennsylvania Bulletin also publishes: Governor's Executive Orders; State Contract Notices; Summaries of Enacted Statutes; Statewide and Local Court Rules; Attorney General Opinions; Motor Carrier Applications before the Public Utility Commission; Applications and Actions before the Department of Environmental Protection; Orders of the Independent Regulatory Review Commission; and other documents authorized by law.

The text of certain documents published in the Pennsylvania Bulletin is the only valid and enforceable text. Courts are required to take judicial notice of the Pennsylvania Bulletin.

Adoption, Amendment or Repeal of Regulations

Generally an agency wishing to adopt, amend or repeal regulations must first publish in the Pennsylvania Bulletin a Notice of Proposed Rulemaking. There are limited instances where the agency may omit the proposal step; they still must publish the adopted version.

The Notice of Proposed Rulemaking contains the full text of the change, the agency contact person, a fiscal note required by law and background for the action.

The agency then allows sufficient time for public comment before taking final action. An adopted proposal must be published in the Pennsylvania

Bulletin before it can take effect. If the agency wishes to adopt changes to the Notice of Proposed Rulemaking to enlarge the scope, they must re-propose.

Citation to the Pennsylvania Bulletin

Cite material in the Pennsylvania Bulletin by volume number and page number. Example: Volume 1, Pennsylvania Bulletin, page 801 (short form: 1 Pa.B. 801).

Pennsylvania Code

The Pennsylvania Code is the official codification of rules and regulations issued by Commonwealth agencies and other statutorily authorized documents. The Pennsylvania Bulletin is the temporary supplement to the Pennsylvania Code, printing changes as soon as they occur. These changes are then permanently codified by the Pennsylvania Code Reporter, a monthly, loose-leaf supplement.

The Pennsylvania Code is cited by title number and section number. Example: Title 10 Pennsylvania Code, § 1.1 (short form: 10 Pa.Code § 1.1).

Under the Pennsylvania Code codification system, each regulation is assigned a unique number by title and section. Titles roughly parallel the organization of Commonwealth government. Title 1 Pennsylvania Code lists every agency and its corresponding Code title location.

How to Find Documents

Search for your area of interest in the Pennsylvania Code.

The Pennsylvania Code contains, as Finding Aids, subject indexes for the complete Code and for each individual title, a list of Statutes Used As Authority for Adopting Rules and a list of annotated cases. Source Notes give you the history of the documents. To see if there have been recent changes, not yet codified, check the List of Pennsylvania Code Chapters Affected in the most recent issue of the Pennsylvania Bulletin.

The Pennsylvania Bulletin also publishes a quarterly List of Pennsylvania Code Sections Affected which lists the regulations in numerical order, followed by the citation to the Pennsylvania Bulletin in which the change occurred.

Printing Format

Material proposed to be added to an existing rule or regulation is printed in bold face and material proposed to be deleted from such a rule or regulation is enclosed in brackets [] and printed in bold face. Asterisks indicate ellipsis of Pennsylvania Code text retained without change. Proposed new or additional regulations are printed in ordinary style face.

Fiscal Notes

Section 612 of The Administrative Code of 1929 (71 P. S. § 232) requires that the Office of Budget prepare a fiscal note for regulatory actions and administrative procedures of the administrative departments, boards, commissions or authorities receiving money from the State Treasury stating whether the proposed action or procedure causes a loss of revenue or an increase in the cost of programs for the Commonwealth or its political subdivisions; that the fiscal note be published in the Pennsylvania Bulletin at the same time as the proposed change is advertised; and that the fiscal note shall provide the following information: (1) the designation of the fund out of which the appropriation providing for expenditures under the action or procedure shall be made; (2) the probable cost for the fiscal year the program is implemented; (3) projected cost estimate of the program for each of the five succeeding fiscal years; (4) fiscal history of the program for which expenditures are to be made; (5) probable loss of revenue for the fiscal year of its implementation; (6) projected loss of revenue from the program for each of the five succeeding fiscal years; (7) line item, if any, of the General Appropriation Act or other appropriation act out of which expenditures or losses of Commonwealth funds shall occur as a result of the action or procedures; (8) recommendation, if any, of the Secretary of the Budget and the reasons therefor.

The required information is published in the foregoing order immediately following the proposed change to which it relates; the omission of an item indicates that the agency text of the fiscal note states that there is no information available with respect thereto. In items (3) and (6) information is set forth for the first through fifth fiscal years; in that order, following the year the program is implemented, which is stated. In item (4) information is set forth for the current and two immediately preceding years, in that order. In item (8) the recommendation, if any, made by the Secretary of Budget is published with the fiscal note. See 4 Pa. Code § 7.231 et seq. Where “no fiscal impact” is published, the statement means no additional cost or revenue loss to the Commonwealth or its local political subdivision is intended.

Reproduction, Dissemination or Publication of Information

Third parties may not take information from the Pennsylvania Code and Pennsylvania Bulletin and reproduce, disseminate or publish such information except as provided by 1 Pa. Code § 3.44. 1 Pa. Code § 3.44 reads as follows:

§ 3.44. General permission to reproduce content of Code and Bulletin.

Information published under this part, which information includes, but is not limited to, cross references, tables of cases, notes of decisions, tables of contents, indexes, source notes, authority notes, numerical lists and codification guides, other than the actual text of rules or regulations may be reproduced only with the written consent of the Bureau. The information which appears on the same leaf with the text of a rule or regulation, however, may be incidentally reproduced in connection with the reproduction of the rule or regulation, if the reproduction is for the private use of a subscriber and not for resale. There are no other restrictions on the reproduction of information published under this part, and the Commonwealth hereby consents to a reproduction.

Appendix A

PENNSYLVANIA IOLTA BOARD

FORM FOR PRO HAC VICE ADMISSION

(For all attorneys not licensed to practice law in Pennsylvania who are seeking special admission for purposes limited to a particular legal proceeding in a Court of the Commonwealth of Pennsylvania)

Use this form if you are an attorney who is qualified to practice in another state or in a foreign jurisdiction, is not admitted to practice law in Pennsylvania, and is seeking to be specially admitted to the Bar of the Commonwealth of Pennsylvania in order to appear before a Pennsylvania Court in connection with a particular case.

Filing this form and fee is the mandatory first step in your request for permission to participate in proceedings in a Pennsylvania Court. The next step is to file a motion in the Pennsylvania Court before whom you are seeking to appear. The motion must aver payment of the fee or be accompanied by the acknowledgment letter you will receive from the Board. The decision to grant or deny your admission is ultimately made by the Court before whom you are seeking to appear. Proceedings filed under a new case number in any Court, including all appellate courts, are considered new proceedings and are subject to completion of a new form and fee.

Carefully follow these instructions and complete this form. Keep a copy of your completed form for future reference, as you may be charged for any copies you request from the Board's file.

No alterations may be made to the text or wording of this form. Before you file your form, verify that you have fully responded to all items and questions, leaving no blanks. If the item or question is inapplicable, write "N/A."

Your form will not be considered filed if incomplete. If incomplete, it may be returned to you. Failure to provide any of the following information will result in an incomplete form:

- a) failure to provide any information required, including names, complete addresses, telephone numbers, or zip/postal codes;
- b) failure to answer any question;
- c) failure to send in the required fee;
- d) alteration of any language of the form; and
- e) failure to sign any document requiring your signature.

1. Filing Fees: Make your check, money order, or bank cashier's check payable in the full amount due to the PA IOLTA Board. The filing fee is equal to the annual assessment paid by attorneys licensed to practice law in Pennsylvania, as in effect from time to time. If you have any questions about the fee, please contact the Pa IOLTA Board before submitting this form. Do not postdate your check. A form is not considered filed until all fees are received in the Board's office. If your check for fees is returned for insufficient funds or is otherwise dishonored by your bank, you will be assessed a returned check charge. All fees due after that time must be paid by bank cashier's check or money order. There is no refund of fees if you withdraw your application for pro hac vice admission or do not meet all requirements for admission. No fee is required if the applicant attorney is representing a person who has been granted in forma pauperis status.

Annex A

TITLE 231. RULES OF CIVIL PROCEDURE

PART I. GENERAL

CHAPTER 1910. ACTIONS FOR SUPPORT

Rule 1910.19. Support. Modification. Termination. Guidelines as Substantial Change in Circumstances.

* * * * *

(f) Upon notice to the obligee, with a copy to the obligor, the court may modify or terminate a charging order for support when it appears to the court that:

(1) the order is no longer able to be enforced under state law; or

(2) the obligor is unable to pay and there is no reasonable prospect that the obligor will be able to pay in the foreseeable future.

The notice shall advise the obligee to contact the domestic relations section within 60 days of the date of the mailing of the notice if the obligee wishes to contest the proposed modification or termination. If the obligee objects, the domestic relations section shall schedule a conference to provide the obligee the opportunity to contest the proposed action. If the obligee does not respond to the notice or object to the proposed action, the court shall have the authority to administratively modify or terminate the order. Any such modification or termination shall be without prejudice, including as to arrears vacated pursuant to this subdivision.

Explanatory Comment—1993

Existence of Guidelines as Substantial Change in Circumstances. In its opinion in Newman v. Newman, 597 A.2d 684 (Pa. Super. 1991), the Superior Court held that enactment of the guidelines does not constitute a substantial change in circumstance which could serve as the basis for modification of a support order. The amended rule allows the trier of fact to consider new or revised rules as a change in circumstances where the change in the guidelines, either by itself or in combination with other factors, is material and substantial.

Explanatory Comment—2000

The Pennsylvania Child Support Enforcement System ("PACSES") is electronically linked to a variety of governmental and private agencies and institutions. This linkage enables PACSES to immediately locate and identify an obligor's income, income sources and assets. Rule 1910.19 is amended to provide that their identification through these automated methods provides a basis for modifying both the current support obligation and the rate of repayment on either past due or overdue support. Identification through means other than PACSES continues to provide the same basis for modification.

While identification of income sources or assets provides a basis for modification, this rule is not intended to prevent a court from ordering that the income or assets be frozen and seized under Rule 1910.26 pending the hearing on the petition for modification. Such relief remains available under Rule 1910.26 governing appropriate interim or special relief. See Rule 1910.1 Explanatory Comment. Nor is this rule intended to affect the court's ability to seize income or assets under Rule 1910.20 to secure an overdue support obligation.

Explanatory Comment—2002

Although support orders do not terminate automatically, many obligors are unaware of the necessity of filing a petition to terminate a child support order when the child becomes emancipated. As a result, old orders have continued to charge long after the subject child has become an adult. New subdivision (e) is intended to address this problem by giving the obligee notice of a proposed modification or termination of the order and the opportunity to object. If no objection is made, or if the obligee fails to respond with a reason to continue the order, the rule gives the court the authority to terminate or modify the charging order, depending upon whether or not other children are covered under the order.

Explanatory Comment—2005

New subdivision (f) addresses an increasing multiplicity of circumstances in which the continued existence of a court-ordered obligation of support is inconsistent with rules or law. An obligor with no known assets whose sole source of income is Supplemental Security Income or cash assistance cannot be ordered to pay support under Rule 1910.16-2. Likewise, an obligor with no verifiable income or assets whose institutionalization, incarceration or long-term disability precludes the payment of support throughout the duration of the child's minority renders the support order unenforceable and uncollectible, diminishing the perception of the court as a source of redress and relief. Often, the obligor is unaware of the need to file for a modification or termination, or, over time, the parties abandon the action. In those circumstances, the courts are charged with managing dockets with no viable outcomes. Both the rules and the federal guidelines for child support under Title IV-D of the Social Security Act provide for circumstances under which a support order shall not be entered or under which a child support case may be closed. Subdivision (f) expands the authority of the courts to respond to case management issues brought about by changes in circumstances of the parties of which the courts become aware through the expansion of automated interfaces and data exchanges.

Annex A

TITLE 231. RULES OF CIVIL PROCEDURE

PART I. GENERAL

CHAPTER 1910. ACTIONS FOR SUPPORT

Rule 1910.16-1. Amount of Support. Support Guidelines.

(a) Applicability of the Support Guidelines.

(1) Except as set forth in subdivision (2) below, the support guidelines set forth the amount of support which a spouse or parent should pay on the basis of both parties' net monthly incomes as defined in Rule 1910.16-2 and the number of persons being supported. [The support of a spouse or child is a priority obligation so that a party is expected to meet this obligation by adjusting his or her other expenditures.]

(2) In actions in which the plaintiff is a public body or private agency pursuant to Rule 1910.3, the amount of the order shall be calculated under the guidelines based upon each obligor's net monthly income as defined in Rule 1910.16-2, with the public or private entity's income as zero. In such cases, each parent shall be treated as a separate obligor and a parent's obligation will be based upon his or her own monthly net income without regard to the income of the other parent.

(i) The amount of basic child support owed to other children not in placement shall be deducted from each parent's net income before calculating support for the child or children in placement, including the amount of direct support the guidelines assume will be provided by the custodial parent.

Example 1. Mother and Father have three children and do not live in the same household. Mother has primary custody of two children and net monthly income of $1,500 per month. Father's net monthly income is $3,000. The parties' third child is in foster care placement. Pursuant to the schedule at Rule 1910.16-3, the basic child support amount for the two children with Mother is $[1,235] 1,216. As Father's income is 67% of the parties' combined monthly net income, his basic support obligation to Mother is $[827] 815 per month. The guidelines assume that Mother will provide $[408] 401 per month in direct expenditures to the two children in her home. The agency/obligee brings an action against each parent for the support of the child in placement. Father/obligor's income will be $[2,173] 2,185 for purposes of this calculation ($3,000 net less $[827] 815 in support for the children with Mother). Because the agency/obligee's income is zero, Father's support for the child in placement will be 100% of the schedule amount of basic support for one child at the $[2,173] 2,185 income level, or $[505] 545 per month. Mother/obligor's income will be $[1,092] 1,099 for purposes of this calculation ($1,500 net less $[408] 401 in direct support to the children in her custody). Her support obligation will be 100% of the schedule amount for one child at that income level, or $[268] 284 per month.

Example 2. Mother and Father have two children in placement. Father owes child support of $500 per month for two children of a former marriage. At the same income levels as above, Father's income for determining his obligation to the children in placement would be $2,500 ($3,000 less $500 support for two children of prior marriage). His obligation to the agency would be $[842] 853 per month (100% of the schedule amount for two children at the $2,500 per month income level). Mother's income would not be diminished as she owes no other child support. She would owe $[521] 544 for the children in placement (100% of the schedule amount for two children at the $1,500 income level).

(ii) If the parents reside in the same household, their respective obligations to the children who remain in the household and are not in placement shall be calculated according to the guidelines, with the parent having the higher income as the obligor, and that amount shall be deducted from the parents' net monthly incomes for purposes of calculating support for the child(ren) in placement.

Example. Mother and Father have four children, two of whom are in placement. Mother's net monthly income is $4,000 and Father's is $2,000. The basic support amount for the two children in the home is $[1,532] 1,359, according to the schedule at Rule 1910.16-3. As Mother's income is 67% of the parties' combined net monthly incomes, her share would be $[1,026] 911, and Father's 33% share would be $[506] 448. Mother's income for purposes of calculating support for the two children in placement would be $[2,974] 3,089 ($4,000 less $[1,026] 911). She would pay 100% of the basic child support at that income level, or $[961] 1,029, for the children in placement. Father's income would be

§[1,494] 1,552 ($2,000 less §[506] 448) and his obligation to the children in placement would be §[521] 560.

(iii) In the event that the combined amount the parents are required to pay exceeds the cost of placement, the trier of fact shall deviate to reduce each parent's obligation in proportion to his or her share of the combined obligation.

(3) The support of a spouse or child is a priority obligation so that a party is expected to meet this obligation by adjusting his or her other expenditures.

(b) Amount of Support. The amount of support (child support, spousal support or alimony pendente lite) to be awarded pursuant to the procedures under Rules 1910.11 and 1910.12 shall be determined in accordance with the support guidelines which consist of the guidelines expressed as the child support schedule set forth in Rule 1910.16-3, the formula set forth in Rule 1910.16-4 and the operation of the guidelines as set forth in these rules.

(c) Spousal Support and Alimony Pendente Lite. Orders for spousal support and alimony pendente lite shall not be in effect simultaneously.

(d) Rebuttable Presumption. If it has been determined that there is an obligation to pay support, there shall be a rebuttable presumption that the amount of the award determined from the guidelines is the correct amount of support to be awarded. The support guidelines are a rebuttable presumption and must be applied taking into consideration the special needs and obligations of the parties. The trier of fact must consider the factors set forth in Rule 1910.16-5. The presumption shall be rebutted if the trier of fact makes a written finding, or a specific finding on the record, that an award in the amount determined from the guidelines would be unjust or inappropriate.

(e) Guidelines Review. The guidelines shall be reviewed at least once every four years to insure that [their] application results in the determination of appropriate amounts of support.

[Explanatory Comment—1998

Introduction

Federal and state law require the use of guidelines to establish child and spousal support orders. Using the guidelines promotes (1) similar treatment of persons similarly situated, (2) a more equitable distribution of the financial responsibility for raising children, (3) settlement of support matters without court involvement, and (4) more efficient hearings where they are necessary. The Pennsylvania Rules of Civil Procedure governing actions for support set forth the basic child support schedule and formula as well as the explanatory text.

A. Income Shares. The child support guidelines are based on the Income Shares Model developed by the Child Support Guidelines Project of the National Center for State Courts. The model is based on the idea that the child of separated or divorced parents should receive the same proportion of parental income that she or he would have received if the parents lived together. A number of authoritative economic studies provide estimates of the average amount of household expenditures for children in intact households. These studies show that the proportion of household spending devoted to children is directly related to the level of household income and to the number and ages of the children. The basic support amounts reflected in the child support schedule in Rule 1910.16-3 represent average marginal expenditures on children for food, housing, transportation, clothing and other miscellaneous items that are needed by children and provided by their parents, including the first $250 of unreimbursed medical expenses incurred annually per child.

B. Statutory Considerations. The federal statute, 42 U.S.C. § 467(a), requires that the guidelines be reviewed every four years. In addition, the Pennsylvania statute, 23 Pa.C.S. § 4322, states:

“... Child and spousal support shall be awarded pursuant to a Statewide guideline as established by general rule by the Supreme Court, so that persons similarly situated shall be treated similarly. The guidelines shall be based upon the reasonable needs of the child or spouse seeking support and the ability of the obligor to provide support. In determining the reasonable needs of the child or spouse seeking support and the ability of the obligor to provide support, the guidelines shall place primary emphasis on the net incomes and earning capacities of the parties, with allowable deviations for unusual needs, extraordinary expenses and other factors, such as the parties' assets, as warrant special attention.”

1. Reasonable Needs and Reasonable Ability to Provide Support. The guidelines make financial support of a child a primary obligation. They assume that parties with similar net incomes will have similar reasonable and necessary expenses. After the basic needs of the parents have been met, the child's needs shall receive priority. The guidelines assume that if obligor's net income is less than $550, he or she is barely able to provide for basic personal needs. In these cases, therefore, entry of a minimal order is appropriate after considering the party's living expenses. In some cases, it may not be appropriate to order support at all.

In most cases, however, a party's living expenses are not relevant in determining his or her support obligation. Rather, as the statute requires, the obligation is based on the reasonable needs of a dependent spouse or child and the reasonable ability of the obligor to pay. For example, in setting the amount of child support, it should be of no concern to the court that one obligor chooses to live in a one-room apartment and rely solely on public transportation, while another obligor, earning the same salary, chooses to live in a five-bedroom apartment and drive a new car. Both are obligated to give priority to the needs of their children. What they choose to do with their remaining income is not relevant to a support claim.

2. Net Income. The guidelines use the net incomes of the parties, and are based on the assumption that a child's reasonable needs increase as the combined net income of the child's parents increases. Each parent is required to contribute a share of the child's reasonable needs proportional to that parent's share of the combined net incomes. The custodial parent makes these contributions entirely through direct expenditures for food, shelter, clothing, transportation and other reasonable needs. In addition to any direct expenditures on the child's behalf, the non-custodial parent makes contributions through periodic support payments.

3. Allowable Deviations. The guidelines are designed to treat similarly situated parents, spouses, and children in the same manner. However, when there are unavoidable differences, deviations must be made from the guidelines. Failure to deviate from these guidelines by considering a party's actual expenditures where there are special needs and special circumstances constitutes a misapplication of the guidelines.

C. Four-Year Review. The Family Support Act of 1988 (P. L. 100-485, 102 Stat. 2343 (1988)) requires that the child support guidelines be reviewed every four years to ensure that their application results in a determination of an appropriate child support award. With the assistance of Dr. Robert Williams, the developer of the Income Shares model, the Committee reviewed the most recent economic studies on child-related expenditures in intact households and assessed state guideline adjustments for low income, additional dependents, shared custody, child care, medical expenses and other factors which are considered in establishing or modifying a support award. Based on this review, Rules of Civil Procedure 1910.16-1 through 1910.16-5 relating to the guidelines have been amended and new Rules 1910.16-6 and 1910.16-7 have been added as follows.

1. Reorganization of the Rules. The rules have been reorganized so that they more logically follow the sequence for calculating the overall support obligation. Since the calculation begins with the computation of the parties' net incomes, new Rule 1910.16-2 consolidates all of the income provisions that formerly appeared throughout Rule 1910.16-5. Rule 1910.16-2 is followed by Rule 1910.16-3, the basic child support schedule; Rule 1910.16-4, the formula used in conjunction with the Schedule to arrive at obligor's basic support obligation; Rule 1910.16-5, which sets forth the factors the court must consider in determining whether to deviate from the basic support obligation; and Rule 1910.16-6, which consolidates all of the provisions for additional expenses that are typically added to the basic support obligation. Rule 1910.16-7 addresses the special treatment of child support obligations in the context of multiple families.

2. Calculation of Basic Child Support. The amount of basic support was previously determined from either the grids or the chart of proportional expenditures in conjunction with the income shares formula. The grids and the chart of proportional expenditures have been eliminated. The Committee has chosen to use a basic child support schedule, which numerically reflects the amounts spent on children in intact families by combined income and number of children. The schedule appears in Rule 1910.16-3 and shall be used to find the parties' combined basic child support obligation. In turn, the obligor's share of this obligation is calculated using the income shares formula in Rule 1910.16-4.

The amounts of child support set forth in the schedule have been updated to reflect recent economic estimates of child-related spending in intact households. Pursuant to federal and state law, these estimates must be adopted to ensure that children continue to receive adequate levels of support. Since the studies now consider households of up to six children, the guidelines have been expanded from four to six children. The newer studies also consider households with combined monthly net income of up to $12,600. Allowing for inflation, the model can be extended to combined monthly net income of up to $15,000. The Committee has chosen to do this so that the support guidelines will apply to more cases.

3. Computed Minimum Allowance in Low-Income Cases. The amended rules incorporate a Computed Allowance Minimum (CAM) into the support guidelines so that low-income obligors retain sufficient income to meet their basic needs and to maintain the incentive to continue working so that support can be paid. The CAM is built into the schedule in Rule 1910.16-3 and adjusts the basic support obligation to prevent obligor's net income from falling below $550 per month. Since the schedule reflects amounts of child support only, Rule 1910.16-2(e)(1)(B) provides for a similar adjustment in spousal support and APL cases so that the obligor retains at least $550 per month in these cases as well.

4. Shared Custody. Under the prior guidelines, there was no formula or procedure for deviating from the basic support guidelines when custody is shared equally or the non-custodial parent has substantial partial custody. The guidelines provided that the obligor's support obligation should be reduced only if he or she spent "an unusual amount of time with the children." Yet, there have been several decisions rejecting deviation even if the obligor spends almost 50% of the time with the children. See, e.g., Anzalone v. Anzalone, 449 Pa. Super. 201, 673 A.2d 377 (1996)(40% time was not "unusual"); Dalton v. Dalton, 409 Pa. Super. 258, 597 A.2d 1192 (1991)(43% time did not justify deviation).

It is generally agreed, however, that there should be some reduction in the support obligation in these cases to reflect the decrease in the obligee's variable expenses and the increase in obligor's fixed and variable expenses as a result of the children spending substantially more time with the obligor. As part of its four-year review of the guidelines, the Committee examined seven different methods being used by other states but found that none of them met these objectives without producing a substantial reduction in the support obligation at some income levels or income differentials for relatively small increases in custodial time. As a result, the Committee initially recommended the alternative solution of no reduction at all for time spent with the children. Based on the comments received, however, the Committee reconsidered this recommendation and ultimately selected a method which gives some recognition to the shift in child-related expenditures that occurs when the obligor spends a substantial amount of time with the children.

This method is set forth in Rule 1910.16-4(c) and has been built into the formula used to calculate the presumptively correct amount of the support obligation. While not a perfect solution to the problem of establishing support obligations in the context of substantial or shared custody, it is better than the previous void and preferable to the many offset methods developed by local courts which effectively reduced the support obligation out of proportion to the increase in custody time. Its chief advantage is that there is no sharp reduction in the obligation at the 40% threshold. It also provides statewide uniformity. The method does not, however, result in $0 when there is equal custody and equal income. In those cases, therefore, the Rule provides for a cap to reduce the obligation so that the obligee does not receive a larger portion of the combined income than the obligor. Although this cap may in some cases result in a substantial reduction between 45-50% time, the Committee is not aware of an existing model that does not create some "cliff effect" at some level at some point in time. This model was chosen over others because the cases which involve truly equal time-sharing and equal incomes continue to represent a very small percentage of support cases.

5. Multiple Families. The Committee has chosen to retain the existing approach for establishing multiple child and spousal support obligations. New Rule 1910.16-7 sets forth the method for calculating child support obligations so that all of the obligor's children continue to have equal access to his or her resources and no child receives priority over the other children. Since calculation of multiple spousal support obligations is essentially a function of net income, it appears in new Rule 1910.16-2 governing the general calculation of net income. The provision continues to highlight the fact that the rules do not accord the same treatment to second and later spouses as they do to children in multiple family situations. Unlike children, who have no choice about the situation into which they are born, adults have the opportunity to investigate a potential spouse before committing themselves.

6. Child Care Expenses. Whereas the prior rules provided for equal sharing of these expenses, Rule 1910.16-6(a) now provides for proportionate sharing based on the parties' net incomes so that these expenses are allocated in the same manner as other expenses which are typically added to the basic support obligation. The Rule also reflects the availability and limitations of the federal child care tax credit which can be claimed by the custodial parent.

7. Health Insurance Premiums. Under the prior rules, the portion of the cost of health insurance premiums which benefit the other party or the children was deducted from the party's net income. This provided little incentive for either party to obtain or maintain health insurance coverage for the benefit of the other family members. If the obligor was paying the premium, it reduced the basic support award only marginally. If the obligee was paying the premium, he or she received virtually no financial credit at all in terms of a higher support award.

To maximize the value for the party carrying the health insurance in most cases, new Rule 1910.16-6(b), in general, treats the cost of the premium as an additional expense subject to allocation between the parties in proportion to their net incomes. In the majority of cases, this more accurately reflects the costs of carrying such insurance and also ensures that the obligee receives some financial credit for carrying the insurance. However, in cases in which the obligee has no income or minimal income, and the obligor would otherwise bear the entire burden of paying the health insurance premiums with no other adjustment to his or her support obligation, the trier of fact may deduct part or all of the cost of the premium from the obligor's income for support purposes. The new Rule also permits allocation of the entire premium, including the party's portion of the premium, when the insurance benefits the other party or the children. This change provides further incentive for parties to obtain health insurance for the benefit of the other party and the children.

8. Unreimbursed Medical Expenses. There are three changes to the treatment of unreimbursed medical expenses. First, since the first $250 per year per child of these expenses is already built into the basic child support obligation reflected in the schedule, only medical expenses which exceed this amount are subject to allocation between the parties as an additional expense to be added to the basic support obligation. Rule 1910.16-6(c) reflects this distinction. The Committee has also chosen to draw this same distinction with respect to spousal support so that the obligee-spouse is expected to meet the first $250 per year of his or her own unreimbursed expenses before seeking contribution from the obligor for any additional expenses.

Second, the Rule distinguishes between those expenses which are predictable and recurring and those which are not. When the expenses are predictable and recurring, the court may establish a monthly amount for those expenses and add it to the basic support obligation. This permits the monthly amount to be collected more easily through wage attachment. When the expenses are variable and unanticipated, and thus not conducive to routine wage attachment, the court may nonetheless order the defendant to pay his or her percentage share of these expenses.

Third, the definition of medical expenses is amended to include insurance co-payments, deductibles, and orthodontia and to exclude chiropractic services.]

Explanatory Comment—2005

Introduction. Pennsylvania law requires that child and spousal support be awarded pursuant to a statewide guideline. 23 Pa.C.S. § 4322(a). That statute further provides that the guideline shall be "established by general rule by the Supreme Court, so that persons similarly situated shall be treated similarly." Id.

Pursuant to federal law, The Family Support Act of 1988 (P. L. 100-485, 102 Stat. 2343 (1988), 42 U.S.C. § 667(a)), statewide support guidelines must "be reviewed at least once every four years to ensure that their application results in the determination of appropriate child support award amounts." Federal regulations, 45 CFR 302.56, further require that such reviews include an assessment of the most recent economic data on child-rearing costs and a review of data from case files to assure that deviations from the guidelines are limited. The Pennsylvania statute also requires a review of the support guidelines every four years. 23 Pa.C.S.A. § 4322(a).

The Domestic Relations Procedural Rules Committee of the Supreme Court of Pennsylvania began the mandated review process in early 2003. The committee was assisted in its work by Jane Venohr, Ph.D., an economist with Policy Studies, Inc., under contract with the Pennsylvania Department of Public Welfare. As a result of the review, the committee recommended to the Supreme Court several amendments to the statewide guidelines.

A. Income Shares Model. Pennsylvania's child support guidelines are based upon the Income Shares Model. That model was developed under the Child Support Guidelines Project funded by the U.S. Office of Child Support Enforcement and administered by the National Center for State Courts. The Guidelines Project Advisory Group recommended the Income Shares Model for state guidelines. At present, 33 states use the Income Shares Model as a basis for their child support guidelines.

The Income Shares Model is based upon the concept that the child of separated, divorced or never-married parents should receive the same proportion of parental income that she or he would have received if the parents lived together. A number of authoritative economic studies provide estimates of the average amount of household expenditures for children in intact households. These studies show that the proportion of household spending devoted to children is directly related to the level of household income and to the number of the children. The basic support amounts reflected in the schedule in Rule 1910.16-3 represent average marginal expenditures on children for food, housing, transportation, clothing and other miscellaneous items that are needed by children and provided by their parents, including the first $250 of unreimbursed medical expenses incurred annually per child.

1. Economic Measures. The support schedule in Rule 1910.16-3 is based upon child-rearing expenditures measured by David M. Betson, Ph.D., Professor of Economics, University of Notre Dame. Dr. Betson's measurements were developed for the U.S. Department of Health and Human Services for the explicit purpose of assisting states with the development and revision of child support guidelines. Dr. Betson's research was also used in developing the prior schedule, effective in April 1999. In 2001, Dr. Betson updated his estimates using data from the 1996-98 Consumer Expenditure Survey conducted by the U.S. Bureau of Labor Statistics. In the current schedule, those figures were converted to 2003 price levels using the Consumer Price Index.

2. Source of Data. The estimates used to develop the schedule are based upon national data. The specific sources of the data are the periodic Consumer Expenditure Surveys. Those national surveys are used because they are the most detailed available source of data on household expenditures. The depth and quality of this information is simply not available at the state level and would be prohibitively costly to gather. However, according to the 2000 Census conducted by the U.S. Census Bureau, the median Pennsylvania family income in 1999 was $49,184, while the national median family income was $50,046. Thus, using national data continues to be appropriate.

The U.S. Department of Agriculture's Center for Nutrition Policy and Promotion ("CNPP") also develops economic estimates for the major categories of child-rearing expenditures. Although the committee reviewed these estimates, it is not aware of any state that relies upon the CNPP estimates as a basis for its child support schedule.

B. Statutory Considerations. The Pennsylvania statute, 23 Pa.C.S.A. § 4322(a), provides:

Child and spousal support shall be awarded pursuant to a Statewide guideline as established by general rule by the Supreme Court, so that persons similarly situated shall be treated similarly. The guideline shall be based upon the reasonable needs of the child or spouse seeking support and the ability of the obligor to provide support. In determining the reasonable needs of the child or spouse seeking support and the ability of the obligor to provide support, the guideline shall place primary emphasis on the net incomes and earning capacities of the parties, with allowable deviations for unusual needs, extraordinary expenses and other factors, such as the parties' assets, as warrant special attention. The guideline so developed shall be reviewed at least once every four years.

1. Reasonable Needs and Reasonable Ability to Provide Support. The guidelines make financial support of a child a primary obligation and assume that parties with similar net incomes will have similar reasonable and necessary expenses. After the basic needs of the parents have been met, the child's needs shall receive priority. The guidelines assume that if the obligor's net income is at the poverty level, he or she is barely able to provide for his or her own basic needs. In those cases, therefore, the entry of a minimal order may be appropriate after considering the party's living expenses. In some cases, it may not be appropriate to enter a support order at all. In most cases, however, a party's living expenses are not relevant in determining his or her support obligation. Rather, as the statute requires, the obligation is based upon the reasonable needs of a dependent spouse or child and the reasonable ability of the obligor to pay.

2. Net Income. The guidelines use the net incomes of the parties and are based on the assumption that a child's reasonable needs increase as the combined net income of the child's parents increases. Each parent is required to contribute a share of the child's reasonable needs in proportion to that parent's share of the combined net income. The custodial parent makes these contributions through direct expenditures for food, shelter, clothing, transportation and other reasonable needs. The non-custodial parent makes contributions through periodic support payments to the custodial parent. Rule 1910.16-2(d) has been amended to clarify the provisions relating to fluctuating income and earning capacity.

3. Allowable Deviations. The guidelines are designed to treat similarly situated parents, spouses and children in the same manner. However, when there are unavoidable differences, deviations must be made from the guidelines. Failure to deviate from these guidelines by considering a party's actual expenditures where there are special needs and special circumstances constitutes a misapplication of the guidelines.

C. Child Support Schedule. The child support schedule in Rule 1910.16-3 has been amended to reflect updated economic data, as required by federal and state law, to ensure that children continue to receive adequate levels of support. At some income levels the presumptive amount of support has increased from the previous schedule, and at some income levels it has decreased. The economic data support the revised schedule. The support amounts in the schedule have been expanded to apply to a combined net monthly income of $20,000 and remain statistically valid.

D. Self-Support Reserve ("SSR"). The amended schedule also incorporates an increase in the "Self-Support Reserve" or "SSR" from $550 per month to $748 per month, the 2003 federal poverty level for one person. Formerly designated as the "Computed Allowance Minimum" or "CAM," the Self-Support Reserve, as it is termed in most other states' guidelines, is intended to assure that low-income obligors retain sufficient income to meet their own basic needs, as well as to maintain the incentive to continue employment. The SSR is built into the schedule in Rule 1910.16-3 and adjusts the basic support obligation to prevent the obligor's net income from falling below $748 per month. Because the schedule in Rule 1910.16-3 applies to child support only, Rule 1910.16-2(e)(1)(B) provides for a similar adjustment in spousal support and alimony pendente lite cases to assure that the obligor retains a minimum of $748 per month.

E. Shared Custody. Prior to the amendments effective in April of 1999, there was no formula or procedure for deviating from the basic support guidelines when custody was shared equally or the non-custodial parent has substantial partial custody. Prior to 1999, the guidelines provided that the obligor's support obligation should be reduced only if he or she spent "an unusual amount of time with the children."

As part of the review process that resulted in the 1999 amendments, the committee considered the practices of several other jurisdictions and ultimately selected a method which gave some recognition to the shift in child-related expenditures that occurs when the obligor spends a substantial amount of time with the children. While recognizing that it was not a perfect solution to the problem of establishing support obligations in the context of substantial or shared custody, it was preferable to the diverse offset methods which had been developed by local courts. Its chief advantage was that it provided statewide uniformity and avoided a sharp reduction in the obligation at certain thresholds. These amendments do not change that rule.

F. Child Care Expenses. Rule 1910.16-6(a) has been amended to provide that child care expenses incurred by both parties shall be apportioned between the parties in recognition of the fact that a non-custodial parent may also incur such expenses during his or her custodial periods with the children.

G. Other Amendments. All of the examples in the guidelines have been updated to reflect the changes to the basic child support schedule. Prior explanatory comments have been deleted or revised and incorporated into new comments.

Rule 1910.16-2. Support Guidelines. Calculation of Net Income.

[The] Generally, the amount of support to be awarded is based [in large part] upon the parties' monthly net income.

(a) Monthly Gross Income. Monthly gross income is ordinarily based upon at least a six-month average of all of a party's income. The term "income" is defined by the support law, 23 Pa.C.S.A. § 4302, and includes income from any source. The statute lists many types of income including, but not limited to:

* * * * *

(7) alimony if, in the discretion of the trier of fact, inclusion of part or all of it is appropriate; and

Official Note: Since the reasons for ordering payment of alimony vary, the appropriateness of including it in the recipient's gross income must also vary. For example, if the obligor is paying $1,000 per month in [rehabilitative] alimony for the express purpose of financing the obligee's college education, it would be inappropriate to consider that alimony as income from which the obligee could provide child support. However, if alimony is intended to finance the obligee's general living expenses, inclusion of the alimony as income is appropriate.

* * * * *

(b) Treatment of Public Assistance, SSI Benefits and Social Security Payments to a Child Due to a Parent's Death, Disability or Retirement.

* * * * *

(2) If a child for whom support is sought is receiving Social Security benefits as a result of a parent's retirement, death or disability, the benefits the child receives shall be added to the combined monthly net incomes of the obligor and the obligee to calculate the income available for support on the vertical axis of the basic child support schedule set forth in Rule 1910.16-3. The presumptive amount of support as set forth on the schedule at the combined income of the obligee, obligor and child's benefits shall then be reduced by the amount of the child's benefits before apportioning the remaining support obligation between the parties pursuant to Rule 1910.16-4. For purposes of determining the support obligation of a surviving parent when the child is receiving benefits as the result of the other parent's death, the income of a non-parent obligee who is caring for a child but has no support obligation to that child shall include only those funds the obligee is receiving on behalf of the child.

Example 1. If the obligor has net [monthly] income of $1,200 per month; the obligee has net monthly income of $800; and the child receives Social Security derivative benefits of $300 per month as a result of either the obligor's or obligee's retirement or disability, then the total combined monthly net income is $2,300. Using the schedule at Rule 1910.16-3 for one child, the amount of support is $[539] 568 per month. From that amount, subtract the amount the child is receiving in Social Security derivative benefits ($[539] 568 minus $300 equals $[239] 268). Then, apply the formula at Rule 1910.16-4 to apportion the remaining child support amount of $[239] 268 between the obligor and the obligee in proportion to their respective incomes. [Obligor's] The obligor's $1,200 net income per month is 60% of the total of the obligor's and the obligee's combined net monthly income. Thus, the obligor's support obligation would be 60% of $[239] 268, or $[143.40] 161, per month.

Example 2. Two children live with [grandmother] Grandmother who receives $400 per month in Social Security death benefits for the children as a result of their father's death. Grandmother also receives $500 per month from a trust established by [father] Father for the benefit of the children. Grandmother is employed and earns $2,000 net per month. Grandmother seeks support from the children's mother, who earns $1,500 net per month. For purposes of calculating [mother's] Mother's support obligation, [grandmother's] Grandmother's income will be $500, the amount she receives on behalf of the children from the trust. Therefore, the obligee's and the obligor's combined net monthly incomes total $2,000. Add to that the $400 in Social Security benefits [grandmother] Grandmother receives for the children to find the basic child support amount in Rule 1910.16-3. The basic support amount at the $2,400 income level for two children is $[811] 820. Subtracting from that amount the $400 in Social Security derivative benefits [grandmother] Grandmother receives for the children, results in a basic support amount of $[411] 420 to be apportioned between the parties. As [mother's] Mother's income is 75% of the parties' combined income of $2,000, her support obligation to [grandmother] Grandmother is $[308] 315 per month.

Official Note: Care must be taken to distinguish Social Security from Supplemental Security Income (SSI) benefits. Social Security benefits are income pursuant to subdivision (a) of this rule.

(c) Monthly Net Income.

(2) In computing a spousal support or alimony pendente lite obligation, the court shall deduct from the obligor's monthly net income all of his or her child support obligations and any amounts of spousal support, alimony pendente lite or alimony being paid to former spouses.

(d) Reduced or Fluctuating Income.

(1) Voluntary Reduction of Income. [Where a] When either party voluntarily assumes a lower paying job, quits a job, leaves employment, changes occupations or changes employment status to pursue an education, or is fired for cause, there generally will be no effect on the support obligation. [A party will ordinarily not be relieved of a support obligation by voluntarily quitting work or by being fired for cause.]

Official Note: This provision applies to the establishment as well as modification of a support obligation. To the extent that Klahold v. Kroh, 437 Pa. Super. 150, 649 A.2d 701 (1994) implies otherwise, it is overruled.]

(2) Involuntary Reduction of, and Fluctuations in, Income. No adjustments in support payments will be made for normal fluctuations in earnings. However, appropriate adjustments will be made for substantial continuing involuntary decreases in income, including but not limited to the result of illness, lay-off, termination, job elimination or some other employment situation over which the party has no control.

(3) Seasonal Employees. Support orders for seasonal employees, such as construction workers, shall ordinarily be based upon a yearly average.

(4) [Income Potential] Earning Capacity. Ordinarily, [a] either party to a support action who [wilfully] wilfully fails to obtain appropriate employment will be considered to have an income equal to the party's earning capacity. Age, education, training, health, work experience, earnings history and child care responsibilities are factors which shall be considered in determining earning capacity.

(e) Net Income Affecting Application of the Child Support Guidelines.

(1) Low Income Cases.

(A) When the obligor's monthly net income and corresponding number of children fall into the shaded area of the schedule set forth in Rule 1910.16-3, the basic child support obligation shall be calculated using the obligor's income only. For example, where the obligor has monthly net income of $[750] 850, the [presumptively correct] presumptive amount of support for three children is $[184] 94 per month. This amount is determined directly from the schedule in Rule 1910.16-3.

(B) In computing a basic spousal support or alimony pendente lite obligation, the [presumptively correct] presumptive amount of support shall not reduce the obligor's net income below $[550] 748 per month. For example, if the obligor earns $[600] 800 per month and the obligee earns $300 per month, the formula in Part IV of Rule 1910.16-4 would result in a support obligation of $[120] 200 per month. Since this amount leaves the obligor with only $[480] 600 per month, it must be adjusted so that the obligor retains at least $[550] 748 per month. The [presumptively correct] presumptive minimum amount of spousal support, therefore, is $[50] 52 per month in this case.

(C) When the obligor's monthly net income is $[550] 748 or less, the court may award support only after consideration of the obligor's actual living expenses.

(2) High Income Child Support Cases. When the parties' combined net income exceeds $[15,000] 20,000 per month, child support shall be calculated pursuant to Melzer v. Witsberger, 505 Pa. 462, 480 A.2d 991 (1984). The presumptive minimum amount of child support shall be the obligor's percentage share of the highest amount of support which can be derived from the schedule for the appropriate number of children and using the parties' actual combined income to determine the obligor's percentage share of this amount. The court may award an additional amount of child support based on the parties' combined income and the factors set forth in Melzer. The Melzer analysis in high income child support cases shall be applied to all of the parties' income, not just to the amount of income exceeding $[15,000] 20,000 per month. In a Melzer analysis case, the presumptive minimum remains applicable.

For example, where the obligor and the obligee have monthly net incomes of $17,000 and $4,000 respectively, the presumptive minimum amount of child support for three children is calculated as follows: using the formula in Rule 1910.16-4, determine the parties' percentage shares of income based on their actual combined income—81% and 19% respectively of $21,000. Using the schedule in Rule 1910.16-3, find the highest possible combined child support obligation for three children—$[3,480] 3,018. [Obligor's] The obligor's percentage share of the combined obligation is 81% of $[3,480] 3,018, or $[2,818] 2,445. This is the presumptive minimum amount of child support that he or she must pay for three children. Since this amount is derived from the schedule in Rule 1910.16-3, which is limited to combined household income of $[15,000] 20,000, the court may award an additional amount of support based on the factors set forth in Melzer.

(f) Dependency Tax Exemption. In order to maximize the total income available to the parties and children, the court may, as justice and fairness require, award the federal child dependency tax exemption to the non-custodial parent, or to either parent in cases of equally shared custody, and order the other party to execute the waiver required by the Internal Revenue Code, 26 U.S.C.A. § 152(e). The tax consequences resulting from an award of the child dependency exemption must be considered in calculating each party's income available for support.

This new Rule consolidates all of the income provisions which formerly appeared throughout Rule 1910.16-5. Subdivision (a) specifies what is gross income for purposes of calculating the support obligation. In conformity with the recently expanded definition of income under 23 Pa.C.S. § 4322, income includes bonuses, lottery winnings, income tax refunds, insurance compensation or settlements, awards or verdicts and any form of payment due and collectible regardless of source.

Subdivision (c) sets forth the exclusive list of the deductions that may be taken from gross income in arriving at a party's net income. When the cost of health insurance premiums is treated as an additional expense subject to allocation between the parties under Rule 1910.16-6, it is no longer deductible from gross income. However, part or all of the cost of health insurance premiums may be deducted from the obligor's gross income pursuant to Rule 1910.16-6(b) in cases in which the obligor is paying the premiums and the obligee has no income or minimal income. Subdivision (c) also incorporates former Rule 1910.16-5(o) relating to awards of spousal support or APL when there are multiple families. In these cases, a party's net income must be reduced further to account for his or her child support obligations as well as any pre-existing spousal support, APL or alimony obligations being paid to former spouses who are not the subject of the support action.

Subdivision (e) reflects the Computed Allowance Minimum (CAM) in low-income child support cases. When the obligor's net monthly income or earning capacity falls into the shaded area of the schedule, the basic child support obligation can be derived directly from the schedule in Rule 1910.16-3. There is no need to use the formula in Rule 1910.16-4 to calculate obligor's support obligation because the CAM keeps the amount of the obligation the same regardless of obligee's income. Obligee's income may be a relevant factor, however, in determining whether to deviate from the basic guideline obligation pursuant to Rule 1910.16-5 and in considering whether to require the obligor to contribute to any additional expenses under Rule 1910.16-6.

Since the schedule in Rule 1910.16-3 reflects child support only, subdivision (e)(1)(B) is necessary to reflect the operation of CAM in spousal support and alimony pendente lite cases. It adjusts the basic guideline obligation which would otherwise be calculated under the formula in Rule 1910.16-4 so that the obligor does not fall below $550 per month in these cases.

When the obligor's monthly net income is less than $550, subsection (1)(C) provides that the court must consider the parties' actual living expenses before awarding support. The guidelines assume that at this income level the obligor is barely able to meet basic personal needs. In these cases, therefore, entry of a minimal order is appropriate. In some cases, it may not be appropriate to order support at all.

The CAM amount is only the presumptively correct amount of basic support to be awarded. If the circumstances warrant, the court may deviate from that amount under Rule 1910.16-5 and may also consider the party's contribution to the additional expenses, which are typically added to the basic amount of support under Rule 1910.16-6. If, for example, the obligor earns only $600 per month but is living with his or her parents, or has remarried and is living with a fully-employed spouse, the court may consider an upward deviation under Rule 1910.16-5(b)(3) and/or may order the party to contribute to the additional expenses under Rule 1910.16-6. Consistent with the goals of CAM, however, the court should ensure that the overall support obligation leaves obligor with sufficient income to meet basic personal needs and to maintain the incentive to continue working so that support can be paid.

Subdivision (e) also reflects the limited application of Melzer v. Witsberger, 505 Pa. 462, 480 A.2d 991 (1984) to cases in which the guidelines cannot be used to establish the child support obligation because the parties' combined income exceeds $15,000 per month. The court must establish a presumptive minimum amount of child support using the guidelines to arrive at that amount. The formula for calculating the presumptive minimum amount has been modified slightly to clarify that the parties' percentage shares should be calculated using their actual combined income rather than theoretical combined income of only $15,000. This change eliminates many of the inequities and inconsistencies that arose under the previous formula for determining this amount. In considering whether to award an additional amount of child support, the court must use the factors set forth in Melzer. It would be improper to apply the formula in Rule 1910.16-4 to the amount of the parties' combined income which exceeds $15,000 per month and award the obligor's percentage share as additional support. Additional support, if any, may be more or less than the percentage share and must be determined, therefore, in accordance with the factors set forth in Melzer.

Explanatory Comment—2000

This rule has been amended to reflect the fact that the chart of proportional expenditures formerly set forth at Rule 1910.16-3(b) has been rescinded. In addition, the rule and Explanatory Comment have been revised to clarify that the factors set forth in Melzer v. Witsberger, 505 Pa. 462, 480 A.2d 991 (1984), must be applied by considering all of the parties' combined income, not just the amount over $15,000 per month. The presumptive minimum shall apply even if the Melzer analysis results in a figure lower than the presumptive minimum.]

Explanatory Comment—2005

Subdivision (a) addresses gross income for purposes of calculating the support obligation by reference to the statutory definition at 23 Pa.C.S.A. § 4322. Subdivision (b) provides for the treatment of public assistance, SSI benefits and Social Security derivative benefits.

Subdivision (c) sets forth the exclusive list of the deductions that may be taken from gross income in arriving at a party's net income. When the cost of health insurance premiums is treated as an additional expense subject to allocation between the parties under Rule 1910.16-6, it is not deductible from gross income. However, part or all of the cost of health insurance premiums may be deducted from the obligor's gross income pursuant to Rule 1910.16-6(b) in cases in which the obligor is paying the premiums and the obligee has no income or minimal income. Subdivision (c) relates to awards of spousal support or alimony pendente lite when there are multiple families. In these cases, a party's net income must be reduced to account for his or her child support obligations, as well as any pre-existing spousal support, alimony pendente lite or alimony obligations being paid to former spouses who are not the subject of the support action.

Subdivision (d) has been amended to clarify the distinction between voluntary and involuntary changes in income. Since the payment of support is a priority, subsection (1) reflects current case law which, for example, holds that a party's decision to forego current employment in order to further his or her education should be treated no differently than a decision to change jobs or occupations which results in a lower income. Kersey v. Jefferson, 791 A.2d 419 (Pa. Super. Ct. 2002); Grimes v. Grimes, 596 A.2d 240 (Pa. Super. Ct. 1991).

Subdivision (e) has been amended to reflect the updated schedule in Rule 1910.16-3 and the increase in the Self-Support Reserve ("SSR"), formerly referred to as the Computed Allowance Minimum ("CAM"). The schedule now applies to all cases in which the parties' combined net monthly income is $20,000 or less. The upper income limit of the prior schedule was only $15,000. The amount of support at each income level of the schedule also has changed, so the examples in Rule 1910.16-2 were revised to be consistent with the new support amounts.

The SSR is intended to assure that obligors with low incomes retain sufficient income to meet their basic needs and to maintain the incentive to continue employment. When the obligor's net monthly income or earning capacity falls into the shaded area of the schedule, the basic child support obligation can be derived directly from the schedule in Rule 1910.16-3. There is no need to use the formula in Rule 1910.16-4 to calculate the obligor's support obligation because the SSR keeps the amount of the obligation the same regardless of the obligee's income. The obligee's income may be a relevant factor, however, in determining whether to deviate from the basic guideline obligation pursuant to Rule 1910.16-5 and in considering whether to require the obligor to contribute to any additional expenses under Rule 1910.16-6.

Since the schedule in Rule 1910.16-3 sets forth basic child support only, subdivision (e)(1)(B) is necessary to reflect the operation of the SSR in spousal support and alimony pendente lite cases. It adjusts the basic guideline obligation, which would otherwise be calculated under the formula in Rule 1910.16-4, so that the obligor's income does not fall below the SSR amount in these cases.

Previously, the CAM required that the obligor retain at least $550 per month. The SSR now requires that the obligor retain income of at least $748 per month, an amount equal to the 2003 federal poverty level for one person. When the obligor's monthly net income is less than $748, subsection (e)(1)(C) provides that the court must consider the parties' actual living expenses before awarding support. The guidelines assume that at this income level the obligor is barely able to meet basic personal needs. In these cases, therefore, entry of a minimal order may be appropriate. In some cases, it may not be appropriate to order support at all.

The schedule at Rule 1910.16-3 sets forth the presumptive amount of basic child support to be awarded. If the circumstances warrant, the court may deviate from that amount under Rule 1910.16-5 and may also consider a party's contribution to additional expenses, which are typically added to the basic amount of support under Rule 1910.16-6. If, for example, the obligor earns only $800 per month but is living with his or her parents, or has remarried and is living with a fully-employed spouse, the court may consider an upward deviation under Rule 1910.16-5(b)(3) and/or may order the party to contribute to the additional expenses under Rule 1910.16-6. Consistent with the goals of the SSR, however, the court should ensure that the overall support obligation leaves the obligor with sufficient income to meet basic personal needs and to maintain the incentive to continue working so that support can be paid.

Subdivision (e) also reflects the limited application of Melzer v. Witsberger, 505 Pa. 462, 480 A.2d 991 (1984), to cases in which the guidelines cannot be used to establish the child support obligation because the parties' combined income exceeds $20,000 per month. The court must establish a presumptive minimum amount of child support using the guidelines to arrive at that amount. The formula for calculating the presumptive minimum amount provides that the parties' percentage shares should be calculated using their actual combined income rather than the theoretical combined income of only $20,000. In considering whether to award an additional amount of child support, the court must apply the factors set forth in Melzer to all of the parties' combined income, not just the amount over $20,000 per month. It would be improper to apply the formula in Rule 1910.16-4 to the amount of the parties' combined income which exceeds $20,000 per month and award the obligor's percentage share as additional support. Additional support, if any, may be more or less than the percentage share and must be determined, therefore, in accordance with the factors set forth in Melzer. The presumptive minimum shall apply even if the Melzer analysis results in a lower amount.

Rule 1910.16-3. Support Guidelines. Basic Child Support Schedule.

The following schedule sets forth the amounts spent on children in intact families by combined income and number of children. Combined income is on the vertical axis of the schedule and number of children is on the horizontal axis of the schedule. This schedule is used to find the basic child support obligation. Unless otherwise provided in these [Rules] rules, the obligor's share of the basic support obligation shall be computed using the formula set forth in Part I of Rule 1910.16-4.

(c) Substantial or Shared Physical Custody.

(1) [The support guidelines contemplate that the obligor has regular contact, including vacation time, with his or her children, and that he or she makes direct expenditures on behalf of the children.] When[, however,] the children spend 40% or more of their time during the year with the obligor, a rebuttable presumption [exists] arises that the obligor is entitled to a reduction in the basic support obligation to reflect this [additional] time. Except as provided in subsections (2) and (3) below, the reduction shall be calculated pursuant to the formula set forth in Part II of subdivision (a) of this [Rule] rule. For purposes of this provision, the time spent with the children shall be determined by the number of overnights they spend during the year with obligor.

Example. Where the obligor and the obligee have monthly net incomes of $5,000 and $2,300 respectively, their combined child support obligation is $[1,784] 1,548 for two children. Using the income shares formula in Part I, the obligor's share of this obligation is 68%, or $[1,213] 1,053. If the children spend 40% of their time with the obligor, the formula in Part II applies to reduce his or her percentage share of the combined support obligation to 58%, or $[1,034] 898. If the children spend 45% of their time with the obligor, his or her percentage share of the combined obligation is reduced to 53%, or $[945] 820. If the children spend equal time with both parents, the obligor's percentage share is reduced to 48%, or $[856] 743.

(2) Without regard to which parent initiated the support action, when the children spend equal time with both parents, the Part II formula cannot be applied unless the obligor is the parent with the higher income. In no event shall an order be entered requiring the parent with the lower income to pay basic child support to the parent with the higher income. However, nothing in this subdivision shall prevent the entry of an order requiring the parent with less income to contribute to additional expenses pursuant to Rule 1910.16-6. Pursuant to either party's initiating a support action, the trier of fact may enter an order against either party based upon the evidence presented without regard to which party initiated the action. If application of the formula in Part II results in obligee receiving a larger share of the parties' combined income in cases in which the parties share custody equally, then the court shall adjust the support obligation so that the combined income is allocated equally between the two households.

Example 1. Mother and Father have monthly net incomes of $3,000 and $[2,000] 2,700 respectively. Mother has filed for support for the parties' two children with whom they share time equally. Pursuant to the Basic Child Support Schedule at Rule 1910.16-3, the support amount for two children at their parents' combined net income level is $[1,335] 1,302 per month. Mother's share is [60%] 53% of that amount, or $[801] 690. Father's share is [40%] 47%, or $[534] 612. Application of subdivisions a. and b. of the Part II formula results in a 20% reduction in support when each parent spends 50% of the time with the children. Because the parties share custody equally, Mother cannot be the obligee for purposes of the Part II calculation because she has the higher income of the two parents. In these circumstances, although Mother initiated the support action, she would become the obligor even if Father was not filed for support. Father cannot be an obligor in the Part II calculations, nor can the amount of support Mother is obligated to pay to Father be offset by calculating Father's adjusted amount of support under Part II, because a support order cannot be entered against the parent with the lesser income. Using Mother as the obligor, her adjusted percentage share of the basic support amount is [40%] 33% ([60%] 53% - 20% = [40%] 33%). Her adjusted share of the basic support amount is $[534] 430 ([40%] 33% of $[1,335] 1,302). However, instead of $[534] 430 per month, Mother's support obligation would be adjusted to $[500] 150 per month to allocate the parties' combined income equally between the two households. This is the [presumptively correct] presumptive amount of basic support payable to Father under these circumstances.

Example 2. Where the obligor and the obligee have monthly net incomes of $3,000 and $2,500 respectively, their combined child support obligation for two children is $1,268. The obligor's share of this obligation is 55%, or $697. If the children spend equal time with both parents, the formula in Part II results in a support obligation of $444 payable to the obligee. Since this amount gives the obligee $2,944 of the combined income, and leaves the obligor with only $2,556 of the combined income, the obligor's support obligation must be adjusted to $250 to equalize the combined income between the parties' households. This is the presumptive amount of basic support payable to obligee under these circumstances.

(d) Divided or Split Physical Custody.

(1) When calculating a child support obligation, and one or more of the children reside with each party, the court shall offset the parties' respective child support obligations and award the net difference to the obligee as child support. For example, if the parties have three children, one of whom resides with [Husband] Father and two of whom reside with [Wife] Mother, and their net monthly incomes are $1,500 and $800 respectively, [Husband's] Father's child support obligation is calculated as follows. Using the formula with the schedule in Rule 1910.16-3 for two children, [Husband's] Father's support obligation for the two children living with [Wife] Mother is $[508] 513. Using the formula with the schedule in Rule 1910.16-3 for one child, [Wife's] Mother's support obligation for the child living with [Husband] Father is $[188] 199. Subtracting $[188] 199 from $[508] 513 produces a net basic support amount of $[320] 314 payable to [Wife] Mother as child support.

(2) When calculating a combined child support and spousal or [APL] alimony pendente lite obligation, and one or more children reside with each party, the court shall, except as set forth in subdivision (3) below, offset the obligor's spousal and child support obligation with the obligee's child support obligation and award the net difference to the obligee as spousal and child support.

(3) When one or more of the children resides with each party and the obligee's net income is 10% or less of the parties' combined net monthly income, then, in calculating the spousal support or [APL] alimony pendente lite obligation, the court shall deduct from the obligor's income both the support owed for the child or children residing with the obligee, as well as the direct support the obligor provides to the child or children living with the obligor, calculated in accordance with the guidelines as if the child or children were not living with the obligor.

(e) Support Obligations When Custodial Parent Owes Spousal Support. Where children are residing with the spouse obligated to pay spousal support or alimony pendente lite (custodial parent) and the other spouse (non-custodial parent) has a legal obligation to support [these] the children, the guideline amount of spousal support or alimony pendente lite shall be determined by offsetting the non-custodial parent's obligation for support of the children and the custodial parent's obligation of spousal support or alimony pendente lite, and awarding the net difference either to the non-custodial parent as spousal support/alimony pendente lite or to the custodial parent as child support as the circumstances warrant.

The following example uses the formula to show the steps followed to determine the amount of the non-custodial parent's support obligation to the children and the effect of that obligation upon the custodial parent's spousal support obligation. The example assumes that the parties have two children and the non-custodial parent's net monthly income is $1,000 and the custodial [parent to the non-custodial] parent's net monthly income is $2,600. First, determine the spousal support obligation of the custodial parent to the non-custodial parent based upon their net incomes from the formula for spousal support without dependent children, i.e., $640. Second, recompute the net income of the parties assuming the payment of the spousal support so that $640 is deducted from the custodial parent's net income, now $1,960, and added to the non-custodial parent's net income, now $1,640. Third, determine the child support obligation of the non-custodial parent for two children, i.e., $[468] 501. Fourth, determine the recomputed support obligation of the custodial parent to the non-custodial parent by subtracting the non-custodial parent's child support obligation from Step 3 ($[468] 501) from the original support obligation determined in Step 1 ($640). The recomputed spousal support is $[172] 139.

(f) Allocation. Consequences.

(1) An order awarding both spousal and child support may be unallocated or state the amount of support allocable to the spouse and the amount allocable to each child. However, the formula provided by these rules [assume] assumes that an order will be unallocated. Therefore, if the order is to be allocated, the formula set forth in this [Rule] rule shall be utilized to determine the amount of support allocable to the spouse. If allocation of an order utilizing the formula would be inequitable, the court shall make an appropriate [allocation] adjustment. Also, if an order is to be allocated, an adjustment shall be made to the award giving consideration to the federal income tax consequences of an allocated order as may be appropriate under the circumstances. No consideration of federal income tax consequences shall be applied if the order is unallocated or the order is for the spousal support or alimony pendente lite only.

Official Note: The 2005 amendment supersedes Diament v. Diament, 816 A.2d 256 (Pa. Super. Ct. 2003), to the extent that it held that the tax savings from payments for the benefit of a spouse alone or from an unallocated order for the benefit of a spouse and child must be considered in determining the obligor's available net income for support purposes. Rule 1910.16-4(f)(1) states that the guidelines formula assumes that the order will be unallocated. The tax consequences of an order for a spouse alone or an unallocated order for the benefit of a spouse and child have already been built into the formula.

* * * * *

(4) In the event that the obligor defaults on an unallocated order, the court shall allocate the order for collection of child support pursuant to the Internal Revenue Service income tax refund intercept program or for registration and enforcement of the order in another jurisdiction under the Uniform Interstate Family Support Act, 23 Pa.C.S.A. § 7101 et seq. The court shall provide notice of allocation to the parties.

Official Note: This provision is necessary to comply with various state and federal laws relating to the enforcement of child support. It is not intended to affect the tax consequences of an unallocated order.

[Explanatory Comment—1998]

Former Rule 1910.16-4 listed the factors for deviation from the support guidelines. Those factors now appear in Rule 1910.16-5. New Rule 1910.16-4(a) sets forth the income shares formula used to establish the support obligation and consolidates the provisions which formerly appeared in Rule 1910.16-5 relating to use of the formula in special situations. The formula itself has been revised only to conform to the new schedule in Rule 1910.16-3.

Subdivision (b) incorporates former Rule 1910.16-5(e) relating to orders for more than four children. It has been changed only to reflect the expansion of the guidelines from four to six children and the use of the schedule in lieu of the grids.

Subdivision (c) sets forth the method for calculating the presumptively correct amount of support in cases where the obligor spends a substantial amount of time with the children. The method is essentially this: when the obligor spends 40% or more time with the children, his or her percentage share of the combined basic support obligation is reduced by the percentage of time spent over and above the routine partial custody/visitation arrangement. For purposes of applying this method, the Committee has designated 30% time as the routine arrangement and 40% time as the level at which the parties' expenses begin to change significantly enough to warrant a reduction in the basic support obligation. When there is equal time sharing, subsection (2) reduces the support obligation further so that the obligor does not pay more than what is necessary to spread the parties' combined income equally between the two households. Subsection (3) expressly excludes CAM cases from application of this rule. Since the CAM already reduces support to a minimal level, no further reduction should be given for the amount of time spent with the children.

Subdivision (d) is derived from previous Rule 1910.16-5(h) relating to divided or split custody cases. The new provision has been rewritten to update the examples in conformity with the new levels of child support reflected in the schedule. It retains the existing method for offsetting the parties' respective support obligations when one or more of the children reside with each party, but eliminates the exception which previously existed in cases where one party's income was minimal and the other party's income was significantly greater. This exception was confusing as well as erroneous in its suggestion that offsetting should not be used because it would result in less than the full guideline amount of child support being paid to the party with minimal income. To the contrary, the offset method actually works to protect against this result and therefore should be used in these cases.

Subdivision (e) incorporates the substance of former Rule 1910.16-5(j) governing spousal support obligations when the custodial parent owes spousal support. It has been rewritten for greater clarity and the examples have been updated to reflect the new levels of child support and the use of the new schedule.

Subdivision (f)(1) and (2) incorporate verbatim the provisions which formerly appeared in Rule 1910.16-5(f). The guidelines continue to presume that the order will be unallocated for tax purposes. Subsection (3) is new, however, and provides for administrative allocation of the order in two instances: 1) when the obligor defaults on the order and it becomes necessary to collect support by intercepting any income tax refunds that may be due and payable to obligor and 2) when the obligor defaults and the order must be registered in another state under the Uniform Interstate Family Support Act (UIFSA). As the note indicates, this administrative allocation is not intended to affect the tax consequences of the unallocated order.

Explanatory Comment—2000

Subdivision (3) is new and the former subdivision (3) has been renumbered as subdivision (4). The new language is intended to insure alimony tax treatment of unallocated orders pursuant to § 71 of the Internal Revenue Code. A similar change has been made to the form order at Rule 1910.27(e). New Rule 1910.19(d) provides that all spousal support and alimony pendente lite orders terminate upon the death of the payee. Termination of a charging order does not affect arrears existing at that time.

Explanatory Comment—2002

The amendments to this rule add lines in the formula to facilitate calculation of child support pursuant to Rule 1910.16-2(b)(2) when the child is receiving Social Security derivative benefits due to a parent's retirement or disability. A new line also was added to include additional expenses authorized by Rule 1910.16-6 in cases involving spouses only.]

Explanatory Comment—2005

Rule 1910.16-4(a) sets forth the income shares formula used to establish the support obligation. Subdivision (b) provides the method for calculating support for seven or more children as the basic support schedule in Rule 1910.16-3 sets forth the presumptive amount of support for only up to six children.

Subdivision (c) sets forth the method for calculating the presumptive amount of support in cases where the children spend 40% or more of their time during the year with the obligor. When there is equal time sharing, subsection (2) reduces the support obligation further so that the obligor does not pay more than is necessary to equalize the parties' combined income between the two households. Subsection (3) expressly excludes SSR cases from application of this rule. Since the SSR already reduces support to a minimal level, no further reduction should be given for the amount of time spent with the children.

Subdivision (d) relates to the calculation of support in divided or split custody cases. It retains the existing method for offsetting the parties' respective support obligations when one or more of the children resides with each party.

Subdivision (e) governs spousal support obligations when the custodial parent owes spousal support. It has not been amended, other than to update the example to be consistent with the new schedule at Rule 1910.16-3.

In subdivision (f), the guidelines continue to presume that the order will be unallocated for tax purposes. However, new language has been added to subsection (f)(1), and a new Note has been inserted, to clarify that an obligor's tax savings from payment of a spousal support order or an unallocated order for a spouse and child should not be considered in calculating the obligor's available net income for support purposes. Subsection (3) is intended to insure alimony tax treatment of unallocated orders pursuant to § 71 of the Internal Revenue Code. Rule 1910.19(d) provides that all spousal support and alimony pendente lite orders terminate upon the death of the payee. Termination of a charging order does not affect arrears existing at that time. Subsection (4) provides for administrative allocation of the order in two instances: 1) when the obligor defaults on the order and it becomes necessary to collect support by intercepting any income tax refunds that may be due and payable to obligor; and 2) when the obligor defaults and the order must be registered in another state under the Uniform Interstate Family Support Act (UIFSA). As the Note indicates, this administrative allocation is not intended to affect the tax consequences of the unallocated order.

Rule 1910.16-5. Support Guidelines. Deviation.

(a) Deviation. If the amount of support deviates from the amount of support determined by the guidelines, the trier of fact shall specify, in writing, the guideline amount of support, and the reasons for, and findings of fact justifying, the amount of the deviation.

* * * * *

(b) Factors. In deciding whether to deviate from the amount of support determined by the guidelines, the trier of fact shall consider:

* * * * *

(c) Duration. In determining the duration of an award for spousal support or alimony pendente lite, the trier of fact shall consider the period of time during which the parties lived together from the date of marriage to the date of final separation.

Explanatory Comment—[1998] 2005

[As part of the overall reorganization of the support rules, the provisions which formerly appeared in Rule 1910.16-5 have been moved elsewhere. New Rule 1910.16-5 incorporates former Rule 1910.16-4 setting] Rule 1910.16-5 sets forth the factors for deviation from the [presumptively correct] presumptive amount of support. Subdivision (c) and subsection (b)(8) [was added to] permit the court to consider the length of the marriage in determining the amount and duration of a spousal support or alimony pendente lite [case] award. The primary purpose of [this provision] these provisions is to prevent the unfairness that arises in a short-term marriage when the obligor is required to pay support over a substantially longer period of time than the parties were married and there is little or no opportunity for credit for these payments at the time of equitable distribution.

Rule 1910.16-6. Support Guidelines. Adjustments to the Basic Support Obligation.

(a) Child care expenses. Reasonable child care expenses paid by [the custodial] either parent, if necessary to maintain employment or appropriate education in pursuit of income, [are the responsibility of both parents. These expenses] shall be allocated between the parties in proportion to their net incomes and [obligor's share] added to his [or] and her basic support obligation. When [the custodial] a parent is receiving a child care subsidy through the Department of Public Welfare, the expenses to be allocated between the parties shall be the full unsubsidized cost of the child care, not just the amount actually paid by the [custodial] parent receiving the subsidy. However, if allocation of the unsubsidized amount would result in a support order that is overly burdensome to the obligor, deviation pursuant to Rule 1910.16-5 may be warranted.

Example. Mother has primary custody of the parties' two children and Father has partial custody. Mother's monthly net income is $2,000 and Father's is $3,500. At their combined income level of $5,500, the basic monthly child support from the schedule in Rule 1910.16-3 is $1,268 for two children. As Father's income is 64% of the parties' combined income, his share is $812. Mother incurs child care expenses of $400 per month and Father incurs $100 of such expenses each month. The total amount of child care expenses, $500, will be apportioned between the parties, with Father paying 64%, or $320. As he is already paying $100 for child care while the children are in his partial custody, he would pay the remaining $220 to Mother for a total child support obligation of $1,032 ($812 + $220 = $1,032).

(1) Except as provided in subsection (2), the total child care expenses shall be reduced to reflect the amount of the federal child care tax credit available to the [custodial] eligible parent, whether or not the credit is actually claimed by that parent, up to the maximum annual cost allowable under the Internal Revenue Code.

(2) The federal child care tax credit shall not be used to reduce the child care expenses subject to allocation between the parties if the [custodial] eligible parent is not qualified to receive the credit.

Official Note: A child care subsidy provided by the Department of Public Welfare should not be used to reduce the child care expenses subject to allocation between the parties to the extent that the obligor has the financial resources to contribute to the actual costs of child care. Nor is it appropriate to order the obligee to seek a child care subsidy in order to reduce the obligor's share of child care expenses if the obligor has the financial ability to contribute to those expenses. While public policy requires that parents, rather than taxpayers, pay for their children's child care when they are able to do so, allocation of the full unsubsidized cost of child care may result in a support order that is overly burdensome to the obligor. In those circumstances, in addition to considering deviation to relieve the burden on the obligor, the trier of fact also has the discretion to determine whether or not to include in the order other adjustments under Rule 1910.16-6, such as a mortgage contribution, which are not mandatory. No adjustment to the [basicsupport] basic support amount shall be permitted if such would cause the obligor's remaining net monthly income to fall below the [Computed Allowance Minimum (CAM) of $550] Self-Support Reserve of $748. Implicit in the rule requiring apportionment of the unsubsidized cost of child care is recognition of the duty of the subsidy recipient to report any additional income pursuant to Department of Public Welfare regulations so that adjustments can be made to entitlements accordingly.

* * * * *

(c) Unreimbursed Medical Expenses. Unreimbursed medical expenses of the obligee or the children shall be allocated between the parties in proportion to their respective net incomes. Notwithstanding the prior sentence, there shall be no apportionment of unreimbursed medical expenses incurred by a party who is not owed a statutory duty of support by the other party. The court may direct that the obligor's share be added to his or her basic support obligation, or paid directly to the obligee or to the health care provider.

(1) For purposes of this subdivision, medical expenses are annual unreimbursed medical expenses in excess of $250 per person. Medical expenses include insurance co-payments and deductibles and all expenses incurred for reasonably necessary medical services and supplies, including but not limited to surgical, dental and optical services, and orthodontia. Medical expenses do not include cosmetic, chiropractic, psychiatric [or], psychological or other services unless specifically directed in the order of court.

Official Note: While cosmetic, chiropractic, psychiatric [and], psychological or other expenses are not required to be apportioned between the parties, the court may apportion such expenses that it determines to be reasonable and appropriate under the circumstances.

* * * * *

(e) Mortgage Payment. The guidelines assume that the spouse occupying the marital residence will be solely responsible for the mortgage payment, real estate taxes, and homeowners' insurance. Similarly, the court will assume that the party occupying the marital residence will be paying the items listed unless the recommendation specifically provides otherwise. If the obligee is living in the marital residence and the mortgage payment exceeds 25% of the obligee's net income (including amounts of spousal support, [APL] alimony pendente lite and child support), the court [maydirect] may direct the obligor to assume up to 50% of the excess amount as part of the total support award. For purposes of this subdivision, the term "mortgage" shall include first mortgages, real estate taxes and homeowners' insurance and may include any subsequent mortgages, home equity loans and any other obligations incurred during the marriage which are secured by the marital residence.

[Explanatory Comment—1998]

New Rule 1910.16-6 consolidates the provisions of former Rule 1910.16-5 governing the treatment of additional expenses that warrant an adjustment to the basic support obligation.

Subdivision (a) relating child care expenses substantially incorporates former subdivision (i) of Rule 1910.16-5 with two substantive changes. First, it changes the method of allocation from one of equal shares to proportionate shares based on the parties' net incomes. Second, it reflects the federal child care tax credit that is available to the custodial parent. This credit essentially reduces the total expenses subject to allocation. For tax purposes, the actual credit can range anywhere from 20 to 30 percent depending on the custodial parent's income. For support purposes, however, the Rule assumes an average tax credit of 25 percent. Although the court may always look at the actual tax rate that applies in a particular case, it will have very little impact on the overall support award.

There are two important limitations on the use of this tax credit. First, it applies only to the first $2,400 per year ($200 per month) for one child or $4,800 per year ($400 per month) for two or more children. Only child care expenses incurred up to these amounts, therefore, are reduced by 25% before allocating them between the parties. Any remaining expenses are allocated between the parties without adjustment. Second, since the tax credit may be taken only against taxes owed, it cannot be used when the custodial parent does not incur sufficient tax liability to fully realize the credit. For this reason, subsection (2) provides that no adjustment to the total child care expenses may be made if the custodial parent's gross income falls below the thresholds set forth therein. The income thresholds are based on 1997 tax rates.

Subdivision (b) reflects a major change in the treatment of health insurance premiums. Under the old rules, the cost of health insurance was deducted from the party's gross income to determine net income. Under the new Rule, this cost is now generally treated as an additional expense to be allocated between the parties in proportion to their net incomes. In addition, subsection (1) of the new Rule permits allocation of the entire premium, including the party's portion of the premium, when the insurance benefits the other party or the children. Subsection (2) provides for proration of the premium when the health insurance covers other persons who are not subject to the support action.

Subdivision (c) incorporates former Rule 1910.16-5(p) with four changes. First, since the first $250 of medical expenses per year per child is built into the basic guideline amount in the child support schedule, only medical expenses in excess of $250 per year per child are subject to allocation under this Rule as an additional expense to be added to the basic support obligation. Second, the Committee has chosen to draw this same line with respect to spousal support so that the obligee-spouse is expected to assume the first $250 per year of these expenses and may seek contribution under this Rule only for unreimbursed expenses which exceed $250 per year. The third change amends the definition of "medical expenses" to include insurance co-payments, deductibles and orthodontia and to exclude chiropractic services. The fourth change distinguishes between medical expenses which are recurring and predictable and those which are not.

When the expenses are recurring and predictable, the court may establish a monthly amount for these expenses and add it to the basic support obligation so that it is collectible through wage attachment.

Subdivision (d) governs apportionment of private school tuition, summer camp and other unusual needs not reflected in the basic guideline amounts of support. Whereas the old rule required these expenses to be borne by the parties in reasonable shares, the new Rule presumes allocation in proportion to the parties' net incomes consistent with the treatment of the other additional expenses.

Subdivision (b) has been amended to permit an alternative method for dealing with the cost of health insurance premiums in certain circumstances. In general, the cost of the premiums will be treated as an additional expense to be allocated between the parties in proportion to their net incomes. However, in cases in which the obligee has no income or minimal income, new subsection (4) authorizes the trier of fact to reduce the obligor's gross income for support purposes by some or all of the amount of the health insurance premiums. Under this subdivision (b) as originally promulgated, the entire cost of health insurance would have been borne by the obligor when the obligee had little or no income, with no resulting reduction in the amount of support he or she would otherwise be required to pay under the support guidelines. The goal of the amendment to this subdivision is to encourage and facilitate the maintenance of health insurance coverage for dependents by giving the obligor a financial incentive to maintain health insurance coverage.

Subdivision (e) has been amended to correct a drafting error in the definition of "mortgage". It always was the intention of the Committee to include in the definition the real estate taxes and homeowners' insurance referenced in the first sentence of the rule. In addition, while real estate taxes and homeowners' insurance must now be included if the trier of fact applies the provisions of this subdivision, the inclusion of second mortgages, home equity loans and other obligations secured by the marital residence is within the discretion of the trier of fact based upon the circumstances of the case.]

Rule 1910.16-6 governs the treatment of additional expenses that warrant an adjustment to the basic support obligation.

Subdivision (a)[,] relates to child care expenses. Subdivision (a) has been amended to require that child care expenses incurred by either party are to be allocated between the parties in proportion to their respective net incomes. Subsection (a)(1), relating to the federal child care tax credit, [has been] was amended in 2004 to reflect recent amendments to the Internal Revenue Code. 26 U.S.C.A. § 21. By referring to the tax code in general, rather than incorporating current code provisions in the rule, any further amendments will be incorporated into the support calculation. Since the tax credit may be taken only against taxes owed, it cannot be used when the eligible parent does not incur sufficient tax liability to fully realize the credit. For this reason, subsection (2) provides that no adjustment to the total child care expenses may be made if the eligible parent does not qualify to receive the credit.

Subdivision (b) addresses health insurance premiums. The cost of the premiums is generally treated as an additional expense to be allocated between the parties in proportion to their net incomes. Subsection (1) of the rule permits allocation of the entire premium, including the portion of the premium covering the party carrying the insurance, when the insurance benefits the other party and/or the children. Subsection (2) clarifies that, in calculating the amount of the health care premium to be allocated between the parties, subdivision (b)(1) requires the inclusion of that portion of the health insurance premium covering the party who is paying the premium, so long as there is a statutory duty of support owed to that party, but not the portion of the premium attributable to non-parties and children who are not the subjects of the support order. Subsection (2) provides for proration of the premium when the health insurance covers other persons who are not subject to the support action or owed a statutory duty of support. Subdivision (b) also permits an alternative method for dealing with the cost of health insurance premiums in certain circumstances. While, in general, the cost of the premiums will be treated as an additional expense to be allocated between the parties in proportion to their net incomes, in cases in which the obligee has no income or minimal income, subsection (4) authorizes the trier of fact to reduce the obligor's gross income for support purposes by some or all of the amount of the health insurance premiums. This is to avoid the result under a prior rule in which the entire cost of health insurance would have been borne by the obligor, with no resulting reduction in the amount of support he or she would otherwise be required to pay under the support guidelines. The goal of this provision is to encourage and facilitate the maintenance of health insurance coverage for dependents by giving the obligor a financial incentive to maintain health insurance coverage.

Subdivision (c) deals with unreimbursed medical expenses. Since the first $250 of medical expenses per year per child is built into the basic guideline amount in the child support schedule, only medical expenses in excess of $250 per year per child are subject to allocation under this rule as an additional expense to be added to the basic support obligation. The same is true with respect to spousal support so that the obligee-spouse is expected to assume the first $250 per year of these expenses and may seek contribution under this rule only for unreimbursed expenses which exceed $250 per year. The definition of "medical expenses" includes insurance co-payments, deductibles and orthodontia and excludes chiropractic services.

Subdivision (d) governs apportionment of private school tuition, summer camp and other unusual needs not reflected in the basic guideline amounts of support. The rule presumes allocation in proportion to the parties' net incomes consistent with the treatment of the other additional expenses.

Subdivision (e) provides for the apportionment of mortgage expenses. It defines "mortgage" to include the real estate taxes and homeowners' insurance. While real estate taxes and homeowners' insurance must be included if the trier of fact applies the provisions of this subdivision, the inclusion of second mortgages, home equity loans and other obligations secured by the marital residence is within the discretion of the trier of fact based upon the circumstances of the case.

Rule 1910.16-7. Support Guidelines. Awards of Child Support When There are Multiple Families.

(a) When the total of the obligor's basic child support obligations equals fifty percent or less of his or her monthly net income, there will generally be no deviation from the guideline amount of support on the ground of the existence of a new family. For example, where the obligor requests a reduction of support for one child of the first marriage on the basis that there is a new child of the second intact marriage, and the relevant monthly net incomes are $[1,500] 2,500 for the obligor, $500 for the former spouse and $1,300 for the current spouse, the request for a reduction will be denied because the total support obligation of $[707] 1,142 ($[354] 601 for the first child and $[353] 541 for the second child) is less than half of the obligor's monthly net income.

(b) When the total of the obligor's basic support obligations exceeds fifty percent of his or her monthly net income, the court may consider a proportional reduction of these obligations. Since, however, the goal of the guidelines is to treat each child equitably, in no event should either a first or later family receive preference. Nor shall the court divide the guideline amount for all of the obligor's children among the households in which those children live.

Example 1. [Obligor] The obligor is sued for support of an out of wedlock child. [Obligor] The obligor is already paying support for two children of the first marriage, and has an intact second marriage with one child. The relevant monthly net incomes are $1,500 for the obligor, $1,100 for the former spouse, $0 for the current spouse and $1,500 for the parent of the new child. The guideline amounts for each family are $[504] 514 for the two children of the first marriage, $[359] 386 for the one child of the second marriage, and $[332] 362 for the one child out of wedlock for a total support obligation of $[1,195] 1,262. Since the total of these obligations exceeds fifty percent of the obligor's net monthly income of $1,500 per month, the court may consider a proportional reduction of all of the orders.

Example 2. [Obligor] The obligor is sued for support of three children of a second marriage. There is already an order in effect for two children of the first marriage. The relevant monthly net incomes are $1,000 for the obligor, $0 for the first spouse and $500 for the second spouse. The guideline amounts for each family are $[308] 229 for the two children of the first marriage and $[347] 422 for the three children of the second marriage for a total support obligation of $[655] 651. Since this total obligation leaves the obligor with only $[345] 349 on which to live, the order for the three children of the second family is too high. However, reducing the order for three children while leaving the existing order intact would give preference to the first family, contrary to the rule. Therefore, both orders must be reduced proportionally.

Example 3. [Obligor] The obligor is sued to establish orders for three children born out of wedlock. The net monthly incomes for the obligor and for each obligee is $1,500. The court would determine that the guideline figure for each child is $[322] 362 for a total obligation of $[966] 1,086 for three children. It would be incorrect to determine the guideline amount for three children, in this case $[664] 724, and then divide that amount among the three children.

(c) For purposes of this [Rule] rule, the [presumptively correct total] presumptive amount of the obligor's basic support [obligations] obligation is calculated using only the basic guideline amounts of support, as determined from the formula in Rule 1910.16-4, and does not include any additional expenses that may be added to these amounts pursuant to Rule 1910.16-6. In calculating the [presumptively correct total] presumptive amount of the obligor's basic support [obligations] obligation, the court should ensure that the obligor retains at least $[550] 748 per month consistent with Rule 1910.16-2(e).

Example 1. Assume that the obligor is paying $[291] 591 per month support for one child of the first marriage, plus an additional $[50] 200 per month for child care expenses. [Obligor] The obligor requests a reduction in this support obligation on the basis that there is one new child of the second intact marriage. The relevant incomes are $[1,200] 2,400 for the obligor and $0 for both the former and current spouses. [Obligor's] The obligor's request for a reduction should be denied because the total of the basic guideline obligations for both children is only $[582] 1,182 ($[291] 591 for each child) and this amount does not exceed 50% of the obligor's net monthly income. No reduction should be given on the basis that the obligor's contribution to child care expenses for the first child results in an overall support obligation of $[632] 1,382 which exceeds 50% of the obligor's net monthly income. Thus, the [presumptively correct] presumptive amount of basic support for the two children is still $[582] 1,182 ($[291] 591 for each child). The court must then consider the deviation factors under Rule 1910.16-5 and the [parties's] parties' respective contributions to additional expenses under Rule 1910.16-6 in arriving at an appropriate amount of total support for each child.

Example 2. Assume that the obligor is paying $[244] 227 per month support for one child of the first marriage. [Obligor] The obligor has one new child of the second intact marriage. The relevant incomes are $1,000 for the obligor and $0 for both the former and current spouses. No reduction should be given on the basis of the obligor's new child because the total of the basic guideline obligations for both children is only $[488] 454 ($[244] 227 for each child) and this amount does not exceed 50% of the obligor's net monthly income. Since, however, this amount leaves the obligor with only $[512] 546 per month, the court should proportionally reduce the support obligations so that the obligor retains $[550] 748 per month. Thus, the [presumptively correct] presump- tive amount of basic support for the two children is $[450] 252 ($[225] 126 for each child). The court must then consider the deviation factors under Rule 1910.16-5 and the parties' respective contributions to additional expenses under Rule 1910.16-6 in arriving at an appropriate amount of total support for each child.

(d) When an obligor is subject to more than one order for child support, spousal support and/or alimony pendente lite, the priority for distribution of payments and/or collections from the obligor, without regard to the source of the funds or method of collection, are as follows unless the court specifically orders a different distribution priority:

Explanatory Comment—[1998] 2005

Rule 1910.16-7 has been amended to reflect the updated schedule at Rule 1910.16-3 and the increase in the Self-Support Reserve ("SSR"), formerly the CAM, to $748 per month. This [new Rule replaces former Rule 1910.16-5(n) relating to] rule sets forth the calculation of child support obligations in the context of multiple families. [It has been rewritten for clarity and to update the examples used to illustrate the method for calculating these obligations.] Awards of spousal support in this context are [now] addressed in Rule 1910.16-2(c)(2).

In determining whether the total support obligations exceed 50% of the obligor's net income to warrant a proportionate reduction of the child support orders, subdivision (c) [has been added to clarify] clarifies that the total consists only of the basic amounts of child support, as derived from the income shares formula in Rule 1910.16-4, and does not include additional expenses that may be added to these basic amounts under Rule 1910.16-6. As the first example illustrates, no reduction should be given if the basic support obligations do not exceed 50% of the obligor's net monthly income even though his or her contribution to additional expenses may result in an overall obligation exceeding this percentage of income. As the second example illustrates, however, in low income cases it may be necessary to adjust the child support obligations proportionally even though they do not exceed 50% of the obligor's net income. This is consistent with the goals of [CAM] the SSR to ensure that the obligor retains sufficient income to maintain the incentive to work so that he or she can support all of the children.

Subdivision (c) also emphasizes that the initial amounts which are calculated for purposes of determining whether a proportional reduction is warranted are only [presumptively correct] presumptive amounts of child support. They are subject to upward or downward adjustment under Rules 1910.16-5 and 1910.16-6 relating to deviation and additional child-related expenses which are typically added to the basic obligation. This is intended only to emphasize that the establishment of appropriate support obligations for children of different families involves the same considerations as the establishment of a support obligation for a child or children of a single family.

Subdivision (d) addresses the priority of the distribution of payments and collections. However, collections realized through the interception of federal tax returns by the Internal Revenue Service are subject to federal distribution priorities. See 45 CFR 303.72(h).

Title 234—RULES OF CRIMINAL PROCEDURE

[234 PA. CODE CH. 1]

Proposed Amendments to Pa.R.Crim.P. 107

The Criminal Procedural Rules Committee is planning to recommend that the Supreme Court of Pennsylvania amend Pa.R.Crim.P. 107 (Contents of Subpoena) to clarify the procedures for issuance of subpoenas by the judges of the courts of common pleas, the Philadelphia Municipal Court, and the minor judiciary. This supplemental proposal, which modifies the original proposal published in 35 Pa.B. 1556 (3/5/05) and in the Atlantic Reporter advanced sheets at 865 A.2d (3/4/05), resulted from the Committee's further review of the proposed rule changes in response to the extensive correspondence received after publication of our original explanatory Report. This proposal has not been submitted for review by the Supreme Court of Pennsylvania.

The following explanatory Supplemental Report highlights the Committee's considerations in formulating this proposal. Please note that the Committee's Supplemental Report should not be confused with the official Committee Comments to the rules. Also note that the Supreme Court does not adopt the Committee's Comments or the contents of the explanatory Supplemental Reports.

The text of the proposed amendments precedes the Supplemental Report.

We request that interested persons submit suggestions, comments, or objections concerning this proposal in writing to the Committee through counsel, than the commencement of the hearing. Filing under this paragraph may be accomplished by sending a copy by facsimile transmission.

(C) Contents of Subpoena

A subpoena in a criminal case shall:

(1) order the witness named to appear before the common pleas court or magisterial district court at the date, time, and place specified, and to bring any items identified or described[. The subpoena shall also];

(2) state on whose behalf the witness is being ordered to testify [and];

(3) state the name and address for service on the person being subpoenaed; and

(4) state the [identity] name and attorney identification number, address, and phone number of the attorney, if any, who issued the subpoena pursuant to paragraph (B)(1) or applied for the subpoena pursuant to paragraph (B)(2).

Comment

[The form of subpoena was deleted in 1985 because it is no longer necessary to control the specific form of subpoena by rule.]

It is intended that the subpoena [shall] will be used not only for [trial] summary trials or trials in the courts of common pleas and the Philadelphia Municipal Court, but also for any other stage of the proceedings before the minor judiciary, Philadelphia Municipal Court, or common pleas court when a subpoena is issuable, including preliminary hearings, hearings in connection with pretrial and post-trial motions, etc.

The subpoenas issued by the judges of the Philadelphia Municipal Court should be issued pursuant to paragraph (A).

Paragraph (B)(1) authorizes an attorney for the Commonwealth or an attorney for the defendant to complete, sign, and issue subpoenas under the authority of the court in all cases in the magisterial district courts, and requires that subpoenas issued by an attorney on behalf of a magisterial district court be on a designated form. An attorney may not use a blank subpoena form from the court of common pleas. It is intended that the magisterial district court blank subpoena forms will be readily available for use by attorneys.

There is no provision for the court to review or approve prior to issuance a subpoena issued by an attorney under paragraph (B)(1). The authority to issue subpoenas given to attorneys under this paragraph carries with it the responsibility to use good judgment and to make every effort to limit the scope of subpoenas to persons, documents, or things that are relevant to the cause of action before the magisterial district judge.

For a suggested form of certificate of service to use as required in paragraph (B)(4), see Rule 576(B)(4) and Comment. The copy of the subpoena required to be filed under paragraph (B)(3) and the certificate of service required to be filed under paragraph (B)(4) may be filed simultaneously.

Nothing in this rule is intended to preclude the attorney from proceeding pursuant to paragraph (B)(2) and requesting that the magisterial district judge complete, sign, and issue the subpoena.

When the subpoena is for the production of documents, records, or things, these should be specified.

When issuing a subpoena pursuant to paragraph (B)(2), the issuing authority may limit the scope of the subpoena to persons, documents, or things that are relevant to the cause of action before the issuing authority.

All subpoenas issued pursuant to paragraph (A) or paragraph (B)(2) must be signed by a judge of the court issuing the subpoena. The signature may be in any of the forms of signature authorized in the Rule 103 definition of "signature."

The requirements in paragraph (B)(3) for the service of the subpoena are the same as the requirements for service of a subpoena in a civil matter pursuant to Pa.R.C.P.M.D.J. No. 214(c) (Subpoena; Issuance; Service).

See 42 Pa.C.S. § 1725.1 concerning costs to be charged by the minor judiciary.

For the scope of the contempt powers of magisterial district judges, see 42 Pa.C.S. § 4137. See also Rules 140-142.

SUPPLEMENTAL REPORT

Proposed Amendments to Pa.R.Crim.P. 107

Procedures for Issuance and Service of Subpoena

I. Introduction

The Criminal Procedural Rules Committee's original proposal¹ was for amendments to Rule 107 (Contents of Subpoena) that would distinguish between the procedures for issuance of subpoenas by the court of common pleas and issuance of subpoenas by the minor judiciary. In this Supplemental Report, the Committee is explaining several changes to the proposed Rule 107 amendments.²

The core of the proposal as published remains the same.³ The changes in this supplemental proposal address the major issues raised in the publication responses, and include some fine tuning by the Committee. Briefly, these changes:

¹ See 35 Pa.B. 1556 (3/5/05) and the Atlantic Reporter advanced sheets, 865 A.2d (3/4/05).

² As with the original proposal, a joint subcommittee of the Minor Court Rules Committee and Criminal Rules Committee was formed to assist the two Committees in addressing the issues raised by the publication responses, in particular the issue of blank subpoenas. The Joint Subcommittee's recommendations have been approved for publication by both Committees.

³ See the Committee's March 2005 explanatory Report, supra., for the explanation of the development and the contents of the proposal.

- permit an attorney, as an officer of the court, to sign and issue a subpoena on behalf of the magisterial district court;
- require that the subpoena issued by an attorney be in the form designated for use in magisterial district courts and these forms must be readily available;
- require the attorney-issued subpoena to include all the information required by paragraph (C) of Rule 107, and to include a statement advising the individual subpoenaed that any questions about or challenges to the subpoena must be directed to the attorney;
- require that a copy of the subpoena be filed with the proper magisterial district judge within 48 hours of service and in no event later than the commencement of the hearing;
- permit the attorney to elect to proceed pursuant to Rule 107(B)(2) and have the magisterial district judge complete, sign, and issue the subpoena;
- add to the Comment cross-references to 42 Pa.C.S. § 4137 and Pa.Rs.Crim. P. 140-142 concerning the magisterial district judge contempt powers;
- require that a written proof of service be filed; and
- because the rules will permit the attorneys to issue the subpoenas and the magisterial district court subpoena forms will be readily available, include in the Rule 107 Comment a prohibition on attorneys using the subpoena forms that are used in the court of common pleas for subpoenaing individuals to magisterial court proceedings.

II. Discussion of Proposed Rule Changes

Proposed Rule 107(A) provides the procedures for the issuance of a subpoena by the court of common pleas. This paragraph is the same as was originally published.

Paragraph (B) provides the procedures for the issuance of a subpoena in cases pending before the minor judiciary. Because of the concerns raised in the publication responses about the provision in the original proposal that required the magisterial district judges to issue subpoenas in blank when requested by an attorney, the Committee is proposing as new paragraph (B)(1) a completely new approach that permits an attorney as an officer of the court to sign and issue a subpoena on behalf of the magisterial district court in which the proceeding is pending.⁴ A cautionary provision has been added to the Comment explaining to these attorneys, when exercising their new authority to issue subpoenas in cases before the minor judiciary, that they should exercise good judgment.⁵

Paragraph (B)(1)(a) requires that, if the attorney is going to issue the subpoena, he or she must use the form of subpoena designated for use in magisterial district courts. The Comment explains that the attorney may no longer use a common pleas court form of subpoena in cases in the magisterial district courts.

Paragraph (B)(1)(b) addresses the contents of the attorney-issued subpoena. This paragraph includes a cross-reference to paragraph (C) for the mandatory contents of the subpoena. The provision also requires that the attorney-issued subpoena include notice to the subpoenaed individual that all questions about or challenges to the subpoena must be directed to the issuing attorney, not the magisterial district judge. This new provision recognizes that, when the attorney issues the subpoena, the attorney assumes all responsibility for that subpoena.

⁴ The authority of attorneys, as officers of the court, to issue subpoenas has been recognized for a number of years in the Federal Courts in paragraph (D)(3) of F.R.Civ.P. 45 (Subpoena).

⁵ This provision is reflective of the responsibilities imposed on attorneys by Rule 4.4 of the Rules of Profession Conduct.

Paragraph (B)(1)(c) requires that a copy of the attorney-issued subpoena be filed in the magisterial district court in which the proceeding is pending within 48 hours of service, but in no event later than the commencement of the proceeding. This requirement was added to ensure the magisterial district judges have copies of all subpoenas for the court's records. To accommodate the attorneys and the magisterial district judges, the rule permits these filings to be accomplished by facsimile transmission.

Paragraph (B)(2) sets forth the procedures for the issuance of subpoenas by members of the minor judiciary. Agreeing that there may be cases in which an attorney would not want to issue a subpoena pursuant to paragraph (B)(1), the Committee has modified paragraph (B)(2) to accommodate these attorneys. In all other respects, this paragraph is the same as was published.

Paragraphs (B)(3) and (B)(4) are new and address service of the subpoenas, whether the subpoena was issued by an attorney or a magisterial district judge. For the service procedures, the published version of Rule 107 had merely included a cross-reference to PA.R.C.P.D.J. NO. 214(C). On reflection, the Committee agreed listing the service requirements in Rule 107(B)(3) and including the cross-reference in the Comment to Rule 214(c) as the derivation of these requirements makes more sense and is more "user friendly." Paragraph (B)(4) requires that the person serving the subpoena also must file a certificate of service in the magisterial district court in which the hearing is pending.⁶ Tying the time for this filing to the filing requirement in paragraph (B)(1)(c), the certificate of service must be filed within 48 hours of service and in no event later than the commencement of the proceeding. The certificate of service may be filed by facsimile transmission. The Comment explains that the form of certificate of service that is set forth in the Rule 576 Comment is an example of the type of certificate of service that should be filed under paragraph (B)(4). The Comment also explains that the copy of the subpoena and the certificate of service may be filed simultaneously.

Finally, paragraph (C) has been amended from the published version by adding the requirement that the attorney issuing the subpoena or requesting a subpoena must include his or her attorney identification number on the subpoena.

When it is necessary to give constitutional warnings to a witness, the warnings and the oath must be administered by the court. As to warnings that the court may have to give to the witness when the witness is sworn, see, e.g., Commonwealth v. McCloskey, 443 Pa. 117, 277 A.2d 764 (Pa. 1971).

Administration of the Oath to Investigating Grand Jury Witnesses

On September 30, 2005, effective February 1, 2006, upon the recommendation of the Criminal Procedural Rules Committee, the Court amended Rule 227 (Administering Oath to Witness) to make the rule clear that (1) when it is necessary to give constitutional warnings to a witness who will testify in an investigating grand jury proceeding, the warnings and the oath must be administered by the supervising judge, and (2) for all other witnesses in the investigating grand jury proceeding, a court representative, who is authorized to administer oaths, is permitted to administer the oath.

When the Committee originally proposed Rule 227 in 1978, the impetus for the requirement that the court administer the oath to witnesses was concerns about the warnings and instructions that should be given to a witness prior to testifying. The decision to add to Rule 227 the requirement that the oath be administered by the court relied on Commonwealth v. McCloskey, 443 Pa. 117, 277 A.2d 764 (Pa. 1971), in which the Supreme Court stated, inter alia, that "the proper procedure is for the court supervising the investigating grand jury to instruct the witness when administering the oath" about the right to counsel.

In view of this history, the Committee concluded the "sworn by the court" requirement only applies to witnesses who also must be given warnings at the time the oath is administered. The Committee also noted the witnesses who do not require constitutional warnings in most cases are law enforcement officers or other individuals involved in the investigation, and to require them to appear before the supervising judge to be sworn, which is frequently hours before the witness is to testify, is inefficient, an inconvenience to the law enforcement officers, an economic and staffing burden on their departments, and serves no purpose.

Accordingly, in view of these considerations and the rule history, Rule 227 has been amended by deleting the phrase "by the court" to allow any court official who is authorized to administer oaths to administer the oath to the investigating grand jury witnesses who do not require constitutional warnings. This change promotes judicial economy and benefits these other witnesses who would be able to appear at the time scheduled for their testimony rather than at the time the supervising judge is available for the administration of oaths. In addition, a cautionary provision is added to the second paragraph of the Comment that explains when it is necessary to give constitutional warnings to a witness, the warnings and oath must be administered by the court.

Proposed Amendments to Rule 214 of the Rules of Conduct, Office Standards and Civil Procedure for Magisterial District Judges

The Minor Court Rules Committee is planning to recommend that the Supreme Court of Pennsylvania amend Rule 214 of the Rules of Conduct, Office Standards and Civil Procedure for Magisterial District Judges to provide, in certain circumstances, for the issuance of subpoenas by attorneys. TITLE 246. MINOR COURT CIVIL RULES

PART I. GENERAL

CHAPTER 200. RULES OF CONSTRUCTION; GENERAL PROVISIONS

Rule 214. Subpoena; Issuance; Service.

* * * * *

B. (1) The attorney of record for a party, as an officer of the court, may issue a subpoena on behalf of the magisterial district court in which the hearing is pending.

(a) The subpoena must be in the form designated for use in magisterial district courts.

(b) The issuing attorney must complete the subpoena with the information required in paragraph B(3) before the subpoena is served. The subpoena also shall include notice to the individual subpoenaed to contact the issuing attorney with any questions about or challenges to the subpoena.

(c) A subpoena issued under this paragraph shall be signed by issuing attorney.

(d) The issuing attorney must file a copy of the subpoena in the magisterial district court in which the hearing is pending within 48 hours of service, and in no event later than the commencement of the hearing. Filing under this paragraph may be accomplished by sending a copy by facsimile transmission.

(2) Upon the request of a party proceeding pro se or an attorney of record who elects to proceed under this paragraph, the magisterial district judge may issue a subpoena [signed and under the seal of the magisterial district judge]. [The magisterial district judge shall specify in the subpoena the name and address for service of the person subpoenaed; the date, time, and place at which the person is to appear; and a description of the documents or things that the person is to produce, if any.]

(a) The party or attorney of record requesting the subpoena shall provide the magisterial district judge with the information required in paragraph B(3).

(b) If the subpoena is to be issued, the magisterial district judge shall fill in the information provided.

(c) A subpoena issued under this paragraph shall be signed by and under the seal of the magisterial district judge.

(3) In addition to the requirements of paragraphs (1) and (2), a subpoena shall specify:

(a) The name and address for service of the person being subpoenaed.

(b) The name of the party on whose behalf the person is being ordered to testify.

(c) The name, attorney identification number, address, and telephone number of the attorney of record, if any, who issued the subpoena under paragraph B(1) or applied for the subpoena under paragraph B(2).

(d) The date, time, and place at which the person is to appear.

(e) A description of the documents or things that the person is to produce, if any.

* * * * *

D. The person making service of a subpoena must file a return of service in the same manner provided under Rule 314A in the magisterial district court in which the hearing is pending within 48 hours of service, and in no event later than the commencement of the hearing. Filing under this paragraph may be accomplished by sending a copy by facsimile transmission.

Official Note: See Rule 202 for definition of "subpoena." Compare Pa.R.C.P. Nos. 234.2 and 402(a) and Pa.R.Crim.P. 107.

Paragraph (B)(1) authorizes an attorney of record for a party to complete, sign, and issue subpoenas under the authority of the court in all cases governed by these rules in the magisterial district courts. Subpoenas issued by an attorney on behalf of a magisterial district court must be on a designated form. An attorney may not use a blank subpoena form from the court of common pleas. It is intended that the magisterial district court blank subpoena forms will be readily available for use by attorneys.

There is no provision for the court to review or approve prior to issuance a subpoena issued by an attorney under paragraph B(1). The authority to issue subpoenas given to attorneys under this paragraph carries with it a responsibility to use good judgment and to make every effort to limit the scope of subpoenas to persons, documents, or things that are relevant to the cause of action before the magisterial district judge.

Nothing in this rule is intended to preclude the attorney from proceeding under paragraph B(2) and requesting that the magisterial district judge complete, sign, and issue the subpoena.

[The] When issuing a subpoena under paragraph B(2) the magisterial district judge has discretion to limit the scope of [subpoenas] the subpoena to persons, documents, or things that are relevant to the cause of action before the magisterial district judge.

[Magisterial district judges may not issue subpoenas in blank.]

The copy of the subpoena required to be filed under paragraph B(1)(d) and the return of service required to be filed under paragraph D may be filed simultaneously.

Paragraphs B(1)(d) and D provide for filing by facsimile transmission. It is the intent of these rules that filing documents by facsimile transmission is permitted only when expressly provided for in the rules.

See Pa.C.S. § 1725.1 concerning costs to be charged by magisterial district courts.

For the scope of the contempt powers of magisterial district judges, see 42 Pa.C.S. § 4137. See also Pa.R.Crim.P. 140-142.

SUPPLEMENTAL REPORT

Proposed Amendments to Rule 214 of the Rules of Conduct, Office Standards and Civil Procedure for Magisterial District Judges

Issuance of Blank Subpoenas

I. Background

The Minor Court Rules Committee (the Committee) undertook a review of the rules relating to subpoenas, and specifically the issue of whether magisterial district judges may issue subpoenas in blank, at the direction of the Supreme Court of Pennsylvania. In In Re: District Justice Sandra L. Stevanus, No. 60 WM 2003, the Supreme Court was asked to issue a writ of mandamus directing Judge Stevanus to issue blank subpoenas to a defense attorney in a criminal case that was pending in her court. Judge Stevanus refused to issue the blank subpoenas, contending that the party requesting a subpoena must provide the magisterial district court with the information needed to complete the subpoena before the subpoena is issued. In its November 12, 2003 order denying the petition for writ of mandamus, the Supreme Court ordered that “[t]he Criminal Rules Committee, in consultation with the Minor Rules Committee, is hereby directed to study the question of whether District Justices may issue subpoenas in blank.”

Initially, the Committee published a proposal that would have required a magisterial district judge to issue a blank subpoena upon the request of an attorney of record for a party.¹ Based on negative publication responses to that original proposal, the Committee has revised its proposal in an attempt to address the concerns raised in the publication responses. Upon further review of the relevant issues and authorities, and after additional consultation with the Criminal Procedural Rules Committee (CPRC), the Committee is again proposing that Rule 214 of the Rules of Conduct, Office Standards and Civil Procedure for Magisterial District Judges be amended to expressly allow, in certain circumstances described below, the issuance of subpoenas in blank.²

II. Discussion

Initially, prior to publication of the original proposal, the Committee had taken the position that magisterial district judges should not issue subpoenas in blank, at least in magisterial district court civil and landlord and tenant proceedings. The Committee noted that Pa.

R.C.P.M.D.J. Nos. 213 and 214 were adopted by the Supreme Court September 3, 2003, effective January 1, 2004.³ Rule 214 specifies what information must be contained in the subpoena, including the name and service address of the person being subpoenaed; the date, time, and place at which the person is to appear; and a description of any documents or things the person is to produce. This procedure differs from the usual practice in the courts of common pleas in that the specified information must be contained in the subpoena at the time of issuance. To further reinforce this, the Official Note to Rule 214 makes clear that “[m]agisterial district judges may not issue subpoenas in blank.”⁴ In drafting Rule 214, the Committee had thought it unadvisable that magisterial district judges issue subpoenas in blank because there is no pretrial motions practice in magisterial district court civil proceedings, and in particular, no procedural mechanism to quash a subpoena. Therefore, the Committee thought it important that, at the time of issuance, the magisterial district judge have “discretion to limit the scope of subpoenas to persons, documents, or things that are relevant to the cause of action before the magisterial district judge.”⁵ The Committee’s concerns centered around potential abuses if pro se parties are permitted to prepare and issue subpoenas without the court having any knowledge of who or what is being subpoenaed. For example, there were concerns that pro se parties may attempt to subpoena persons or things that are totally irrelevant to the proceedings, or may request such a large number of documents so as to make compliance with the subpoena extremely burdensome.

In discussions prior to formulating of the original proposal, the CPRC pointed out that in most criminal cases the concern about abuses by pro se litigants is less of an issue because there is a representative of the Commonwealth involved, and these individuals are less likely to abuse the subpoena process. For this and other reasons, the CPRC did not share the Committee’s concerns about blank subpoenas. Recognizing that the two committees had somewhat different positions on this issue, the two committees formed a joint subcommittee to address the Supreme Court’s directive.

When the joint subcommittee met for the first time, it became clear that the concerns about blank subpoenas in both civil and criminal cases centered almost exclusively around cases where no attorney is involved. After considerable discussion, the joint subcommittee agreed to a compromise proposal that would require a magisterial district judge to issue a blank subpoena when requested by an attorney. In cases in which a pro se party or a law enforcement officer requests a subpoena, however, the magisterial district judge will retain discretion whether to issue the subpoena, and the judge will fill in the contents of the subpoena before issuing it to the requesting party. This was the basis of the Committee’s original proposal.

Upon publication of the original proposal, however, many correspondents expressed concerns about a magisterial district judge being required to issue a blank subpoena, which would contain the magisterial district judge’s signature and seal, even if only to a member of the bar. The correspondents noted that with no ability for the court to review the content of these subpoenas prior to issuance, and no procedural mechanism in place to quash a subpoena, there was still potential for abuse. Of greatest concern was the possibility that a subpoenaed individual might get the impression that the magisterial district judge reviewed and approved an inappropriate subpoena prior to issuance, when in fact the judge would have had no opportunity to do so, and would have no knowledge of the contents of the subpoena.

In light of the negative responses to the original proposal, the Committee and the CPRC reconvened the joint subcommittee. In the joint subcommittee's second meeting, it focused on the sensitive issues involved with a magisterial district judge's signature appearing on a subpoena without the judge having had any opportunity to review or approve the content of the subpoena, and attempted to formulate a revised proposal that would still provide for the issuance of blank subpoenas to attorneys, but that would address the concerns of the correspondents. After considerable discussion, the joint subcommittee centered its attention on the idea of adopting a procedure similar to federal civil practice, where attorneys, as officers of the court, are given authority to sign and issue subpoenas on behalf of the court, but without the judge's signature or any indication that the subpoena has been reviewed or approved by the court.⁶ The judge's signature or seal does not appear on these federal attorney-issued subpoenas.

Adopting a subpoena procedure similar to the federal procedure was thought to be a reasonable compromise since attorneys would still have the ability to issue subpoenas without having to request the court to do so, but it would be clear that the subpoena was issued by an attorney, and not by the court.

III. Proposed Rule Changes

To implement the solution discussed above, the Committee is proposing that Pa. R.C.P.M.D.J. No. 214 be amended to establish different procedures when a subpoena is issued by an attorney of record for a party on behalf the court, and when a pro se party or an attorney requests that the court issue a subpoena. Specifically, Rule 214B would be divided into four subparagraphs. Paragraph B(1) would permit an attorney of record for a party, as an officer of the court, to sign and issue a subpoena, and would make clear that the attorney is to fill in the contents of the subpoena before service. This paragraph would also require the attorney to file a copy of the subpoena with the court within 48 hours of service, and in no event later than the commencement of the hearing. The Official Note would make clear that the authority "given to attorneys under this paragraph carries with it a responsibility to use good judgment and to make every effort to limit the scope of subpoenas to persons, documents, or things that are relevant to the cause of action before the magisterial district judge."

Paragraph B(2) would provide the procedure for issuing a subpoena to a pro se party or to an attorney of record

⁶ See Fed. R. Civ. P. 45, which provides in part, "[a]n attorney as officer of the court may also issue and sign a subpoena on behalf of (A) a court in which the attorney is authorized to practice." Fed. R. Civ. P. 45(a)(3), 28 U.S.C.A., FRCP Rule 45. See also Practice Commentaries, section C45-5, by David D. Siegel, which provides in part, "[i]n court order is necessary for the issuance of a subpoena, and under the 1991 amendment no request for a subpoena need even be made of the clerk: a significant achievement of the 1991 amendment is that it allows the attorney to issue the subpoena, without even a pro forma application to the court. Subdivision (a)(3). This merely carries to fruition a practice that had taken place for years in all but form. Under old Rule 45, it had to be the clerk that issued the subpoena, but the clerk would issue it "in blank" just about for the asking. The attorney would then fill it in and arrange for its service. Hence it was the attorney who was doing everything, with the clerk doing nothing more than furnishing the form. The 1991 amendment recognizes this by relieving the clerk of the issuance duty altogether, at least when the party seeking the subpoena has an attorney. . . . The attorney must "sign" the subpoena, but the seal of the court is no longer required. Under the mere signature of the attorney the subpoena acts as process of the court, fully backed by the sanction provisions of Rule 45, including the ultimate sanction of contempt now found in subdivision (e)." who chooses to proceed under this paragraph. This provision would give the magisterial district judge discretion to issue the subpoena, and would require the court to fill in the contents of the subpoena before issuance.

Paragraph B(3) would list the required contents of all subpoenas. A new paragraph D would require the person serving a subpoena to file a return of service in the same manner provided under Rule 314A (relating to return of service after service of a complaint) within 48 hours of service, and in no event later than the commencement of the hearing.

Paragraphs B(1)(d) and D provide for filing of the copy and return of service by facsimile transmission. The Official Note to the rule makes clear that filing documents by facsimile transmission is permitted only when expressly provided for in the rules.

Paragraphs A and C would not be amended under this proposal.

PROPOSED RULEMAKING

FISH AND BOAT COMMISSION

[58 PA. CODE CHS. 53, 63, 77 AND 79]

General Provisions; Fishing

The Fish and Boat Commission (Commission) proposes to amend Chapters 53 and 63 (relating to Commission property; and general fishing regulations), delete Chapter 77 (relating to reptiles and amphibians) and add Chapter 79 (relating to reptiles and amphibians). The Commission is publishing this proposed rulemaking under the authority of 30 Pa.C.S. (relating to the Fish and Boat Code) (code). The proposed rulemaking updates and improves regulations of reptiles and amphibians to provide greater protection of these resources.

A. Effective Date

The proposed rulemaking, if approved on final-form, will go into effect on January 1, 2007.

B. Contact Person

For further information on the proposed rulemaking, contact Laurie E. Shepler, Esq., P. O. Box 67000, Harrisburg, PA 17106-7000, (717) 705-7810. This proposed rulemaking is available on the Commission's website at www.fish.state.pa.us.

C. Statutory Authority

The proposed amendments to §§ 53.7 and 63.7 (relating to use of firearms; and exceptions to limitations on devices) and the proposed regulations in §§ 79.1—79.3 and 79.7—79.10 are published under the statutory authority of section 2102 of the code (relating to rules and regulations). The proposed regulations in §§ 79.4—79.6 (relating to snapping turtle permits; timber rattlesnake and northern copperhead permits; and organized reptile and amphibian hunt permits) are published under the statutory authority of section 2102 of the code and 2904 of the code (relating to permits for protection and management of particular fish).

D. Purpose and Background

The proposed rulemaking is designed to improve, enhance and update the Commission's reptile and amphibian regulations. The specific purpose of the proposed rulemaking is described in more detail under the summary of proposals.

E. Summary of Proposals

The Commission has determined that the existing reptile and amphibian regulations are in need of amendment to provide adequate protection of these resources due to increasing interest in collecting in this Commonwealth. The Commission has also determined that amendments are needed to improve the clarity of regulations pertaining to how reptiles and amphibians are taken, caught, killed and sold and their season and possession limits. The proposed amendments are supported by the Commission's Amphibian and Reptile Technical/Advisory Committee (Committee), a subcommittee of the Pennsylvania Biological Survey.

As a general matter, the Commission believes that the entire chapter dealing with reptiles and amphibians needs to be reorganized in a more logical and understandable fashion. The proposed rulemaking therefore deletes Chapter 77 and adds Chapter 79.

(1) Section 79.1. Among the organizational changes in this chapter is the addition of a definitions subsection in § 79.1 (relating to definitions). The Commission has included a more explicit definition of "hunt" and has added definitions of "native species," "snake hooks or tongs," "subcaudal scale" and "turtle hooks." The current definitions of "organized reptile and amphibian hunt" and "sacking contest," for the most part, have been left unchanged and are included in proposed § 79.1.

(2) Section 79.2. In proposed § 79.2 (relating to taking reptiles or amphibians), the Commission has combined various provisions pertaining to the taking of reptiles and amphibians found throughout Chapter 77 and have placed them in one section. This proposed section describes the means and the devices by which reptiles and amphibians may be lawfully taken and enumerates unlawful practices. It also makes it unlawful to take, catch or kill a reptile or amphibian through use of a firearm. For consistency, the Commission further recommends that § 53.7 be amended to remove the provision allowing the use of .22 caliber rimfire weapons with shotshell to take frogs during the open season unless otherwise posted on Commission owned or controlled property.

(3) Section 79.3. Proposed § 79.3 (relating to season and daily possession limits) pertains to season and daily possession limits currently addressed in § 77.6 (relating to season and daily possession limits). Under the current regulations, a sponsor of an organized reptile/amphibian hunt may possess more than the daily limit of timber rattlesnakes if the total number of timber rattlesnakes held in possession during each hunt and for not more than 48 hours thereafter does not exceed the daily limit for timber rattlesnakes times twice the number of persons engaged in the hunt. The proposed section reduces the number from two times the number of persons engaged in the hunt to one.

Other proposed changes to this section include reducing the daily and possession limits for both bullfrogs and green frogs from 15 and 30 to 10 and 20, respectively. The proposed section also includes a prohibition against the taking of 23 species of reptiles and amphibians that are considered to be rare, declining or "at risk" by the Committee. These species have limited ranges in this Commonwealth, are threatened by development and collection pressure and are currently being studied by the Commission. Until these species are considered for formal listing as threatened or endangered species, the Commission proposes "no collection" (that is, no open season and daily and possession limits of 0) as a means of protecting them. Status assessment studies are underway for these species, which could lead to future management decisions.

In addition, the Commission proposes additional restrictions with regard to timber rattlesnakes. Currently, the regulations permit a person to take, catch or kill one timber rattlesnake per calendar year and to possess one timber rattlesnake at a time. Under the proposed rulemaking, it is unlawful for a person to take, catch, kill or possess a timber rattlesnake that is less than 42 inches in length, measured lengthwise along the dorsal surface from the snout to the tail, excluding the rattle, and that possesses less than 21 subcaudal scales. The proposed rulemaking further prohibits a person to hunt timber rattlesnakes from the South Mountain population (west of Route 15 and south of Interstate 81 to the Maryland line) where there is no open season.

The timber rattlesnake is currently listed as a candidate species in this Commonwealth and is listed as a protected species (threatened or endangered) or species of concern in our neighboring states. Unlike most amphibians and reptiles in this Commonwealth, the timber rattlesnake is sought out by hunters as a game species. Reptile collectors collect them for their variable coloration, large size and unique nature and people have been known to wantonly kill timber rattlesnakes due to their perceived threat to humans. Despite former tightening of the regulations on the collection of this animal (reduced to one possession limit in 1993, and one annual limit in 1996), preliminary results of the Commission's timber rattlesnake population study (2003-present) suggest that the timber rattlesnake is declining in the peripheral parts of its range in this Commonwealth due to development pressure, wanton killing and collecting. Adult female timber rattlesnakes need 8 to 10 years to reach reproductive maturity. Therefore, taking females out of the population is a threat to local populations and the larger Statewide population. A minimum length limit and minimum number of subcaudal scales are proposed to limit timber rattlesnake hunters interested in take/collection to favor collection of mature adult male snakes. This proposed section will protect adult and gravid (pregnant) females and enable their progeny to reach reproductive maturity. In addition, the Commission recommends that the South Mountain population (portions of Adams, Cumberland, Franklin and York Counties) of timber rattlesnake be off-limits to hunting due to the documented decline in numbers in this specific area from hunting and human encroachment pressure and apparent isolation with the North Mountain and Maryland timber rattlesnake populations.

The proposed rulemaking further places a season and catch and possession limits on the northern copperhead. These proposed changes are needed because the status of the northern copperhead is uncertain. Although no comprehensive population studies have been conducted on this species, there is a consensus among herpetologists that the northern copperhead is declining across its range and in this Commonwealth. The Commission also recommends that a permit like the current timber rattlesnake permit be required for northern copperheads. The specifics of this permit requirement are discussed in more detail in paragraph (4). However, the permit requirement will enable the Commission to collect location and harvest information to be used to assess the possible decline of northern copperheads in this Commonwealth. Ultimately, this information will be used for future management of the northern copperhead.

Finally, the proposed rulemaking reduces the daily and possession limits for native species not listed in the regulation from two to one.

(4) Section 79.4. In proposed § 79.4 (relating to snapping turtle permits), the Commission proposes a new permit requirement for the taking of common snapping turtles by persons who intend to sell, barter or trade them. In many states across its range, the common snapping turtle is declining. The new permit is proposed to facilitate a better understanding of the numbers of turtles that are being taken for commercial use, where the hunting pressure exists and who is engaged in the activity. Information gleaned from the permit system will enable the Commission to make well-informed decisions about the future management of the snapping turtle.

(5) Section 79.5. Proposed § 79.5 (relating to timber rattlesnake and northern copperhead permits) addresses permit requirements for both the timber rattlesnake and the northern copperhead, making it unlawful to hunt, take, catch, kill or possess them without first procuring the necessary permit. The current cost of the timber rattlesnake permit has remained at $5 for the past 14 years. The Commission proposes increasing the permit fee to $50 for residents and $100 for nonresidents to offset costs due to inflation and the costs of permit issuance, processing and data compilation. Fees collected from this permit can also be used as matching funds to obtain other grants to perform additional management activities.

In this section, the Commission also proposes new tagging requirements for persons who hunt, take, catch, kill or possess timber rattlesnakes. Currently, the Commission issues well over 1,000 individual timber rattlesnake permits per year (1,181 permits were issued in 2004) and permit requests have increased approximately 200-300 each year since 1998. Approximately 15% of the hunters are reporting "take" (for harvest or as pets) of snakes. There is evidence to suggest that even more snakes are being taken than are being reported. The Commission proposes a tagging system to provide better accountability of hunters that decide to take timber rattlesnakes alive or dead. The information collected in this program will assist the Commission in the development of management units and associated bag limits for timber rattlesnakes.

(6) Section 79.6. Proposed § 79.6 (relating to organized reptile and amphibian hunt permits) pertains to organized reptile and amphibian hunt permits currently addressed in § 77.2. Among the changes is an increase in the fee from the current $25 to $100. This increase has been proposed to offset the costs associated with permit review and processing and monitoring/permit compliance of hunts. The Commission also proposes reporting requirements.

(7) Section 79.7. Proposed § 79.7 (relating to sale of native species) addresses the sale of reptiles and amphibians currently contained in § 77.3 (relating to taking and selling reptiles or amphibians under section 2102(b) and (c) of the code). This section has been revised to reflect the intent of the Commission to protect the native herptiles of this Commonwealth and their progeny. The demand for both wild caught and captive bred reptiles and amphibians, including several native to this Commonwealth, has increased considerably over the past several years. While waterways conservation officers go through intense training on the identification of species native to this Commonwealth, it can be almost impossible to tell whether an individual animal is captive bred or wild caught. This is especially true for hatchling or juvenile animals, the preferred product for reptile and amphibian dealers. This section helps to eliminate the profit motive for both collection and sale of species native to this Commonwealth and the collection of animals in this Commonwealth for breeding stock for commercial propagation programs.

(8) Section 79.8. Proposed § 79.8 (relating to transportation and importation of native species) makes it illegal to transport or import into or within this Commonwealth a native species, as defined in Chapter 79, from another jurisdiction. It also makes it unlawful to receive a native species that was transported or imported into or within this Commonwealth from another jurisdiction.

(9) Section 79.9. Proposed § 79.9 (relating to introduction of nonnative species) restates the current provisions of § 77.7 (relating to introduction of nonnative species).

(10) Section 79.10. Proposed § 79.10 (relating to natural areas) restates the current provisions of § 77.1 (relating to natural areas).

The Commission proposes to amend the various sections previously discussed to read as set forth in Annex A.

F. Paperwork

The proposed rulemaking will increase paperwork and will create new paperwork requirements in that persons who wish to hunt, take, catch or kill snapping turtles for the purpose of sale, barter or trade will be required to complete an application. If approved, the Commission will issue a permit to those persons. Holders of snapping turtle permits also will be required to furnish annual reports on a form prescribed by the Commission.

The proposed rulemaking may increase paperwork by requiring individuals who wish to hunt, take, catch or kill northern copperheads as well as timber rattlesnakes to apply for a permit. The Commission's existing permit covers timber rattlesnakes only, and the Commission may receive additional applications if it adopts a permit requirement for northern copperheads. However, the Commission believes that the number of venomous snake permits that it will issue may actually decrease because of the increased fee. In addition, the proposed rulemaking may slightly increase paperwork in that timber rattlesnake and northern copperhead permittees will be required to meet annual reporting requirements by completing a form prescribed by the Commission. Timber rattlesnake permittees currently must file catch reports each year. The proposed rulemaking also requires persons who take, catch, kill or possess a timber rattlesnake to complete a possession tag that is attached to the permit. This is a new requirement.

With regard to the organized reptile and amphibian hunt permit, the Commission does not expect any increase in paperwork or any new paperwork requirements in that the Commission already requires a permit for organized hunts. Holders of these permits will continue to be required to furnish reports. These reports must be submitted on the form prescribed by the Commission.

G. Fiscal Impact

The proposed rulemaking will have no adverse fiscal impact on the Commonwealth or its political subdivisions. Any costs to the Commission that are associated with the new or revised permit programs will be offset by the fees.

The proposed rulemaking will impose new costs on the private sector and the general public in that the new snapping turtle permit has a fee of $50 for residents and $100 for nonresidents. The Commission estimates that it will issue approximately 200 snapping turtle permits during the first year that the permit requirement is in effect with the expectation that the number will increase each year thereafter.

The proposed rulemaking also will impose new costs in that the timber rattlesnake and northern copperhead permit will cost residents $50 and nonresidents $100. The current cost of a timber rattlesnake permit has remained at $5 for the past 14 years. Currently, the Commission issues well over 1,000 individual timber rattlesnake permits per year (1,181 permits were issued in 2004), and permit requests have increased approximately 200-300 each year since 1998. The Commission believes that it will issue fewer timber rattlesnake and northern copperhead permits annually because of the increase in the price of the permit.

In addition, the proposed rulemaking will impose additional costs on those individuals wishing to obtain an organized reptile and amphibian hunt permit. It is proposed that the fee associated with this permit be increased from $25 to $100. The Commission currently issues approximately ten organized hunt permits each year. The Commission estimates that it will continue to issue a similar number of organized hunt permits in the future.

With regard to all three permit types, the Commission will utilize the fees to offset the costs associated with permit issuance and processing and data compilation. In some instances, the Commission will utilize fees that are collected as matching funds to obtain other grants to perform additional management activities.

H. Public Comments

Interested persons are invited to submit written comments, objections or suggestions about the proposed rulemaking to the Executive Director, Fish and Boat Commission, P. O. Box 67000, Harrisburg, PA 17106-7000 within 90 days after publication of this proposed rulemaking in the Pennsylvania Bulletin. Comments submitted by facsimile will not be accepted. Comments also may be submitted electronically by completing the form at www.state.pa.us/Fish/regcomments. If an acknowledgment of electronic comments is not received by the sender within 2 working days, the comments should be retransmitted to ensure receipt.

In addition, the Commission intends to form a working group comprised of interested stakeholders who will meet and discuss the proposals and make suggestions to Commission staff.

The following words and terms, when used in this chapter, have the following meanings, unless the context clearly indicates otherwise:

Hunt—The act of pursuing reptiles or amphibians in an effort to catch, take, kill or remove them, or to catch, take, kill or remove or attempt to catch, take, kill or remove from any waters or other areas within or bordering on this Commonwealth any reptile or amphibian by any means or method for any purpose whatsoever.

Native species—A reptile or amphibian species that has not been introduced into this Commonwealth and occurs historically within the boundaries of this Commonwealth. The Commission will from time to time publish in the Pennsylvania Bulletin a list of reptile and amphibian species that it has determined are native species.

Organized reptile and amphibian hunt—A hunt for reptiles or amphibians involving two or more individuals acting in concert to seek, pursue, catch, take, kill or remove native species of reptiles or amphibians at an event where the reptiles or amphibians are hunted on a competitive basis. When one or more of the following factors are present, an event may be considered an organized reptile and amphibian hunt as the term is used in this chapter:

- (i) The event is sponsored or promoted by a person or organization.
- (ii) The event involves the award of trophies, prizes or other recognition to persons or groups for catching reptiles or amphibians.
- (iii) The sponsors of the events or others publicize the event to encourage attendance of spectators.
- (iv) The sponsors or organizers of the event have their own rules for the conduct of the hunt.

Sacking contest—A competition where participants place reptiles or amphibians in a sack, bag or similar container in a timed event.

Snake hooks or tongs—Implements used to grasp or lift snakes with minimal risk of injury to the animal.

Subcaudal scale—Large flat scales that are located on the rear ventral portion (underside) of a timber rattlesnake between the vent (anal scale) and the base of the rattle.

Turtle hooks—Hooks used for taking turtles that are 3 1/2 inches long with not less than a 1 inch space between the point and the shank.

§ 79.2. Taking reptiles or amphibians.

(a) General.

(1) Except as otherwise provided in this section, reptiles and amphibians may only be taken by hand, hook and line, snake hooks or tongs, turtle hooks, traps, and nets less than 4 feet square or 4 feet in diameter.

(2) It is unlawful to take, catch or kill a reptile or amphibian through use of a firearm.

(3) It is unlawful to take, catch or kill a reptile or amphibian through the use of chemicals, smoke, explosives, winches, jacks or other devices or materials, or manually in a manner that may disrupt, damage or destroy the den or the immediate surroundings thereof. It is unlawful to destroy habitat in the pursuit of a reptile or amphibian.

(4) It is unlawful to damage or disrupt the nest or eggs of a reptile or amphibian or to gather, take or possess the eggs of any reptile or amphibian.

(b) Turtles.

(1) It is unlawful to take, catch or kill a turtle by means of a hook other than a turtle hook as defined in § 79.1 (relating to definitions).

(2) It is unlawful for a person to leave a set line, turtle trap or other device for catching turtles unattended unless the device has attached a tag or other means of identification containing the name, address and telephone number of the owner or user of the device. Traps, nets or devices used for catching turtles must be of a floating or partially submerged design so as to allow for the release of untargeted turtles unharmed.

(c) Frogs.

(1) Frogs may be taken with long bows and arrow, including compound bows, crossbows, spears or gigs. Spears or gigs may not be mechanically propelled, may not have more than five barbed points and may not be used in approved trout waters.

(2) It is unlawful to take, catch or kill a frog by use of artificial light at night.

§ 79.3. Season and daily possession limits.

(a) Except as otherwise provided in subsections (b), (c) and (d), it is unlawful for a person to take, catch or kill more than the daily limit specified in subsection (f) in 1 calendar day or to have in possession more than the possession limit, dead or alive, in whole or in parts, specified in subsection (f); or to hunt, take, catch or kill reptiles or amphibians during the closed season. An amphibian or reptile will not be considered to be in the possession of a person if, after it is taken or caught, it is immediately released unharmed to the exact location from which it was taken and is not confined to a sack, bag or other container.

(b) This section does not prohibit the sponsors of an organized reptile/amphibian hunt conducted under a permit issued under § 79.6 (relating to organized reptile and amphibian hunt permits) from possessing more than the daily limit of the species of reptiles or amphibians hunted if the total number of reptiles and amphibians held in possession during each hunt does not exceed the daily limit for the species hunted times the number of registered participants in the organized hunt. This subsection applies to possession limits only. It does not permit the sponsors of a hunt or individual hunters to take, catch or kill any number of amphibians and reptiles in excess of the daily limits.

(c) This section does not prohibit possession of numbers of amphibians and reptiles in excess of possession limits by zoos and other institutions or persons for scientific, educational or research purposes or licensed taxidermists for the purpose of mounting for properly permitted customers, licensed wildlife rehabilitators or licensed pest control agents with the written permission of the Executive Director or a designee. These persons shall maintain a current open inventory of and report annually changes in the number of reptiles and amphibians possessed. The Executive Director may limit the number of reptiles and amphibians that a person or institution may possess when the Executive Director or a designee issues permission under this subsection.

(d) In prosecutions for violations of the possession limits, when venomous reptiles have been killed in apparent violation of the limits, it shall be a defense that the person who killed the venomous reptiles acted under a reasonable apprehension of immediate death or bodily harm to himself or other persons in his immediate vicinity, if no more venomous reptiles are killed than necessary to protect life and limb and if the person reported the kills in writing to the Natural Diversity Section Chief, Division of Environmental Services, 450 Robinson Lane, Bellefonte, Pennsylvania 16823-9616, within 5 business days after the kill. It is unlawful for a person to possess a venomous reptile, in whole or in parts, that was killed under this subsection.

(e) When season or annual limits apply, a season or annual limit has been reached once a reptile or amphibian, dead or alive, in whole or in parts, has not been immediately released to the exact location from which taken and is in the possession of a person.

(f) The following seasons, sizes, catch and possession limits apply to amphibians and reptiles except endangered and threatened species:

§ 79.4. Snapping turtle permits.

(a) The Commission finds, under section 2904 of the code (relating to permits for protection and management of particular fish), that it is necessary for the proper protection and management of the common snapping turtle (Chelydra serpentina) that persons who hunt, take, catch or kill this species for the purpose of sale, barter or trade have a permit for the activity. Application for a permit shall be made on a form prescribed by the Commission and shall be accompanied by the appropriate fee. Permits may be obtained by applying to: Natural Diversity Section Chief, Division of Environmental Services, 450 Robinson Lane, Bellefonte, Pennsylvania 16823-9616. The fee for residents is $50 per year; the fee for nonresidents is $100 per year. The denial of a permit under this section is appealable in the manner provided by §§ 51.41—51.46 (relating to permit procedures).

(b) It is unlawful to hunt, take, catch, kill or possess the common snapping turtle for purposes of sale, barter or trade without first procuring the required permit. The required permit shall be in possession of the permittee at all times while hunting. Permittees shall comply with the terms and conditions of the permit and furnish the reports required thereby.

(c) It is unlawful to sell, barter, trade or offer for sale a common snapping turtle, dead or alive, in whole or in parts, taken from lands or waters of this Commonwealth without first procuring the permit required under this section.

§ 79.5. Timber rattlesnake and northern copperhead permits.

(a) Application. The Commission finds, under section 2904 of the code (relating to permits for protection and management of particular fish), that it is necessary for the proper protection and management of the timber rattlesnake (Crotalus horridus) and northern copperhead (Agkistrodon contortrix) that persons who hunt, take, catch or kill these species have a permit for the activity. Application for a permit shall be made on a form prescribed by the Commission and accompanied by the appropriate fee. Permits may be obtained by applying to: Natural Diversity Section Chief, Division of Environmental Services, 450 Robinson Lane, Bellefonte, Pennsylvania 16823-9616. The fee for residents is $50 per year; the fee for nonresidents is $100 per year. The denial of a permit under this section is appealable in the manner provided under §§ 51.41—51.46 (relating to permit procedures).

(b) Required permit. It is unlawful to hunt, take, catch, kill or possess a timber rattlesnake or northern copperhead, in whole or in parts, without first procuring the required permit from the Commission. The required permit shall be in the possession of the permittee at all times while hunting. Permittees shall comply with the terms and conditions of the permit and furnish the reports required thereby. It is unlawful to alter, borrow, lend or transfer a permit under this section.

(c) Reporting. Within 10 business days following the capture or kill, or if no snake is captured or killed, within 10 days of the conclusion of the season, the permittee shall complete a report on the form prescribed by the Commission and shall mail the report to the Commission.

(d) Tagging of timber rattlesnakes.

(1) A person who takes, catches, kills or possesses a timber rattlesnake shall immediately complete the possession tag that is attached to his permit and detach the tag from the permit in the field. The possession tag shall be completed in accordance with the instructions printed on the tag, and the information to be provided shall include, but not be limited to, the municipality and county where the snake was captured or killed, the date of capture or kill and a description of the snake, including color phase, sex, number of subcaudal scales and length in inches. The possession tag shall be kept in a safe location so that it can be presented along with the timber rattlesnake to which it pertains upon the request of an officer authorized to enforce the code.

(2) After the possession tag is detached from the permit, it is unlawful to take, catch, kill or possess another timber rattlesnake.

(3) It is unlawful to alter, borrow, lend or transfer possession tags under this section.

(4) When presenting a timber rattlesnake to a taxidermist for mounting, the tag shall remain with the rattlesnake while in the possession of the taxidermist.

(e) Field dressing of timber rattlesnakes. A permittee may field dress a timber rattlesnake so long as the head and tail remain intact.

(f) Measurement of timber rattlesnakes. Upon the request of an officer authorized to enforce the code, a permittee shall measure a timber rattlesnake to determine its length. If the permittee is unable to measure the timber rattlesnake, the officer may seize the snake so that a measurement may be taken at another location.

§ 79.6. Organized reptile and amphibian hunt permits.

(a) Application. The Commission finds, under section 2904 of the code (relating to permits for protection and management of fish), that it is necessary for the proper protection and management of reptiles and amphibians in this Commonwealth that organized reptile and amphibian hunts be conducted under permits issued under this section. The sponsor of an organized reptile and amphibian hunt shall apply for a permit by no earlier than January 1 and no later than March 1 of the year for which the hunt is proposed. Application for a permit shall be made on a form prescribed by the Commission and accompanied by the appropriate fee. Permits may be obtained by applying to: Natural Diversity Section Chief, Division of Environmental Services, 450 Robinson Lane, Bellefonte, Pennsylvania 16823-9616. The fee for the permit is $100. The denial of a permit under this section is appealable in a manner provided under §§ 51.41—51.46 (relating to permit procedures).

(b) Permit issuance.

(1) The Executive Director will issue permits to applicants who demonstrate that they are responsible and qualified to conduct an organized reptile and amphibian hunt. In determining the qualifications of an applicant, the Executive Director, or a designee, may consider factors as deemed appropriate, including, but not limited to, the experience of the applicant in conducting the events, the responsiveness of the applicant to reporting requirements, the safety record of the applicant, the ability of the applicant to conduct educational programs, the context of the event and competing applications.

(2) The Executive Director may limit the number of organized reptile and amphibian hunt permits to be issued for a particular vicinity and time proximity. In general, permits will be issued to qualified applicants no earlier than March 15 of the year in which the application is submitted. If the Commission is aware of events scheduled in the vicinity of one another within 4 weeks, and the Executive Director determines that all events cannot be permitted consistent with resource management and protection, the Executive Director may designate the applicants as competing applications. If competing applications are designated, the Executive Director may, if the parties cannot agree on the withdrawal of one or more applications, award a permit on a random basis, an alternate year basis or some other rational basis as the interests of fairness may dictate.

(c) Required permit. It is unlawful to engage in organized reptile and amphibian hunts unless the sponsors of the hunts have first procured the required permit for each hunt. The required permits shall be held in possession of the sponsor at all times during each hunt. Permittees shall comply with the terms and conditions of each permit and furnish reports required thereby.

(d) Reporting. At the location of the hunt, the permittee shall complete a report on the form prescribed by the Commission that will include, at a minimum, the location of the hunt; the names of the registered participants; the species name of the reptile or amphibian that was captured or killed; a description of the reptile or amphibian that was captured or killed; the date and time the reptile or amphibian was brought to the hunt; and the permit number of the person who captured or killed the reptile or amphibian. The permittee shall complete the form as registered participants deliver their reptiles or amphibians for entry into the competition. This form shall be presented upon the request of an officer authorized to enforce the code. Within 10 days following the conclusion of the event, the permittee shall submit the form to the Commission.

(e) Season. It is unlawful to conduct an organized reptile or amphibian hunt for any species of reptile or amphibian except during the open season for the reptile or amphibian as specified in § 79.3 (relating to season and daily possession limits).

(f) Sacking contests. Sacking contests of native species are prohibited. It is unlawful to import timber rattlesnakes or any subspecies, hybrid or variety of Crotalus horridus, into this Commonwealth for use in connection with a sacking contest.

(g) Treatment of reptiles and amphibians. Reptiles and amphibians held in connection with an organized hunt may not be confined without water or shade or otherwise physically abused or handled roughly. Free-handling of native, venomous reptiles in an organized hunt is prohibited. At the conclusion of the organized hunt, the sponsor shall return the snakes to the registered participants who entered the snakes in the event.

§ 79.7. Sale of native species.

(a) Except as otherwise provided in this chapter, it is unlawful to take, catch, kill or possess for purposes of selling or offering for sale or to sell, offer for sale, import or export for consideration, trade or barter, or purchase an amphibian or reptile that was taken, caught or killed in this Commonwealth, and its progeny, whether dead or alive, in whole or in parts, including eggs or any life stage.

(b) This section does not prohibit the sale, purchase, offer for sale, trade or barter of any reptile or amphibian propagated by or from a propagator or dealer of live aquatic animals registered under 3 Pa.C.S. Chapter 42 (relating to aquacultural development) provided that the reptiles or amphibians are a species approved for propagation in this Commonwealth and are lawfully propagated.

§ 79.8. Transportation and importation of native species.

(a) It is unlawful to transport or import into or within this Commonwealth a native species, as defined in this chapter, from another jurisdiction.

(b) It is unlawful to receive a native species that was transported or imported into or within this Commonwealth from another jurisdiction.

§ 79.9. Introduction of nonnative species.

It is unlawful to introduce any species of reptile or amphibian into the natural environment of this Commonwealth if that species is not native to this Commonwealth. Persons who import nonnative reptiles or amphibians into this Commonwealth shall institute appropriate safeguards to prevent their introduction into the environment of this Commonwealth.

§ 79.10. Natural areas.

(a) This chapter applies to all species of Commonwealth amphibians and reptiles occurring naturally within the boundaries of selected natural areas of the Department of Conservation and Natural Resources.

(b) The taking, catching, killing or possession of individuals of any species of Commonwealth amphibians and reptiles occurring naturally within the boundaries of designated natural areas by persons other than those possessing a valid scientific collector's permit is prohibited.

(c) Notice of this section will be posted at parking lots or access areas on the fringe of each designated natural area.

(d) Subsections (a) and (b) apply to natural areas within State forests, posted in accordance with subsection (c).

NOTICES

DEPARTMENT OF AGRICULTURE

Interstate/International Quarantine Order

Recitals

A. Chronic Wasting Disease (CWD) is an infectious, progressive and always fatal disease of cervids (elk, white-tailed deer, mule deer, black-tailed deer, red deer and hybrids thereof, and the like).

B. There is no known treatment for CWD infection, no vaccine against this disease and no feasible live animal test that can detect the presence of CWD.

C. CWD is known to be transmissible from infected to uninfected cervids by ingestion of infected or contaminated materials.

D. CWD has been designated a "dangerous transmissible disease" of animals by order of the Secretary of Agriculture under the provisions of the Domestic Animal Law (3 Pa.C.S. §§ 2301—2389) at 3 Pa.C.S. § 2321(d).

E. The Department of Agriculture (Department) has broad authority under the Domestic Animal Law to regulate the keeping and handling of domestic animals in order to exclude, contain or eliminate dangerous transmissible diseases, such as CWD.

F. The Department also has broad authority under the Domestic Animal Law to prohibit the importation of domestic animals, conveyances, containers, goods, products or materials in an effort to keep dangerous transmissible diseases, such as CWD, from entering this Commonwealth.

G. CWD is of particular concern to the captive/farmed cervid industry in that presence of CWD infection in a herd may result in the destruction of the entire herd and may severely limit the market for product of this Commonwealth.

H. CWD also has the potential to severely impact upon the native cervid population of this Commonwealth should it enter this Commonwealth.

I. CWD has been detected in cervids in New York and West Virginia and is known to be present in a number of other States and several Canadian Provinces.

J. The Department has concern that certain high-risk materials from hunter-harvested cervids taken in areas where CWD is known to be present pose an unacceptable risk of introducing CWD into this Commonwealth and seeks to prohibit the importation of these high-risk materials through this Order.

K. The Department has issued an Interstate/International Quarantine Order addressing the presence of CWD, to take effect on October 1, 2005. The Department wishes to rescind that Order and supplant it with this Order. This Order provides a clearer explanation of those cervid parts affected by this quarantine.

Order of Quarantine

With the foregoing recitals incorporated into this Order by reference, the Pennsylvania Department of Agriculture hereby establishes an Interstate and International Quarantine under authority of the Domestic Animal Law, at 3 Pa.C.S.A. § 2329(c). The terms of this Order are as follows:

1. The Quarantined Area affected by this Interstate and International Quarantine Order is as follows:

All States and Canadian provinces with a history of having free-ranging cervids infected with CWD. This quarantine includes:

a. The following States: Colorado, Illinois, Nebraska, New Mexico, South Dakota, Utah, West Virginia (only Hampshire county), Wisconsin, and Wyoming

b. The following Canadian Provinces: Alberta, Saskatchewan

2. This Order prohibits the importation into the Commonwealth of Pennsylvania the following animal parts originating from any hunter-harvested cervid in the Quarantined Area:

a. Head (including brain, tonsils, eyes and retropharyngeal lymph nodes);

b. Spinal Cord/Backbone;

c. Spleen;

d. Skull plate with attached antlers, if visible brain or spinal cord material is present;

e. Cape, if visible brain or spinal cord material is present;

f. Upper canine teeth, if root structure or other soft material is present;

g. Any object or article containing visible brain or spinal cord material;

h. Unfinished taxidermy mounts; and

i. Brain-tanned hide.

3. This Order shall not be construed to limit the importation into this Commonwealth of the following animal parts originating from any hunter-harvested cervid in the Quarantined Area:

a. Meat, without the backbone;

b. Skull plate with attached antlers, if no visible brain or spinal cord material is present;

c. Tanned hide or raw hide with no visible brain or spinal cord material present;

d. Cape, if no visible brain or spinal cord material is present;

e. Upper canine teeth, if no root structure or other soft material is present; and

f. Finished taxidermy mounts.

Section IV	NPDES	MS4 individual permit
Section V	NPDES	MS4 permit waiver
Section VI	NPDES	Individual permit stormwater construction
Section VII	NPDES	NOI for coverage under NPDES general permits

For NPDES renewal applications in Section I, the Department of Environmental Protection (Department) has made a tentative determination to reissue these permits for 5 years subject to effluent limitations and monitoring and reporting requirements in their current permits, with appropriate and necessary updated requirements to reflect new and changed regulations and other requirements.

For applications for new NPDES permits and renewal applications with major changes in Section II, as well as applications for MS4 individual permits and individual stormwater construction permits in Sections IV and VI, the Department, based upon preliminary reviews, has made a tentative determination of proposed effluent limitations and other terms and conditions for the permit applications. These determinations are published as proposed actions for comments prior to taking final actions.

Unless indicated otherwise, the EPA Region III Administrator has waived the right to review or object to proposed NPDES permit actions under the waiver provision in 40 CFR 123.24(d).

Comments should include the name, address and telephone number of the writer and a concise statement to inform the Department of the exact basis of a comment and the relevant facts upon which it is based.

The Department will also accept requests for a public hearing on applications. A public hearing may be held if the responsible office considers the public response significant. If a hearing is scheduled, a notice of the hearing will be published in the Pennsylvania Bulletin and a newspaper of general circulation within the relevant geographical area. The Department will postpone its final determination until after a public hearing is held.

Persons with a disability who require an auxiliary aid, service, including TDD users, or other accommodations to seek additional information should contact the Department through the Pennsylvania AT&T Relay Service at (800) 654-5984.

LAND RECYCLING AND ENVIRONMENTAL REMEDIATION

UNDER ACT 2, 1995

PREAMBLE 1

Acknowledgment of Notices of Intent to Remediate Submitted under the Land Recycling and Environmental Remediation Standards Act (35 P. S. §§ 6026.101—6026.908).

Sections 302—305 of the Land Recycling and Environmental Remediation Standards Act (act) require the Department of Environmental Protection (Department) to publish in the Pennsylvania Bulletin an acknowledgment noting receipt of Notices of Intent to Remediate. An acknowledgment of the receipt of a Notice of Intent to Remediate is used to identify a site where a person proposes to, or has been required to, respond to a release of a regulated substance at a site. Persons intending to use the Background Standard, Statewide Health Standard, the Site-Specific Standard or who intend to remediate a site as a special industrial area must file a Notice of Intent to Remediate with the Department. A Notice of Intent to Remediate filed with the Department provides a brief description of the location of the site, a list of known or suspected contaminants at the site, the proposed remediation measures for the site and a description of the intended future use of the site. A person who demonstrates attainment of one, a combination of the cleanup standards or who receives approval of a special industrial area remediation identified under the act will be relieved of further liability for the remediation of the site for any contamination identified in reports submitted to and approved by the Department. Furthermore, the person shall not be subject to citizen suits or other contribution actions brought by responsible persons not participating in the remediation.

Under sections 304(n)(1)(ii) and 305(c)(2) of the act, there is a 30-day public and municipal comment period for sites proposed for remediation using a Site-Specific Standard, in whole or in part, and for sites remediated as a special industrial area. This period begins when a summary of the Notice of Intent to Remediate is published in a newspaper of general circulation in the area of the site. For the sites identified, proposed for remediation to a Site-Specific Standard or as a special industrial area, the municipality within which the site is located may request to be involved in the development of the remediation and reuse plans for the site if the request is made within 30 days of the date specified. During this comment period, the municipality may request that the person identified as the remediator of the site develop and implement a public involvement plan. Requests to be involved and comments should be directed to the remediator of the site.

For further information concerning the content of a Notice of Intent to Remediate, contact the environmental cleanup program manager in the Department regional office before which the notice appears. If information concerning this acknowledgment is required in an alternative form, contact the community relations coordinator at the appropriate regional office. TDD users may telephone the Department through the AT&T Relay Service at (800) 654-5984.

AIR QUALITY

PLAN APPROVAL AND OPERATING PERMIT APPLICATIONS

NEW SOURCES AND MODIFICATIONS

The Department of Environmental Protection (Department) has developed an "integrated" plan approval, State operating permit and Title V operating permit program. This integrated approach is designed to make the permitting process more efficient for the Department, the regulated community and the public. This approach allows the owner or operator of a facility to complete and submit all the permitting documents relevant to its application one time, affords an opportunity for public input and provides for sequential issuance of the necessary permits.

The Department has received applications for plan approvals and/or operating permits from the following facilities.

Copies of the applications, subsequently prepared draft permits, review summaries and other support materials are available for review in the regional office identified in this notice. Persons interested in reviewing the application files should contact the appropriate regional office to schedule an appointment.

Persons wishing to receive a copy of a proposed plan approval or operating permit must indicate their interest to the Department regional office within 30 days of the date of this notice and must file protests or comments on a proposed plan approval or operating permit within 30 days of the Department providing a copy of the proposed document to that person or within 30 days of its publication in the Pennsylvania Bulletin, whichever comes first. Interested persons may also request that a hearing be held concerning the proposed plan approval and operating permit. Comments or protests filed with the Department regional offices must include a concise statement of the objections to the issuance of the Plan approval or operating permit and relevant facts which serve as the basis for the objections. If the Department schedules a hearing, a notice will be published in the Pennsylvania Bulletin at least 30 days prior the date of the hearing.

Persons with a disability who wish to comment and require an auxiliary aid, service or other accommodation to participate should contact the regional office identified before the application. TDD users should contact the Department through the Pennsylvania AT&T Relay Service at (800) 654-5984.

Final plan approvals and operating permits will contain terms and conditions to ensure that the source is constructed and operating in compliance with applicable requirements in 25 Pa. Code Chapters 121-143, the Federal Clean Air Act (act) and regulations adopted under the act.

41-399-027: Smurfit-Stone Container Enterprises, Inc. (2940 Reach Road, Williamsport, PA 17701) for modification of a paperboard/plastic film gluing operation at 64 River Road in Porter Township, Lycoming County.

The proposed modification is an increase in the amount of glue used in the paperboard/plastic film gluing operation so that the resultant VOC emissions will increase from a maximum of 2.7 tons per year to a maximum of 11.27 tons per year. In addition to emitting up to 11.27 tons of VOCs per year, the modified paperboard/plastic film gluing operation will emit up to .82 ton of HAPs per year.

The Department of Environmental Protection's (Department) review of the information submitted by Smurfit-Stone Container Enterprises, Inc. indicates that the modified paperboard/plastic film gluing operation will comply with all applicable regulatory requirements pertaining to air contamination sources and the emission of air contaminants, including the best available technology requirement of 25 Pa. Code §§ 127.1 and 127.12. Based on this finding, the Department proposes to issue plan approval for the modification of the paperboard/plastic film gluing operation.

The following is a summary of the conditions the Department proposes to place in the plan approval to be issued to ensure compliance with all applicable regulatory requirements:

1. No more than 5,000 gallons of adhesives/glues shall be used in the paperboard/plastic film gluing operation in any 12-consecutive month period.

2. No more than a combined total of 20 gallons of any VOC-containing or volatile HAP-containing material, other than adhesives/glues, shall be used in, or in association with, the paperboard/plastic film gluing operation in any 12-consecutive month period. This includes cleanup solvents.

3. The adhesives/glues used in the paperboard/plastic film gluing operation shall not contain VOCs in excess of 4.48 pounds of VOCs per gallon of adhesive/glue nor shall they contain volatile HAPs in excess of .31 pound of volatile HAPs per gallon of adhesive/glue.

4. The volatile hazardous air pollutant content of any volatile HAP-containing material, other than adhesives/glues, used in, or in association with, the paperboard/plastic film gluing operation shall not exceed 3.76 pounds of HAPs per gallon of material. This includes cleanup solvents.

5. The total combined VOC emissions from the paperboard/plastic film gluing operation shall not exceed 11.27 tons in any 12-consecutive month period and the total combined volatile HAP emissions shall not exceed .82 ton in any 12-consecutive month period.

6. The atmospheric exhaust of the spray booth in which adhesives/glues are applied to paperboard and plastic film shall be equipped with filters on any occasion that adhesives/glues are being applied.

7. All VOC-containing materials and volatile hazardous air pollutant-containing materials (adhesives/glues, cleanup solvents, and the like) used in, or in association with, the paperboard/plastic film gluing operation shall be stored in closed containers when not in actual use. Adhesive/glue spray lines, guns, and the like shall be cleaned by either flushing a solid liquid stream of solvent into an appropriate container or by soaking equipment in closed containers of liquid solvent. Under no circumstances shall cleaning solvent be sprayed or flushed from a spray gun or line into the air. Under no circumstances shall cleaning solvent be flushed from a spray gun or line into a container in an atomized spray. All used cleaning solvent and any used solvent-wet cleaning cloths or rags shall be stored in closed containers and shall never be treated in any manner which would unnecessarily promote the evaporative loss of solvent to the atmosphere.

8. Records shall be maintained of the identity, composition and amount of each adhesive/glue, cleanup solvent and any other VOC-containing or volatile HAP-containing material used in the paperboard/plastic film gluing operation each month.

Southwest Region: Air Quality Program, 400 Waterfront Drive, Pittsburgh, PA 15222-4745, William Charlton, New Source Review Chief, (412) 442-4174.

30-00099E: Allegheny Energy Supply Co., LLC (800 Cabin Hill Drive, Greensburg, PA 15601) for combustion of low sulfur Powder River Basin (PRB) Coal at their Hatfield's Ferry Power Station.

Under 25 Pa. Code § 127.44(a)(4), the Department of Environmental Protection (Department) intends to issue a Plan Approval to the Allegheny Energy Supply Company, a Title V Facility, to authorize the combustion of low sulfur Powder River Basin (PRB) Coal at the Hatfield's Ferry Power Station as described in its application to the Department received on July 12, 2005. Allegheny Energy expects to blend the current fuel with up to 40% PRB. Burning PRB at this level will reduce SO₂ emissions by approximately 48,573 tons per year.

Copies of the application, the Department's analysis and other documents used in evaluation of the application are available for public inspection during normal business hours at the Department of Environmental Protection, 400 Waterfront Drive, Pittsburgh, PA 15222.

For the Department to assure compliance with all applicable standards, the Department proposes to place the following conditions on the Plan Approval:

Special Conditions for Plan Approval PA-30-00099E

1. This Plan Approval authorizes Allegheny Energy Supply Company (AES) to co-fire with PRB coal at the Hatfield's Ferry Power Station (Hatfield) located in Monongahela Township, Greene County. (25 Pa. Code § 127.12b)

2. AES shall submit a report to the Department describing in detail any decrease/increase in emissions resulting from the combustion of PRB. The report shall characterize emissions for the following pollutants; PM, PM₁₀ (filterable and condensable), SO_x (as SO₂), NO_x,

CO, VOC, Hg and visible emissions (percent opacity) and shall express emissions in lbs/mmBtu, lbs/hr, and tons/year. The report shall be submitted within 90 days of testing at the maximum PRB firing rate. (25 Pa. Code § 127.12b)

3. AES shall perform stack testing on all three units in the combined stacks, while co-firing at least 25% PRB, for PM, PM10 (filterable and condensable), SOx (as SO₂), NOx, CO, VOC, Hg and visible emissions, and shall be conducted within 120 days of initiation of co-firing PRB. Stack testing at the maximum PRB co-firing rate shall be conducted within 18 months or within 120 days after the maximum co-firing rate has been achieved. CEM data from approved monitors may be substituted for stack test data. The stack test for PM10 (filterable and condensable) shall be performed prior to co-firing with PRB unless existing test results are available (25 Pa. Code §§ 123.45 and 139.11).

i) Stack testing shall be conducted in accordance with the provisions of 25 Pa. Code Chapter 139 and the Department's Source Testing Manual.

ii) At least 60 days prior to the test, the owner/operator shall submit to the Department two copies of the procedures for the stack test and drawings with dimensions indicating the location of sampling ports and other data to ensure the collection of representative samples.

iii) At least 15 days prior to the test, the Regional Air Quality Manager shall be informed of the date and time of the test.

iv) All relevant operating parameters (for example, boiler steam flow, air flow, gross megawatts, O₂; CEMS readings, heat input, SO₃ injection rate (lb/hr), and stack flue gas volumetric flow rate) shall be recorded at appropriate intervals throughout the duration of the stack tests. Operating data recorded shall be sufficient to establish that the units and the air cleaning devices, including the SO₃ injection system, are operating at maximum routine operating conditions. A discussion of the recorded operating parameters and values shall be included in the test report.

v) Within 60 days after the stack test, two copies of the complete test report, including all recorded operating parameters, shall be submitted to the Regional Air Quality Manager for approval.

4. This Plan Approval authorizes temporary operation of the sources covered by this Plan Approval provided the following conditions are met (25 Pa. Code § 127.12b):

(i) The owner/operator shall submit written Notice of the Completion of Construction and the Operator's intent to commence operation at least 5 days prior to the completion of construction. The Notice shall state the date when construction will be completed and the date when the Operator expects to commence operation.

(ii) Operation of the sources covered by this Plan Approval is authorized only to facilitate the startup and shakedown of sources and air cleaning devices, to permit operations pending the issuance of an Operating Permit and to permit the evaluation of the source for compliance with all applicable regulations and requirements.

(iii) Upon receipt of the Notice of the Completion of Construction from the owner/operator, the Department shall authorize a 180-day Period of Temporary Operation of the sources from the date of commencement of operation. The Notice submitted by the owner/operator, prior to the expiration of this Plan Approval, shall modify the Plan Approval expiration date. The new Plan Approval expiration date shall be 180 days from the date of commencement of operation.

(iv) Upon determination by the owner/operator that the sources covered by this Plan Approval are in compliance with all conditions of the Plan Approval, the owner/operator shall contact the Department's reviewing engineer and schedule the Initial Operating Permit Inspection.

(v) Upon completion of the Initial Operating Permit Inspection and determination by the Department that the sources covered by this Plan Approval are in compliance with all conditions of the Plan Approval, the Owner/Operator shall apply for an Administrative Amendment to the Title V Operating Permit (TVOP) at least 60 days prior to the expiration date of the Plan Approval. The Administrative Amendment shall incorporate the conditions of this Plan Approval into the TVOP.

(vi) The owner/operator may request an extension of the 180-day Period of Temporary Operation if compliance with all applicable regulations and Plan Approval requirements has not been established. The extension request shall be submitted in writing at least 15 days prior to the end of the Period of Temporary Operation and shall provide a description of the compliance status of the source. The extension request shall include a detailed schedule for establishing compliance and the reasons compliance has not been established. This Period of Temporary Operation may be extended for additional periods, each not to exceed 120 days, by submitting an extension request as described previously.

Persons wishing to provide the Department with additional information that they believe should be considered prior to the issuance of the Plan Approval may submit the information to the Department at the address which follows. The following permit applications to conduct mining activities have been received by the Department of Environmental Protection (Department). A copy of an application is available for inspection at the district mining office indicated before an application. Where a 401 Water Quality Certification is needed for any aspect of a particular proposed mining activity, the submittal of the permit application will serve as the request for certification.

Written comments, objections or requests for informal conferences on applications may be submitted by any person or any officer or head of any Federal, State or local government agency or authority to the Department at the district mining office indicated before an application within 30 days of this publication, or within 30 days after the last publication of the applicant's newspaper advertisement, as provided by 25 Pa. Where any of the mining activities listed will have discharges of wastewater to streams, the Department will incorporate NPDES permits into the mining activity permits issued in response to these applications. NPDES permits will contain, at a minimum, technology-based effluent limitations as identified in this notice for the respective coal and noncoal applications. In addition, more restrictive effluent limitations, restrictions on discharge volume or restrictions on the extent of mining which may occur will be incorporated into a mining activity permit, when necessary, for compliance with water quality standards (in accordance with 25 Pa. Code Chapters 93 and 95). Persons or agencies who have Written comments or objections should contain the name, address and telephone number of the person submitting comments or objections; the application number; and a statement of sufficient detail to inform the Department on the basis of comment or objection and relevant facts upon which it is based. Requests for an informal conference must contain the name, address and telephone number of requestor; the application number; a brief summary of the issues to be raised by the requestor at the conference; and a statement whether the requestor wishes to have the conference conducted in the locality of the proposed mining activities.

Persons aggrieved by an action may appeal, under section 4 of the Environmental Hearing Board Act (35 P. S. § 7514) and 2 Pa.C.S. §§ 501—508 and 701—704 (relating to the Administrative Agency Law), to the Environmental Hearing Board, Second Floor, Rachel Carson State Office Building, 400 Market Street, P. O. Box 8457, Harrisburg, PA 17105-8457, (717) 787-3483. TDD users should contact the Environmental Hearing

The appeal form and the Board's rules of practice and procedure are also available in Braille or on audiotape from the Secretary of the Board at (717) 787-3483. This paragraph does not, in and of itself, create any right of appeal beyond that permitted by applicable statutes and decision law.

For individuals who wish to challenge an action, appeals must reach the Board within 30 days. A lawyer is not needed to file an appeal with the Board.

Important legal rights are at stake, however, so individuals should show this notice to a lawyer at once. Persons who cannot afford a lawyer may qualify for free pro bono representation. Call the Secretary to the Board at (717) 787-3483 for more information.

HAZARDOUS SITES CLEANUP UNDER THE ACT OF OCTOBER 18, 1988

Proposed Interim Response

Mount Pleasant Street Residences, Borough of Southwest Greensburg, Westmoreland County

The Department of Environmental Protection (Department), under the authority of the Hazardous Sites Cleanup Act (HSCA) (35 P. S. §§ 6020.101—6020.1305), is proposing an interim response at Mount Pleasant Street Residences, Borough of Southwest Greensburg, Westmoreland County.

The Mount Pleasant Street Residences site consists of eight residential dwellings located along Mount Pleasant Street in the Borough of Southwest Greensburg. The residences are located across Mount Pleasant Street from an active Sunoco Gasoline Station.

The Sunoco Station has a long history of product releases and complaints of gasoline vapors in adjacent Mount Pleasant Street Residences. In response to these complaints, Sunoco conducted groundwater and soil sampling, soil gas surveys and indoor air sampling events at the Mount Pleasant Street Residences. The sampling indicates that VOCs are present in soils, groundwater and within the residences. Sunoco has concluded that the reoccurring odors in the residences are not a result of their operations.

A Health Consultation was conducted by the Agency for Toxic Substances and Disease Registry (ATSDR) to determine if residents were exposed to VOCs in their homes at levels that would harm their health. Due to insufficient data, ATSDR recommended that additional investigation be conducted at the Mount Pleasant Street Residences to determine whether VOCs are entering these homes at harmful levels.

The Department has considered several alternatives for a response at the site including:

1. No action.
2. Restricting the site.
3. Conducting an investigation.

The Department has determined that conducting a further investigation at the site is the appropriate alternative. The Department chose this alternative because it complies with section 501(a) of the HSCA (35 P. S. § 6020.501(a)) and is the only alternative that is protective of human health and the environment. An investigation would provide the Department with the information required to determine if additional remediation efforts are necessary at the site to protect human health and the environment. The Department's proposed action is intended to fully characterize the site and enable the Department to determine the most appropriate method to remediate the site.

This notice is being provided under section 506(b) of the HSCA (35 P. S. § 6020.506(b)). The administrative record which contains the information that forms the basis and documents the selection of this response action is available for public review and comment. The administrative record is located at the Department's Southwest Regional Office in Pittsburgh and is available for review Monday through Friday from 8 a.m. to 4 p.m.

The administrative record will be open for comment from October 15 until December 15. Persons may submit written comments into the record during this time only by sending them to Kevin Halloran, Environmental Cleanup Program, 400 Waterfront Drive, Pittsburgh, PA 15222 or by delivering them to the Southwest Regional Office in person.

In addition, persons may present oral comments for inclusion in the administrative record at a public hearing. The Department has scheduled the hearing on Thursday, November 17 at 6 p.m. at the Department of Environmental Protection Greensburg District Mining Office, Armbrust Professional Center located on SR 819. Persons wishing to present comments may register with Helen Humphreys before 4:30 p.m. on November 16 by telephone at (412) 442-4000 or in writing at 400 Waterfront Drive, Pittsburgh, PA 15222.

Persons with a disability who wish to attend the hearing and require auxiliary aid, service or other accommodations to participate in the proceedings should call Helen Humphreys at (412) 442-4000 or through the Pennsylvania AT&T Relay Service at (800) 654-5984 (TDD) to discuss how the Department may accommodate their needs.

Proposed Interim Response

John Harhai Landfill, Mount Pleasant Township, Westmoreland County.

The Department of Environmental Protection (Department), under the authority of the Hazardous Sites Cleanup Act (HSCA) (35 P. S. §§ 6020.101—6020.1305), is proposing an interim response at John Harhai Landfill, Mount Pleasant Township, Westmoreland County.

The site consists of a 16 acre abandoned landfill used for the disposal of industrial and municipal wastes from 1965 to 1978. An unknown quantity of industrial waste was dumped or buried at the site. Several exposed drums containing various wastes are present at the site. Adjacent to the exposed drums, there are several mounded areas that may contain additional drums. Hazardous substances have been detected at the site in past sampling events. Contaminants may be leaving the site through ground and surface water. The John Harhai Landfill currently poses a substantial threat to public health, safety and the environment

The Department has considered several alternatives for a response at the site including:

1. No action.
2. Restricting the site.
3. Conducting an investigation.

The Department has determined that conducting a further investigation at the site is the appropriate alternative. The Department chose this alternative because it complies with section 501(a) of the HSCA (35 P. S. § 6020.501(a)) and is the only alternative that is protective of human health and the environment. An investigation would provide the Department with the information required to determine if additional remediation efforts are necessary at the site to protect human health and the environment. The Department's proposed action is intended to fully characterize the site and enable the Department to determine the most appropriate method to remediate the site.

This notice is being provided under section 506(b) of the HSCA (35 P. S. § 6020.506(b)). The administrative record which contains the information that forms the basis and documents the selection of this response action is available for public review and comment. The administrative record is located at the Department's Southwest Regional Office in Pittsburgh and is available for review Monday through Friday from 8 a.m. to 4 p.m.

The administrative record will be open for comment from October 15 until December 15, 2005. Persons may submit written comments into the record during this time only, by sending them to Kevin Halloran, Environmental Cleanup Program, 400 Waterfront Drive, Pittsburgh, PA 15222 or by delivering them to the Southwest Regional Office in person.

In addition, persons may present oral comments for inclusion in the administrative record at a public hearing. The Department has scheduled the hearing on Thursday, November 17 at 7:15 p.m. at the Department of Environmental Protection Greensburg District Mining Office in the Armbrust Professional Center located on SR 819. Persons wishing to present comments may register with Helen Humphreys before 4:30 p.m. on November 16, 2005, by telephone at (412) 442-4000 or in writing at 400 Waterfront Drive, Pittsburgh, PA 15222.

Persons with a disability who wish to attend the hearing and require auxiliary aid, service or other accommodations to participate in the proceedings should call Helen Humphreys at (412) 442-4000 or through the Pennsylvania AT&T Relay Service at (800) 654-5984 (TDD) to discuss how the Department may accommodate their needs.

LAND RECYCLING AND ENVIRONMENTAL REMEDIATION

UNDER ACT 2, 1995

PREAMBLE 2

The following plans and reports were submitted under the Land Recycling and Environmental Remediation Standards Act (35 P. S. §§ 6026.101—6026.908).

Provisions of Chapter 3 of the Land Recycling and Environmental Remediation Standards Act (act) require the Department of Environmental Protection (Department) to publish in the Pennsylvania Bulletin a notice of submission of plans and reports. A final report is submitted to document cleanup of a release of a regulated substance at a site to one of the act's remediation standards. A final report provides a description of the site investigation to characterize the nature and extent of contaminants in environmental media, the basis for selecting the environmental media of concern, documentation supporting the selection of residential or nonresidential exposure factors, a description of the remediation performed and summaries of sampling analytical results which demonstrate that remediation has attained the cleanup standard selected. Submission of plans and reports, other than the final report, shall also be published in the Pennsylvania Bulletin. These include the remedial investigation report, risk assessment report and cleanup plan for a site-specific standard remediation. A remedial investigation report includes conclusions from the site investigation, concentration of regulated substances in environmental media; benefits of refuse of the property and, in some circumstances, a fate and transport analysis. If required, a risk assessment report describes potential adverse effects caused by the presence of regulated substances. If required, a cleanup plan evaluates the abilities of potential remedies to achieve remedy requirements.

For further information concerning plans or reports, contact the Environmental Cleanup Program manager in the Department regional office after which the notice of receipt of plans or reports appears. If information concerning plans or reports is required in an alternative form, contact the Community Relations Coordinator at the appropriate regional office. TDD users may telephone the Department through the AT&T Relay Service at (800) 654-5984.

The Department has received the following plans and reports:

LAND RECYCLING AND ENVIRONMENTAL REMEDIATION

UNDER ACT 2, 1995

PREAMBLE 3

The Department has taken action on the following plans and reports under the Land Recycling and Environmental Remediation Standards Act (35 P. S. §§ 6026.101—6026.908).

Provisions of 25 Pa. Code § 250.8, administration of the Land Recycling and Environmental Remediation Standards Act (act), require the Department of Environmental Protection (Department) to publish in the Pennsylvania Bulletin a notice of final actions on plans and reports. A final report is submitted to document cleanup of a release of a regulated substance at a site to one of the remediation standards of the act. A final report provides a description of the site investigation to characterize the nature and extent of contaminants in environmental media, the basis of selecting the environmental media of concern, documentation supporting the selection of residential or nonresidential exposure factors, a description of the remediation performed and summaries of sampling methodology and analytical results which demonstrate that the remediation has attained the cleanup standard selected. Plans and reports required by provisions of the act for compliance with selection of remediation to a site-specific standard, in addition to a final report, include a remedial investigation report, risk assessment report and cleanup plan. A remedial investigation report includes conclusions from the site investigation, concentration of regulated substances in environmental media, benefits of refuse of the property and, in some circumstances, a fate and transport analysis. If required, a risk assessment report describes potential adverse effects caused by the presence of regulated substances. If required, a cleanup plan evaluates the abilities of potential remedies to achieve remedy requirements. A work plan for conducting a baseline remedial investigation is required by provisions of the act for compliance with selection of a special industrial area remediation. The baseline remedial investigation, based on the work plan, is compiled into the baseline environmental report to establish a reference point to show existing contamination, describe proposed remediation to be done and include a description of existing or potential public benefits of the use or reuse of the property. The Department may approve or disapprove plans and reports submitted. This notice provides the Department's decision and, if relevant, the basis for disapproval.

For further information concerning the plans and reports, contact the Environmental Cleanup Program manager in the Department regional office before which the notice of the plan or report appears. If information concerning a final report is required in an alternative form, contact the Community Relations Coordinator at the appropriate regional office. TDD users may telephone the Department through the AT&T Relay Service at (800) 654-5984.

FISH AND BOAT COMMISSION

Addition to List of Class A Wild Trout Waters;
Unnamed Tributary to Ontelaunee Creek, Lehigh County

The Fish and Boat Commission (Commission) has approved the addition of an unnamed tributary to Ontelaunee Creek (first tributary west of SR 309), Lehigh County, to its list of Class A Wild Trout Streams as set forth at 35 Pa.B. 4794 (August 20, 2005). This stream extends for a distance of 0.85 mile from the headwaters to the mouth, which is located at a latitude of 40°42'12" and a longitude of 75°45'58". The stream is located north of Mosserville, flows in a southerly direction along SR 309 and is the first tributary to Ontelaunee Creek to cross under Lentz Road west of SR 309.

Under 58 Pa. Code § 57.8a (relating to Class A wild trout streams), it is the Commission's policy to manage self-sustaining Class A wild trout populations as a renewable natural resource to conserve that resource and the angling it provides. Class A wild trout populations represent the best of this Commonwealth's naturally reproducing trout fisheries. The Commission manages these stream sections solely for the perpetuation of the wild trout fishery with no stocking.

Independence Blue Cross; Revised Rates for its Nongroup and Community Group Security 65 Plans; Rate Filing

Independence Blue Cross has filed filing no. 10-P-05 for approval increased rates for its nongroup Security 65 program. The revised rates are to be effective on January 1, 2006, and reflect an increase of 11.4% for standardized benefit Plan C and 16.0% for standardized benefit Plan H over the currently approved rates. The monthly premiums for subscribers enrolling at first eligibility are as follows:

	Current Rate	Proposed Rate
Plan C	$84.80	$94.45
Plan H	$141.45	$164.00

These rate adjustments will affect approximately 37,000 subscribers in this Commonwealth and will generate approximately $5.5 million in additional premium annually. No adjustment is requested for nongroup Security 65 standardized benefit Plans A and B.

Also included in the filing are reduced rates for insureds who choose to drop their prescription drug benefits. Plan H includes prescription drug benefits which the insured may eliminate from their coverage effective January 1, 2006, in exchange for a reduced premium rate. Rate reductions are filed for the company's Security 65 nongroup and community group programs and in both cases reflect a 42.8% rate reduction from the proposed January 1, 2006, rates. The proposed Plan H rates with and without Rx coverage are as follows:

	Proposed with Rx	Proposed w/o Rx
Nongroup	$164.00	$93.75

The Authority is reopening its April 1, 2005, solicitation seeking applications for innovative, advanced energy research and deployment projects and for businesses interested in locating their advanced energy operations in this Commonwealth. For this round of funding, projects must be related to electric power. The total amount of available funding is $3.5 million. For purposes of this financial assistance opportunity, "alternative energy projects and related research" refers to deployment projects, manufacturing or research involving the following types of fuels, technologies or measures: solar energy; wind; low-impact hydropower; geothermal; biologically-derived methane gas, including landfill gas; biomass; fuel cells; coal-mine methane; waste coal; integrated gasification combined cycle; and demand management measures, including recycled energy and energy recovery, energy efficiency and load management.

Under this program, the Authority may award financial assistance in the form of grants or loans of up to $1 million or loan guarantees. Project work on grants must be completed and loans must close no later than June 30, 2006.

Eligibility differs depending on the type of assistance requested. For grants under this solicitation, the following entities are eligible to apply: corporations, partnerships, associations and other legal business entities; nonprofit corporations; individuals; municipalities of this Commonwealth; and public corporations, authorities or bodies. Eligibility for loan guarantees is limited to corporations, partnerships and other legal business entities.

Funding is competitive and will be determined by vote of the Authority's Board of Directors. Guidelines and applications may be viewed and downloaded from the

PENNSYLVANIA PUBLIC UTILITY COMMISSION

September 2005 Review of Fuel Cost Recovery Surcharge; S. P. 28208

Public Meeting held
September 29, 2005

Commissioners Present: Wendell F. Holland, Chairperson; James H. Cawley, Vice Chairperson; Bill Shane; Kim Pizzingrilli; Terrance J. Fitzpatrick

Order

By the Commission:

The Pennsylvania Public Utility Commission (Commission) by its Fuel Cost Recovery Surcharge Order at Special Permission Number 28208, adopted June 10, 2004, authorized call or demand, paratransit and airport transfer carriers under the jurisdiction of this Commission to adjust rates and fares to offset unanticipated fuel expenditures. All call or demand carriers were authorized to collect a fuel surcharge of thirty cents ($.30) per trip for each paying passenger, and all paratransit and airport transfer carriers were authorized to collect a fuel surcharge of seventy cents ($.70) per trip for each paying passenger in addition to tariff rates. The fuel surcharge was effective on June 14, 2004, and was scheduled to terminate on June 12, 2005.

At its Public Meeting of June 2, 2005 the Commission approved an extension of the temporary fuel surcharge until June 12, 2006. The Commission also required the Bureau of Transportation and Safety to investigate the merits of the fuel surcharge on a quarterly basis.

As a result of the volatile nature of gasoline prices in the aftermath of Hurricane Katrina, the amounts for the fuel surcharge were adjusted accordingly at the Public Meeting of September 9, 2005. Call or demand carriers were permitted to increase the fuel surcharge from $.30 per trip for each paying passenger to $.90 per trip for each paying passenger, and paratransit carriers and airport transfer carriers to increase the fuel surcharge from $.70 per trip for each paying passenger to $2.00 per trip for each paying passenger.

The Commission also recognized that the price of fuel is likely to fluctuate in the future months. To ensure that the surcharge is appropriately adjusted to the price of fuel, it was ordered that the temporary fuel surcharge was to be evaluated on a monthly basis until further notice.

According to data obtained from the Energy Information Administration of the Department of Energy, the average cost of regular unleaded gasoline for the week ending September 5, 2005 was $3.29, an increase of 64% over the $2.00 used at the beginning of the fuel surcharge. The most recent data for the week ending September 26, 2005 indicates that the price of gasoline is $2.83 per gallon, which is a decrease of $.46 or 14% from the average price for September 5, 2005.

The effect of this decrease results in an average cost of fuel per trip of $1.28 for call or demand operations. This is a decrease of $.21 or 14% from the previous cost of $1.49. The average cost of fuel per trip for paratransit and airport transfer operations decreases from $3.44 to $2.96. That is a 14% decrease or a difference of $.48.

Based upon the evidence available, we are of the opinion that the passenger motor carrier industry continues to have a need for the fuel surcharge. However, due to a decrease in prices we believe it is necessary to make adjustments to the fuel cost recovery surcharge; Therefore,

It Is Ordered that:

1. The Fuel Cost Recovery Surcharge established by Special Permission No. 28208 be continued.

2. Call or demand carriers rendering transportation service under the jurisdiction of the PA Public Utility Commission shall decrease the charge from $.90 per trip for each paying passenger to $.70 per trip for each paying passenger.

3. Paratransit carriers and airport transfer carriers rendering transportation service under the jurisdiction of the PA Public Utility Commission shall decrease the charge from $2.00 per trip for each paying passenger to $1.55 per trip for each paying passenger.

4. The decreases be approved to become effective October 3, 2005.

5. The Fuel Cost Recovery Surcharge will continue to be reviewed on a monthly basis with the next review taking place at the Public Meeting of October 27, 2005.

6. Call or demand motor carriers shall notify the public by placing a notice in all vehicles, which shall read: "The PA Public Utility Commission has authorized a fuel surcharge under Special Permission No. 28208. The surcharge has been decreased to $.70 per trip for each paying passenger and is effective on October 3, 2005. The fuel surcharge shall terminate on June 12, 2006."

7. Paratransit and airport transfer motor carriers shall notify the public by placing a notice in all vehicles, which shall read: "The PA Public Utility Commission has authorized a fuel surcharge under Special Permission No. 28208. The surcharge has been decreased to $1.55 per trip for each paying passenger and is effective on October 3, 2005. The fuel surcharge shall terminate on June 12, 2006."

8. The Secretary of this Commission shall duly certify this order and deposit same with the Legislative Reference Bureau for publication in the Pennsylvania Bulletin.
