Title 58—RECREATION

PENNSYLVANIA GAMING CONTROL BOARD

[58 PA. CODE CH. 503b]

Disclosure of Information Related to Persons on the Self-Exclusion List

The Pennsylvania Gaming Control Board (Board), at its September 12, 2007, public meeting, adopted guidelines for the disclosure of information related to individuals on the Board's self-exclusion list. Section 1516(d) of the Pennsylvania Race Horse Development and Gaming Act, 4 Pa.C.S. § 1516(d) (relating to list of persons self excluded from gaming activities) provides that the Board's list of self-excluded persons may not be open to public inspection. However, since the creation of the Board's self-exclusion program, the Board has received a variety of requests for information relating to individuals who are or are not on the self-exclusion list. In an effort to provide reasonable transparency related to the self-exclusion list and to provide information regarding the efficacy of the self-exclusion program, the Board is adopting these guidelines as a statement of policy to provide guidance to the general public as to when information relating to individuals who are or are not on the self-exclusion list will be released. Consistent with its current practice, the Board will not disclose to the public the identity of individuals who are on the Board self-exclusion list.

Fiscal Impact

This statement of policy provides guidance on when the Board will release information related to persons who are on the Board's list of self-excluded individuals. Since these guidelines do not impose any additional duties or responsibilities, they do not impose any costs on the general public, entities regulated by the Board or the Board.
