READER'S GUIDE TO THE PENNSYLVANIA BULLETIN AND THE PENNSYLVANIA CODE

Pennsylvania Bulletin

The Pennsylvania Bulletin is the official gazette of the Commonwealth of Pennsylvania. It is published every week and includes a table of contents. A cumulative subject matter index is published quarterly.

The Pennsylvania Bulletin serves several purposes. First, it is the temporary supplement to the Pennsylvania Code, which is the official codification of agency rules and regulations and other statutorily authorized documents. Changes in the codified text, whether by adoption, amendment, repeal or emergency action must be published in the Pennsylvania Bulletin. Further, agencies proposing changes to the codified text do so in the Pennsylvania Bulletin.

Second, the Pennsylvania Bulletin also publishes: Governor's Executive Orders; State Contract Notices; Summaries of Enacted Statutes; Statewide and Local Court Rules; Attorney General Opinions; Motor Carrier Applications before the Pennsylvania Public Utility Commission; Applications and Actions before the Department of Environmental Protection; Orders of the Independent Regulatory Review Commission; and other documents authorized by law.

The text of certain documents published in the Pennsylvania Bulletin is the only valid and enforceable text. Courts are required to take judicial notice of the Pennsylvania Bulletin.

Adoption, Amendment or Repeal of Regulations

Generally an agency wishing to adopt, amend or repeal regulations must first publish in the Pennsylvania Bulletin a Notice of Proposed Rulemaking. There are limited instances when the agency may omit the proposal step; it still must publish the adopted version.

The Notice of Proposed Rulemaking contains the full text of the change, the agency contact person, a fiscal note required by law and background for the action.

The agency then allows sufficient time for public comment before taking final action. An adopted proposal must be published in the Pennsylvania Bulletin before it can take effect. If the agency wishes to adopt changes to the Notice of Proposed Rulemaking to enlarge the scope, it must repropose.

Citation to the Pennsylvania Bulletin

Cite material in the Pennsylvania Bulletin by volume number, a page number and date. Example: Volume 1, Pennsylvania Bulletin, page 801, January 9, 1971 (short form: 1 Pa.B. 801 (January 9, 1971)).

Pennsylvania Code

The Pennsylvania Code is the official codification of rules and regulations issued by Commonwealth agencies and other statutorily authorized documents. The Pennsylvania Bulletin is the temporary supplement to the Pennsylvania Code, printing changes as soon as they occur. These changes are then permanently codified by the Pennsylvania Code Reporter, a monthly, loose-leaf supplement.

The Pennsylvania Code is cited by title number and section number. Example: Title 10 Pennsylvania Code, § 1.1 (short form: 10 Pa. Code § 1.1).

Under the Pennsylvania Code codification system, each regulation is assigned a unique number by title and section. Titles roughly parallel the organization of Commonwealth government. Title 1 Pennsylvania Code lists every agency and its corresponding Code title location.

How to Find Documents

Search for your area of interest in the Pennsylvania Code. The Pennsylvania Code is available at www.pacode.com.

Source Notes give the history of regulations. To see if there have been recent changes, not yet codified, check the List of Pennsylvania Code Chapters Affected in the most recent issue of the Pennsylvania Bulletin.

A chronological table of the history of Pennsylvania Code sections may be found at www.legis.state.pa.us/cfdocs/legis/CH/Public/pcde_index.cfm.

The Pennsylvania Bulletin also publishes a quarterly List of Pennsylvania Code Sections Affected which lists the regulations in numerical order, followed by the citation to the Pennsylvania Bulletin in which the change occurred. The Pennsylvania Bulletin is available at www.pabulletin.com.

Printing Format

Material proposed to be added to an existing rule or regulation is printed in bold face and material proposed to be deleted from a rule or regulation is enclosed in brackets [] and printed in bold face. Asterisks indicate ellipsis of Pennsylvania Code text retained without change. Proposed new or additional regulations are printed in ordinary style face.

Fiscal Notes

Section 612 of The Administrative Code of 1929 (71 P. S. § 232) requires that the Office of Budget prepare a fiscal note for regulatory actions and administrative procedures of the administrative departments, boards, commissions or authorities receiving money from the State Treasury stating whether the proposed action or procedure causes a loss of revenue or an increase in the cost of programs for the Commonwealth or its political subdivisions; that the fiscal note be published in the Pennsylvania Bulletin at the same time as the proposed change is advertised. A fiscal note provides the following information: (1) the designation of the fund out of which the appropriation providing for expenditures under the action or procedure shall be made; (2) the probable cost for the fiscal year the program is implemented; (3) projected cost estimate of the program for each of the 5 succeeding fiscal years; (4) fiscal history of the program for which expenditures are to be made; (5) probable loss of revenue for the fiscal year of its implementation; (6) projected loss of revenue from the program for each of the 5 succeeding fiscal years; (7) line item, if any, of the General Appropriation Act or other appropriation act out of which expenditures or losses of Commonwealth funds shall occur as a result of the action or procedures; (8) recommendation, if any, of the Secretary of the Budget and the reasons therefor.

The required information is published in the foregoing order immediately following the proposed change to which it relates; the omission of an item indicates that the agency text of the fiscal note states that there is no information available with respect thereto. In items (3) and (6) information is set forth for the first through fifth fiscal years; in that order, following the year the program is implemented, which is stated. In item (4) information is set forth for the current and two immediately preceding years, in that order. In item (8) the recommendation, if any, made by the Secretary of Budget is published with the fiscal note. See 4 Pa. Code § 7.231 et seq. Where “no fiscal impact” is published, the statement means no additional cost or revenue loss to the Commonwealth or its local political subdivision is intended.

Reproduction, Dissemination or Publication of Information

Third parties may not take information from the Pennsylvania Code and Pennsylvania Bulletin and reproduce, disseminate or publish such information except as provided by 1 Pa. Code § 3.44. 1 Pa. Code § 3.44 reads as follows:

§ 3.44. General permission to reproduce content of Code and Bulletin.

Information published under this part, which information includes, but is not limited to, cross references, tables of cases, notes of decisions, tables of contents, indexes, source notes, authority notes, numerical lists and codification guides, other than the actual text of rules or regulations may be reproduced only with the written consent of the Bureau. The information which appears on the same leaf with the text of a rule or regulation, however, may be incidentally reproduced in connection with the reproduction of the rule or regulation, if the reproduction is for the private use of a subscriber and not for resale. There are no other restrictions on the reproduction of information published under this part, and the Commonwealth hereby consents to a reproduction.

Annex A

TITLE 246. MINOR COURT CIVIL RULES

PART I. GENERAL

CHAPTER 300. CIVIL ACTION

Rule 314. Return, Waiver and Failure of Service; Reinstatement.

A. The person serving the complaint shall, at or before the time of the hearing, make proof of service which shall show (1) the manner of service, (2) the date, time, and place of service and, (3) the name and relationship or title, if any, of the person on whom the complaint was served. The proof of service shall be filed with the original complaint.

B. When service is made by certified mail or comparable delivery method resulting in a return receipt in paper or electronic form, the return receipt shall be filed with the original complaint.

C. The appearance of a defendant in person or by representative or the filing by a defendant of a claim in the case shall be deemed a waiver of any defect in service but not a waiver of a defect in venue.

D. If the complaint is not served on the defendant in time to permit holding a hearing within 60 days of the filing of the complaint, the magisterial district judge shall dismiss the complaint without prejudice.

[E. Upon written request of the plaintiff, a complaint that has been dismissed without prejudice for failure to make service pursuant to subdivision D of this rule may be reinstated at any time and any number of times.] E.(1) When the complaint is dismissed without prejudice for failure to make service pursuant to paragraph D of this rule as to all defendants, upon written request of the plaintiff the complaint may be reinstated at any time and any number of times. The date of reinstatement shall be the date upon which the request for reinstatement is filed.

(2) When the complaint has been filed against multiple defendants and subsequently dismissed without prejudice for failure to make service pursuant to paragraph D of this rule as to less than all defendants, any further action against an unserved defendant after a hearing on the merits or the entry of a default judgment must be initiated by the filing of a new complaint.

Official Note: The provision concerning appearance not being a waiver of venue was inserted in [subdivision] paragraph C of this rule to prevent the concentration of business in the office of a favorable magisterial district judge. Also, the public cannot generally be expected to be aware of venue provisions. See Rule 302H regarding improper venue.

[Subdivision] Paragraph D is intended to prevent the accumulation of stale claims in the office of the magisterial district judge.

[Subdivision E] Subparagraph E(1) provides for the reinstatement, upon written request of the plaintiff, of a complaint that has been dismissed without prejudice for failure to make service under [subdivision D] paragraph D against all defendants. Compare Pa.R.C.P. No. 401(b). The written request for reinstatement may be in any form and may consist of a notation on the permanent copy of the complaint form, "Reinstatement of complaint requested," subscribed by the plaintiff. The magisterial district judge shall mark all copies of the reinstated complaint, "Complaint reinstated. Request for reinstatement filed on _____ (date)." If it is necessary to use a new form for the reinstated complaint, the reinstated complaint, except for service portions thereof, shall be an exact copy of the original complaint, although signatures may be typed or printed with the mark "/s/" indicating an actual signature. The language in [subdivision E] subparagraph E(1) that a complaint may be reinstated "at any time" will permit reinstatement after a faulty service without waiting for further proceedings in the case. Reinstatement must occur within the period of the statute of limitations from the date of the last filing or reinstatement. The cost for reinstating a complaint is specified in Section 1725.1 of the Judicial Code, 42

Pa.C.S. § 1725.1. In addition, there may be additional server costs for service of the reinstated complaint.

Subparagraph E(2) addresses the scenario involving multiple defendants when timely service is not made upon all defendants, resulting in a dismissal without prejudice as to some defendants. Subparagraph E(2) clarifies that the plaintiff may not reinstate the complaint after the hearing or entry of a default judgment in this circumstance, but must initiate an entirely new action by filing a new complaint, subject to the applicable fees and costs for a new filing.

REPORT

Proposed Amendment of Pa.R.C.P.M.D.J. No. 314

Reinstatement of Complaint

I. Introduction

The Minor Court Rules Committee (“Committee”) is planning to propose the amendment of Pa.R.C.P.M.D.J. No. 314 to the Supreme Court of Pennsylvania. The rule addresses, among other things, reinstatement of a complaint following a dismissal without prejudice for failure to make timely service upon a defendant. The Committee is proposing to distinguish the procedure for cases when the complaint is dismissed as to all defendants from dismissal for only some of the defendants.

II. Discussion

Rule 314 addresses matters relating to service, including the return of service, dismissal of the complaint without prejudice for failure to make timely service on the defendant, and reinstatement of the complaint following a dismissal without prejudice for failure to make timely service.

The Committee received an inquiry regarding dismissal without prejudice and the ability to reinstate the complaint when the complaint names multiple defendants, not all defendants have been served, the complaint is dismissed as to the unserved defendant(s), but the case moves forward against the served defendant(s), and proceeds to a hearing or a default judgment. A concern arises when the plaintiff later locates an unserved defendant and requests reinstatement of the complaint pursuant to Rule 314E. The rule does not address how to handle this scenario, and reinstating an adjudicated case to proceed against the previously unserved defendants raises concerns with maintaining the integrity of the court’s original judgment, including the appeal period applicable to the parties.

The Committee discussed the inquiry, and agreed that it would be appropriate to amend the procedures set forth in Rule 314E to distinguish between scenarios when the complaint has been dismissed as to all defendants and when the complaint has been dismissed as to less than all defendants.

III. Proposed Changes

The Committee plans to propose the amendment of Rule 314 by expanding Rule 314E to contain two subparagraphs. Subparagraph E(1) provides that when the complaint is dismissed without prejudice as to all defendants for failure to make timely service, the complaint may be reinstated. Subparagraph E(2), in contrast, provides that when the complaint has been dismissed without prejudice for failure to make timely service as to less than all defendants, any further action against an unserved defendant must be initiated by filing a new complaint. The Official Note provides that the new action in subparagraph E(2) is subject to all applicable fees and costs for a new filing.

The Committee also proposes minor stylistic changes throughout Rule 314.

RULES AND REGULATIONS

Title 25—ENVIRONMENTAL PROTECTION

ENVIRONMENTAL QUALITY BOARD

[25 PA. CODE CH. 252]

Environmental Laboratory Accreditation

The Environmental Quality Board (Board) amends Chapter 252 (relating to environmental laboratory accreditation) to read as set forth in Annex A. This final-form rulemaking clarifies existing requirements, deletes or amends overly restrictive and cost prohibitive requirements, and includes additional requirements necessary for laboratory accreditation. This final-form rulemaking also amends the fee structure in § 252.204 (relating to fees).

This final-form rulemaking was adopted by the Board at its meeting of April 18, 2017.

A. Effective Date

This final-form rulemaking will be effective upon publication in the Pennsylvania Bulletin.

B. Contact Persons

For further information contact Aaren S. Alger, Chief, Laboratory Accreditation Program, P.O. Box 1467, Harrisburg, PA 17105-1467, (717) 346-8212; or William S. Cumings, Jr., Assistant Counsel, Bureau of Regulatory Counsel, P.O. Box 8464, Rachel Carson State Office Building, Harrisburg, PA 17105-8464, (717) 787-7060. Persons with a disability may use the Pennsylvania AT&T Relay Service at (800) 654-5984 (TDD users) or (800) 654-5988 (voice users). This final-form rulemaking is available on the Department of Environmental Protection's (Department) web site at www.dep.pa.gov (select "Public Participation," then "Environmental Quality Board (EQB)").

C. Statutory Authority

This final-form rulemaking is being made under the authority of 27 Pa.C.S. § 4105(a) (relating to powers and duties of Environmental Quality Board), which directs the Board to adopt regulations as necessary to implement 27 Pa.C.S. Chapter 41 (relating to environmental laboratory accreditation), and section 1920-A of The Administrative Code of 1929 (71 P.S. § 510-20), authorizing and directing the Board to adopt regulations necessary for the proper performance of the work of the Department.

D. Background and Purpose

The regulations governing environmental laboratory accreditation in Chapter 252 became effective on January 28, 2006, and were amended on April 10, 2010. While completing ongoing rounds of laboratory assessments under Chapter 252, the Laboratory Accreditation Program (Program) discovered various provisions that were unclear, where the regulations were lacking sufficient detail to ensure full compliance with the regulatory requirements or where the standards were overly restrictive and cost prohibitive. The Program also determined that several necessary standards for accreditation were lacking. This final-form rulemaking amends various citations within the scope of Chapter 252, but the applicable statutes within the scope of the regulations remain unchanged.

Under 27 Pa.C.S. § 4104(6) (relating to powers and duties), the accreditation fees must be "in an amount sufficient to pay the department's cost of implementing and administering the accreditation program." In addition, § 252.204(b) requires the Department to recommend to the Board regulatory changes to the accreditation fees every 3 years to address any disparity between Program income generated by the fees and Program costs. In accordance with this requirement, the Program compared the work necessary to perform the functions of the Program to evaluate the costs associated with the Program. Based on this analysis, the Department determined that the accreditation fees in § 252.204 were not sufficient to recover the Department's costs to implement the Program. This final-form rulemaking provides a new fee structure to cover the costs of the Program.

The Department worked with the Laboratory Accreditation Advisory Committee (LAAC) to amend Chapter 252 in a manner that ensures appropriate requirements for environmental laboratory accreditation. The Department, with the assistance of the LAAC, ensured that the interests, concerns and needs of the regulated community were considered and implemented appropriately. The LAAC met throughout 2014, 2015 and 2016 to review and comment on drafts of the proposed and final-form Chapter 252 amendments presented by the Department. The Department also discussed the written comments received during the public comment period during a meeting of the LAAC on December 7, 2016. On December 7, 2016, the LAAC unanimously voted to recommend the final-form Chapter 252 amendments for presentation to the Board.

E. Summary of Changes to the Proposed Rulemaking

Editorial corrections and revisions were made throughout this final-form rulemaking based on comments received during the public comment period and to ensure that this final-form rulemaking meets the requirements of the Pennsylvania Code & Bulletin Style Manual. For example, the term "but not limited to" was deleted throughout.

Subchapter A. General provisions

§ 252.3. Scope

The list of applicable statutes for which environmental testing shall be conducted by an accredited laboratory is amended to accurately reflect correct statute names and citations.

Subchapter B. Application, fees and supporting documents

§ 252.201. Application and supporting documents

§ 252.203. Accreditation renewal

In this final-form rulemaking, "on forms provided by the Department" is added in response to a comment by the Independent Regulatory Review Commission (IRRC) concerning the format and content of the application requirements that environmental laboratories shall submit. This final-form rulemaking adds additional language to § 252.203(d) (relating to accreditation renewal) at the suggestion of IRRC to add clarity to the written client notification requirements for laboratories when the laboratory's accreditation certificate expires. Laboratories are required to notify all affected customers of the loss or lapse in accreditation in writing within 48 hours of the certificate expiration. This additional language explains that the Department may choose to require the use of specific language or to require Department approval of the notice before issuance.

Subchapter C. General standards for accreditation§ 252.304. Personnel requirements

The requirement for laboratory personnel to meet any more stringent qualification requirements established by method, regulation or program is added as subsection (a)(4) in response to comments received during the public comment period. The proposed rulemaking included this provision in the laboratory supervisor qualifications section, but, as noted by two commentators, this provision is also applicable to some laboratory personnel.

§ 252.306. Equipment, supplies and reference materials

The allowance for recertification of expired standards, reagents and media in subsection (h)(6) is deleted in this final-form rulemaking based on a comment received from the public. The Department added this provision in 2010. No laboratory has sought approval from the Department for approval to recertify expired laboratory materials. Therefore, removal of this provision does not negatively impact the regulated community and will ensure that laboratories use valid standards.

At the suggestion of several public comments, the provision for temperature distribution studies for microbiology incubators in subsection (j) is revised to exempt this requirement for circulating water baths. Circulating water baths ensure even temperature distribution throughout the incubator. Distribution studies are not necessary to ensure valid temperature distribution throughout the unit.

§ 252.307. Methodology

At the suggestion of a commentator, the Department deletes the requirement for a laboratory to develop the sample collection and preservation documents from subsection (j). The Department does not intend to require a laboratory to develop procedures that might already exist or be available from other organizations provided that the sample collection and preservation instructions meet the requirements of subsections (f) and (g).

Subchapter D. Quality assurance and quality control requirements§ 252.401. Basic requirements

Significant public comment and discussion during public meetings of the LAAC resulted in the addition to subsection (f) requiring that environmental laboratories check and document the pH of every sample container received by a laboratory. Numerous comments and concerns were raised regarding the proposed language, the necessity of the requirements and the overall cost to the regulated community. After much discussion and consideration, this final-form rulemaking requires that the laboratory check the pH of each sample container for safe drinking water act compliance samples and whole effluent toxicity samples that are not collected by trained, accredited laboratory staff. The Safe Drinking Water (SDW) Program and the United States Environmental Protection Agency's (EPA) Office of Water consider an improperly preserved sample invalid for compliance purposes. Therefore, unless each sample container used for sample analysis is verified to be at the correct pH, it is not possible to determine if the sample is valid and appropriately collected. This compromise ensures protection of the public health for drinking water compliance samples but does not place an undue burden, financial or otherwise, on the regulated community testing nondrinking water samples.

§ 252.404. Essential quality control requirement—microbiology

This final-form rulemaking adds necessary clarification to subsection (g)(2) to more thoroughly explain that a reusable membrane filtration funnel shall be checked for sterility with a sterility blank after every ten filtrations of a sample aliquot, not after every ten samples. A sample could include numerous dilutions and aliquots. Based on comments received, the Department deletes the proposed addition to subsection (h)(4) and (5) to allow for the recertification of expired positive and negative culture controls. As suggested by a commentator, the Department adds subsection (h)(7) in this final-form rulemaking to ensure that positive and negative controls are processed under the same conditions as routine environmental samples. "Department approved" was proposed to be added to subsection (h)(5) with the intention to require the laboratories to obtain approval for their documented procedures for maintaining culture controls. This statement was determined to be unnecessary because the regulation outlines the specific requirements for maintaining culture controls. Therefore, the additional language proposed by the Department is not adopted in this final-form rulemaking.

Subchapter F. Assessment requirements§ 252.601. Assessment requirements

Subsection (h) is revised in this final-form rulemaking in response to a comment from IRRC regarding the Department's requirements for corrective action based on deficiencies found during an assessment conducted by the Program. This final-form rulemaking clarifies that unless otherwise required or approved by the Department, environmental laboratories shall correct all deficiencies within 120 calendar days of receipt of the assessment report. Assessments occur for various reasons, including onsite assessments, review of a laboratory's request to add fields of accreditation, change in ownership and laboratory supervisor notices, and the like. Laboratories are required to perform corrective actions and submit any requested evidence of correction to the Program to demonstrate compliance with the regulation. Subsection (h) clarifies that the Program can require the laboratory to correct the violation sooner than 120 days; a laboratory can be granted additional time for correction based on subsection (i).

Subchapter G. Miscellaneous provisions§ 252.702. Revocation§ 252.703. Suspension§ 252.704. Voluntary relinquishment

This final-form rulemaking adds additional language to §§ 252.702(d), 252.703(e) and 252.704(c) (relating to revocation; suspension; and voluntary relinquishment) at the suggestion of IRRC to add clarity to the written client notification requirements for laboratories when a voluntary relinquishment, loss or lapse in accreditation occurs. Laboratories are required to notify all affected customers of the loss or lapse in accreditation in writing within 72 hours of the change in accreditation status. This additional language explains that the Department may choose to require the use of specific language or to require Department approval of the notice before issuance.

§ 252.706. Recordkeeping

Based on public comment, this final-form rulemaking deletes the signature requirement from subsection (c) to state that the name or initials must be included on the records. Subsection (b)(5) is corrected to note that the results of chemical “or” thermal preservation verifications or adjustments, or both shall be documented. This final-form rulemaking more clearly explains the Department’s requirements for historical reconstruction of laboratory activities in subsection (c)(2) when making changes to records. Specifically, the laboratory is expected to document the rationale for any nontypographical correction to records.

F. Summary of Comments and Responses on the Proposed Rulemaking

The Board approved publication of the proposed rulemaking at its May 17, 2016, meeting. The proposed rulemaking was published at 46 Pa.B. 5088 (August 20, 2016), with a 30-day public comment period. Comments were received from ten commentators, including IRRC.

The majority of the comments received during the public comment period related to requirements for microbiology incubation units, laboratory supervisor qualifications, sample acceptance and sample receipt, expired materials and a general request for technical guidance documents from the Department to describe and detail compliance options with the new requirements.

Several commentators noted that the Department’s proposal to require temperature distribution studies for incubation units used for microbiology testing should be revised. These commentators noted that circulating water baths are equitably distributed by design and should be exempt from the distribution study. The Department agreed with these comments and added language to this final-form rulemaking to exempt circulating water baths from the temperature distribution study.

Commentators stated that it would be helpful to have the Department develop technical guidance for how the Department would recommend compliance with the requirements for microbiology incubators detailed in the proposed rulemaking. The Department plans to develop technical guidance documentation in collaboration with the LAAC. These technical guidance documents will provide more detailed examples and options for how a laboratory might achieve compliance with the regulatory requirements for microbiology incubators regarding temperature distribution studies and the daily temperature monitoring requirements.

Several commentators provided comment regarding the Department’s proposal to amend the laboratory supervisor qualification requirements. Some of the commentators expressed concern that the proposed reduction in years of experience for inorganic nonmetals, basic water and wastewater, and basic microbiology might weaken the quality of results generated by accredited laboratories. Other commentators expressed support of the Department’s proposal and suggested that it will be easier to find qualified laboratory supervisors with the reduction in years of experience. One commentator suggested that the Department should not reduce the years of experience, but should increase the years of experience and minimum number of college semester credit hours for all areas of supervision. The Department carefully considered these comments and determined that the language should remain the same in this final-form rulemaking regarding the qualifications for a laboratory supervisor. The methodologies and analytical technologies within the inorganic nonmetals, basic microbiology, and basic drinking water and wastewater areas of testing are less complicated and more easily mastered. One year of experience in these areas should be sufficient to obtain mastery in these technical disciplines and will also enable smaller laboratories to more easily comply with the accreditation regulations, thus reducing the burden on small businesses and publicly-owned laboratories. The Department’s requirements for laboratory supervisor experience and education for the other areas of laboratory testing, organics, trace metals and complex microbiology are similar to those established by the National Environmental Laboratory Accreditation Program (NELAP) and the requirements of this final-form rulemaking are adequate to ensure proper experience and education of a laboratory supervisor.

Several commentators expressed concern that the Department’s proposal to require that at least four of the minimum required college semester credits in biology shall be microbiology credits for a microbiology laboratory supervisor is too stringent and not necessary. During meetings of the LAAC, several members of the public in attendance as well as the LAAC members requested that the Department require, that in addition to four credits in microbiology, all laboratory supervisors shall have taken a microbiology laboratory course. After consideration of the public comments and after further discussion with the LAAC, the Department determined that requiring four credits of microbiology and not specifically requiring a laboratory course work is an acceptable compromise. Colleges and universities have many courses available online, and four microbiology credits can be obtained in a single course. An individual that proposes to supervise a microbiology laboratory needs the microbiology education obtained during a college-level microbiology course and four credits in microbiology. The techniques and methods included in the basic microbiology category are not limited to Colilert testing, as noted by several commentators. The basic microbiology category includes technologies such as membrane filtration, multiple tube fermentation and pour plate. These techniques require understanding and proficiency with sterile techniques, positive and negative controls, and specific media preparation and uses. The Department did not make changes in the microbiology supervisor sections from proposed rulemaking to final-form rulemaking.

Several commentators provided suggestions regarding the Department’s proposal to require chemical preservation checks of all sample bottles received by the laboratory. The Department included this provision at the recommendation of the SDW Program and the EPA’s instruction that an improperly collected sample is invalid and cannot be used for compliance purposes. Through discussions with the regulated community, the Department decided to limit the pH testing requirement to those samples that require a specific pH by method, regulation or permit, and all SDW compliance samples. This compromise will ensure the protection of the public health but reduce the financial burden for nondrinking water samples. The regulated community participating in the public meeting were amenable to the compromise. The Department also plans to develop technical guidance documents in collaboration with the LAAC to assist the regulated community in understanding the various options available to comply with the sample acceptance and handling requirements of the regulation.

Commentators also stated that the laboratory should not be required to develop sample handling, collection and preservation instructions if adequate documentation for these activities already exists. The Department agrees with these commentators and amends this final-form rulemaking to clarify that the laboratory shall maintain documentation of sample collection and preservation requirements. The laboratory may choose to develop its own or use currently published materials from another source.

A commentator asserted that the proposed language to segregate expired chemicals from unexpired chemicals should not be accepted and expired chemicals should be removed from the laboratory and discarded. The commentator also stated that the Department's allowance for recertification of expired chemicals, materials, and positive and negative controls should be deleted from §§ 252.306(h) and 252.404(h) (relating to equipment, supplies and reference materials; and essential quality control requirement—microbiology) because the use of expired materials does not improve the quality of the testing results. The proposed language for segregation of expired chemicals was a compromise made between the Department and the LAAC to allow laboratories to maintain expired chemicals for noncompliance purposes but to ensure that they could not be mistaken as acceptable for use for compliance testing. However, the Department agrees with the suggestion to delete the allowance for recertification of expired materials and deletes this provision from this final-form rulemaking.

G. Benefits, Costs and Compliance

Benefits

The most significant benefit of this final-form rulemaking is clear, concise and improved regulations for the regulated community. This final-form rulemaking will allow for better understanding and increased compliance with the requirements and thus result in an improvement in the overall quality of the data produced by environmental laboratories. All laboratories, particularly small laboratories, will benefit from allowing a laboratory supervisor to be absent for up to 21 days, rather than the current 16 days, and be replaced by a qualified staff member without requiring written notification to the Department. Several of the laboratory supervisor areas of experience qualifications were reduced from 2 years to 1 year. This final-form rulemaking deletes the requirement for the Department to conduct onsite assessments, thus allowing the Department to explore and employ advances in technology to perform offsite assessments which can substantially reduce overall costs to the Program and regulated laboratories.

This final-form rulemaking also adds some specific requirements for NELAP laboratories. The NELAC Institute (TNI) Standard, which NELAP laboratories shall meet, is silent or lacking in specific requirements for several necessary standards. Requiring that all NELAP laboratories adhere to these regulations will ensure that all laboratories performing testing or analysis of compliance samples for the Department are meeting the same minimum standard.

Improved data quality will allow the Department, the regulated community and the citizens of this Commonwealth to make better and more informed decisions concerning the protection of the environment and the protection of public health, safety and welfare. Accurate laboratory results are critical to achieving the goals of the environmental laws which are covered by the regulations.

Compliance costs

The direct costs of this final-form rulemaking is the payment of the accreditation fees. Chapter 41 of 27 Pa.C.S. requires that the fees be set in an amount sufficient to cover the cost of establishing and maintaining a laboratory accreditation program. These costs vary depending upon the type of testing and analyses that the environmental laboratory chooses to perform. Laboratories that require extensive staff time to accredit, such as large commercial laboratories and NELAP laboratories, will pay a higher accreditation fee.

The renewal fee for State accreditation is increased by $200 per year while the renewal fee for NELAP applicants is increased by $750 per year. Renewal application fees increase for all laboratories at a rate of approximately 30%. Each laboratory is also responsible for paying the appropriate category fee associated with its requested scope of accreditation, such as microbiology, trace metals, volatile organics, and the like. The total accreditation fee for each laboratory is the renewal application fee plus each appropriate category fee. Each category fee is increased by between $100—$200 depending on the complexity of each category. The fees for medium to large accredited laboratories are likely to increase by approximately 20%—30% depending on the requested scope of accreditation.

This final-form rulemaking includes a fee structure that is responsive to the needs of small laboratories. Specifically, increased accreditation costs for smaller laboratories will be minimal as the fees for the Basic Non-Potable Water and Basic Drinking Water fee categories increase by $300. The former annual fee paid by these environmental laboratories was $1,250, and the fee change will result in an annual fee of $1,550. Laboratories seeking accreditation for these two categories represent the majority of the applicant laboratories as well as the smallest of the regulated laboratories. In addition, the fee structure includes changes including separation of the microbiology category into "basic" and "complex" to ensure that laboratories that are performing more complex testing, which requires additional staff time and oversight, cover the costs of the accreditation. There were no public comments expressing objections to these increased fees.

Indirect costs will be related to the individual laboratory's implementation of the new requirements. Many in the regulated community are already in compliance with the additional requirements itemized in this final-form rulemaking and will not incur any additional costs for implementation. Others will be required to update or develop standard operating procedures and update recordkeeping procedures.

Cost savings will occur in the regulated community because the new and clarified requirements will enable laboratories to better understand the applicable requirements and should reduce the number of violations found during assessments, thus reducing the amount of time and money necessary to correct these violations.

Compliance assistance plan

Aside from the fee changes, the major changes that might require additional compliance assistance include the new requirements for sample collection instructions, sample receipt documentation and microbiology incubator temperature distribution studies. The Department plans to develop technical guidance in collaboration with the LAAC and the public. The other amendments in this final-form rulemaking are minor and in most cases clarify existing requirements or make former requirements less stringent. The Department does not believe that a compliance assistance plan tailored to these amendments is necessary. However, the Department will continue its ongoing compliance assistance efforts with mass e-mails, updates to its web site and other activities.

The ultimate goal of the compliance assistance effort will be improving an environmental laboratory's ability to produce valid and defensible data for use by the Department, the regulated community and the public. Several areas where compliance assistance is necessary are general laboratory operation, correct performance of specific test procedures and documentation of laboratory activities. Compliance assistance in these areas has been made available to all environmental laboratories, regardless of size, throughout this Commonwealth.

Paperwork requirements

This final-form rulemaking does not include any additional forms, reports or other paperwork to be submitted.

H. Pollution Prevention

This is not applicable to this final-form rulemaking.

I. Sunset Review

The Board is not establishing a sunset date for these regulations since they are needed for the Department to carry out its statutory authority. The Department will continue to closely monitor these regulations for their effectiveness and recommend updates to the Board as necessary.

(4) The metals analyses may only be performed by an environmental laboratory accredited under this chapter for those fields of accreditation.

(5) Results of the monthly and annual reagent water analysis shall be maintained and include the date, type of test, results and initials of responsible individual. Reagent water that does not meet the required criteria may not be used.

(6) The bacteriological water quality test need not be performed if the environmental laboratory can supply documentation to show that their laboratory pure water or reagent water meets the criteria, as specified in section 1080 of the currently approved editions of Standard Methods for the Examination of Water and Wastewater (available from the American Public Health Association, 800 I Street, NW, Washington, D.C. 20001), for Type I (high-quality) or Type II (medium-quality) reagent water.

(7) The heterotrophic plate count and bacteriological water quality test ratio analyses described in paragraphs (2) and (3) shall be performed by an environmental laboratory accredited under this chapter for the appropriate field of accreditation.

(e) The requirements for dilution/rinse water are as follows:

(1) A sterility blank shall be analyzed for each lot of preprepared, ready-to-use medium and for each batch of medium prepared in the laboratory prior to first use of the medium. Records shall be maintained and include media identification, date and time of the start and end of incubation, results and initials of the responsible individuals. If sterility blank indicates contamination, the media may not be used.

(vii) Secondary working stocks shall be used to prepare sequential working stocks.

(7) Positive and negative controls must be processed under the same conditions and using the same equipment as routine environmental samples, including all steps of the preparation and analytical procedure.

(i) For test methods that specify colony counts, duplicate counts shall be performed monthly on one positive sample for each month that the test is performed. If the laboratory has two or more analysts, each analyst shall count typical colonies on the same plate. Counts may not differ by more than 10%. In an environmental laboratory with only one analyst, the analyst shall count the same plate twice. Counts may not differ by more than 5%.

(j) Quality control checks, including sterility checks and positive and negative controls, shall be conducted after the laboratory receives the material or supply and before or during first use. These checks shall be performed by an environmental laboratory accredited under this chapter and utilizing the same supplies, reagents and media to be used during laboratory analysis of environmental samples. Certificates of analysis from a manufacturer may not be used to demonstrate compliance with the requirements of this subsection.

(k) Records of all equipment, reference materials, reagents, media and supplies shall be maintained in accordance with § 252.306 (relating to equipment, supplies and reference materials).

SUSQUEHANNA RIVER BASIN COMMISSION

[25 PA. CODE CH. 806]

Review and Approval of Projects

Summary: This document contains rules that would amend the regulations of the Susquehanna River Basin Commission (Commission) to clarify application requirements and standards for review of projects, add a subpart to provide for registration of grandfathered projects, and revise requirements dealing with hearings and enforcement actions. These rules are designed to enhance the Commission's existing authorities to manage the water resources of the basin and add regulatory clarity.

Dates: This rule is effective July 1, 2017, except for the amendments to § 806.4(a)(1)(iii) and (a)(2)(iv) and the addition of subpart E to part 806 which are effective January 1, 2018.

Addresses: Susquehanna River Basin Commission, 4423 N. Front Street, Harrisburg, PA 17110-1788.

For Further Information Contact: Jason E. Oyler, Esq., General Counsel, telephone: 717-238-0423, ext. 1312; fax: 717-238-2436; e-mail: joyler@srbc.net. Also, for further information on the final rulemaking, including the comment response document, visit the Commission's website at www.srbc.net.

Supplementary Information: Notice of proposed rule-making was published in the Federal Register on September 21, 2016 (81 FR 64812); New York Register on October 5, 2016; Pennsylvania Bulletin on October 8, 2016; and Maryland Register on October 14, 2017. The Commission convened four public hearings: on November 3, 2016, in Harrisburg, Pennsylvania; on November 9, 2016, in Binghamton, New York; on November 10, 2016, in Williamsport, Pennsylvania; and on December 8, 2016, in Annapolis, Maryland. A written comment period was held open through January 30, 2017.

The Commission received 14 written public comments in addition to testimony received at the public hearings. The Commission has prepared a comment response document, which is available to the public at www.srbc.net. Comments that led to a change to the proposed rule-making and their responses are discussed below.

Registration of Grandfathered Projects, Subpart E and § 806.4(a)(1)(iii) and (a)(2)(iv)

Comment: The Commission should allow projects to register a grandfathered amount previously determined by the Commission if it is not seeking a higher amount through the registration process.

Response: The Commission agrees that previous grandfathering determinations should be honored if the project wishes to register that amount. A new paragraph (c) is added in § 806.44 allowing the Executive Director to use past grandfathering determinations, and revisions are made to § 806.42(b) allowing the Commission to waive certain registration information if a project is relying on a past grandfathering determination.

Comment: Ongoing reporting requirements need to be linked to member jurisdiction reporting to avoid duplication of effort and confusion.

Response: The Commission agrees with the commenter that it is important to avoid unnecessary duplication of effort with state law requirements. Section 806.43(c) notes that if quantity reporting is required by the member jurisdiction where the project is located, the Commission may accept that reporting to satisfy the requirements of this paragraph. This evidences the Commission's intent to use its best efforts to accept state reporting requirements where appropriate. The Commission will add language to §§ 806.42(a)(6) and 806.43(c) to clarify its intention to rely on member jurisdiction reporting where it is able, and that any additional reporting required will be because it is not duplicated by the member jurisdiction. A new § 806.43(d) is added to emphasize the commitment of the Commission and its member jurisdiction to share all reporting data and to further the goal of creating a unified data set for all agencies involved.

Comment: The proposed rule at § 806.4(a)(1)(iii)(A) and (a)(2)(iv)(A) changes the current rule that allows a grandfathered consumptive use an additional increase of up to 20,000 gpd and a grandfathered withdrawal an additional increase of up to 100,000 gpd before review and approval of the grandfathered activity is triggered. This leeway should be restored for grandfathered projects.

Response: In most instances, the registration process will allow grandfathered projects sufficient margin for operational flexibility. However, the Commission agrees that the registration process should not put a project in jeopardy of needing review and approval subsequent to registration absent a change to the project. A new factor is added as § 806.44(b)(4) that allows the Executive Director to consider whether the grandfathered amount includes an operational margin of safety.

Comment: The proposed rule provides that the determination of the grandfathered quantity will be based on the most recent data. This may be too restrictive and projects should be allowed to submit more than the last five years of data and where such data is submitted, the Executive Director should base the determination under § 806.44 on the peak 30-day average for withdrawals and consumptive uses shown by the data.

Response: The Commission agrees that the factor as written could be clarified and the final rule reflects a revision to § 806.44(b)(1) to allow more than a minimum of five years of data to be submitted and that the Executive Director will consider the withdrawal and use data and the peak consecutive 30-day average shown by all the data submitted.

Consumptive Use Mitigation, § 806.22

Comments: The Commission should not adopt the Consumptive Use Mitigation Policy and the changes to the Consumptive Use Mitigation Rule.

The Commission should not shift the responsibility for physical consumptive use mitigation to project sponsors because project sponsor based mitigation will be more balkanized and less effective and the Commission has powerful tools to set up projects to provide such mitigation from the Compact.

The mitigation plan proposal should be removed or smaller projects should be able to have an abbreviated consumptive use mitigation alternative analysis.

New consumptive use mitigation requirements should not be applied retroactively to existing projects upon renewal.

The proposed rule should be revised to allow greater use of groundwater storage and quarries and be more flexible with respect to the “no impacts” to surface water requirements for such mitigation.

The Commission should focus its mitigation requirements to the low flow period.

All references to water critical planning areas should be removed. Article 11 of the Compact provides for designation of protected areas. This concept appears to circumvent those procedures.

Water critical areas should not be based on member jurisdiction planning areas and it should not be a mechanism to require mitigation for pre-compact consumptive use.

Response: The Commission has reviewed the detailed comments regarding how the Commission requires consumptive use mitigation and the options of projects to provide such mitigation. The Commission will further examine and reevaluate its policies and procedures for consumptive use and consumptive use mitigation in a more comprehensive fashion. As a result, the Commission will not move forward with the changes to the Consumptive Use Mitigation Policy and the consumptive use mitigation rule as follows. The definition of “water critical area” in § 806.3 is removed and all references to water critical areas are removed from §§ 806.22 and 808.1. The reference and changes associated with a mitigation plan in § 806.22(b) are removed. The changes associated with amending the 90 day mitigation requirement to 45 days in § 806.22(b)(1)(i) and (ii) are removed and reserved for the reevaluation process for consumptive use mitigation described above.

Project Review Application Procedures and Standards for Review and Approval—18 CFR Part 806, Subparts B and C

Comment: The Commission should clarify how the alternatives analysis under § 806.14(b)(2)(v) differs from the previous provision in the current rules at § 806.14(b)(1)(iii) and specify what is expected from applicants.

Response: The purpose for this requirement is to document the project sponsor’s consideration of alternatives during planning of the proposed project to include, but not be limited to, identification of reasonable alternatives to the proposed water withdrawal project, the extent of the project sponsor’s economic and technical investigation, the adequacy of the source to meet the demand, an assessment of the potential environmental impact, and measures for avoidance or minimization of adverse impact of each alternative. Specifically, the alternatives analysis should include identification of reasonable alternative water sources and locations, including opportunities for uses of lesser quality waters; project footprint and infrastructure; opportunities for water conservation or water saving technology; requirements of the uses of the water as related to the proposed locations; the economic feasibility of the alternative(s) and technical opportunities or limitations identified in the evaluation of reasonable alternate sites. The Commission is preparing a draft policy to outline how alternative analyses should be conducted and evaluated, and will release it for public comment prior to consideration for Commission adoption. In addition, on final rulemaking, the Commission will adjust the language of § 806.14(b)(1)(v) to make clear that the analysis is needed only for new projects and for major modifications that seek to increase the surface water withdrawal.

Comment: The Commission should reconcile the application requirements in § 806.14 to recognize that the potential for waiver of the aquifer testing requirements in § 806.12.

Response: The Commission agrees and has revised § 806.14(b)(2)(i) and (d)(2)(i).

Comment: The Commission should clarify whether renewals that involve a major modification should be handled under the new application and major modification standards in § 806.14(a) and (b) or in the renewal standards in § 806.14(c) and (d).

Response: The Commission agrees that the rule should be clarified and proposes changes to § 806.14(c) and 806.14(d)(2), (4) and (6) to establish that renewal applications, with either minor or major modifications, are subject to § 806.14(c) and (d).

Comment: The Commission should accept other types of certified mail proof of delivery beyond the US Postal Service under § 806.15(g).

Response: The Commission agrees and § 806.15(g) is revised to include the verified return delivery receipt from a comparable delivery service to the U.S. Postal Service.

Comment: The Commission should revise § 806.15(b)(3) to clarify which property is subject to the notice requirements and should read “where the property of such property owner is served by a public water supply.”

Response: The Commission agrees and the final rulemaking is revised accordingly.

Comment: The Commission should exempt AMD passive treatment systems from the requirements for mining and construction dewatering under §§ 806.14(b)(6) and (d)(6) and 806.23(b)(5).

Response: The Commission has not extended its review jurisdiction over passive AMD treatment facilities and nothing in the proposed rule was meant to alter that long standing determination. Accordingly, the final rule contains revisions to §§ 806.14(b)(6) and (d)(6) and 806.23(b)(5) to remove the word “gravity-drained” and clarify its application to “AMD facilities that qualify as a withdrawal.”

Miscellaneous Changes

Comment: Including in § 808.2(a) that the 30 day appeal period can run from publication on the Commission’s website creates issues, including knowing whether the appeal period runs from publication on the website or the Federal Register and the fact that it is not always clear when something is posted to a website or is easily found on the website.

Response: The final rule revises § 808.2(a) to remove this language. The 30-day appeal period for third party appeals will run from the date of publication in the Federal Register.

Comment: The addition of “or other fluids associated with the development of natural gas resources” to the definition of “production fluids” under § 806.3 is inaccurate and over-inclusive. The revised definition of production fluids would cause confusion with the member jurisdiction terminology. The commenter is supportive of the stated goal of this change and proposed additional language to be added in other parts of regulations.

Response: The final rule removes the change to the definition of “production fluid.” The revision proposed by the commenter will be evaluated for inclusion in a future rulemaking.

Comment: The addition of “consumptive use” to the definition of “facility” in § 806.3 is unwarranted as the definition of “facility” matches the definition in the Compact.

Response: The final rule will remove the amendment to the definition of “facility”. However, the definition of facility includes plants, structures, machinery and equipment acquired, constructed, operated or maintained for the beneficial use of water resources that includes the consumptive use of water.

The Commission also is making additional housekeeping changes on the final rulemaking:

- 1) § 806.6(b)(6) (related to transfers of approvals) was added to recognize registered grandfathered aspects of a project under subpart E.
- 2) The phrase “hydro report” in § 806.14(d)(2)(ii) was clarified to “hydrogeologic report”.
- 3) The word “Commission’s” is removed from § 806.41(c).

Transition Issues

As noted in the Dates section, this rule will take effect on July 1, 2017, with the exception of the adoption of subpart E (related to registration of grandfathered projects) and the corresponding changes to § 806.4(a)(1)(iii) and (a)(2)(iv), which take effect on January 1, 2018.

Coincident with the authorization to adopt this final rulemaking, the Commission also adopted a Regulatory Program Fee Schedule that sets forth the fee for registration for grandfathered projects. This fee schedule is available on the Commission’s website at www.srbc.net/policies/policies.htm.

The special standards established pursuant to section 3.4(2) shall be applicable to all water withdrawals and consumptive uses in accordance with the terms of those standards, irrespective of whether such withdrawals and uses are also subject to project review under section 3.10. This part, and every other part of 18 CFR chapter VIII, shall also be incorporated into and made a part of the comprehensive plan.

(C) That fails to register its consumptive use in accordance with subpart E of this part.

* * * * *

(2) Withdrawals. Any project, including all of its sources, described below shall require an application to be submitted in accordance with § 806.13, and shall be subject to the standards set forth in §§ 806.21 and 806.23. Hydroelectric projects, except to the extent that such projects involve a withdrawal, shall be exempt from the requirements of this section regarding withdrawals; provided, however, that nothing in this paragraph (a)(2) shall be construed as exempting hydroelectric projects from review and approval under any other category of project requiring review and approval as set forth in this section, § 806.5, or part 801 of this chapter. The taking or removal of water by a public water supplier indirectly through another public water supply system or another water user's facilities shall constitute a withdrawal hereunder.

§ 806.11 Preliminary consultations.

(b) Except for project sponsors of electric power generation projects under § 801.12(c)(2) of this chapter, preliminary consultation is optional for the project sponsor (except with respect to aquifer test plans under § 806.12) but shall not relieve the sponsor from complying with the requirements of the compact or with this part.

7. Amend § 806.12 by revising paragraph (a) and adding paragraph (f) to read as follows:

§ 806.12 Constant-rate aquifer testing.

(a) Prior to submission of an application pursuant to § 806.13, a project sponsor seeking approval for a new groundwater withdrawal, a renewal of an expiring groundwater withdrawal, or an increase of a groundwater withdrawal shall perform a constant-rate aquifer test in accordance with this section.

* * * * *

(f) Review of submittals under this section may be terminated by the Commission in accordance with the procedures set forth in § 806.16.

* * * * *

(1) The Commission may suspend the review of any application under this part if the project is subject to the lawful jurisdiction of any member jurisdiction or any political subdivision thereof, and such member jurisdiction or political subdivision has disapproved or denied the project. Where such disapproval or denial is reversed on appeal, the appeal is final, and the project sponsor provides the Commission with a certified copy of the decision, the Commission shall resume its review of the application. Where, however, an application has been suspended hereunder for a period greater than three years, the Commission may terminate its review. Thereupon, the Commission shall notify the project sponsor of such termination and that the application fee paid by the project sponsor is forfeited. The project sponsor may reactivate the terminated application by reapplying to the Commission, providing evidence of its receipt of all necessary governmental approvals and, at the discretion of the Commission, submitting new or updated information.

* * * * *

(b) Mitigation. All project sponsors whose consumptive use of water is subject to review and approval under § 806.4, § 806.5, § 806.6, or § 806.17 shall mitigate such consumptive use. Except to the extent that the project involves the diversion of the waters out of the basin, public water supplies shall be exempt from the requirements of this section regarding consumptive use; provided, however, that nothing in this section shall be construed to exempt individual consumptive users connected to any such public water supply from the requirements of this section. Mitigation may be provided by one or a combination of the following:

* * * * *

(3) Provide monetary payment to the Commission, for all water consumptively used over the course of a year, in an amount and manner prescribed by the Commission.

* * * * *

(e) Approval by rule for consumptive uses. (1) General rule. Except with respect to projects involving hydrocarbon development subject to the provisions of paragraph (f) of this section, any project who is solely supplied water for consumptive use by public water supply may be approved by the Executive Director under this paragraph (e) in accordance with the following, unless the Executive Director determines that the project cannot be adequately regulated under this approval by rule.

(2) Notification of intent. Prior to undertaking a project or increasing a previously approved quantity of consumptive use, the project sponsor shall submit a notice of intent (NOI) on forms prescribed by the Commission, and the appropriate application fee, along with any required attachments.

(3) Time of notice. Within 20 days after submittal of an NOI under paragraph (e)(2) of this section, the project sponsor shall satisfy the notice requirements set forth in § 806.15.

(4) Metering, daily use monitoring, and quarterly reporting. The project sponsor shall comply with metering, daily use monitoring, and quarterly reporting as specified in § 806.30.

(5) Standard conditions. The standard conditions set forth in § 806.21 shall apply to projects approved by rule.

(6) Mitigation. The project sponsor shall comply with mitigation in accordance with paragraph (b)(2) or (3) of this section.

(7) Compliance with other laws. The project sponsor shall obtain all necessary permits or approvals required for the project from other federal, state or local government agencies having jurisdiction over the project. The Commission reserves the right to modify, suspend or revoke any approval under this paragraph (e) if the project sponsor fails to obtain or maintain such approvals.

(8) Decision. The Executive Director may grant, deny, suspend, revoke, modify or condition an approval to operate under this approval by rule, or renew an existing approval by rule previously granted hereunder, and will notify the project sponsor of such determination, including the quantity of consumptive use approved.

(9) Term. Approval by rule shall be effective upon written notification from the Executive Director to the project sponsor, shall expire 15 years from the date of such notification, and shall be deemed to rescind any previous consumptive use approvals.

(f) * * *

(3) Within 20 days after submittal of an NOI under paragraph (f)(2) of this section, the project sponsor shall satisfy the notice requirements set forth in § 806.15.

* * * * *

(9) The Executive Director may grant, deny, suspend, revoke, modify or condition an approval to operate under this approval by rule, or renew an existing approval by rule granted hereunder, and will notify the project sponsor of such determination, including the sources and quantity of consumptive use approved. The issuance of any approval hereunder shall not be construed to waive or exempt the project sponsor from obtaining Commission approval for any water withdrawals or diversions subject to review pursuant to § 806.4(a). Any sources of water approved pursuant to this section shall be further subject to any approval or authorization required by the member jurisdiction.

* * * * *

12. Amend § 806.23 by revising paragraphs (b)(2) and (b)(3)(i) and adding paragraph (b)(5) to read as follows:

§ 806.23 Standards for water withdrawals.

(b) * * *

(2) The Commission may deny an application, limit or condition an approval to ensure that the withdrawal will not cause significant adverse impacts to the water resources of the basin. The Commission may consider, without limitation, the following in its consideration of adverse impacts: Lowering of groundwater or stream flow levels; groundwater and surface water availability, including cumulative uses; rendering competing supplies unreliable; affecting other water uses; causing water quality degradation that may be injurious to any existing or potential water use; affecting fish, wildlife or other living resources or their habitat; causing permanent loss of aquifer storage capacity; affecting wetlands; or affecting low flow of perennial or intermittent streams.

(3) * * *

(i) Limit the quantity, timing or rate of withdrawal or level of drawdown, including requiring a total system limit.

* * * * *

(5) For projects consisting of mine dewatering, water resources remediation, and AMD facilities that qualify as a withdrawal, review of adverse impacts will have limited consideration of groundwater availability, causing permanent loss of aquifer storage and lowering of groundwater levels provided these projects are operated in accordance with the laws and regulations of the member jurisdictions.

13. Amend § 806.30 by revising the introductory text and paragraph (a)(4) and adding paragraph (a)(8) to read as follows:

§ 806.30 Monitoring.

The Commission, as part of the project review, shall evaluate the proposed methodology for monitoring consumptive uses, water withdrawals and mitigating flows, including flow metering devices, stream gages, and other facilities used to measure the withdrawals or consumptive use of the project or the rate of stream flow. If the Commission determines that additional flow measuring, metering or monitoring devices are required, these shall be provided at the expense of the project sponsor, installed in accordance with a schedule set by the Commission, and installed per the specifications and recommendations of the manufacturer of the device, and shall be subject to inspection by the Commission at any time.

(a) * * *

(4) Measure groundwater levels in all approved production and other wells, as specified by the Commission.

* * * * *

(8) Perform other monitoring for impacts to water quantity, water quality and aquatic biological communities, as specified by the Commission.

* * * * *

14. Amend § 806.31 by revising paragraphs (d) and (e) to read as follows:

§ 806.31 Term of approvals.

(d) If the Commission determines that a project has been abandoned, by evidence of nonuse for a period of time and under such circumstances that an abandonment may be inferred, the Commission may revoke the approval for such withdrawal, diversion or consumptive use.

(e) If a project sponsor submits an application to the Commission no later than six months prior to the expiration of its existing Commission docket approval or no later than one month prior to the expiration of its existing ABR or NOI approval, the existing approval will be deemed extended until such time as the Commission renders a decision on the application, unless the existing approval or a notification in writing from the Commission provides otherwise.

15. Add subpart E to read as follows:

Subpart E—Registration of Grandfathered Projects

Sec.
806.40	Applicability.
806.41	Registration and eligibility.
806.42	Registration requirements.
806.43	Metering and monitoring requirements.
806.44	Determination of grandfathered quantities.
806.45	Appeal of determination.

§ 806.40 Applicability.

(a) This subpart is applicable to the following projects, which shall be known as grandfathered projects:

(1) The project has an associated average consumptive use of 20,000 gpd or more in any consecutive 30-day period all or part of which is a pre-compact consumptive use that has not been approved by the Commission pursuant to § 806.4.

(2) The project has an associated groundwater withdrawal average of 100,000 gpd or more in any consecutive 30-day period all or part of which was initiated prior to July 13, 1978, that has not been approved by the Commission pursuant to § 806.4.

(3) The project has an associated surface water withdrawal average of 100,000 gpd or more in any consecutive 30-day period all or part of which was initiated prior to November 11, 1995, that has not been approved by the Commission pursuant to § 806.4.

(4) The project (or an element of the project) has been approved by the Commission but has an associated consumptive use or water withdrawal that has not been approved by the Commission pursuant to § 806.4.

(5) Any project not included in paragraphs (a)(2) through (4) of this section that has a total withdrawal average of 100,000 gpd or more in any consecutive 30-day average from any combination of sources which was initiated prior to January 1, 2007, that has not been approved by the Commission pursuant to § 806.4.

(6) Any source associated with a project included in paragraphs (a)(2) through (5) of this section regardless of quantity.

(b) A project, including any source of the project, that can be determined to have been required to seek Commission review and approval under the pertinent regulations in place at the time is not eligible for registration as a grandfathered project.

§ 806.41 Registration and eligibility.

(a) Project sponsors of grandfathered projects identified in § 806.40 shall submit a registration to the Commission, on a form and in a manner prescribed by the Commission, by December 31, 2019.

(b) Any grandfathered project that fails to register under paragraph (a) of this section shall be subject to review and approval under § 806.4.

(c) Any project that is not eligible to register under paragraph (a) of this section shall be subject to review and approval under § 806.4.

(d) The Commission may establish fees for obtaining and maintaining registration in accordance with § 806.35.

(e) A registration under this subpart may be transferred pursuant to § 806.6.

§ 806.42 Registration requirements.

(a) Registrations shall include the following information:

(1) Identification of project sponsor including any and all proprietors, corporate officers or partners, the mailing address of the same, and the name of the individual authorized to act for the sponsor.

(2) Description of the project and site in terms of:

(i) Project location, including latitude and longitude coordinates in decimal degrees accurate to within 10 meters.

(ii) Project purpose.

(3) Identification of all sources of water, including the date the source was put into service, each source location (including latitude and longitude coordinates in decimal degrees accurate to within 10 meters), and if applicable, any approved docket numbers.

(4) Identification of current metering and monitoring methods for water withdrawal and consumptive use.

(5) Identification of current groundwater level or elevation monitoring methods at groundwater sources.

(6) All quantity data for water withdrawals and consumptive use for a minimum of the previous five calendar years. If the project sponsor registering submitted the water withdrawal and consumptive use data for the previous five calendar years to a member jurisdiction, that data will satisfy this requirement. A project sponsor registering may provide supplementary data related to water withdrawals and consumptive use quantities. If quantity data are not available, any information available upon which a determination of quantity could be made.

(7) For consumptive use, description of processes that use water, identification of water returned to the Basin, history of the use, including process changes, expansions and other actions that would have an impact on the amount of water consumptively used during the past five calendar years.

(8) Based on the data provided, the quantity of withdrawal for each individual source and consumptive use the project sponsor requests to be grandfathered by the Commission.

(9) Any ownership or name changes to the project since January 1, 2007.

(b) The Commission may require any other information it deems necessary for the registration process or waive any information required under paragraph (a) of this section for projects relying on a prior determination of the Commission.

§ 806.43 Metering and monitoring requirements.

(a) As a part of the registration process, the Commission shall review the current metering and monitoring for grandfathered withdrawals and consumptive uses.

(b) The Commission may require a metering and monitoring plan for the project sponsor to follow.

(c) Project sponsors, as an ongoing obligation of their registration, shall report to the Commission all information specified in the grandfathering determination under § 806.44 in a form and manner determined by the Commission. If water withdrawal and consumptive use quantity reporting is required by the member jurisdiction where the project is located, the Commission shall accept that reported quantity to satisfy the requirements of this paragraph (c), unless the Commission finds that additional data is needed that is not required by the member jurisdiction.

(d) Any data generated or collected under paragraph (c) of this section will be made available to the member jurisdictions in a manner and timeframe mutually agreeable to both the Commission and the jurisdiction.

§ 806.44 Determination of grandfathered quantities.

(a) For each registration submitted, the Executive Director shall determine the grandfathered quantity for each withdrawal source and consumptive use.

(b) In making a determination, the following factors should be considered:

(1) The withdrawal and use data and the peak consecutive 30-day average shown by the data;

(2) The reliability and accuracy of the data and/or the meters or measuring devices;

(3) Determination of reasonable and genuine usage of the project, including any anomalies in the usage;

(4) Whether the grandfathered amount includes an operational margin of safety; and

(5) Other relevant factors.

(c) The Executive Director, in lieu of a determination under paragraph (b) of this section, may accept a previous grandfathering determination by the Commission at the request of the project sponsor.

§ 806.45 Appeal of determination.

(a) A final determination of the grandfathered quantity by the Executive Director must be appealed to the Commission within 30 days from actual notice of the determination.

(b) The Commission shall appoint a hearing officer to preside over appeals under this section. Hearings shall be governed by the procedures set forth in part 808 of this chapter.

(c) Notice of public hearing. At least 20 days before any public hearing required by the compact, notices stating the date, time, place and purpose of the hearing including issues of interest to the Commission shall be published at least once in a newspaper of general circulation in the area affected. In all other cases, at least 20 days prior to the hearing, notice shall be posted on the Commission Web site, sent to the parties who, to the Commission's knowledge, will participate in the hearing, and sent to persons, organizations and news media who have made requests to the Commission for notices of hearings or of a particular hearing. With regard to rulemaking, hearing notices need only be forwarded to the directors of the New York Register, the Pennsylvania Bulletin, the Maryland Register and the Federal Register, and it is sufficient that this notice appear in the Federal Register at least 20 days prior to the hearing and in each individual state publication at least 10 days prior to any hearing scheduled in that state.

(d) Standard public hearing procedure. (1) Hearings shall be open to the public. Participants may be any person, including a project sponsor, wishing to appear at the hearing and make an oral or written statement. Persons wishing to obtain a copy of the transcript of any hearing shall make arrangements to obtain it directly from the recording stenographer at their expense.

(i) Joint hearings. The Commission may conduct any public hearings in concert with any other agency of a member jurisdiction.

18. Revise § 808.2 to read as follows:

§ 808.2 Administrative appeals.

(a) A project sponsor or other person aggrieved by a final action or decision of the Executive Director shall file a written appeal with the Commission within 30 days of the receipt of actual notice by the project sponsor or within 30 days of publication of the action in the Federal Register. Appeals shall be filed on a form and in a manner prescribed by the Commission and the petitioner shall have 20 days from the date of filing to amend the appeal. The following is a non-exclusive list of actions by the Executive Director that are subject to an appeal to the Commission:

- (1) A determination that a project requires review and approval under § 806.5;
- (2) An approval or denial of an application for transfer under § 806.6;
- (3) An approval of a Notice of Intent under a general permit under § 806.17;
- (4) An approval of a minor modification under § 806.18;
- (5) A determination regarding an approval by rule under § 806.22(e) or (f);
- (6) A determination regarding an emergency certificate under § 806.34;
- (7) Enforcement orders issued under § 808.14;
- (8) A finding regarding a civil penalty under § 808.15(c);
- (9) A determination of grandfathered quantity under § 806.44;
- (10) A decision to modify, suspend or revoke a previously granted approval; and
- (11) A records access determination made pursuant to Commission policy.

(b) The appeal shall identify the specific action or decision being appealed, the date of the action or decision, the interest of the person requesting the hearing in the subject matter of the appeal, and a statement setting forth the basis for objecting to or seeking review of the action or decision.

(c) Any request not filed on or before the applicable deadline established in paragraph (a) of this section hereof will be deemed untimely and such request for a hearing shall be considered denied unless the Commission, upon written request and for good cause shown, grants leave to make such filing nunc pro tunc; the standard applicable to what constitutes good cause shown being the standard applicable in analogous cases under Federal law. Receipt of requests for hearings pursuant to this section, whether timely filed or not, shall be submitted by the Executive Director to the commissioners for their information.

(d) Petitioners shall be limited to a single filing that shall set forth all matters and arguments in support thereof, including any ancillary motions or requests for relief. Issues not raised in this single filing shall be considered waived for purposes of the instant proceeding. Where the petitioner is appealing a final determination on a project application and is not the project sponsor, the petitioner shall serve a copy of the appeal upon the project sponsor within five days of its filing.

(e) The Commission will determine the manner in which it will hear the appeal. If a hearing is granted, the Commission shall serve notice thereof upon the petitioner and project sponsor and shall publish such notice in the Federal Register. The hearing shall not be held less than 20 days after publication of such notice. Hearings may be conducted by one or more members of the Commission, or by such other hearing officer as the Commission may designate.

(1) The petitioner may also request a stay of the action or decision giving rise to the appeal pending final disposition of the appeal, which stay may be granted or denied by the Executive Director after consultation with the Commission chair and the member from the affected member State. The decision of the Executive Director on the request for stay shall not be appealable to the Commission under this section and shall remain in full force and effect until the Commission acts on the appeal.

(2) In addition to the contents of the request itself, the Executive Director, in granting or denying the request for stay, will consider the following factors:

- (i) Irreparable harm to the petitioner.
- (ii) The likelihood that the petitioner will prevail.

(f) The Commission shall grant the hearing request pursuant to this section if it determines that an adequate record with regard to the action or decision is not available, or that the Commission has found that an administrative review is necessary or desirable. If the Commission denies any request for a hearing, the party seeking such hearing shall be limited to such remedies as may be provided by the compact or other applicable law or court rule. If a hearing is granted, the Commission shall refer the matter for hearing to be held in accordance with § 808.3, and appoint a hearing officer.

(g) If a hearing is not granted, the Commission may set a briefing schedule and decide the appeal based on the record before it. The Commission may, in its discretion, schedule and hear oral argument on an appeal.

(h)(1) A request for intervention may be filed with the Commission by persons other than the petitioner within 20 days of the publication of a notice of the granting of such hearing in the Federal Register. The request for intervention shall state the interest of the person filing such notice, and the specific grounds of objection to the action or decision or other grounds for appearance. The hearing officer(s) shall determine whether the person requesting intervention has standing in the matter that would justify their admission as an intervener to the proceedings in accordance with Federal case law.

(2) Intervenors shall have the right to be represented by counsel, to present evidence and to examine and cross-examine witnesses.

(i) Where a request for an appeal is made, the 90-day appeal period set forth in section 3.10 (6) and Federal reservation (o) of the compact shall not commence until the Commission has either denied the request for or taken final action on an administrative appeal.

19. Revise § 808.11 to read as follows:

§ 808.11 Duty to comply.

It shall be the duty of any person to comply with any provision of the compact, or the Commission's rules, regulations, orders, approvals, docket conditions, staff directives or any other requirement of the Commission.

20. Revise § 808.14 to read as follows:

§ 808.14 Orders.

(a) Whether or not an NOV has been issued, the Executive Director may issue an order directing an alleged violator to cease and desist any action or activity to the extent such action or activity constitutes an alleged violation, or may issue any other order related to the prevention of further violations, or the abatement or remediation of harm caused by the action or activity.

(b) If the project sponsor fails to comply with any term or condition of a docket or other approval, the commissioners or Executive Director may issue an order suspending, modifying or revoking approval of the docket. The commissioners may also, in their discretion, suspend, modify or revoke a docket approval if the project sponsor fails to obtain or maintain other federal, state or local approvals.

(c) The commissioners or Executive Director may issue such other orders as may be necessary to enforce any provision of the compact, the Commission's rules or regulations, orders, approvals, docket conditions, or any other requirements of the Commission.

(d) It shall be the duty of any person to proceed diligently to comply with any order issued pursuant to this section.

(e) The Commission or Executive Director may enter into a Consent Order and Agreement with an alleged violator to resolve non-compliant operations and enforcement proceedings in conjunction with or separately from settlement agreements under § 808.18.

21. Revise § 808.15 to read as follows:

§ 808.15 Show cause proceeding.

(a) The Executive Director may issue an order requiring an alleged violator to show cause why a penalty should not be assessed in accordance with the provisions of this chapter and section 15.17 of the compact. The order to the alleged violator shall:

(1) Specify the nature and duration of violation(s) that is alleged to have occurred.

(2) Set forth the date by which the alleged violator must provide a written response to the order.

(3) Identify the civil penalty recommended by Commission staff.

(b) The written response by the project sponsor should include the following:

(1) A statement whether the project sponsor contests that the violations outlined in the Order occurred;

(2) If the project sponsor contests the violations, then a statement of the relevant facts and/or law providing the basis for the project sponsor's position;

(3) Any mitigating factors or explanation regarding the violations outlined in the Order; and

(4) A statement explaining what the appropriate civil penalty, if any, should be utilizing the factors at § 808.16.

(c) Based on the information presented and any relevant policies, guidelines or law, the Executive Director shall make a written finding affirming or modifying the civil penalty recommended by Commission staff.

22. Amend § 808.16 by revising paragraphs (a) introductory text and (a)(7), adding paragraph (a)(8), and revising paragraph (b) to read as follows:

§ 808.16 Civil penalty criteria.

(a) In determining the amount of any civil penalty or any settlement of a violation, the Commission and Executive Director shall consider:

* * * * *

(7) The length of time over which the violation occurred and the amount of water used, diverted or withdrawn during that time period.

(8) The punitive effect of a civil penalty.

(b) The Commission and/or Executive Director retains the right to waive any penalty or reduce the amount of the penalty recommended by the Commission staff under § 808.15(a)(3) should it be determined, after consideration of the factors in paragraph (a) of this section, that extenuating circumstances justify such action.

23. Revise § 808.17 to read as follows:

§ 808.17 Enforcement of penalties, abatement or remedial orders.

Any penalty imposed or abatement or remedial action ordered by the Commission or the Executive Director shall be paid or completed within such time period as shall be specified in the civil penalty assessment or order. The Executive Director and Commission counsel are authorized to take such additional action as may be necessary to assure compliance with this subpart. If a proceeding before a court becomes necessary, the penalty amount determined in accordance with this part shall constitute the penalty amount recommended by the Commission to be fixed by the court pursuant to section 15.17 of the compact.

24. Revise § 808.18 to read as follows:

§ 808.18 Settlement by agreement.

(a) An alleged violator may offer to settle an enforcement action by agreement. The Executive Director may enter into settlement agreements to resolve an enforcement action. The Commission may, by Resolution, require certain types of enforcement actions or settlements to be submitted to the Commission for action or approval.

(b) In the event the violator fails to carry out any of the terms of the settlement agreement, the Commission or Executive Director may reinstitute a civil penalty action and any other applicable enforcement action against the alleged violator.

Title 52—PUBLIC UTILITIES

PENNSYLVANIA PUBLIC UTILITY COMMISSION

[52 PA. CODE CH. 57]

[L-2015-2500632]

Electric Safety Regulations

The Pennsylvania Public Utility Commission, on April 20, 2017, adopted a final rulemaking order to amend and add electric safety regulations to 52 Pa. Code Chapter 57 (relating to electric service).

Executive Summary

Section 1501 of the Public Utility Code requires every public utility in Pennsylvania to “maintain adequate, efficient, safe, and reasonable service and facilities” and to “make all such repairs, changes, alterations, substitutions, extensions, and improvements in or to such service and facilities as shall be necessary or proper for the accommodation, convenience, and safety of its patrons, employees, and the public.” 66 Pa.C.S. § 1501. Pursuant to that authority and Section 501 of the Public Utility Code, 66 Pa.C.S. § 501, the Pennsylvania Public Utility Commission (Commission or PUC) proposes adding safety regulations with respect to the distribution facilities of electric utilities under the Commission’s jurisdiction.

The Commission proposes these final regulations to facilitate safety inspections of electric utilities by the PUC’s Electric Safety Division. The final regulations reference the national electric safety standards in the National Electrical Safety Code (Code) and require jurisdictional electric utilities to adhere to the Code. The final regulations clarify the applicable electric safety standards, record-keeping and reporting rules for electric utilities, and the obligations of utilities in regard to inspections and investigations. The final regulations also clarify the duties and responsibilities between the customer and the electric utility regarding maintenance of certain facilities and equipment.

Final Rulemaking Order

By the Commission:

In accordance with Sections 501 and 1501 of the Public Utility Code, 66 Pa.C.S. §§ 501 and 1501, the Pennsylvania

nia Public Utility Commission (PUC or the Commission) formally commenced a rulemaking process to amend its existing regulations in Chapter 57, Subchapters A (General Provisions) and B (Service and Facilities) at 52 Pa. Code §§ 57.1 (Definitions) and 57.28 (Electric Safety Standards). On November 19, 2015, the Commission issued a Proposed Rulemaking Order to add a definition for “EDC” (electric distribution company) and to modify the definition of “service terminal” and replace that term with the new term “service point/point of delivery” in 52 Pa. Code § 57.1, and to add electric safety standards at 52 Pa. Code § 57.28.

Comments were filed by the Pennsylvania AFL-CIO Utility Caucus (AFL-CIO), PECO Energy Company (PECO), the Energy Association of Pennsylvania (EAP), the Office of Consumer Advocate (OCA), and the Duquesne Light Company (Duquesne). The Metropolitan Edison Company, Pennsylvania Electric Company, Pennsylvania Power Company, West Penn Power Company (collectively “the FE Companies”) and PPL Electric Utilities Corporation (PPL Electric), also submitted comments and recommended revisions in response to the Proposed Rulemaking Order. Joint Comments were filed by Pennsylvania American Water Company (PAWC) and System Local 537, Utility Workers Union of America, AFL-CIO (Joint Commenters or PAWC). Finally, The Independent Regulatory Review Commission (IRRC) filed comments on April 6, 2016. IRRC’s comments were not a formal approval or disapproval of the regulation but specify the regulatory review criteria that have allegedly not been met. The Commission reviewed the comments of these interested parties and issues this Final Rulemaking Order.

Background and Procedural History

The Commission first promulgated Section 57.1 (Definitions) in Subchapter A (General Provisions) of its Electric Service regulations in Chapter 57 of the Pennsylvania Code on February 25, 1946. See 52 Pa. Code § 57.1. Section 57.1 was later amended on May 20, 1978, 8 Pa.B. 1403, and on January 8, 1983, 13 Pa.B. 131.

On February 19, 2014, the Commission’s then-Chairman Robert F. Powelson testified to the Pennsylvania House of Representatives Appropriations Committee that there is an average of 26 serious injuries or fatalities in Pennsylvania each year related to electric utility operations. Therefore, the Commission created the Electric Safety Division within the Commission’s Bureau of Investigation & Enforcement (I&E) to ensure that more PUC staff would be dedicated to enforcing the National Electrical Safety Code and performing field audits and investigations.¹ Presently, the Electric Safety Division is a dedicated unit, consisting of four full-time staff: a Supervisor and field inspectors for Eastern Pennsylvania, Central Pennsylvania, and Western Pennsylvania. One attorney/prosecutor also provides part-time enforcement support.

The Commission’s Gas Safety Division within I&E currently enforces gas safety standards and conducts gas safety inspections through the application of Section 59.33 (Safety) of the Commission’s regulations in Chapter 59 pertaining to Gas Service. See 52 Pa. Code § 59.33. Section 59.33 clearly and straightforwardly lists the minimum gas safety standards by specifically citing to sections of the United States Code and the Code of Federal Regulations. See 52 Pa. Code § 59.33(b). In a similar vein, the Commission believes that the clear outlay of electric safety standards in one section in Chapter 57 of the Commission’s regulations will clarify minimum industry standards and will assist the Electric Safety Division in enforcing those standards. Specifically, the Commission intended to reference the national electric safety standards in the National Electrical Safety Code (NESC) in order to remove doubt and minimize legal challenges as to the applicability of the NESC to jurisdictional Pennsylvania electric distribution companies (EDCs). In proposing these electric safety standards, the Commission also sought to clarify the duties and responsibilities between the customer and the electric utility. See Annex A, Section 57.28(a).

Legal Context

Under the Public Utility Code, an electric utility in Pennsylvania has a legal duty to maintain safe, adequate and reasonable service and facilities and to make repairs, changes, and improvements that are necessary or proper for the accommodation, convenience, and safety of its patrons, employees, and the public. 66 Pa.C.S. § 1501. Pursuant to its statutory powers, the Commission is authorized to adopt and enforce rules to ensure that electric utilities provide safe, adequate, and reliable service. 66 Pa.C.S. §§ 102, 501. The Commission must ensure that electric utilities adhere to established industry standards and practices, such as the national standards of the NESC, regarding the installation and maintenance of transmission and distribution facilities. 66 Pa.C.S. § 2804(1), § 2807(a); 52 Pa. Code § 57.198(b). Commission staff may initiate an investigation, or may do so upon complaint by an affected party, to determine whether an electric utility is providing utility service in accordance with those standards. See 52 Pa. Code § 57.194(b), § 57.197(a); see also 52 Pa. Code § 57.12. An electric utility that violates the Public Utility Code or Commission orders or regulations subjects that electric utility to a civil penalty of $1,000 per violation for every day of that violation’s continuing offense. 66 Pa.C.S. § 3301(a)-(b).

The Commission embarked on this rulemaking proceeding in order to add (1) electric safety regulations to clarify the applicable electric safety standards, (2) electric utility record keeping and reporting rules, and (3) electric utility obligations in regard to inspections and investigations. The delineation and description of electric safety standards in a new subchapter of our regulations is in the public interest as these standards provide clearer, more transparent, and more specific guidance to the regulated community and the public than the Commission’s existing regulations.

These regulations will empower the PUC’s Electric Safety Division to enforce electric safety standards at jurisdictional electric distribution facilities to ensure public safety and protect the public interest. See 66 Pa.C.S. § 1501. Pursuant to this authority, the Commission’s power to promulgate regulations, 66 Pa.C.S. § 501(b), and the Commonwealth Documents Law, 45 P.S. § 1201, the Commission proposed electric safety regulations governing the electric systems of jurisdictional electric companies in the Commonwealth of Pennsylvania. See Annex A, Section 57.28.

Comments to the Proposed Rulemaking Order

The AFL-CIO proposes that Service point/point of delivery instead be defined as “the point of connection between the facilities of the EDC and the customer’s premises wiring.” AFL-CIO contends that its definition is preferable because it is based on the nature of the physical equipment, even where the utility has not “designated” a particular point of interconnection. Secondly, because the term “facilities” as defined by Section 102 of the Public Utility Code refers to physical plant and equipment, the AFL-CIO asserts that the use of the word “premises” when referring to the customer’s property will eliminate any unnecessary confusion.

AFL-CIO also believes there are serious problems in the Commonwealth involving coordination between EDCs and field employees of water and wastewater providers. AFL-CIO offers additional language covering the duties of EDCs under Section 57.28 (a), with respect to this matter. Only the AFL-CIO and the Joint Commenters have raised and addressed this issue of inter-utility coordination for the protection of the public.

Regarding the Commission’s proposal in Section 57.28(b)(2) to follow the NESC standards, the AFL-CIO recommends that the regulation expressly require EDC adherence to the most recent adopted version of the NESC because a new version of the NESC is published every five years and may reflect changes in standards.

Lastly, AFL-CIO suggests that Section 57.28(d) of the proposed rule be modified to make clear that an EDC is also required to maintain (and make available to the Commission) other safety-related records and reports that are required under other applicable state and federal laws and regulations.

The Joint Commenters generally supported the proposals in the Proposed Rulemaking Order but submitted comments in the interest of the safety of Pennsylvania-American’s employees, customers, and contractors, who perform subsurface utility work on water and wastewater pipes and facilities located near exposed underground and overhead power lines. The Joint Commenters assert that in the absence of timely and appropriate actions by the EDC, these lines could potentially cause serious injuries or fatalities. Despite this safety issue, the Joint Commenters acknowledge that there is currently nothing in state or federal statutes or regulations that require EDCs to timely and appropriately coordinate with local water/wastewater utilities.

PAWC recommends a requirement that EDCs coordinate in a prompt and timely manner with water and wastewater utilities under the Commission’s jurisdiction to ensure the safety of such workers during the course of their work whether the work is planned or emergent. PAWC requests that the Commission adopt the suggested general requirements of coordination and establish an inter-utility working group to develop the specifics on how cooperation between EDCs and water/wastewater utilities can be achieved.

EAP supports the revised definition of “service terminal” in Section 57.1 (Definitions) but recommends using only one term “service point” in order to eliminate any confusion springing from the use of two terms for one definition. EAP notes in support that the term “service point” is used in the NESC.

EAP also recommends renaming Paragraph (1) in Section 57.28(a) “Electric utility responsibility” in order to be more consistent with the succeeding Paragraph (2) “Customer responsibility.” EAP also recommends removing “every” from Section 57.28(a)(1) because EAP believes it implies that the legal obligation exceeds a reasonable standard, which is clearly not the law. EAP asserts that “general public” should also be removed from this subsection because it is redundant and could be interpreted as creating a new liability risk for EDCs which is not adequately disclosed in the proposed rulemaking. EAP would also re-word the last phrase of the subsection to read “may be subjected to by reason of its equipment and facilities” to better align with the purpose of the proposed rule which was aimed at safety standards regarding facilities and equipment, not the broader provision of electric distribution service. Further, EAP suggests using the term “service point” in both subparagraphs.

EAP urges the Commission to delete all of the proposed paragraphs under Section 57.28(b) except Paragraph (b)(2) requiring adherence to the NESC standards. Explaining that safety is a primary objective of EAP and all its members, EAP points out that gas safety standards were established in Pennsylvania by the adoption of a single set of compliance obligations, i.e. 49 CFR Parts 191–193, 195 and 199. EAP also suggests that the proposed regulation explain that the NESC is to be applied pursuant to its terms and should account for the applicability of future revisions of editions of the NESC to the installation, operation, and maintenance of EDC equipment and facilities. EAP urges the Commission to follow a comparable path in limiting the electric safety code to the NESC.

EAP suggests striking Paragraph (b)(4) because EAP believes it again restates an existing obligation for EDCs under PA One Call, and further causes confusion by creating a compliance obligation through regulations subject to Commission enforcement for a statute which gives another agency enforcement power. EAP also notes that the pending legislation did not pass the house so any attempt to promulgate regulations in this area is premature.

EAP recommends the removal of Section 57.28(b)(3) as EAP believes the paragraph reflects overreaching by the Commission into the area of management of investor owned electric utilities for which the Commission lacks the authority.

In regards to Section 57.28(c), EAP recommends the Commission use the language found in the gas safety regulations found at Section 59.33(d) as EAP considers it more straightforward. EAP believes the direct use of the word “inspections” suffices, and that the addition of “investigation” in the proposed electric safety standards is duplicative, and may appear to merge the roles of the Electric Safety Division with that of I&E. EAP also contends that “raw data” should be removed from the regulation because use of such information which has not been vetted or verified by the utility may not demonstrate whether a company is complying with substantive safety standards and would likely lead to misinformation and misinterpretation. According to EAP, it does not believe that an additional on-the-spot reporting requirement is necessary since current regulation provides time for an electric utility to review, analyze and verify data compiled at an accident site and the utility is obligated to submit a written report following an initial thirty day period. See 52 Pa. Code § 57.11(e).

EAP further recommends the addition of the phrase “as it shall from time to time request” to provide clarity on when utilities are meant to submit such information to the Commission. EAP suggests that the Commission remove the second sentence from Section 57.28(d) as it is unnecessary to restate the existing obligations under Section 57.11.

EAP sent a separate letter (not part of its comments) to inform the Commission that while it hopes to work with the Joint Commenters, EAP disagrees with the solutions offered by the Joint Commenters. EAP submits that the recommended coordination language suggested by the Joint Commenters and the AFL-CIO is beyond the scope of this Proposed Rulemaking Order.

PECO supports the comments made by EAP, but focuses its attention on eliminating two sections of the proposed rule: Section 57.28(b)(3) and Section 57.28(c). PECO submits that the language of Section 57.28(b)(3) that raises an internal company procedure to the level of a Commission-approved "safety code" conflicts with the Commission's intended role in setting standards. PECO also submits that the enforcement provision at Section 57.28(c) should not require utilities to provide the Commission with "raw data." For one reason, PECO asserts that the term "raw data" is confusing as it is not defined within the Commission's regulations nor does it have a uniform definition in common parlance. Thirdly, PECO is concerned that the Proposed Rulemaking Order does not contain any discussion of whether "raw data" provided to a Commission investigator would be subject to a third party Right-to-Know request.

The OCA asserts that the creation of the Electric Safety Division has been a substantial move forward in helping to address consumer questions and concerns as to potential electric safety issues. The OCA shares the Commission's goal of minimizing any potential disputes surrounding the applicability of these regulations, and ensuring that Electric Safety Division personnel have the necessary authority and access to electric facilities in order to adequately investigate potential electric safety concerns.

The OCA suggests that the Commission replace the term "Electric Distribution Company (EDC)" with the term "Public Utility" to ensure that the Commission does not limit its jurisdiction over the safety of electric facilities owned by public utilities but that do not fit squarely within the definition of EDCs under 66 Pa.C.S. § 2803. OCA points to examples like the Trans-Allegheny Interstate Line Company (TrAILCo) which is a Pennsylvania Public Utility that owns non-jurisdictional, interstate transmission lines and thus is not an EDC as currently defined. The Pennsylvania Public Utility Code defines EDC as a "public utility providing facilities for the jurisdictional transmission and distribution of electricity to retail customers, except building or facility owners/operators that manage the internal distribution system serving such building or facility and that supply electric power and other related electric power services to occupants of the building or facility." 66 Pa.C.S. § 2803. Therefore, OCA is concerned that as proposed, the rules could lead to a jurisdictional vacuum as the Electric Safety Division would only be authorized to enforce the regulation against EDCs and would not cover entities like TrAILCo.

The OCA submits that while Federal authorities like the Federal Energy Regulatory Commission (FERC), the North American Electric Reliability Corporation (NERC), and their instrumentalities are focused on maintaining and monitoring the reliability of the interstate grid, the enforcement of safety still lies with the States. The OCA explained that it has received a number of calls from concerned customers regarding the safety of transmission facilities such as the stability of a transmission tower, or that voltage is seeping through the ground in the area of an interstate transmission line. Thus, OCA suggests that the Electric Safety Division be given the authority to properly investigate potential safety matters armed with clear jurisdiction over such facilities in order to further the Commission's goal of providing clarity and minimizing the number of potential legal challenges.

Duquesne supports the Commission's overall objective in undertaking this rulemaking in order to remove the uncertainty of expectations and enforcement powers of the Electric Safety Division. Duquesne also supports the positions articulated in EAP's comments to the Commission. Therefore, in addition to seeking clarifications and revisions, Duquesne expressed some concern that the regulations, as proposed, inappropriately attempt to incorporate directives that are overreaching and unrelated to enforcement powers, as well as unnecessary in light of existing regulations.

Duquesne suggests that the term "point of delivery" should be removed from Section 57.1 as it is duplicative and unnecessary given that the NESC uses the term "service point." Further, Duquesne offers clarification to the Commission's citation to the NESC which states that "the exact physical location of the service point. . .is often located on the rooftop of a customer's premise or even underground," noting that overhead services generally terminate on the building but not necessarily the rooftop.

Duquesne suggests that only the NESC standards should be included in Section 57.28(b) as the minimum safety standards. Duquesne asserts that given the fact that the Energy Generation Customer Choice and Competition Act (Competition Act) and the Commission's own regulations already incorporate the NESC standards, the Commission should not attempt to include additional requirements as minimum safety standards. Duquesne points out that NESC standards have been referenced in Commission regulations since 1977 (Section 57.82), and have been incorporated into regulations codified after the Competition Act's effective date. See 52 Pa. Code §§ 57.193(a), 57.194(b) and 57.198(b). Therefore, Duquesne maintains that the Commission's Electric Safety Standards proposal attempts to include additional requirements as minimum electric safety standards that are neither included nor addressed in the Competition Act. Duquesne also objects to the crafting of the proposed safety standards as mainly reiterating existing obligations and adding unnecessary and duplicative requirements.

Additionally, because the records subsection of the regulation, Section 57.28(d), only requires information tied to compliance with the NESC, Duquesne asserts that it should follow that the NESC is the only minimum standard set forth in the rulemaking. Assuming that the NESC standards are kept as the minimum electric safety standards, Duquesne recommends that the Commission clarify that the NESC standards in place at the time of a unit or facility's installation will be the applicable standards to that unit or facility.

Duquesne submits that Paragraph (b)(1) should be deleted as it merely reiterates existing obligations. Duquesne submits that Paragraph (b)(3) should be deleted as internal procedures are not minimum standards, are not consistent across all EDCs as each service territory has specific needs, and are not the appropriate means to regulate the management of a utility. Duquesne submits that Paragraph (b)(4) is premature as the One Call law is not yet under the Commission's jurisdiction and thus should be removed from the proposed regulation. Duquesne further contends that Paragraph (b)(5) is too broad and ambiguous to offer EDCs a clear understanding of what is required for compliance. Duquesne seeks clarification as to why these additional standards would be required for the electric industry but not for the gas industry as covered under Section 59.33.

Next, Duquesne advocates for the deletion of the word “investigation” from Section 57.28(c) because providing such access to the Commission deviates from the gas safety standards at Section 59.33 and is unnecessary given the Commission’s ability to factor an entity’s cooperation into its determinations of civil penalties and the ability of I&E to file a Motion to Compel. Duquesne also suggests that the Commission consider defining the word “inspection” under this same section to clarify that information gathered by the Commission via inspection is exempt from a Right-to-Know request. According to Duquesne, this clarification is consistent with Commonwealth Court case law, which has found that gas safety inspection materials are exempt from disclosure under § 708(b)(17), the noncriminal investigation exemption under the Right-to-Know law. Pennsylvania Pub.Util. Comm’n v. Gilbert, 40 A.3d 755, 762 (Pa. Cmwlth. 2012). Duquesne submits that the Court recognized that potential public disclosure of inspection materials could cause utilities to be less likely to cooperate with requests and therefore make it more difficult for the Commission to carry out its enforcement duties. Id. at 761. In order to avoid any confusion over the applicability of Right-to-Know law Section 708(b)(17), Duquesne suggests that the Commission consider defining the term “inspection” as part of the rulemaking by indicating that it is akin to a noncriminal investigation by the Commission.

Duquesne also points out that there is no “raw data” requirement included in the gas safety standards and suggests that its inclusion here could sweep non-safety related information into the regulation’s purview since the term is undefined. Duquesne also seeks clarification on the scope of the facilities, books, and records that must be provided to the Electric Safety Division during inspections because, as Duquesne suggests, the current language is broad and could make the Commission susceptible to increased hacking efforts.

Duquesne recommends the term “adequate records” as used in Section 57.28(d) be clarified so that EDCs have a better understanding of the scope and time frame of information to be kept. Duquesne also suggests eliminating sentences two and three from this section as they are duplicative and unnecessary.

The FE Companies support the inclusion of the definition for EDC in the proposed rulemaking as well as replacing the term “service terminal.” However, the FE Companies propose to further clarify the definitions section of the regulation by deleting “point of delivery” and strictly using the term “service point” as it is the term used by the NESC and EDCs’ tariffs in Pennsylvania. The FE Companies believe including a second term in addition to this may cause confusion. The FE Companies also recommend minor language changes to Section 57.28(a)(1) and (2), namely, titling Paragraph (1) “Electric utility responsibility” instead of “Duties of electric utility” and use of the term “service point” instead of “point of delivery of electric supply” in Subparagraph (2)(ii). Further, the FE Companies would suggest a few minor language changes regarding customer responsibility.

The FE Companies contend that Section 57.28(b) is overly broad and redundant as it is unnecessary to state that EDCs must comply with Chapter 57, PA One Call, and all other state and federal laws and regulations, when such obligations exist with or without their restatement within the proposed rulemaking. Therefore, in the interests of streamlining the proposed rules for clarity and ease of application, the FE Companies propose that Paragraphs (b)(1), (4), and (5) be eliminated in any final proposed rulemaking. While the FE Companies agree with the adoption of the NESC as the minimum safety standards, it would suggest further clarification in the application of the NESC. Principally, the FE Companies submit that the Commission should make it clear that the applicable standard to a set of facilities installed is that standard which was effective at the date of installation since the NESC is updated more frequently than electric facilities are replaced. Further, the FE Companies would like the Commission to clarify the role of the grandfathering period, by ensuring that a grandfathering period is applied to the NESC revisions in determining which standards apply to a facility. The FE Companies believe this grandfathering period is appropriate and beneficial to ensuring consistent interpretation in the proposed rules. For these reasons, the FE Companies suggest the addition of the term “National Electric Safety Code (NESC)” to Section 57.1 so as to provide greater clarity when this term is referenced throughout Section 57.28 and the rest of the Commission’s regulations:

National Electric Safety Code or NESC—The current edition of the National Electric Safety Code (NESC) published by the Institute of Electrical and Electronic Engineers (IEEE) designated as the American National Standard (ANSI) C2 at the time of facility installation. The effective date of any edition of the NESC shall be 180 days after the publication date by the IEEE for application to new installations and extensions where both design and utility approval were started after the expiration of the 180 day period.

The FE Companies propose the addition of an exception to Section 57.28 so as to ensure the Commission does not create conflicting standards within its own regulations as there are other regulations that adopt certain editions of the NESC. According to the FE Companies, there are many points throughout the Pennsylvania Code which adopt the specific language of various editions of the NESC as the standard to measure utility operations.

The FE Companies also propose that Section 57.28(b)(3) be deleted from the regulation as the provision would create numerous unwanted practical and legal implications. The FE Companies submit that internal procedures are often meant as mere guidelines and to demand adherence to some practices would reduce EDC discretion. Additionally, the FE Companies warn that inclusion of such a provision could raise due process concerns as the regulation’s language does not limit application to only those procedures which are related to safety and each EDC would be subjected to different compliance standards.

The FE Companies urge the Commission to clarify the term “raw data” and why it is needed as there is no equivalent requirement in the current gas safety standards. The FE Companies object to its inclusion if it is intended to require EDCs to provide unverified data on site at inspection. The FE Companies also believe it is unnecessary and inappropriate to additionally reference investigations within this provision, since “investigations” are initiated and administered by I&E attorneys via communications with the utilities’ attorneys. The FE Companies also recommend replacing the words “an electric” with “each public” utility each time it appears in the enforcement provision of the proposed regulation. Lastly, the FE Companies recommend that the second sentence of Section 57.28(d) be deleted as it merely restates an existing legal obligation and unnecessarily deviates from the language applied to the gas industry.

PPL suggests that the word “every” be deleted from Section 57.28(a)(1) as they believe it makes the requirements unclear as well as overly broad and burdensome. PPL would further like to see the category “the general public” eliminated from this same section as PPL submits that no such requirement exists for natural gas distribution companies. Thirdly, PPL is concerned about requiring an EDC to exercise reasonable care to reduce hazards in “its provision of electric distribution service.” PPL Electric believes the quoted language is too broad and vague, and should be deleted.

PPL objects to the use of the word “minimum” in Section 57.28(b) because PPL believes the NESC should not be considered the minimum standard as it is the preeminent source for electrical safety standards, and use of the word minimum implies that other unspecified safety standards may apply. Additionally, PPL suggests that Section 57.28 (b)(3) be deleted from the regulation as such a standard does not exist for the gas industries and would create different minimum standards for all EDCs as internal procedures tend to vary from EDC to EDC. PPL contends that Section 57.28(b)(5) should also be deleted because it is unnecessary to restate that EDCs must comply with applicable laws and regulations. Alternatively, if the Commission chooses to keep the provision, PPL recommends the Commission clarify which standards it is incorporating.

PPL asserts that “raw data” should be deleted from Section 57.28(c) because such data is often incomplete and inaccurate, plus, there is no equivalent language found in the gas safety standards. PPL also suggests that the Commission clarify the circumstances under which an EDC will be required to provide information to the Commission by incorporating the language from Section 59.33 that provides, such information will be provided to the Commission “as it shall from time to time request.” Finally, PPL proposes that the regulations be revised to specifically state that any information supplied to the Commission or its staff pursuant to these regulations will be protected as privileged and confidential and exempt from the Right-to-Know Law.

The IRRC recommends that the definition of EDC be limited to “electric distribution company” in order to eliminate any confusion the “or electric utility” portion may add. Further, the IRRC asserts that if the Commission can clearly establish that the Public Utility Code provides the Commission with jurisdiction over the safety of other “substantial electric facilities” situated in Pennsylvania that are owned by public utilities but do not fit neatly within the strict definition of an EDC, then another definition should be added that encompasses the safety of these other facilities. Additionally, the IRRC would like to see a definition added to the rule describing the National Electric Safety Code (NESC).

The IRRC asserts that the Commission should choose between the terms “service point” and “point of delivery” and define and use only one term. Referencing the comments by the AFL-CIO warning of situations where the utility may not have designated a point of interconnection, IRRC suggests that the Commission review the definition to ensure it encompasses as many circumstances as possible. Lastly on this point, IRRC recommends that the definition be modified to state that the location of this point of interconnection designated by the EDC should be established in the utility’s Commission-approved tariff.

In Section 57.28(a), the IRRC suggests the removal of the word “effectively” from this subsection as IRRC asserts that it is unnecessary since the tariff is approved by the Commission. The IRRC also recommends the deletion of the word “every” in Section 57.28(a)(1) because it agrees with EAP comments that its inclusion implies that an EDC’s legal obligations exceed a reasonable standard. The IRRC urges the Commission to review and amend the phrase “. . . by reason of its provision of electric distribution service and its associated equipment and facilities,” to clarify whether the regulation applies to the safety of EDC services beyond its associated equipment and facilities. The IRRC also proposes that Paragraph (a)(2) be deleted in its entirety as the Preamble does not establish a statutory basis or justification for the Commission to regulate customers’ maintenance of wiring and equipment beyond the service point.

The IRRC supports the position of EAP to delete all but Paragraph (2) from Section § 57.28(b). The IRRC asserts that Paragraphs (1) and (5) are unnecessary because they simply restate existing obligations. Paragraph (3) should be removed, the IRRC suggests, because it would allow an EDC to unilaterally write its own safety regulations through internal processes and to amend those regulations at its own discretion, thus bypassing the Commission and the procedures of the Regulatory Review Act. The IRRC agrees with EAP that Paragraph (b)(4) is premature and should be deleted until House Bill 445 is passed into law. In regards to the sole survivor, Paragraph (2), the IRRC submits that an implementation period should be included in the regulation and language should be added to clarify which NESC standards apply to existing facilities when the NESC is updated.

The IRRC seeks clarification of what is included within the term “raw data” within Section 57.28(c) and why this information is needed by the Commission. Additionally, the IRRC urges the Commission to revise the “adequate records” requirement as used in subsection (d) so as to clearly state what records are required for compliance. The IRRC contends that the second sentence of (d) is duplicative of requirements under Section 57.11 and should be deleted.

The IRRC suggests that the Commission consider adding an amendment to facilitate coordination between individual utility safety and reliability provisions in 66 Pa.C.S. § 1501 and the overall safety of those who work for the other utilities under its jurisdiction. The IRRC leaves it to the Commission to decide whether to address this concern here or in a separate proposed regulation. Lastly, the IRRC joins others in questioning why the electric safety requirements differ from the gas safety requirements and await the Commission’s responses to these concerns.

Comments and Discussion to Specific Regulatory Provisions of the Proposed Rulemaking Order

§ 57.1. Definitions

EDC—Electric distribution company or electric utility—An electric distribution company as defined in 66 Pa.C.S. § 2803 (relating to definitions).

For clarification purposes, we proposed adding a definition for EDC—electric distribution company or electric utility. For purposes of consistency and deference, we referenced the definition of EDC in the Public Utility Code, which defines an EDC as the “public utility providing facilities for the jurisdictional transmission and distribution of electricity to retail customers, except building or facility owners/operators that manage the internal distribution system serving such building or facility and that supply electric power and other related electric power services to occupants of the building or facility.” See 66 Pa.C.S. § 2803. Similarly, EDC is also defined with reference to this definition in the Public Utility Code later in Chapter 57 of our regulations. See 52 Pa. Code § 57.192. We also added the synonymous term electric utility for clarity, as that term is used in common parlance and in the courts and we proposed using that term in describing the proposed safety standards.

In the Definitions section, the OCA recommends that the Commission replace the Section 2803 definition of “electric distribution company” or “EDC” with the Section 102 definition of the term “A public utility.” The purpose of this change as explained by the OCA is to ensure that the Commission does not limit its jurisdiction over the safety of electric facilities owned by public utilities but that do not fit squarely within the definition of EDC under 66 Pa.C.S. § 2803.

By limiting the applicability of the regulations to EDCs, the OCA expressed concern that the Commission through the proposed regulation might be unnecessarily limiting its jurisdiction over the safety of electric facilities owned by public utilities. The OCA’s concern with using the term “EDC” is that substantial electric facilities are situated in Pennsylvania that are owned by “public utilities,” yet such entities may not be included within the definition of EDC as found in the proposed regulations.

More specifically, the OCA offers as an example the Trans-Allegheny Interstate Line Company (TrAILCo) which is a Pennsylvania Public Utility that owns non-jurisdictional, interstate transmission lines and thus is not an EDC as currently defined by Pennsylvania Law.² The OCA interprets the proposed regulations such that the Electric Safety Division’s authority to enforce the safety regulations at issue here would be limited to only EDCs, and would not cover such entities as TrAILCo.

The OCA explains that the Commission has jurisdiction over all Pennsylvania public utilities as those entities are defined in Section 102 of the Public Utility Code. This jurisdiction, however, is not exclusive as the OCA further explains that the Federal Energy Regulatory Commission (FERC) also has jurisdiction over public utilities in Pennsylvania that own interstate electric transmission lines as to rates, rules, and regulations as found in the tariff filings of such utilities at FERC.³

The OCA submits that while Federal authorities like FERC, the North American Electric Reliability Corporation (NERC), and their instrumentalities are focused on maintaining and monitoring the reliability of the interstate grid, the enforcement of safety still lies with the States. The OCA states that it has received a number of calls from concerned customers regarding the safety of transmission facilities such as the stability of a transmission tower, or that voltage is seeping through the ground in the area of an interstate transmission line. Thus, OCA suggests that the Electric Safety Division be given the authority to properly investigate potential safety matters armed with clear jurisdiction over such facilities. The OCA believes that such an edict will further the Commission’s goal of providing clarity and minimize the number of potential legal challenges.

² See, In Re: Application of TrAILCo for approval for certificate of public convenience to offer, render, furnish or supply transmission service in the Commonwealth of Pennsylvania (TrAILCo), Docket No. A-110172 et al (Order entered December 12, 2008).

³ See e.g., Application of Trans-Allegheny Interstate Line Company, Docket Nos. A-2010-2187540 and A-2010-2187542 at 16 (Order entered March 15, 2012).

IRRC also commented that if the Commission agrees with the OCA and can clearly establish that the Public Utility Code provides the Commission with jurisdiction over the safety of these other facilities, the Commission should provide that the regulation encompasses the safety of the other facilities.

Discussion

We submit that it was not our intent to limit the authority of the Electric Safety Division and the application of the proposed regulations. In addressing the jurisdictional status of a stand-alone transmission company, this Commission has agreed that it has “important public policy interests to protect by maintaining jurisdiction over electric transmission facilities located within the Commonwealth” and that “[g]ranting a certificate of public convenience to TrAILCo to function as a public utility in Pennsylvania will facilitate that continuing oversight.”⁴ Relying on ATSI’s operation and use of its transmission facilities and the distribution facilities of Penn Power to serve Pennsylvania customers, the Commission found that ATSI was a public utility as defined in Section 102. In addition to granting TrAILCo’s Certificate of Public Convenience (CPC) Application, and requiring ATSI to file a CPC application, the Commission has approved other stand-alone electric transmission company’s applications to operate as Pennsylvania public utilities under 66 Pa.C.S. § 102.⁵

The OCA notes that our jurisdiction is not exclusive because the FERC has jurisdiction over public utilities in Pennsylvania that own interstate electric transmission lines as to rates, rules and regulations as found in FERC tariff filings.⁶ Although transmission rates are regulated by FERC, States still exercise traditional authority with respect to safety and reliability of its transmission facilities. 16 U.S.C. § 824(o)(i)(3). Stand-alone transmission companies use facilities for “transmitting . . . electricity . . . for the production of light, heat, or power to or for the public for compensation,” 66 Pa.C.S. § 102, and those facilities must meet established standards for safety and reliability. 52 Pa. Code § 57.191

FERC’s position on the regulation and enforcement of safety for electric facilities is that it rests with the States. This position is clearly stated on FERC’s website under the caption “Safety & Inspections” that:

Once Electricity projects become operational, safety is regulated, monitored and enforced by the state in which the project resides, with the exception of hydropower projects, for which FERC retains jurisdiction when they are operational.⁷

Therefore, based on statutory authority, our regulations, and precedent, we do not believe that our jurisdiction over Pennsylvania public utilities that own interstate transmission lines is limited. For more clarity, however, we shall adopt the OCA’s recommendation and make sure the regulation covers issues involving safety of electric transmission facilities in the Commonwealth. In fact, our statutory authority and obligation with respect to ensuring the continuation of safe and reliable electric service is clear since transmission and distribution facilities must conform with established industry standards, including the National Electric Safety Code. 66 Pa.C.S. § 2804(i)(ii).

We shall adopt the language change in the definition recommended by the OCA, as follows:

Electric utility—A public utility as defined under 66 Pa.C.S. § 102 (relating to definitions).

In addition, we shall replace EDC with “electric utility” throughout the regulation.

Service point or point of delivery—The location designated by the EDC where the utility’s service supply lines terminate and the customer’s facilities for receiving service begin.

In this section, we proposed updating and modernizing the term and definition for Service terminal. Service terminal is currently defined as “[t]he point at which the service lines of the public utility terminate and the customer’s facilities for receiving the service begin.” 52 Pa. Code § 57.1. We explained that Service terminal is still an important term and concept, as it indicates the separation of duties between the customer and the utility. However, the term service terminal is not used as frequently as service point, the term used in the NESC, and point of delivery, a term used in Pennsylvania and PUC case law⁸ to indicate the jurisdictional separation between the customer and the utility. Therefore, we proposed replacing the term service terminal with service point/point of delivery.⁹

We also proposed a new definition for Service point or Point of delivery as “the location designated by the electric utility where the utility’s service supply lines terminate and the customer’s facilities for receiving service begin.” This definition still retains the same basic concept as the existing definition for service terminal, but also recognizes, in alignment with the NESC, that an electric utility designates the location of the service point in its tariff.¹⁰ We noted that the exact physical location of the service point may differ between utilities and between customers, as the service point is often located on the rooftop of a customer’s premises or even underground.¹¹

The AFL-CIO proposed that Service point/point of delivery instead be defined as “the point of connection between the facilities of the EDC and the customer’s premises wiring.” AFL-CIO believes that this definition is preferable because it is based on the nature of the physical equipment, even where the utility has not “designated” a particular point of interconnection. Furthermore, because the term “facilities” as defined by the § 102 of the Public Utility Code refers to physical plant and equipment, the AFL-CIO asserts that the use of the word “premises” when referring to the customer’s property will eliminate any unnecessary confusion.

EAP contends the use of one term “Service point” in relation to the revised definition would suffice and notes that the term “Service point” is used in the NESC. NESC, Section 2. Definitions of special terms at p. 15 (2012 Edition). EAP agrees that the exact physical location of the service point is to be determined by the EDC consistent with the NESC and as detailed in its tariff. Id. IRRC agrees with the use of one term for clarity and the reference to the electric utility’s tariff. IRRC also recommends that the NESC should be defined in this section. FE also agrees with these recommendations.

Discussion

We shall not adopt the AFL-CIO recommendation to modify the definition. The title of Subchapter B is “Service and Facilities.” The emphasis of Section 57.28 is on facilities of the electric utility and using the reference to the term “customer’s facilities” is not confusing as it clearly denotes that those facilities are owned and controlled by the customer. The word “facilities” is a generic term and is not solely described as applying only to ownership and control by a public utility. In fact, the definition of “Customer’s installation” in the same section uses the word “facilities” to identify all that is “necessary to bring the terminus of the wiring of a customer to a location where it may be connected to the service line.” See 52 Pa. Code § 57.1. Definitions.

Also, we have not included a definition of the term “National Electric Safety Code”, as was suggested in the comments. The title itself is descriptive, and its application we explain in the Safety code under Paragraph (b)(2), and addressed herein.

Finally, we believe that our proposed definition is sufficiently clear as to the service point interconnection but we will accept IRRC’s recommendation to add clarity to the definition and be consistent with subsection 57.28(a) by including language identifying that the location of interconnection is to be designated by the electric utility in its Commission-approved tariff.

§ 57.28. Electric Safety Standards.

As discussed, the Commission believes that the clear outlay of electric safety standards in one section in Chapter 57 of the Commission’s regulations will assist the Electric Safety Division in enforcing those standards. Compare 52 Pa. Code § 59.33 (providing gas safety standards). Specifically, the Commission wanted to reference the NESC to remove doubt and minimize legal challenges as to the applicability of the NESC to jurisdictional Pennsylvania electric distribution companies. In proposing these electric safety standards, the Commission also sought to clarify the duties and responsibilities between the customer and the electric utility.

Coordination of safety with other utilities—protection of the public health, safety and welfare

The AFL-CIO initially commended the Commission for proposing regulations to clarify the safety-related responsibilities of electric distribution companies. The AFL-CIO submits that it has members that include the International Brotherhood of Electrical Workers and the Utility Workers Union of America and workers from other Pennsylvania utilities including telecommunications, natural gas, water and wastewater providers, who often work in close proximity to EDC facilities. In addition to recommending a change to the definition of service point/point of delivery, that was addressed herein, the AFL-CIO raises an issue that there are two service problems in the Commonwealth involving coordination between EDCs and field employees of water and wastewater providers that creates safety hazards for these field workers.

First, AFL-CIO states that there are many instances around the Commonwealth where water and wastewater mains are buried in close proximity to energized EDC lines. When a water or wastewater main leaks or ruptures, AFL-CIO explains that a potentially hazardous situation arises where the water/wastewater employee may be standing in a trench filled with water and there is an energized electric line in the same trench. The AFL-CIO contends that coordination between the water or wastewater utility and the EDC is not clear, and water utility employees are directed to move energized electric lines, often without the proper equipment, training, or protective clothing. Also, the AFL-CIO believes that it is a common safety practice among EDC employees to refuse to enter a trench with an energized electric line, yet water utility workers are routinely told to do so.

⁸ This case law is discussed below in the proposed Section 57.28(a).
⁹ This definition name was then changed to “Service point or point of delivery” by the legislative reference bureau for publication.

¹¹ Id. Duquesne responds that overhead services terminate on the building and not on the actual rooftop.

Second, the AFL-CIO submits that it has been common practice for many decades to connect the ground for a home or business to the copper water service line and if an EDC's neutral becomes damaged, the water line then serves the function of the neutral and completes the circuit back to the EDC transformer. Under these circumstances, AFL-CIO believes water workers are in danger of receiving a severe electric shock and when a water worker severs a pipe to remove a defective section, or removes a water meter for repair or replacement, the current back to the transformer is interrupted and this can cause electronics in the home or business to be damaged or destroyed. The AFL-CIO maintains that EDCs do not cooperate and believe that as part of their public safety obligation, EDCs should be required to respond to the site and mitigate the hazard quickly so that the water workers can continue to restore service to customers without risking bodily harm or physical harm to the customer's electronics. Finally, the AFL-CIO maintains that the electric companies should be required to install permanent remedies like repairing a damaged neutral so that the next water worker will not be needlessly shocked.

In summary, AFL-CIO recommends that the duties of EDC's under Section 57.28(a) expressly include (1) responsibility for all EDC facilities within a common trench that is opened by any other utility or service provider that shares the underground space with the EDC, and (2) a duty of providing safety to water workers once an energized electric line has been identified in order to resolve the serious problems currently existing in the coordination between EDCs and field employees of water and wastewater providers.

The Joint Commenters generally support the proposals in the Proposed Rulemaking Order but submitted comments in the interest of the safety of PAWC's employees, customers, and contractors, who perform subsurface utility work on water and wastewater pipes and facilities located near exposed underground and overhead power lines. The Joint Commenters assert that in the absence of timely and appropriate actions by the EDC, these lines could potentially cause serious injuries or fatalities.

Based on Occupational Safety & Health Administration (OSHA) regulations, PAWC specifically explains that an employer is prohibited from permitting an employee to work in such proximity to any part of an electric power circuit that the employee could contact the electric power circuit in the course of work, unless the employee is protected against electric shock by de-energizing the circuit and grounding it or by guarding it effectively by insulation or other means. 29 CFR 1926.416(a)(1). Because PAWC cannot take the steps necessary to actually de-energize a line or guard it with insulation all work must stop until an EDC responds to a water utility worker's call to de-energize or insulate an exposed power line in proximity to any work site of the water utility.

According to PAWC, it can only contact the EDC and request that the EDC send qualified company personnel to safely and appropriately address the situation—by either de-energizing the line or guarding it with insulation—just as the EDC would be required to do under the federal regulations for its own employees. Although PAWC asserts that its ability to provide, safe, adequate and reliable water supply service to its customers may be jeopardized if the EDC does not properly prioritize and respond to requests made by water and wastewater utilities, there is currently nothing in state or federal statutes or regulations that require EDCs to timely and appropriately coordinate with local water and wastewater utilities.

PAWC believes the duties listed in Section 57.28(a)(1), which include a duty to warn and protect the public from danger, covers other utility workers not employed by EDCs within the categories of "the general public" or "others." In any event, PAWC suggests that the Commission clarify the standards an EDC must meet to ensure the safety and protection of local water and wastewater utility workers and assist the Electric Safety Division in the enforcement of EDC duties to ensure the safety of local utility workers. Specifically, PAWC recommends a requirement that EDCs coordinate in a prompt and timely manner with water and wastewater utilities under the Commission's jurisdiction to ensure the safety of such workers during the course of their work whether the work is planned or emergent. The Joint Commenters would also like to see a requirement that EDCs use every reasonable effort in the assessment and operation of EDC equipment and facilities to prevent electric shock and injury to the employees of water and wastewater utilities, including, as appropriate, the de-energizing or insulation of EDC equipment or facilities. The Joint Commenters further suggest providing other utility workers with contact information of qualified, authorized EDC representatives who will serve as a point of contact for the coordination of a timely and appropriate response. Further, the Joint Commenters suggest requiring EDCs to formally assign priority status to responses to water and wastewater emergency repairs involving exposed power lines in close proximity with the work area.

Alternatively, if the Commission chooses to give additional consideration to the issue of greater inter-utility coordination for the protection of the public, and not take this opportunity within this proposed rulemaking to adopt regulations intended to address these safety issues, PAWC requests that the Commission adopt the suggested general requirements of coordination as set forth in PAWC's comments and establish an inter-utility working group to develop the specifics on how cooperation between EDCs and water and wastewater utilities can be achieved. Additionally, PAWC suggests requiring EDCs to then submit a report to the Commission by a certain set date explaining how each utility plans to comply with the coordination requirement.

The IRRC suggests that the Commission consider adding an amendment to facilitate coordination between individual utility safety and reliability provisions in 66 Pa.C.S. § 1501 and the overall safety of other utility workers. The IRRC leaves it to the Commission to decide whether to address this concern here or in a separate proposed regulation that would allow more opportunity for comment and to build a consensus on the language of the amendment to the regulation.

Discussion

Both the AFL-CIO and PAWC have offered extensive changes to the Section 57.28 electric safety standards by inclusion of additional regulatory requirements that will apply to duties and responsibilities of electric utility companies. The AFL-CIO’s proposed modifications add provisions that will apply to the electric utility, customers, and other utility service providers identified as natural gas, communications, and water or wastewater utility service providers. PAWC’s changes address the standards an electric utility must meet to ensure the safety and protection of only local water and wastewater utility workers and assist the Electric Safety Division in the enforcement of electric utility duties to ensure the safety of local utility workers. However, the PAWC explained that since Section 57.28(a)(1) includes a duty to warn and protect the public from danger, this covers other utility workers not employed by the electric utility within the categories of “the general public” or “others.” Therefore, PAWC reasons that these proposed revisions also apply to other utility service providers other than water and waste utility workers.

As indicated above, the language changes being proposed involve other utility service providers and these industries like gas and communications have not participated in this rulemaking. Given the topic of this rulemaking, electric safety, it is not surprising that utility companies in the gas, communications, and water and wastewater industries (only PAWC filed comments) did not participate as interested parties. Therefore, we shall adopt IRRC’s suggestion that this matter not be addressed in this rulemaking. Clearly, these issues that involve OSHA regulations and very specific circumstances such as safety practices in trenches with energized electric lines and proper grounding are beyond the scope of this rulemaking. At this point, when we are about to issue a final rulemaking order, we have not had the opportunity to hear from all interested parties that want to be heard and fully develop the issues raised by these comments.¹²

Despite our disposition here to defer this matter to another possible rulemaking, we consider this a serious matter given the allegations made by AFL-CIO and the Joint Commenters. However, rather than grant PAWC’s request to adopt the general requirements of coordination as set forth in its comments and establish an inter-utility working group to develop specifics and further require EDCs to then submit a report to the Commission to explain how each utility plans to comply with the coordination requirement, we shall direct PAWC to file a petition for issuance of a regulation pursuant to 52 Pa. Code § 5.43. Given the specific allegation made by the Joint Commenters and the regulatory language that has already been drafted, including the provisions proposed by the AFL-CIO, PAWC is in a better position to initiate this rulemaking and formulate the relevant issues. We shall order PAWC to file the subject petition within 30 days and provide for comments to the petition to be filed by interested parties within 30 days of the filing of the petition. The petition shall be served on all the parties to this rulemaking.

Section 57.28(a) Duties and Responsibilities

(a) Duties and responsibilities. The separation of duties and responsibilities between an EDC and a customer with respect to the facilities utilized for electric service shall be effectively described in the EDC’s tariff that is filed with and approved by the Commission.

(1) Duty of an EDC. An EDC shall use every reasonable effort to properly warn and protect the public from danger, and shall exercise reasonable care to reduce the hazards to which employees, customers, the general public and others may be subjected to by reason of its provision of electric distribution service and its associated equipment and facilities.

(2) Customer responsibility.

(i) A customer is responsible for the ownership and maintenance of the customer’s facilities beyond the service point.

(ii) A customer is responsible for maintaining and inspecting electrical wiring and electrical equipment beyond the point of delivery of electric supply.

Under Pennsylvania law, maintenance and inspection duties between the electric utility and the customer are generally divided at the service point or the point of delivery of electricity to the customer. Alderwoods v. Duquesne Light Co., 106 A.3d 27, 38 (Pa. 2015); Hineline v. Metro. Edison Co., 1990 Pa. PUC LEXIS 156, at *6 (Pa. P.U.C. 1990). The NESC explains that the service point is the point of demarcation between the serving electric utility and premises wiring of the customer.¹³ The service point is also the jurisdictional line of demarcation between two national codes: (1) the NESC and (2) the National Electrical Code (NEC).¹⁴ Beyond the service point, the customer owns and assumes the responsibility for the maintenance and security of the internal wiring. See Hineline, 1990 Pa. PUC LEXIS 156, at *6 (citing Craft v. Pa. Elec. Co., 50 Pa. P.U.C. 1 (1976); see Norbeck v. Pa. PUC, 2011 Pa. Cmmw. Unpub. LEXIS 601, at *21-22 (Pa. Cmwlt. Ct. 2010) (explaining that the utility tariff did not require the utility to take ownership of customer-owned service lines). Accordingly, the electric utility does not have a freestanding duty to inspect customer-owned electric equipment. Alderwoods, 106 A.3d at 38; see Norris v. Phila. Elec. Co., 5 A.2d 114, 116 (Pa. 1939).

Under this framework and legal guidance, we proposed Section 57.28(a) to clarify and explain the duties and responsibilities between the customer and the electric utility. As is current practice, the duties “shall be effectively described in the electric utility’s tariff that is filed with and approved by the Commission.” See Annex A, Section 57.28(a). Here, we explained that an electric utility shall use every reasonable effort to properly warn and protect the public from danger and to reduce hazards to the public due to its provision of electric distribution service and its associated equipment and facilities. See Annex A, Section 57.28(a)(1). We also explained that the customer is responsible for the ownership and maintenance of the customer’s facilities beyond the service point and delivery of electric supply. See Annex A, Section 57.28(a)(2).

Discussion

EAP recommends that using a subparagraph title of “Electric utility responsibility” would be consistent with the paragraph “Customer responsibility” found at new Section 57.28(a)(2). However, since we will effectively be deleting Paragraph (a)(2) “Customer responsibility,” as the subsection will now only cover electric utilities, we will change the title of subsection (a) to “Responsibilities” which is the terminology used in the Gas Safety regulation in Section 59.33(a), and it will not be necessary to have titles to Paragraphs (a)(1) and (a)(2) because the subsection title “Responsibilities” only applies to an electric utility. Furthermore, it is unnecessary to use both words, “duties and responsibilities,” as they have a similar meaning, i.e., a moral or legal obligation. We shall also take out the reference to “duties” in the body of the provision. Moreover, we find merit with IRRC’s recommendation that the word “effectively” be removed. In addition to it being essentially unclear in this context, the word is unnecessary because the provision already confirms that the separation of responsibilities is described in a tariff approved by the Commission. We shall also accept EAP’s recommendation to strike “every” and the term “general public” from the proposed Section 57.28(a)(1) as neither of these terms are found in Section 59.33(a) and insertion of the modifier “every” implies that the legal obligation exceeds a reasonable standard. EAP contends that the addition of the term “the general public” to the language of Section 57.28(a) is redundant. PPL agrees and IRRC also comments that the word “every” is unclear as it fails to explain what additional standard is set by requiring “every reasonable effort.” As we have indicated, we shall also accept the recommendation to remove the reference to the “general public.” We agree that the word “general” is unclear but we shall retain the use of the word “public,” which clearly is a category separate and apart from employees and customers, and not redundant.

Finally, in this paragraph EAP contends that the proposed rules are aimed at providing a standard for safety with respect to “facilities and equipment” and not to the broader provision of electric distribution service that is provided for under the proposed language. EAP submits that other provisions address reasonable and reliable service.

We disagree that this regulation does not apply to the safety of electric distribution services beyond its associated equipment and facilities. The location of this regulation is Subchapter B. SERVICE AND FACILITIES and electric safety does not just apply to facilities. Clearly, the practices and procedures of electric utility employees working on the facilities are relevant to safety. In other words, electric utility employees must follow reasonable and adequate procedures based on adequate and proper training. In response to IRRC’s recommendation to clarify this phrase, we will make one modification - electric distribution will be removed and replaced with electric utility because the safety of electric utility service and facilities should not be limited to just electric distribution service but must also apply to transmission service as we explained in the definitions section.

With respect to Paragraph (2) “Customer responsibility,” IRRC points out that as drafted the paragraph would establish Commission regulation and enforcement of all electric utility customers to safely maintain and inspect wiring and equipment beyond the service point. According to IRRC, the Preamble does not establish a statutory basis or justification for the Commission to regulate maintenance of wiring and equipment owned by the customer beyond the service point. IRRC asks the question whether it is mainly our intent to declare that an electric utility is not responsible for a customer’s wiring and equipment. We agree that it is our intent to declare jurisdiction from the perspective of the electric utility and not the customer. Therefore, this disposition will delete most of the paragraph as we shall reword the paragraph to make this declaration of jurisdiction that the electric utility’s responsibilities end at the service point.

Section 57.28(b) Safety Code

(b) Safety code. A jurisdictional EDC shall comply with all of the following minimum safety standards:

- (1) This chapter.
- (2) The standards established by the National Electrical Safety Code.
- (3) The procedures established by the EDC and set forth in the EDC’s internal company procedures.
- (4) The standards established by sections 1—11 of the act of December 10, 1974 (73 P.S. §§ 176—186), known as the Underground Utility Line Protection Act, and Pennsylvania One Call.
- (5) Other applicable and governing State and Federal laws and regulations.

In this section, the Commission establishes and explains the minimum safety standards to which all jurisdictional EDCs must comply. The electric utilities must adhere to Chapter 57 of the Commission’s regulations governing electric service. 52 Pa. Code § 57 et seq.; see Annex A, Section 57.28(b)(1). As discussed, the electric utilities must adhere to the standards established by the National Electrical Safety Code. 66 Pa.C.S. § 2804(1), § 2807(a); see Annex A, Section 57.28(b)(2). We also propose to require that an electric utility comply with its own internal company procedures. See Annex A, Section 57.28(b)(3).

Additionally, we proposed to require electric utilities to adhere to the Underground Utility Line Protection Act (PA One Call). See 73 P.S. § 176; see Annex A, Section 57.28(b)(4). PA One Call requires underground facility owners, including public utilities, to become members of the One Call System, a Commonwealth-wide communication system that provides a single nationwide toll-free telephone number or 811 number for excavators, designers, or other persons covered by Act 287 to call facility owners and notify them of their intent to perform excavation, demolition, or similar work. 73 P.S. §§ 176-177. See Annex A, Section 57.28(b)(4). Finally, we inform EDCs as to their duty to adhere to any and all applicable and governing state and federal laws and regulations. See Annex A, Section 57.28(b)(5).

The proposed safety code paragraphs have drawn mostly negative comments. PECO supports the comments made by EAP, but focuses its attention on eliminating two sections of the proposed rule: Section 57.28(b)(3) and Section 57.28(c). PECO submits that the language of Section 57.28(b)(3) that raises an internal company procedure to the level of a Commission-approved “safety code” conflicts with the Commission’s intended role in setting standards. PECO submits that internal company procedures were never intended to be externally imposed safety codes. The way it works, PECO explains, is that the Commission sets standards, utilities are then required to conform to those standards, but they are given significant latitude in the procedures they use to comply with the standard. In other words, each utility will have internal company procedures that are unique to its own operations, which may change over time based on the utility’s operational experience.

By deeming internal company procedures as “safety codes” without examining evidence, taking comments, or evaluating the internal company procedures of the various utilities, PECO contends that the Commission cannot have performed its normal function of determining whether it is in the public interest to impose a certain procedure as a required standard. Further, PECO notes that internal company procedures, by definition, are not rules of general applicability and submits inclusion of Section 57.28(b)(3) would cause a “balkanization of safety standards and enforcement” throughout the state. If the internal company standards are elevated to the role of Commission-approved safety codes, PECO argues that this would literally mean that an identical activity could be legal at some Pennsylvania utilities but a regulatory violation at other Pennsylvania utilities, depending solely upon whether the respective utilities had chosen to include the given activity in an internal operating procedure. Therefore, PECO suggests that converting these internal policies into Commission-approved safety codes would incentivize utilities to reduce the number and scope of internal procedures so as to minimize the number of safety codes they have to adhere to legally.

PECO also submits that the enforcement provision at Section 57.28(c) should not require utilities to provide the Commission with “raw data.” For one reason, PECO asserts that the term “raw data” is confusing as it is not defined within the Commission’s regulations nor does it have a uniform definition in common parlance. Secondly, PECO stresses that the Proposed Rulemaking Order (Page 9) states that the section is “not meant to include opinions or mental impressions.” However, much of the information collected after a safety event will be collected as part of a litigation investigation and the utility will likely have valid reasons to maintain control over information that are not “opinions or mental impressions.” PECO also notes that the proposed regulation itself does not contain the limitation on opinions or mental impressions which could cause some disagreement as to what is required. Thirdly, PECO is concerned that the Proposed Rulemaking Order does not contain any discussion of whether “raw data” provided to a Commission investigator would be subject to a third party Right-to-Know request. If the answer is yes, PECO asserts that the civil discovery process would be bypassed and the release of raw data to the Commission could prejudice the utility’s position.

EAP would only keep Paragraph (2) and IRRC agrees with EAP’s assessment. EAP contends that Paragraphs (1) and (5) are vague and unnecessary because they restate existing obligations. IRRC concurs and also, strongly agrees, with EAP’s objection to Paragraph (3) that the Commission, by proposing that internal company procedures be included in the regulation as a substantive compliance standard, improperly infringes on a utility company’s management discretion. EAP submits there is no authority for individual company procedures or rules forming the basis for compliance actions by the Commission. IRRC interprets this provision as if the Commission delegated its regulatory authority over safety procedures to the electric utility in its operating procedures. In other words, IRRC explains this would effectively allow the electric utility to write its own safety regulations independent of the Commission and outside the Regulatory Review Act process. IRRC also agrees with EAP’s observation that Paragraph (4)(b) is premature because the legislation that would transfer enforcement authority over PA One Call has not been passed into law. Finally, IRRC agrees with EAP’s suggestion to add a 180-day period after a new edition of the NESC takes effect to allow for training and implementation and requests that the Commission should consider adding language to clarify what standards apply to existing facilities when the NESC is updated.

Discussion

We shall accept most of the changes recommended by the Commenters and IRRC to simplify the safety code. The most important aspect of the safety code is to identify the minimum safety standards that an electric utility must comply with in providing electric utility service. In addition, it was our intent to list and provide notice of all the laws and regulations that are applicable in one section in Chapter 57 to assist the Electric Safety Division in enforcing these standards. In so doing, we recognize, as pointed out by IRRC, that the paragraphs may restate existing obligations, are overly broad, unpractical and premature. Based on these criticisms, we shall delete Paragraphs (1), (4), and (5).

However, we further recognize, as pointed out by EAP, that gas safety standards under Section 59.33 were established in Pennsylvania by the adoption and implementation of federal pipeline safety laws, “including all subsequent amendments thereto.” The regulation notes that these are minimum safety standards for gas and we shall utilize the same terminology for electric by limiting the electric safety code to the NESC. We do not agree with PPL that the use of this term marginalizes the NESC. The utilization of the term and purpose is to create a threshold the electric utility must attain, not that the NESC has electrical safety standards that are inferior. The use of this term “minimum safety standards” for natural gas has not proven to cause any discrepancies with respect to implementation of the regulation. We shall keep the term “minimum,” as it also used in the gas safety code. In addition, while we shall use the NESC safety standards, we shall not adopt the recommendations of EAP and IRRC with respect to the implementation period, and EAP’s language as it applies to accepting the NESC standards and explanation as to which editions take effect.

The Commenters assert that it is important to clarify which edition of the NESC applies and explain how the effective date is determined. See NESC Section 1, Rule 016 at p. 6 (2012 Edition). In this regard, EAP suggested the following language as a new paragraph (b)(2): “New editions of the NESC shall take effect no sooner than 180 days following their publication, unless the Commission provides public notice and opportunity for public input to determine an alternative effective date.”

However, upon further reflection, we do not believe that the language proposed by EAP captures the issues of design and approval lag time in construction or the explanation of the ability to immediately use the latest edition of the Code upon being published. Although we are not maintaining that it was necessarily the intent on the part of the EAP to condense the Rule, there is more substance to the Rule than this requirement. Moreover, the sentence could be interpreted incorrectly to imply that the general rule is that new editions cannot take effect less than 180 days from publication unless administrative action is taken. As provided for in the Note to the Rule: “There is neither an intention to require or imply that this edition be implemented before 180 days from the publication date, nor an intention to prohibit earlier implementation.” The Note also states that utilities and regulatory authorities have not less than 180 days to take necessary action to comply. NESC Section 1, Rule 016 Handbook at p. 16 (2012 Edition). In fact, the general rule for determining the effective date is that the “edition may be used at any time on or after the publication date,” and the edition “shall become effective no later than the first day of the month after 180 days have elapsed following its publication date for application to new installations and extensions where both design and approval were started after the expiration of that period, unless otherwise stipulated by the administrative authority.”

Rather than implement a regulatory provision that may be interpreted incorrectly or simply duplicate the provision in the regulation, we shall not include the sentence offered by EAP. Instead the subsection (b) Safety code will require compliance with the NESC and leave it to the electric utility to comply with the Rules of the NESC that apply to determining the effective date of the NESC edition. In other words, the Safety code requires that an electric utility shall comply with the minimum safety standards established by the NESC which includes rules for determining the effective date of the NESC edition.

We have also considered adding language to clarify what standards apply to existing facilities when the NESC is updated. IRRC noted that several commenters suggest adding language to clarify that the NESC standards in place at the time of a facility's installation should be the standards that apply to that facility. We agree with this analysis and also that it should be clarified what standards apply to existing installations and extensions. For example, under Rule 013, the current NESC rules “apply to all new installations and extensions, except that they may be waived or modified by the administrative authority.” NESC Section 1, Rule 013 at p. 4 (2012 Edition). When that occurs, the rule provides that safety is to be provided in other ways. In addition, the general rule for existing installations is that “[w]here an existing installation meets, or is altered to meet, these rules, such installation is considered to be in compliance with this edition and is not required to comply with any previous edition.” NESC Section 1, Rule 013 at p. 4 (2012 Edition). Rather than transcribe the entire four pages of Rule 013. Application, in this regulation, we believe that it is sufficient to again rely on the language of the subsection (b) Safety code that an electric utility shall comply with the minimum safety standards established by the NESC which includes rules for installations.

It was our intent by proposing Paragraph (3) that electric utility companies prepare and follow written procedures for conducting their activities. To satisfy the Section 1501 obligation to provide safe service, we would expect that Pennsylvania electric utilities prepare and follow written procedures for conducting their installations, operations, and maintenance activities. IRRC was especially concerned this paragraph would allow electric utilities to effectively write their own safety regulations, and bypass the Regulatory Review Act. However, the NESC under Part 4, Work Rule 410A does require that electric utility employers utilize positive procedures to secure compliance with the NESC safety rules. Furthermore, under Part 4, Work Rule 410A, the General Operating Routine requires supervisors to conduct job briefings before beginning each job and that should include work procedures, personal protective equipment requirements, energy source controls, hazards associated with the job, and special precautions. The NESC also provides for general operating routines to provide for control of access to the worksite and control of the work to be performed to ensure that the safety rules are observed. Handbook to Rule 421.

Therefore, since we expect that an electric utility would have a safe operating procedure for a certain activity, and that a worker would comply with their own internal procedures, and that NESC already requires formal work procedures, we shall not make the establishment of internal company procedures a specific regulatory requirement.

Section 57.28(c) Enforcement

(c) Enforcement. An EDC is subject to inspections, investigations and enforcement actions as may be necessary to assure compliance with this section. The facilities, books and records of an EDC shall be accessible to the Commission and its staff for the inspections and investigations. An EDC shall provide the Commission or its staff the raw data, reports, supplemental data and information necessary for the administration and enforcement of this section.

On occasion, the Commission's I&E Bureau has had difficulty in obtaining certain information from electric utilities. Prior to the creation of the Electric Safety Division, I&E depended on utilities to provide information to assist I&E in carrying out investigations.¹⁵ Even with the Electric Safety Division established, I&E still needs to be able to readily and easily acquire information from electric utilities. Since there are only three electric safety inspectors in the Commonwealth (East, Central, and West), an inspector may not be able to arrive at the scene of an incident while the evidence is still fresh and untouched. The Electric Safety Division has encountered some confusion and hesitance from utilities regarding the provision of information, including raw data, to Commission staff at the investigation site.

In order to alleviate any confusion on the part of the electric utilities as to what information must be provided to the Commission and to ensure that the Electric Safety Division can effectively carry out its inspections and investigation, we proposed Section 57.28(c) to require an EDC to make its books, facilities, and records available to staff of I&E and the Electric Safety Division during inspections and investigations. See 52 Pa. Code § 59.33(d) (similar enforcement section for gas safety). This was to include the raw data collected at the time of the initial incident investigation. The raw data is to be provided to the electric safety inspector as it is collected if a safety inspector is on site during the initial investigation. See Annex A, Section 57.28(c). Here, we emphasized that an EDC “shall provide the Commission or its staff the raw data, reports, supplemental data, and information necessary for the administration and enforcement of this section.” See Annex A, Section 57.28(c). This section is not meant to include opinions or mental impressions.

PECO first notes with respect to this subsection that the term “raw data” is not defined and even in common parlance does not have a uniform definition which then raises the question which information utilities are required to provide to Commission staff after a safety incident. In addition, PECO submits that information that a utility collects may be collected as part of its litigation investigation chain of custody and has valid reasons for maintaining control. Finally, because of third party Right-to-know requests, PECO states that sharing raw data with Commission staff could effectively bypass the civil court discovery process which contains significant protections against the release of certain types of information.

EAP recommends using the language in the gas safety regulation at Section 59.33(d), as the addition of the word “investigation” is considered to be duplicative and unnecessary. Moreover, EAP believes use of the term “raw data” is overly broad and does not agree that utilities are or should be obligated to turn over “raw data” at an incident site.

EAP further believes that turning over “raw data” collected from a utility work site before it has been subject to internal vetting, evaluation and verification by the utility may not demonstrate whether a company is complying with substantive safety standards and would likely lead to misinformation and misinterpretation. EAP argues that § 57.11(e) provides the utility thirty (30) days to review, analyze and verify data before submitting a written report and, therefore, on-the-spot reporting is not required. In fact, EAP does not believe an additional on-the-spot reporting requirement is necessary.

EAP acknowledges that issues of process and protocol have arisen with respect to on-site investigations by the Electric Safety Division that are conducted simultaneously with the utilities internal investigation of a reportable accident or incident. EAP believes the thirty (30) day reporting requirement appears to have provided the proper balance between the staff need to timely evaluate incidents and the utilities need to ensure that the information reported is accurate and complete. EAP fears that the regulations could be interpreted to mean that the utilities would, on an ongoing basis or other frequency, be continually submitting all “reports, supplemental data, and information” pursuant to the Commission’s administration and enforcement of the proposed safety standard.

Duquesne expressed concern with the perceived broad verbiage of this proposed section because authorizing the Commission to have unrestricted access to EDC files could subject the Commission to an increase in hacking attempts.

The FE Companies question why there is a difference in language from the gas safety regulation as there has been no allegation of inadequacies identified in the gas safety regulation. The FE Companies are concerned that the “raw data” provision would require electric utilities to provide unverified, and in some cases unrecorded data on site at any inspection that the Commission’s Electric Safety Division inspectors might be holding. According to the FE Companies, the data presented on site may be offered without verification, analysis and evaluation for accuracy and completion. The FE Companies submit that this “on the spot” data is not required to be submitted to other entities without a documented request. Moreover, the FE Companies contend the data may not be accurate and that EDCs should be allowed to perform their own investigations and confirm data. Finally, since the FE Companies maintain that legal process is already in place to enforce a utility’s compliance with requests made by I&E during investigations, it is unnecessary and inappropriate to reference investigations within the provision. According to the FE Companies, to the extent it is contemplated that this information be shared with I&E by the Electric Safety Division, utilities should be given the due process right of attorney representation and review for any information that may find its way into the hands of Commission prosecutors with the intent of initiating an investigation.

PPL also has concerns over this subsection first noting that raw data may be incomplete or inaccurate and should not be provided to Commission staff while the electric utility is still investigating. Also, PPL proposes that the final sentence in the subsection should incorporate the language from Section 59.33(d) that such information will be provided to the Commission as it shall from “time to time request.” Finally, PPL proposes that the regulations be revised to specifically state that any information supplied to the Commission or its staff pursuant to the regulations shall be protected as privileged and confidential and exempt from disclosure under 66 Pa.C.S. § 335(d).

IRRC determines that the Commission should further explain the need for this raw data and clarify the regulation to more clearly state what data is required. IRRC notes that these comments compare this proposed regulation to the existing language of the gas safety regulation at 52 Pa. Code § 59.33 and questions why the electric safety requirements should differ from the gas safety requirements.

Discussion

The “raw data” we are referring to is primarily up-to-date measurements of facilities and conductors, on the scene closest to the time of the incident as possible. Since weather conditions and load can suddenly change over a short amount of time after an incident, these measurements need to be recorded as soon as possible. The utilities are best equipped to safely obtain these measurements and we expect that these measurements would be taken. Furthermore, we would expect that this information be provided to our field inspector if the information is requested and if for some reason an issue develops as to the accuracy of the information, that matter can be raised in the written report of a reportable accident required under Section 57.11. We do not consider this a new category of information. Although this may be data not yet subject to analysis, we do not consider it information that would not be included in “reports, supplemental data, and information necessary for the administration and enforcement of this section.” Therefore, we shall remove the term “raw data” which may appear to be too informal and not uniformly defined.

However, we shall not accept the recommendations to maintain the exact language utilized in the counterpart gas safety regulation with respect to enforcement. We do not agree that use of the word “investigations” with “inspections” is necessarily duplicative, since they do not have the same meaning. Certainly a general inspection of facilities is not the same as a specific informal investigation conducted by I&E pursuant to 52 Pa. Code § 3.113. Although EAP opines that it is unnecessary to include language that purports to establish the Commission’s authority to bring enforcement actions, we believe that including the term “investigations” resolves any issues that may be raised questioning I&E’s authority as Commission staff to make informal requests for documents and information. The regulation, as proposed, simply represents the compliance obligation of the electric utility.

In addition, although PPL argues that the term “investigations” is not utilized in the gas safety regulations at Section 59.33, we do not believe this is a sufficient reason to warrant removing a relevant term here since any future modification of the gas safety regulations may consider inclusion of the term. We do, however, find merit with PPL’s concern that since agency records relating to a noncriminal investigation are exempt from the Pennsylvania Right-to-Know Law,¹⁶ the proposed language could strip the information provided by the electric utility of this protection. As indicated above, to address this concern PPL proposes that the regulations be revised to specifically state that any information supplied to the Commission or its staff pursuant to the regulations shall be protected as privileged and confidential and exempt from disclosure under 66 Pa.C.S. § 335(d).

¹⁶ Pennsylvania Pub. Util. Comm’n v. Gilbert, 40 A.3d 755, 762 (Pa. Cmwlth. 2012).

We are in agreement and shall apply this protection by amending the phrase to read “inspections and other types of noncriminal investigations.” At the same time, we do not share the same concern with respect to removing the phrase “as it shall from time to time request,” that is also contained in the gas safety regulations at Section 59.33. Without this qualifier, PPL and EAP believe there is no procedure for when or how the electric utility will provide information to the Commission or its staff and the regulation could be interpreted to mean that the utilities would, on an ongoing basis or other frequency, be continually submitting all “reports, supplemental data, and information” pursuant to the Commission’s administration and enforcement of the proposed safety standard. Frankly, no interested parties have responded that this qualifier as written controls the number of requests for information made by staff. Therefore, we do not agree that removing this qualifier somehow will open the flood gates to numerous requests for information. Moreover, we do not believe that implementing the regulation without the qualifier will be imposing an additional burden on the electric utility.

Therefore, we shall not delete the word “investigations” in the first and second sentence, but we shall modify the subsection to read “inspections and other types of non-criminal investigations” in both sentences. However, we do find merit that the phrase “and enforcement actions” is unnecessary. Here, we agree with EAP’s analysis that these words may be unnecessary as the Association acknowledges there is no need to include language that purports to establish the Commission’s enforcement authority since neither EAP nor its members question the authority of the Commission to bring enforcement actions for alleged violations of the Public Utility Code or regulations promulgated thereunder.

Section 57.28(d) Records

(d) Records. An EDC shall keep adequate records as required for compliance with the safety code set forth in subsection (b). An electric utility shall submit reports for each reportable accident under § 57.11 (relating to accidents). The records shall be accessible to the Commission and its staff.

As explained above, the Electric Safety Division has encountered confusion and resistance from utilities regarding the provision of information, including raw data, to Commission staff at the investigation site. By the same reasoning underlying the proposed Section 57.28(c), we proposed Section 57.28(d) requiring an electric utility to keep “adequate records” as required under the Commission’s regulations and the National Electric Safety Code. See 52 Pa. Code § 59.33(e) (similar records section for gas safety). As these records will assist I&E in carrying out its investigations, we emphasize that these records must be “accessible to the Commission and its staff.” See Annex A, Section 57.28(d).

Here, we also noted that Section 57.11 of the Commission’s regulations requires an electric utility to submit a report of each reportable accident involving the facilities or operations to the Secretary of the Commission. 52 Pa. Code § 57.11(a).

EAP suggests that the proposed regulatory language describing the requirement for EDCs to keep adequate records relating to safety be revised such that the second sentence of the proposal be removed from the final rule. Since it is not necessary to restate the existing section 57.11 reporting requirement relating to accidents in this new regulatory section, Duquesne believes the subsection should be streamlined because of the duplicative reference to Section 57.11. Duquesne also believes the reference to “adequate records” should be clarified by the Commission. The FE Companies agree that the language of the provision is redundant.

IRRC considered the first sentence to be vague by requiring “adequate records as required for compliance with the safety code,” since the view of what are “adequate records for compliance” could vary. Finally, IRRC points out that the second sentence merely restates an existing requirement that is established under Section 57.11.

Discussion

IRRC recommends that we review and amend this requirement to clearly state what records are required for compliance. We would agree that the subsection is vague only to extent that the records that would be required for compliance would depend on what provision of the safety code or the NESC was in issue or what aspect of service or facilities is involved. The Safety Rules record retention requirement in the NESC provides as follows for Overhead Lines (Rule 214(A)(4)) and Underground Lines (Rule 313(A)(4)): “Inspection Records: Any conditions or defects affecting compliance with this Code revealed by inspection or test, if not promptly corrected, shall be recorded; such records shall be maintained until the conditions or defects are corrected.” In addition, the Safety Rules record retention requirement for Electric Supply Stations (Rule 121(A) Handbook) provides that defective conditions that are found should be recorded and a procedure should be in place to track such defects until they are remedied. These provisions clarify what inspection records are necessary to adequately record construction, operations, and maintenance activities undertaken pursuant to the NESC. Therefore, we would agree that the compliance record could vary because it would depend on what work was involved and again what provision of the NESC was involved. We believe that the rule as written provides sufficient notice that an electric utility must keep records that verify their compliance with the safety code. We further believe that if the provision would have merely required the electric utility to keep records, that would be vague, but the rule clearly requires “adequate” records just as the electric utility is required to furnish reasonable and adequate service under the Public Utility Code. 66 Pa.C.S. § 1501. However, based on vagueness concerns, we shall not adapt the AFL-CIO’s recommendation that EDCs maintain other safety-related records that are required under other laws or regulations. Although it may be important to have access to reports of employee accidents, Section 57.11 already requires a public utility to make this report. Finally, we shall delete the second sentence in response to IRRC’s comment that the requirement is redundant as Section 57.11 already independently establishes this reporting requirement.

Regulatory Review

Under section 5(a) of the Regulatory Review Act (71 P.S. § 745.5(a)), on January 27, 2016, the Commission submitted a copy of the notice of proposed rulemaking, published at 46 Pa.B. 654 (February 6, 2016), to IRRC and the Chairpersons of the House Consumer Affairs Committee and the Senate Consumer Protection and Professional Licensure Committee for review and comment.

Under section 5(c) of the Regulatory Review Act, the Commission shall submit to IRRC and the House and Senate Committees copies of comments received during the public comment period, as well as other documents when requested. In preparing the final-form rulemaking, the Commission has considered all comments from IRRC and the public.

Under section 5.1(j.2) of the Regulatory Review Act (71 P.S. § 745.5a(j.2)), on June 14, 2017, the final-form rulemaking was deemed approved by the House and Senate Committees. Under section 5.1(e) of the Regulatory Review Act, IRRC met on June 15, 2017, and approved the final-form rulemaking.

PROPOSED RULEMAKING

PHILADELPHIA PARKING AUTHORITY

Regulation of Transportation Network Companies; Advance Notice of Proposed Rulemaking; Re- quest for Public Comment; Public Comment Hearing

The act of November 4, 2016 (P.L. 1222, No. 164) (Act 164) legalized the services provided by transportation network companies (TNC), such as Uber and Lyft, to operate in Philadelphia under the exclusive regulatory jurisdiction of the Philadelphia Parking Authority (Authority). See 53 Pa.C.S. Chapter 57A (relating to transportation network companies).

While Act 164 provides a substantive framework as to the requirements for the regulation and enforcement of TNCs in Philadelphia, Act 164 empowers the Authority to promulgate rules and regulations necessary to govern the regulation of TNCs. Toward this end, the Authority's Taxicab and Limousine Division (TLD) is initiating this advance notice of proposed rulemaking.

Therefore, the TLD is seeking information and comment from the public at large, members of the taxicab, limousine, dispatcher and TNC industries, prospective and existing technology vendors, and other interested parties regarding suggestions as to the language and requirements of proposed TNC regulations. Comments should include specific section references to 53 Pa.C.S. Chapter 57A, delineate the rationale for the proposed regulations and specific proposed language for the regulations. The proposed rulemaking must be consistent with Act 164.

The TLD will hold a public comment hearing on Thursday, August 31, 2017, from 10 a.m. to 12 p.m. at the IATSE Ballroom, 2401 Swanson Street, Philadelphia, PA 19148.

Due to the comprehensive nature of this proposed rulemaking, interested parties will be given 60 days from the date of publication of this advance notice of proposed rulemaking in the Pennsylvania Bulletin for the submission of written comments, which is no later than September 27, 2017. Written comments shall be submitted to the attention of Christine A. Kirlin, Esq., TLD Director, Philadelphia Parking Authority, Taxicab and Limousine Division, 2415 South Swanson Street, Philadelphia, PA 19148-4113, ckirlin@philapark.org.

Standards and Billing Practices for Residential Public Utility Service; Request for Additional Comments

*Rulemaking to Amend the Provisions of 52 Pa. Code, Chapter 56 to Comply with the Amended Provisions of 66
Pa.C.S. Chapter 14; L-2015-2508421*

Order Seeking Additional Comments

By the Commission:

On July 21, 2016, the Pennsylvania Public Utility Commission (Commission) adopted a Notice of Proposed Rulemaking (NOPR) to solicit comments about amending and adding to the provisions of 52 Pa. Code Chapter 56 regarding the standards and billing practices for residential utility service.¹ These regulations are applicable to electric distribution utilities, water distribution utilities, natural gas distribution utilities, steam heat utilities, and wastewater utilities. Comments were filed on April 19, 2017. With this Order, the Commission seeks additional comments on issues raised in the initial comments. The Commission is also introducing two new issues to this proceeding and providing parties an opportunity to comment.

Background

On October 22, 2014, Governor Corbett signed into law HB 939, or Act 155 of 2014. This law became effective on December 22, 2014. The Act reauthorized and amended Chapter 14 of the Public Utility Code (66 Pa.C.S. §§ 1401—1419) (Responsible Utility Customer Protection). Chapter 56 of the Pennsylvania Code at 52 Pa. Code §§ 56.1—56.461 (relating to the standards and billing practices for residential utility service) must be revised because the amended Chapter 14 supersedes a number of Chapter 56 regulations, and the Commission is directed to revise Chapter 56 and promulgate regulations to administer and enforce Chapter 14.

The Commission addressed the more urgent implementation matters through Implementation Orders. See Tentative Order, Chapter 14 Implementation, Docket Number M-2014-2448824 (Order entered January 15, 2015) (Tentative Order). Upon reviewing comments to the Tentative Order, the Commission issued Final Order, Chapter 14 Implementation, Docket No. M-2014-2448824 (Order entered July 9, 2015) (Implementation Order). Upon consideration of the amended Chapter 14 and all of the comments received in response to the proposed Implementation Order, the Commission adopted a NOPR to solicit comments about amending and adding to the provisions of 52 Pa. Code Chapter 56, as proposed in Annex A of the NOPR.² In this NOPR, the Commission sought comments on the proposed regulations as outlined in the Annex A.

Fourteen parties filed comments on April 18, 2017, including: Aqua Pennsylvania (Aqua); Columbia Gas of Pennsylvania (Columbia); Consumer Advisory Council (CAC); Duquesne Light Company (Duquesne); Energy Association of Pennsylvania (EAP); Joint Comments of Tenant Union Representative Network, Action Alliance of Senior Citizens of Greater Philadelphia, and Coalition for Affordable Utility Service and Energy Efficiency in Pennsylvania—collectively the “Low Income and Consumer Rights Group” (LICRG); Joint Comments of Community Justice Project, Disability Rights Pennsylvania, Health, Education and Legal Assistance Project: A Medical-Legal Partnership at Widener University, Homeless Advocacy Project, Housing Alliance of Pennsylvania, Pennsylvania Coalition Against Domestic Violence, Pennsylvania Health Law Project, Pennsylvania Utility Law Project, Women’s Center, Inc. of Columbia & Montour Counties, and the Women’s Resource Center—collectively the “Joint Commenters” (Joint Commenters); Metropolitan Edison Company, Pennsylvania Electric Company, Pennsylvania Power Company and West Penn Power Company (FirstEnergy); NRG Energy (NRG); Office of Consumer Advocate (OCA); PECO Energy Company (PECO); Pennsylvania American Water Company (PAWC); Philadelphia Gas Works (PGW); and PPL Electric Utilities Corporation (PPL). On May 19, 2017, the Independent Regulatory Review Commission (IRRC) filed their comments. All comments, in addition to the July 21 NOPR, are available on the Commission’s website by searching using the docket number L-2016-2577413 or at this weblink: http://www.puc.pa.gov/about_puc/consolidated_case_view.aspx?Docket=L-2016-2577413.

With this Order, the Commission seeks additional comments on its proposals and on the issues raised by the comments. We also introduce two new proposals that we want to bring to everyone’s attention.

Discussion

Upon review of the initial comments and IRRC’s comments, Commission staff determined that parties raised several concerns and/or introduced new proposals that warrant further exploration. Accordingly, the Commission now invites any interested stakeholder to submit additional comments. While stakeholders are free to comment on any topic they believe warrants additional comment, the Commission wants to highlight a few specific matters raised in the initial comments that we believe need further vetting by the stakeholders and that we expressly invite further comment upon:

Privacy Guidelines At 66 Pa.C.S. 1406(b)(1)(ii)(D)

Amended Chapter 14 referenced the Commission’s privacy guidelines at 66 Pa.C.S. § 1406(b)(1)(ii)(D) (relating to notice of termination of service) that emails, text messages or other electronic messaging must be consistent with the Commission’s privacy guidelines. In the NOPR, we asked for comments addressing what should be included in the Commission’s privacy guidelines (NOPR at 4). We note that the privacy guidelines would be relevant to Sections 56.93 and 56.333 (relating to personal contact). In the NOPR, the Commission proposed changes to these two sections of Chapter 56, simply referencing “the Commission’s privacy guidelines,” but not explaining what they are.

Several parties offered suggestions on this topic. For example, OCA noted that the Commission does not allow the release of telephone numbers for any purpose and asked that the same treatment should be provided for e-mail addresses, numbers used for text messaging, etc. and that the data submitted to the public utility for purposes of personal contact should not be shared with third parties. (OCA at 2-3). The Joint Commenters and LICRG suggested that these guidelines be codified in the regulation and that written, informed consent be required and that this consent be refreshed periodically along with a provision allowing the customer to revoke consent at any time. (Joint Commenters at 22–24; LICRG at 27–31).

In contrast, EAP opined that guidelines, not regulations, are the best “path forward into a future where technology and the related privacy issues are ever-evolving.” (EAP at 9). EAP adds that the Commission has existing privacy regulations at Sections 54.8 and 62.78—but notes that these specific regulations are in the context of customer choice. (EAP at 7-8). PPL submits that Chapter 14 requires that the utility get affirmative consent to use a particular form of electronic communication and as such, the Commission’s proposed subsection 56.93(a)(3) captures the consent policy that utilities must comply with to use this method of communication in this context. Further concerning privacy, PPL recommends stakeholder discussions to identify best practices. (PPL at 6-7). Some parties noted that any requirements must also take into account other laws like the Telephone Consumer Protection Act (TCPA), 47 U.S.C. 227 (relating to restrictions on use of telephone equipment). (Aqua at 4-5).

It is also apparent from the comments that there are number of concerns related to this topic, including what type and form of consent is needed; the duration, expiration and revocation of consent; and the use and sharing of the contact information provided. However, we agree with EAP’s suggestion that we not be overly prescriptive or detailed in the regulations, given ever changing technology.

We also cannot ignore that the General Assembly referred to “guidelines”—not “regulations” in Section 1406(b)(1)(ii)(C). This same section also refers to “approved by Commission order.” It is reasonable to assume that the General Assembly envisioned the development of guidelines that would be ratified by a Commission Order. Accordingly, we propose addressing this topic in a separate, but related, proceeding. We intend to use the comments submitted to date to propose, in an upcoming Tentative Order, privacy guidelines for Section 1406(b)(1)(ii)(D) (relating to notice of termination of service) and Sections 56.93 and 56.333 of Title 52 of the Pennsylvania Code. We invite parties that want to comment further on these matters to do so, and we will also consider those comments as we prepare a future Tentative Order.

Data On The Usage Of Medical Certificates

Pursuant to the Regulatory Review Act (71 P.S. §§ 745.1—745.15), IRRC filed comments 30 days after the close of the public comment period. In its comments, IRRC responded to the commenters and noted:

While fraud is frustrating, it is not clear from the comments to what degree this fraud has existed or might exist. We ask the PUC to explain its historic experience with medical certificates including how many medical certificates are on file each year in relation to the overall number of customers, how medical certificate fraud has affected uncollectible accounts, and what proportion of the utility's overall revenue the impact of fraudulent medical certificates represent.

(IRRC at 5).

Based upon the utility reporting requirements concerning medical certificate usage at Section 1410.1(4), we offer the following data on medical certificate usage in 2016 (the most recent year we have complete data for):

Medical Certificate Usage in 2016:

	Number of Residential Customers (based upon § 56.231 reporting):	Medical Certificates Submitted:	Medical Certificates Accepted:
Electric Utilities	5,044,234	56,983	47,531
Natural Gas Utilities	2,135,043	17,771	15,702
Water Utilities*	1,132,948	2,305	1,367
Total	8,277,558	77,059	64,600

* Class A Water Utilities only. Class A water utility—A water utility with annual revenues greater than $1 million. (52 Pa. Code § 56.2).

We invite the parties to comment upon their experience with the use of medical certificates to avoid termination, the fraudulent use of medical certificates, how medical certificate fraud has affected uncollectible accounts, and what proportion of the utility's overall revenue is impacted by the use of fraudulent medical certificates. We ask parties to submit any data they have to support their comments on these topics.

Cost And Impact Of Regulatory Changes

IRRC notes in their comments:

We are particularly interested in the economic and fiscal impact of this regulation because it relates to the criteria that we must consider in determining whether the final regulation is in the public interest.

(IRRC at 6)

We again invite parties to submit estimate of the costs and/or savings associated with compliance with these proposed changes, including any legal, accounting, or consulting procedures which may be required and explain how the dollar estimates were derived. This includes the topics discussed in this Order.

New Topics

Since the Commission issued the ANOPR in July 2016, a few additional Chapter 56 issues that may require revision have arisen, and we want to bring these to the attention of the parties and invite comment.

Third-Party Notification Of Supplier Switching

Section 56.131 (and the identical Section 56.361) provides for a third party to receive copies of various collection notices, including past due and termination notices. The intent of these notices is to provide information to the third party that may aid the third party in assisting the customer with a collections-related problem. For example, an adult child may elect to receive the notices sent by a utility to their parent, who may have limited abilities to handle utility matters. This notification is voluntary, and the notices are informational only and do not impose any obligation upon the receiver of the notice.

It has come to the Commission's Office of Competitive Market Oversight's attention that this same mechanism may be of service in the context of energy supplier switching. A third party may want to be alerted as to a customer's supplier selections to help the customer with the process of selecting an energy supplier. Some consumers may have difficulty navigating the competitive energy marketplace and may require the assistance of a third party.

Pursuant to 52 Pa. Code §§ 57.173 (relating to Customer contacts the EGS to request a change in electric supply service) and 59.93 (relating to Customer contacts with NGSs), anytime the customer has enrolled with a competitive supplier, the utility is to send the customer a confirmation notice. This confirmation notice alerts the consumer to the switch of supplier and provides the date the switch will be effective. The notice then advises the customer to contact the utility immediately if there is a problem, such as a possible unauthorized switch of supply service.

We propose adding these supplier switch confirmation notices to the list of notices that a utility will provide under Sections 56.131 and 56.361. In addition, we propose revising the enrollment form template currently in use and using a separate form for electric and natural gas distribution companies. We think this will assist those individuals concerned about a customer's ability to participate effectively in the competitive market and will provide these individuals with the opportunity to intervene and assist the customer if needed. Accordingly, we propose to revise Sections 56.131 and 56.361 as follows:

Each public utility shall permit its customers to designate a consenting individual or agency which is to be sent, by the public utility, a duplicate copy of reminder notices, past due notices, delinquent account notices, [or] termination notices or supplier change confirmation notices of whatever kind issued by that public utility. When contact with a third party is made, the public utility shall advise the third party of the pending action and the efforts which shall be taken to avoid termination or the change of supply service. A public utility shall institute and maintain a program:

- (1) To allow customers to designate third parties to receive copies of a customer's or group of customers' notices of termination of service or supplier change confirmation notices.

(2) To advise customers at least annually of the availability of a third-party notification program and to encourage its use thereof. The public utility shall emphasize that the third party is not responsible for the payment of the customer's bills.

(3) To solicit community groups to accept third-party notices to assist in preventing unnecessary terminations and protecting the public health and safety.

(4) To make available a standard enrollment form in compliance with the form in either Appendix E (relating to third-party notification for electric distribution utilities and natural gas distribution utilities) or Appendix F (relating to third-party notification for water distribution utilities, wastewater utilities, steam heat utilities and small natural gas distribution utilities not subject to the natural gas choice and competition act).

Any change to Sections 56.131 and 56.361 will require a corresponding change to Appendix E, which is the enrollment form template that utilities are expected to utilize.

APPENDIX E. THIRD-PARTY NOTIFICATION FOR ELECTRIC DISTRIBUTION UTILITIES AND NATURAL GAS DISTRIBUTION UTILITIES:

Once in a while, for one reason or another, a customer fails to pay his or her (UTILITY) bill. Under the Third-Party Notification program, (UTILITY) will notify you and another person you choose to receive copies of shut-off notices. The third-party can be a trusted relative, friend, clergy member, or social service agency. The Third-Party Notification program is voluntary and can help you if you are hospitalized, away from home for extended periods of time or homebound. The third party is not responsible for paying your bills and this program will not stop (UTILITY) from shutting off your (UTILITY) service if you do not pay your bills. When a third party contacts (UTILITY) about the shut off notice, we will tell them what you can do to stop the shut off. The third party does not have the right to make a payment agreement for you.

We will also notify you anytime the customer switches their competitive supply service to a new supplier. You will receive a copy of the supplier change confirmation notice that we send to the customer whenever they enroll with a new supplier or return to the default service. This notice identifies the new supplier, how to contact them, the effective date of the change, and what to do if there is a problem or concern.

To sign up, both you and the third party must complete and sign the form below. Do not return this with your bill, return it to:

IMPORTANT THINGS TO REMEMBER:

- * Notify us if you move and you want the third party transferred to your new address.

Please sign me up for the third-party Notification program. By completing this form and returning it to (UTILITY), I request that a copy of any shut off notice and supplier change confirmation notices be given to the person or agency named below.

Receipt of a copy of a shut off notice by the third-party does not place any obligation on that party to pay the (UTILITY) bill for the customer named above nor will it necessarily stop shut off if payment is not made. The notice simply reminds the third-party of a chance to help the customer solve the problem.

We recognize that supplier switching is not relevant for water, wastewater and steam heating utilities. Likewise, it is not relevant to small natural gas distribution utilities that are not subject to the Natural Gas Choice and Competition Act. Accordingly, we propose a new Appendix F for these utilities, which is basically the same provision and language in the current regulation:

APPENDIX F. THIRD-PARTY NOTIFICATION FOR WATER DISTRIBUTION UTILITIES, WASTEWATER UTILITIES, STEAM HEAT UTILITIES AND SMALL NATURAL GAS DISTRIBUTION UTILITIES NOT SUBJECT TO THE NATURAL GAS CHOICE AND COMPETITION ACT:

Once in a while, for one reason or another, a customer fails to pay his or her (UTILITY) bill. We invite parties to comment on these proposed revisions to third-party notice procedures, including the language in the appendices.

Customer Retaining Utility Service Pending Formal Appeal

The Commission's Bureau of Consumer Services (BCS) has noticed some confusion and uncertainty as to the expectation upon utilities of providing utility service to a complainant who has formally appealed an informal decision from BCS. Questions have been raised concerning the automatic stay provision of Section 56.172(d). The Commission's current regulations do not entirely reflect the original intention: that the stay should operate to maintain utility service while the issues remain in dispute. For this reason, we propose revising our regulations to more specifically state that the benefit of the stay is to maintain utility service until a final formal determination is made.

We propose to clarify expectations in this regard by revising the language at Section 56.172 (relating to filing) and the analogous, identical provision at Section 56.402 as follows:

- (a) A request for review of the decision of the Bureau of Consumer Services (BCS) shall be initiated in writing within 20 days of issuance.
- (b) Upon receipt of a request for review of the decision of the BCS, the Secretary of the Commission will mail a formal complaint form to the requesting person.
- (c) Within 30 days of the mailing of the formal complaint form, the party requesting review of the decision of the BCS shall file the completed complaint form with the Secretary.
- (d) Upon the filing of a formal complaint by a customer within the 30-day period and not thereafter except for good cause shown, there will be an automatic stay of the informal complaint decision. Informal complaint decisions directing the restoration of utility service are not subject to an automatic stay, and utility service must be restored and maintained while the issues remain in dispute.

(e) The failure to request review of the BCS decision by filing a formal complaint within the 30-day period does not foreclose a party from filing a formal complaint at a later time except as otherwise may be provided in 66 Pa.C.S. (relating to Public Utility Code).

The Commission believes this revision is necessary to clarify that a customer must be provided utility service while a formal appeal of a BCS decision is pending. This is applicable for service maintenance and restoration. If a customer receives a BCS informal decision with restoration terms and the customer pays according to the BCS informal decision, the utility must restore service. We invite parties to comment on this proposed change and to offer alternative language if they differ.

Conclusion

We thank the parties for their thoughtful and helpful initial comments. We now invite parties to submit additional comments on the matters discussed in this order and on any other issue raised in the comments filed at this Docket that they think warrant further attention by the Commission. As we did in the NOPR, we urge parties to submit along with their comments any data supporting their position, including any cost data.

Upon careful review and consideration of the all comments received in this Docket thus far, the Commission intends to issue this Order seeking additional comments; Therefore,

It Is Ordered That:

LAND RECYCLING AND ENVIRONMENTAL REMEDIATION

UNDER ACT 2, 1995 PREAMBLE 1

Acknowledgment of Notices of Intent to Remediate Submitted under the Land Recycling and Environmental Remediation Standards Act (35 P.S. §§ 6026.101—6026.907)

Sections 302—305 of the Land Recycling and Environmental Remediation Standards Act (act) (35 P.S. §§ 6026.302—6026.305) require the Department to publish in the Pennsylvania Bulletin an acknowledgment noting receipt of Notices of Intent to Remediate. An acknowledgment of the receipt of a Notice of Intent to Remediate is used to identify a site where a person proposes to, or has been required to, respond to a release of a regulated substance at a site. A person intending to use the background standard, Statewide health standard, the site-specific standard or intend to remediate a site as a special industrial area shall file a Notice of Intent to Remediate with the Department. A Notice of Intent to Remediate filed with the Department provides a brief description of the location of the site, a list of known or suspected contaminants at the site, the proposed remediation measures for the site and a description of the intended future use of the site. A person who demonstrates attainment of one or a combination of cleanup standards or receives approval of a special industrial area remediation identified under the act will be relieved of further liability for the remediation of the site for contamination identified in reports submitted to and approved by the Department. Furthermore, the person shall not be subject to citizen suits or other contribution actions brought by responsible persons not participating in the remediation.

Under sections 304(n)(1)(ii) and 305(c)(2) of the act, there is a 30-day public and municipal comment period for sites proposed for remediation using a site-specific standard, in whole or in part, and for sites remediated as a special industrial area. This period begins when a summary of the Notice of Intent to Remediate is published in a newspaper of general circulation in the area of the site. For the following site, proposed for remediation to a site-specific standard or as a special industrial area, the municipality, within which the site is located, may request to be involved in the development of the remediation and reuse plans for the site if the request is made within 30 days of the date specified as follows. During this comment period, the municipality may request that the person identified as the remediator of the site develop and implement a public involvement plan. Requests to be involved and comments should be directed to the remediator of the site.

For further information concerning the content of a Notice of Intent to Remediate, contact the environmental cleanup program manager in the Department regional office listed before the notice. If information concerning this acknowledgment is required in an alternative form, contact the community relations coordinator at the appropriate regional office. TDD users may telephone the Department through the Pennsylvania AT&T Relay Service at (800) 654-5984.

AIR QUALITY PLAN APPROVAL AND OPERATING PERMIT APPLICATIONS

The Department has developed an "integrated" plan approval, State Operating Permit and Title V Operating Permit program. This integrated approach is designed to make the permitting process more efficient for the Department, the regulated community and the general public. This approach allows the owner or operator of a facility to submit permitting documents relevant to its application for all sources related to a facility or a proposed project, affords an opportunity for public input, and provides for a decision on the issuance of the necessary permits.

The Department received applications for Plan Approvals or Operating Permits from the following facilities.

Copies of the application, the Department's analysis, all pertinent documents used in the evaluation of the application and subsequently prepared proposed plan approvals/operating permits are available for public review during normal business hours at the appropriate Department Regional Office. Appointments for scheduling a review must be made by calling the appropriate Department Regional Office. The address and phone number of the Regional Office is listed before the application notices.

Persons wishing to file a written protest or provide comments or additional information, which they believe should be considered prior to the issuance of a permit, may submit the information to the Department's Regional Office. A 30-day comment period from the date of this publication will exist for the submission of comments, protests and information. Each submission must contain the name, address and telephone number of the person submitting the comments, identification of the proposed Plan Approval/Operating Permit including the permit number and a concise statement regarding the relevancy of the information or objections to issuance of the permit.

A person wishing to request a hearing may do so during the 30-day comment period. A public hearing may be held, if the Department, in its discretion, decides that a hearing is warranted based on the information received. Persons submitting comments or requesting a hearing will be notified of the decision to hold a hearing by publication in the newspaper, the Pennsylvania Bulletin or by telephone, when the Department determines this type of notification is sufficient. Requests for a public hearing and any relevant information should be directed to the appropriate Department Regional Office.

Permits issued to the owners or operators of sources subject to 25 Pa. Code Chapter 127, Subchapter D or E, or located within a Title V facility or subject to 25 Pa. Code § 129.51(a) or permits issued for sources with limitations on their potential to emit used to avoid otherwise applicable Federal requirements may be submitted to the United States Environmental Protection Agency for review and approval as a revision to the State Implementation Plan. Final Plan Approvals and Operating Permits will contain terms and conditions to ensure that the sources are constructed and operating in compliance with applicable requirements in the Air Pollution Control Act (35 P.S. §§ 4001—4015), 25 Pa. Code Chapters 121—145, the Federal Clean Air Act (42 U.S.C.A. §§ 7401—7671q) and regulations adopted under the Federal Clean Air Act.

Code §§ 127.1 and 127.12. Based on these findings, the Department proposes to issue a plan approval for the proposed construction. If, after the project has been implemented, the Department determines that the sources are constructed and operated in compliance with the plan approval conditions and the specification of the application for plan approval, the requirements established in the plan approval will be incorporated into an operating permit pursuant to the administrative amendment provisions of 25 Pa. Code § 127.450.

36-03034C: Purina Animal Nutrition, LLC (3029 Hempland Road, Lancaster, PA 17601) for the installation of a new pellet cooler and cyclone on System # 1 at the Hempfield facility located in East Hempfield Township, Lancaster County. The expected potential emissions as a result of the changes proposed are: 7.9 tpy of PM and 3.9 tpy of PM₁₀. The facility is a State Only facility. DEP’s review of the information submitted by the applicant indicates that the air contamination sources as constructed or modified will comply with all regulatory requirements pertaining to air contamination sources and the emission of air contaminants including the best available technology requirement (BAT) of 25 Pa. Code §§ 127.1 and 127.12, and 40 CFR Part 63 Subpart DDDDDDD—National Emission Standards for Hazardous Air Pollutants for Area Sources: Prepared Feeds Manufacturing. Based on these findings, the Department proposes to issue a plan approval for the proposed construction. If, after the project has been implemented, the Department determines that the sources are constructed and operated in compliance with the plan approval conditions and the specification of the application for plan approval, the requirements established in the plan approval will be incorporated into an Operating Permit pursuant to the administrative amendment provisions of 25 Pa. 59-00004J: Ward Manufacturing, LLC (117 Gulick Street, P.O. Box 9, Blossburg, PA 16912-0009) for the construction of two Blast Cleaning Technologies model BCTM-14D iron castings shot blast machines and for the installation of two existing fabric collectors for the control of air contaminant emissions from the proposed machines, at Plants 1 and 3 located in Blossburg Borough, Tioga County.

The Department of Environmental Protection’s (Department) review of the information submitted by Ward Manufacturing, LLC indicates that the air contamination sources to be constructed will comply with all regulatory requirements pertaining to air contamination sources and the emission of air contaminants including 25 Pa. Code §§ 123.1, 123.13 and 123.41, the best available technology requirement (BAT) of 25 Pa. Code §§ 127.1 and 127.12, and the Compliance Assurance Monitoring requirements of 40 CFR Part 64. Based on this finding, the Department proposes to issue a plan approval for the proposed constructions. The PM/PM₁₀/PM_{2.5} emissions from the proposed sources will not exceed 0.01 gr/dscf.

In addition to the emission limitations, the following is a brief description of the conditions the Department intends to place in the plan approval in order to ensure compliance with all applicable air quality regulatory requirements: 1.) each fabric collector shall be equipped with instrumentation (Photohelic gauge) to continuously monitor the pressure differential across the collector and shall use this device to monitor the performance of the respective control devices, 2.) the permittee shall keep records of calculations used to verify compliance with the particulate emission limitation, 3.) the permittee shall record and report the following with respect to the fabric collectors and their Photohelic gauges: pressure drop, excursions, inspection, repairs and maintenance, and downtime incidents, 4.) an appropriate preventative maintenance schedule shall be posted and followed. It shall include daily pressure differential checks as well as frequent bag and baghouse inspections. Corrective action will be taken where appropriate, 5.) the permittee shall keep on hand a sufficient quantity of spare fabric collector bags and cartridges, 6.) with respect to the Photohelic gauges, the permittee shall adhere to a pressure drop range of 1 inch to 9 inches w.g.; calibrate and check the accuracy of the gauges at least annually; and maintain all monitoring equipment and stock parts necessary for routine repairs onsite, 7.) during any excursion, the employee observing the excursion shall immediately report to the shift supervisor who shall troubleshoot the cause and take corrective action to restore normal operation of the Photohelic gauges and/or fabric collectors and, 8.) the permittee shall, when necessary, develop and implement a Quality Improvement Plan in accordance with 40 CFR 64.8.

14-00043A: University Area Joint Authority (1576 Spring Valley Road, State College, PA 16801) for the installation of a biofilter to control air contaminant emissions from the sewage sludge dewatering building and composting building located at the Spring Creek Pollution Control Facility located in College Township, Centre County.

The Department of Environmental Protection's (Department's) review of the information submitted by the University Area Joint Authority indicates that the air contamination sources will comply with all regulatory requirements, including monitoring, recordkeeping, and reporting requirements, and pertaining to air contamination sources and the emission of air contaminants including 25 Pa. Code Chapter 123 and the best available technology (BAT) requirements of 25 Pa. Code §§ 127.1 and 127.12. Based on this finding, the Department proposes to issue a plan approval for the installation. The emissions from the sewage sludge dewatering and composting buildings, after control through the biofilter, will not exceed the following limits: 1.26 TPY VOCs, 0.60 TPY total HAPs and no malodors off the facility's property line.

In addition to the emission limitations, the following is a brief description of the types of conditions the Department intends to place in the plan approval in order to ensure compliance with all applicable air quality regulatory requirements: weekly inspections of the facility/facility boundary for malodors along with appropriate recordkeeping; maintenance of negative pressure in both the dewatering and composting buildings to minimize the fugitive loss of malodors with appropriate monitoring and recordkeeping; various parameter monitors for biofilter temperature and pressure to ensure operation in accordance with the manufacturer's specifications and good operating practices.

The facility is a State Only facility. If the Department determines that the biofilter is installed and the sources are operated in compliance with the plan approval conditions and the specifications of the application for Plan Approval 14-00043A, the applicant will subsequently apply for a State Only Operating Permit in accordance with 25 Pa. Code Subchapter F. All pertinent documents used in the evaluation of the application are available for public review during normal business hours at the Department's Northcentral Regional office, 208 West Third Street, Suite 101, Williamsport, PA 17701. Appointments for scheduling a review must be made by calling 570-327-0550.

- Source 127 (# 26 Carlite Acid Clean)
 - Subject to 25 Pa. Code § 123.13
 - The permittee shall maintain at a convenient location a magnehelic gauge or equivalent to indicate pressure drop across the control device and a water flow meter to indicate flow rate to the control device.

• From 25 Pa. Code § 127.203a(a)(5)(iii), If the projected actual emissions for a regulated NSR pollutant are in excess of the baseline actual emissions, the following apply: (A) The projected actual emissions for the regulated NSR pollutant must be incorporated into the required plan approval or the operating permit as an emission limit. (B) The owner or operator shall monitor the emissions of the regulated NSR pollutant for which a limit is established in clause (A) and calculate and maintain a record of emissions, in TPY on a calendar year basis, for 5 years following resumption of regular operations after the change, or for 10 years following resumption of regular operations after the change if the project increases the design capacity or potential to emit of that regulated NSR pollutant at the emissions unit. (C) The owner or operator shall record sufficient information to identify for all emission units in the approved project their total actual annual emissions and their actual annual emissions increase due to the project. (D) The owner or operator shall submit a report to the Department, within 60 days after the end of each calendar year, which contains the emissions data required by clauses (B) and (C). This report must also contain a demonstration of how these emissions were determined if the determination was not by direct measurement with a Department-certified CEMS system. [Submission of the annual emissions statement for the facility, pursuant to 25 Pa. Code § 135, satisfies the reporting and recordkeeping requirements of 25 Pa. Code § 127.203a(a)(5)(iii)(D) as long as actual NO_x, VOC, PM_{2.5}, & SO₂ emissions are below the value used in the NSR analysis]

 - Inspection of the flame pattern or characteristics and adjustments necessary to minimize total emissions of NO_x, and to the extent practicable minimize emissions of CO.
 - Inspection of the air-to-fuel ratio control system and adjustments necessary to ensure proper calibration and operation as specified by the manufacturer.

- The permittee shall maintain and operate the source in accordance with the manufacturer's specifications or in accordance with good air pollution control practices.

- The source is not subject to 40 CFR 63 Subpart DDDDD (National Emission Standards for Hazardous Air Pollutants for Major Sources: Industrial, Commercial, and Institutional Boilers and Process Heaters) because the furnace is direct-fired and doesn't meet the definition of "Process Heater" in 40 CFR 63.7575.

operation of a natural gas compressor station, known as the Callisto Compressor Station, located in Morris Township, Greene County.

The Callisto Compressor Station is a natural gas compression booster station that dehydrates and moves natural gas from the Jupiter Pipeline Gathering System. The main emission sources at Callisto are five natural gas compressors driven by spark ignition, four-stroke, lean-burn, 4,735-bhp, Caterpillar G3616 LE, natural gas-fired compressor engines and three, triethylene glycol (TEG), 120 MMBtu per day dehydration units, each with a 1.5 MMBtu/hr reboiler and 1,420 scfm enclosed ground flare. The existing Brown's Creek Dehydration Station and Harden Well Pad are within 1/4 mile of the compressor station and are part of Callisto for air permitting purposes. The dehydration station has a dehydrator with a reboiler and ground flare. Brown's Creek and Harden have a total of five condensate tanks of 210-bbl, or less, which are controlled by weighted pressure relief valves.

Annual facility-wide potential emissions are 121 tons of NO_x, 43 tons of VOC, 41 tons of CO, 8 tons of PM₁₀, and 8 tons of PM_{2.5}. It also emits 8 tons of formaldehyde, 2 tons of acetaldehyde, and 1 ton of acrolein. The annual sum of all HAP emissions is 12 tons. Annual emission of greenhouse gases is 121,000 tons per year. Sources at the facility are subject to 40 CFR Part 60, Subpart JJJJ—Standards of Performance for Stationary Spark Ignition Internal Combustion Engines and Subpart OOOO—Standards of Performance for Crude Oil and Natural Gas Production, Transmission and Distribution for which Construction, Modification or Reconstruction Commenced after August 23, 2011, and on or before September 18, 2015 and 40 CFR Part 63, Subpart HH—National Emission Standards for Hazardous Air Pollutants From Oil and Natural Gas Production Facilities and 25 Pa. Noncoal Applications Received

Effluent Limits—The following effluent limits will apply to NPDES permits issued in conjunction with a noncoal mining permit:

Parameter	Table 2
	30-day Average	Daily Maximum	Instantaneous Maximum
Suspended solids	10 to 35 mg/l	20 to 70 mg/l	25 to 90 mg/l

* The parameter is applicable at all times.

A settleable solids instantaneous maximum limit of 0.5 ml/l applied to surface runoff resulting from a precipitation event of less than or equal to a 10-year 24-hour event. If coal will be extracted incidental to the extraction of noncoal minerals, at a minimum, the technology-based effluent limitations identified under coal applications will apply to discharges of wastewater to streams.

MINING ACTIVITY NPDES DRAFT PERMITS

This notice provides information about applications for a new, amended or renewed NPDES permits associated with mining activity (coal or noncoal) permits. The applications concern industrial waste (mining) discharges to surface water and discharges of stormwater associated with mining activities. This notice is provided in accordance with 25 Pa. Code Chapters 91 and 92a and 40 CFR Part 122, implementing provisions of The Clean Streams Law (35 P.S. §§ 691.1—691.1001) and the Federal Clean Water Act (33 U.S.C.A. §§ 1251—1376).

The Department of Environmental Protection (Department) has prepared a draft NPDES permit and made a tentative determination to issue the NPDES permit in conjunction with the associated mining activity permit.

Effluent Limits for Coal Mining Activities

For coal mining activities, NPDES permits, when issued, will contain effluent limits that are the more stringent of technology-based (BAT) effluent limitations or Water Quality Based Effluent Limits (WQBEL).

The BAT limits for coal mining activities, as provided in 40 CFR Part 434 and 25 Pa. Code Chapters 87—90 are as follows:

Parameter	30-Day Average	Daily Maximum	Instantaneous Maximum
Iron (Total)	3.0 mg/l	6.0 mg/l	7.0 mg/l
Manganese (Total)	2.0 mg/l	4.0 mg/l	5.0 mg/l
Suspended solids	35 mg/l	70 mg/l	90 mg/l
pH*		greater than 6.0; less than 9.0
Alkalinity greater than acidity*

* The parameter is applicable at all times.

A settleable solids instantaneous maximum limit of 0.5 ml/l applies to: surface runoff (resulting from a precipitation event of less than or equal to a 10-year 24-hour event) from active mining areas; active areas disturbed by coal refuse disposal activities; mined areas backfilled and revegetated; and all other discharges and drainage (resulting from a precipitation event of greater than 1-year 24-hour to less than or equal to a 10-year 24-hour event) from coal refuse disposal piles. Similarly, modified BAT limits apply to iron, manganese and suspended solids in surface runoff, discharges and drainage resulting from these precipitation events and those of greater magnitude in accordance with 25 Pa. Code §§ 87.102, 88.92, 88.187, 88.292, 89.52 and 90.102.

Exceptions to BAT effluent limits may be applicable in accordance with 25 Pa. Code §§ 87.102, 88.92, 88.187, 88.292, 89.52 and 90.102.

Effluent Limits for Noncoal Mining Activities

The limits for noncoal mining activities as provided in 25 Pa. Code Chapter 77 are pH 6 to 9 and other parameters the Department may require.

Discharges from noncoal mines located in some geologic settings (for example, in the coal fields) may require additional water quality based effluent limits. If additional effluent limits are needed for an NPDES permit associated with a noncoal mining permit, then the permit description specifies the parameters.

In addition to BAT or WQBEL limits, coal and noncoal NPDES permits establish effluent limitations in the form of implemented Best Management Practices (BMPs) identified in the associated Erosion and Sedimentation Plan, the Reclamation Plan and the NPDES permit application. These BMPs restrict the rates and quantities of associated pollutants from being discharged into surface waters in this Commonwealth.

More restrictive effluent limitations, restrictions on discharge volume or restrictions on the extent of mining that may occur are incorporated into an NPDES permit when necessary for compliance with water quality standards and antidegradation requirements (in accordance with 25 Pa. Code Chapters 91—96).

The procedures for determining the final effluent limits, using a mass-balance equation or model, are found in Technical Guidance Document 563-2112-115, Developing National Pollutant Discharge Elimination System (NPDES) Permits for Mining Activities. Other specific factors to be considered include public comments and Total Maximum Daily Load(s). Additional discharge limitations may apply in the event that unexpected discharges occur.

Discharge rates for surface mining activities are precipitation driven. Discharge rates for proposed discharges associated with underground mining are noted in the permit description.

Persons wishing to comment on an NPDES draft permit should submit a written statement to the Department at the address of the district mining office indicated before each draft permit within 30 days of this public notice. Comments received within the comment period will be considered in the final determinations regarding the NPDES permit applications. Comments must include the name, address and telephone number of the writer and a concise statement to inform the Department of the exact basis of a comment and the relevant facts upon which it is based.

The Department will also accept requests or petitions for a public hearing on NPDES permit applications, as provided in 25 Pa. Code § 92a.82(d). The request or petition for a public hearing shall be filed within 30 days of this public notice and contain the name, address, telephone number and the interest of the party filing the request, and state the reasons why a hearing is warranted. A public hearing may be held if the Department considers the public interest significant. If a hearing is scheduled, a notice of the hearing on the NPDES permit application will be published in the Pennsylvania Bulletin and a newspaper of general circulation within the relevant geographical area. When a public hearing is held, the Department will consider comments from the public hearing in the final determination on the NPDES permit application.

This notice of final action is provided in accordance with 25 Pa. Code Chapters 91 and 92a and 40 CFR Part 122, implementing provisions of The Clean Streams Law (35 P.S. §§ 691.1—691.101) and the Federal Clean Water Act (33 U.S.C.A. §§ 1251—1376).

Location	Permit Authority	Application Type or Category
Section I	NPDES	Renewals
Section II	NPDES	New or Amendment
Section III	WQM	Industrial, Sewage or Animal Wastes; Discharges to Groundwater
Section IV	NPDES	MS4 Individual Permit
Section V	NPDES	MS4 Permit Waiver
Section VI	NPDES	Individual Permit Stormwater Construction
Section VII	NPDES	NOI for Coverage under NPDES General Permits

Sections I—VI contain actions regarding industrial, animal or sewage wastes discharges, discharges to groundwater, and discharges associated with MS4, stormwater associated with construction activities and CAFOs. Section VII contains notices for parties who have submitted NOIs for Coverage under General NPDES Permits. The approval for coverage under these General NPDES Permits is subject to applicable effluent limitations, monitoring, reporting requirements and other conditions in each General Permit. The approval of coverage for land application of sewage sludge or residential septage under applicable general permit is subject to pollutant limitations, pathogen and vector attraction reduction requirements, operational standards, general requirements, management practices and other conditions in the respective permit. The permits and related documents, effluent limitations, permitting requirements and other information are on file and may be inspected and arrangements made for copying at the contact office noted before the action.

Persons aggrieved by an action may appeal that action to the Environmental Hearing Board (Board) under section 4 of the Environmental Hearing Board Act (35 P.S. § 7514) and 2 Pa.C.S. §§ 501—508 and 701—704 (relating to Administrative Agency Law). TDD users may contact the Board through the Pennsylvania AT&T Relay Service, (800) 654-5984. Appeals must be filed with the Board within 30 days of publication of this notice in the Pennsylvania Bulletin unless the appropriate statute provides a different time period. Copies of the appeal form and the Board's rules of practice and procedure may be obtained from the Board. The appeal form and the Board's rules of practice and procedure are also available in Braille or on audiotape from the Secretary to the Board at (717) 787-3483. This paragraph does not, in and of itself, create a right of appeal beyond that permitted by applicable statutes and decisional law.

For individuals who wish to challenge an action, the appeal must reach the Board within 30 days. A lawyer is not needed to file an appeal with the Board.

Important legal rights are at stake, however, so individuals should contact a lawyer at once. Persons who cannot afford a lawyer may qualify for free pro bono representation. Call the Secretary to the Board at (717) 787-3483 for more information.

PUBLIC WATER SUPPLY PERMITS

The Department has taken the following actions on applications received under the Pennsylvania Safe Drinking Water Act (35 P.S. §§ 721.1—721.17) for the construction, substantial modification or operation of a public water system.

Persons aggrieved by an action may appeal that action to the Environmental Hearing Board (Board) under section 4 of the Environmental Hearing Board Act and 2 Pa.C.S. §§ 501—508 and 701—704. The appeal should be sent to the Environmental Hearing Board, Second Floor, Rachel Carson State Office Building, 400 Market Street, PO Box 8457, Harrisburg, PA 17105-8457, (717) 787-3483. TDD users may contact the Board through the Pennsylvania AT&T Relay Service, (800) 654-5984. Appeals must be filed with the Board within 30 days of publication of this notice in the Pennsylvania Bulletin unless the appropriate statute provides a different time period. Copies of the appeal form and the Board's rules of practice and procedure may be obtained from the Board. The appeal form and the Board's rules of practice and procedure are also available in Braille or on audiotape from the Secretary to the Board at (717) 787-3483. This paragraph does not, in and of itself, create a right of appeal beyond that permitted by applicable statutes and decisional law.

For individuals who wish to challenge an action, the appeal must reach the Board within 30 days. A lawyer is not needed to file an appeal with the Board.

Important legal rights are at stake, however, so individuals should show this document to a lawyer at once. Persons who cannot afford a lawyer may qualify for free pro bono representation. Call the Secretary to the Board at (717) 787-3483 for more information.

SEWAGE FACILITIES ACT PLAN APPROVAL

Plan Approvals Granted Under the Pennsylvania Sewage Facilities Act (35 P.S. § 750.5)

Northwest Region: Clean Water Program, 230 Chestnut Street, Meadville, PA 16335-3481.

Plan Location:

Borough or Township	Borough or Township Address	County
Marion Township	P.O. Box 141 Boyers, PA 16020	Butler

Plan Description: The approved plan focuses on the Village of Boyers and the areas west to Atwells Crossing which are the most densely populated areas of the Township. It concludes with recommending a gravity sewer system throughout the planning area with a new pump station and a new engineered wetlands treatment system. The engineered wetlands will consist of a three stage treatment process, including primary sedimentation and anaerobic treatment, secondary aerobic treatment through stone media and final disinfection with chlorine. The Department's review of the sewage facilities update revision has not identified any significant environmental impacts resulting from this proposal. Any required NPDES Permits or WQM Permits must be obtained in the name of the municipality or authority as appropriate.

UNDER ACT 2, 1995 PREAMBLE 2

The following plans and reports were submitted under the Land Recycling and Environmental Remediation Standards Act (35 P.S. §§ 6026.101—6026.907).

Provisions of Sections 301—308 of the Land Recycling and Environmental Remediation Standards Act (act) (35 P.S. §§ 6026.301—6026.308) require the Department to publish in the Pennsylvania Bulletin a notice of submission of plans and reports. A final report is submitted to document cleanup of a release of a regulated substance at a site to one of the act's remediation standards. A final report provides a description of the site investigation to characterize the nature and extent of contaminants in environmental media, the basis for selecting the environmental media of concern, documentation supporting the selection of residential or nonresidential exposure factors, a description of the remediation performed and summaries of sampling analytical results which demonstrate that remediation has attained the cleanup standard selected. Submission of plans and reports, other than the final report, will also be published in the Pennsylvania Bulletin. These include the remedial investigation report, risk assessment report and cleanup plan for a site-specific standard remediation. A remedial investigation report includes conclusions from the site investigation; concentration of regulated substances in environmental media; benefits of reuse of the property; and, in some circumstances, a fate and transport analysis. If required, a risk assessment report describes potential adverse effects caused by the presence of regulated substances. If required, a cleanup plan evaluates the abilities of potential remedies to achieve remedy requirements.

For further information concerning plans or reports, contact the environmental cleanup program manager in the Department regional office under which the notice of receipt of plans or reports appears. If information concerning plans or reports is required in an alternative form, contact the community relations coordinator at the appropriate regional office. TDD users may telephone the Department through the Pennsylvania AT&T Relay Service at (800) 654-5984.

UNDER ACT 2, 1995 PREAMBLE 3

The Department has taken action on the following plans and reports under the Land Recycling and Environmental Remediation Standards Act (35 P.S. §§ 6026.101—6026.907).

Section 250.8 of 25 Pa. Code and administration of the Land Recycling and Environmental Remediation Standards Act (act) require the Department to publish in the Pennsylvania Bulletin a notice of its final actions on plans and reports. A final report is submitted to document cleanup of a release of a regulated substance at a site to one of the remediation standards of the act. A final report provides a description of the site investigation to characterize the nature and extent of contaminants in environmental media, the basis of selecting the environmental media of concern, documentation supporting the selection of residential or nonresidential exposure factors, a description of the remediation performed and summaries of sampling methodology and analytical results which demonstrate that the remediation has attained the cleanup standard selected. Plans and reports required by the act for compliance with selection of remediation to a site-specific standard, in addition to a final report, include a remedial investigation report, risk assessment report and cleanup plan. A remedial investigation report includes conclusions from the site investigation; concentration of regulated substances in environmental media; benefits of reuse of the property; and, in some circumstances, a fate and transport analysis. If required, a risk assessment report describes potential adverse effects caused by the presence of regulated substances. If required, a cleanup plan evaluates the abilities of potential remedies to achieve remedy requirements. A work plan for conducting a baseline remedial investigation is required by the act for compliance with selection of a special industrial area remediation. The baseline remedial investigation, based on the work plan, is compiled into the baseline environmental report to establish a reference point to show existing contamination, describe proposed remediation to be done and include a description of existing or potential public benefits of the use or reuse of the property. The Department may approve or disapprove plans and reports submitted. This notice provides the Department's decision and, if relevant, the basis for disapproval.

For further information concerning the plans and reports, contact the environmental cleanup program manager in the Department regional office under which the notice of the plan or report appears. If information concerning a final report is required in an alternative form, contact the community relations coordinator at the appropriate regional office. TDD users may telephone the Department through the Pennsylvania AT&T Relay Service at (800) 654-5984.

It incorporates the provisions and requirements contained in the amended RACT II approval for the facility, which are intended to satisfy the requirements for the 1997 National Ambient Air Quality Standard (NAAQS) and the 2008 NAAQS for ozone.

The proposed amendments to the RACT II determination, if finally approved, will be incorporated into a revised operating permit (49-00020) for the facility. The relevant RACT II requirements will be submitted to the U.S. Environmental Protection Agency (EPA) as a revision to Pennsylvania's State Implementation Plan and will remain in effect until replaced pursuant to 40 CFR 51 and approval by the EPA. Requirements that are not part of the RACT II determination will be excluded from the SIP submittal this includes the provisions of the Department's presumptive Reasonably Available Control Technology (RACT II) requirements in accordance with 25 Pa. Code § 129.97, as they apply to existing sources at this facility.

The following is a summary of the proposed amendments to the RACT II determination for this operation that will be submitted to the EPA as a SIP revision:

This application may be viewed on FERC's website at www.ferc.gov (search eLibrary; Docket Search; CP16-13).

On October 28, 2015, Applicant requested a state water quality certification from the Department of Environmental Protection (Department), as required by Section 401 of the Clean Water Act (33 U.S.C.A. § 1341), to ensure that the construction, operation and maintenance of the Project will protect water quality in Pennsylvania through compliance with State water quality standards and associated State law requirements, which are consistent with the requirements of the Clean Water Act.

The H-318 Pipeline segment of the EEP Project, as proposed, includes approximately 4.6 miles, of 20-inch pipeline for the purpose of transporting natural gas from the EQT Gathering, LLC (EQT Gathering) Applegate Gathering system located in Forward Township, Allegheny County, PA to Equitrans' existing H-148 pipeline, in Union Township, Washington County, PA. This portion of the project also involves the installation of permanent aboveground facilities at the existing Applegate Site and new Hartson Launcher/Receiver Facilities which include approximately 0.48 acre of disturbance. The H-318 Pipeline portion of the EEP Project, as proposed, will require approximately 74.1 acres of earth disturbance, and impacts to 80 linear feet of Lobbs Run—WWF (aka S-BB1), 106 linear feet of UNT to Lobbs Run—WWF (aka S-BB1(a)), 99 linear feet of UNT to Lobbs Run—WWF (aka S-BB2), 891 linear feet of Monongahela River—WWF (aka S-BB5), 75 linear feet of Bunola Run—WWF (aka S-BB4), 16 linear feet of Bunola Run—WWF (aka S-BB4 [for workspace]), 75 linear feet of Kelly Run—WWF (aka S-BB3), with a total of 1,342 linear feet of stream impacts to WWF, 1.5 acre of floodway, 0.01 acre of temporary wetland impacts to W-BB3 (PEM), 0.014 acre of temporary wetland impacts to W-BB10 (PFO), 0.016 acre of temporary wetland impacts to W-BB9 (PFO), 0.041 acre of permanent wetland impacts to W-BB3 (PEM), 0.372 acre of permanent wetland impacts to W-BB7 (PEM) for which a Joint Permit Application has been submitted, 0.070 acre of permanent wetland impacts to W-BB6 (PEM), 0.01 acre of permanent wetland impacts to W-BB12-WP (PFO/PSS). Temporary impacts to wetlands on the H-316 pipeline segment of EEP total 0.06 acre, while permanent impacts total 0.13 acre.

The Redhook Compressor Station is a proposed natural gas compressor station facility which will be located in Franklin Township, Greene County, PA. The Project, as proposed, will require approximately 17.25 acres of earth disturbance and will not impact any wetlands or streams. A proposed permanent access road for the Redhook Compressor Station is anticipated to permanently impact 0.25 acre of floodway for stream UNT to UNT 81118 to South Fork Tenmile Creek—WWF (aka S-N2).

The M-80 Pipeline segments of the EEP Project is located in the same right-of-way as H-158 pipeline, and as proposed, includes an approximately 1,175 feet extension, of 6-inch pipeline (M-80 pipeline) and a 12-inch pipeline (H-158 pipeline) located in Franklin Township, Greene County, PA. The pipeline currently moves gas to the existing Pratt Compressor station, but will be required to be extended to move gas to the aforementioned proposed Redhook Compressor Station located in Franklin Township, Greene County, PA. The M-80 Pipeline portion of the EEP Project, as proposed, will require approximately 11.47 acres of earth disturbance, and impacts to 105 linear feet of UNT 81118 to South Fork Tenmile Creek—WWF (aka S-AA1) and 165 linear feet of UNT to South Fork Tenmile Creek—WWF (S-AA2), with a total of 270 linear feet of stream impacts to WWF, with a total of 270 linear feet of stream impacts to WWF, 2.25 acres of floodway, and no temporary or permanent wetland impacts.

The H-158 Pipeline segment of the EEP Project is located in the same right-of-way as M-80 pipeline, and as proposed, includes an approximately 1,175 feet extension, of 12-inch pipeline located in Franklin Township, Greene County. The pipeline currently moves gas to the existing Pratt Compressor station, but will be required to be extended to move gas to the proposed Redhook Compressor Station located in Franklin Township, Greene County, PA. The H-158 Pipeline portion of the EEP Project, as proposed, will be installed within the same construction right-of-way as M-80, so will not require any additional acres of disturbance. Impacts from this segment are coupled with and are referenced in the discussion of the M-80 pipeline segment aquatic resource impacts.

The H-305 Pipeline segment of the EEP Project, as proposed, includes an approximately 504 feet extension, of 24-inch pipeline for the purpose of transporting natural gas from the proposed Redhook Compressor Station to Equitrans' existing H-305 pipeline located at the existing Braden Run Interconnect with Texas Eastern in Franklin Township, Greene County, PA. The H-305 Pipeline portion of the EEP Project, as proposed, will require approximately 0.28 acre of earth disturbance, and impacts to 167 linear feet of UNT to UNT 81118 to South Fork Tenmile Creek—WWF (aka S-N1), 0.36 acre of floodway, and no temporary or permanent wetland impacts.

The project will cumulatively impact 2,937 linear feet of stream, 7.11 acres of floodways of associated water-courses, 0.16 acre of temporary wetland impacts and 0.64 acre of permanent wetland impacts.

Request for Comments on the Proposed Alternative Restoration Plans Developed for Subwatersheds Within the Kishacoquillas Creek Watershed in Mifflin County

The Department of Environmental Protection will accept comments on the proposed Alternative Restoration Plans (ARPs) developed for subwatersheds within the Kishacoquillas Creek Watershed in Mifflin County, PA. The Pennsylvania Integrated Water Quality Monitoring and Assessment Report included impaired stream segments in this watershed. The listings of these waterbodies were due to use impairments caused by excessive siltation and nutrients from agriculture.

There currently are no State or Federal instream numerical water quality criteria for siltation or nutrients. Therefore, the Department utilized a reference watershed approach to implement the applicable narrative criteria. These proposed ARPs set allowable loadings of sediment and nutrients in the impaired Kishacoquillas Creek Subwatersheds. The pollutant loadings were allocated among cropland, hay/pasture land, farm animal and streambank categories present in the subwatersheds. Data used in establishing these ARPs were generated using a water quality analysis model (MapShed) designed by the Pennsylvania State University.

The following table shows the estimated current sediment and nutrient loadings for the watershed. Overall load reductions necessary to meet the ARPs are also identified.

Summary of TMDL Based Load Reductions in the Kishacoquillas Creek Watershed

Pollutant	Existing Load (lbs./yr.)	Existing Load (lbs./day)	Target Annual Load (lbs./yr.)	Target Daily Load (lbs./day)	Percent Reduction
Sediment	13,189,800	36,136	8,503,413	23,297	36%
Total Phosphorus	40,767	112	19,940	55	51%

The data and all supporting documentation used to develop the proposed ARPs are available from the Department. The proposed ARPs and information on the TMDL/ARP program can be viewed on the Department's website (www.dep.state.pa.us/watermanagement_apps/tmdl/). To request a copy of any of the proposed ARPs, contact Scott N. Heidel, Water Program Specialist, Department of Environmental Protection, 400 Market Street, Harrisburg, PA 17105, (717) 772-5647, scheidel@pa.gov.

The Department will consider all comments in developing the final ARPs, which will be submitted to EPA for approval. Written comments will be accepted at the above address and must be postmarked by 30 days after publication in the PA bulletin. A public meeting to discuss the technical merits of the ARPs will be held upon request.

Request for Comments on the Total Maximum Daily Load (TMDL) Developed for Whiteley Creek, Greene County

The Department of Environmental Protection will accept comments as of August 28, 2017, for the proposed TMDLs developed to address agricultural impairments in Whiteley Creek (headwaters to the mouth of Woods Run) as noted in the 2014 Pennsylvania Integrated Water Quality Monitoring and Assessment Report (Integrated List), initially listed in 2006. This TMDL does not address the non-point cause of siltation from the listed Subsurface Mining source.

Whiteley Creek is a tributary of the Monongahela River and located in southeastern Greene County, near Kirby, primarily within Whiteley Township. The impairments were noted during bioassessments in the watershed (2005) and excessive siltation due to agriculture was identified as causing impairment to Whiteley Creek's designated aquatic life use of Trout Stocked Fishery (TSF) (headwaters to S.R. 2011 bridge) and Warm Water Fishery (WWF) (from the bridge to the Monongahela).

Because PA does not currently have water quality criteria for sediment, a TMDL endpoint was identified using a reference watershed approach. Based on a comparison to the similar, unimpaired Pike Run, Washington County, there should be a 55.8% reduction in sediment loading in order to allow water quality objectives to be met in the impaired segments of Whiteley Creek.

This proposed TMDL sets allowable loadings within the specifically impaired stream segments of the Whiteley Creek watershed. The loading was allocated among the land uses of cropland, hay/pasture land, and associated transitional and stream banks present in the watershed. Data used in these TMDLs was generated using a watershed analysis model (AVGWLF) designed by the Penn State University. The following table shows the estimated current loadings for the watershed.

Table 1. Summary of TMDL for Whiteley Creek in lbs./yr. and lbs./day

Pollutant	TMDL	WLA	MOS	LA	LNR	ALA
Sediment	12,356,181.8	3,391,958.8	1,235,618.2	7,728,604.8	466,600.0	7,262,004.8
Sediment	33,852.6	9,293.0	3,385.3	21,174.3	1,278.4	19,895.9

TMDL—Total Maximum Daily Load, WLA—Waste Load Allocation, MOS—Margin of Safety

LA—Load Allocation, LNR—Loads Not Reduced, ALA—Adjusted Load Allocation

The data and all supporting documentation used to develop the proposed TMDLs are available from the Department. The proposed TMDLs and information on the TMDL program can also be viewed on the Department's website (www.dep.state.pa.us/watermanagement_apps/tmdl/). To request a copy of any of the proposed TMDLs, contact Scott Alexander, Water Program Specialist, Bureau of Clean Water, Central Office, Department of Environmental Protection, Rachel Carson State Office Building, Harrisburg, PA 17105, (717) 772-5670, salexander@pa.gov.

The Department will consider all comments in developing the final TMDLs, which will be submitted to EPA for final approval. Written comments will be accepted at the above address and must be postmarked by 30 days after publication in the Pennsylvania Bulletin.

Availability of Revised Environmental Assessment Form and Instructions for Chapter 105 Water Obstruction and Encroachment Permit Applications

On July 1, 2017, the Department of Environmental Protection (Department) published on its web site an updated Environmental Assessment Form (form) and Instructions for Chapter 105 Water Obstruction and Encroachment Permit Applications (instructions). See 25 Pa. Code §§ 105.3(c) and 105.15 (relating to scope; and environmental assessment).

The revised form and instructions can be accessed through the Department's eLibrary web site at www.elibrary.dep.state.pa.us (select "Permit and Authorization Packages," then "Waterways Engineering and Wetlands," then "Water Obstruction and Encroachment and Wetlands," and "Environmental Assessment Form").

The form is used by regulated entities, consultants and the Department to evaluate the proposed environmental impact for a proposed project. The form has been revised and updated to provide more in depth discussion on the value of the resource, the potential effect the project will have on the resource, alternatives available and mitigation to offset the impacts. The revised form and instructions are intended to provide clarity and consistency in the process for completing the information requirements for a Water Obstruction and Encroachment Permit application Environmental Assessment Form (3150-PM-BWEW0017) in accordance with 25 Pa. Code Chapter 105 (relating to dam safety and waterway management) for all projects.

The revised form organizes the information into four modules for review.

- Module 1—Program Summary
 - Discussion of project description, purpose, need and water dependency, types of resources present, and amount and type of impact proposed.
- Module 2—Resource Identification and Characterization
 - Organization and identification of resources present and how those resources may be affected by the proposed project.
- Module 3—Identification and Description of Potential Project Impacts
 - Details concerning the potential impacts and their effects of this project including past and potential related projects.
- Module 4—Mitigation Plan
 - Identification and discussion about avoidance and minimization of impacts, type of mitigation to offset the impacts and monitoring to determine performance and success of the mitigation.

Other changes include the addition of questions related to large scale projects located in more than one county in this Commonwealth and are covered by more than one single permit application will need to be addressed in the updated form.

The Department has begun providing training through webinars and regional settings prior to the effective date of the revised form. Questions regarding this revised form and instructions should be directed to David Goerman at (717) 772-5971 or dgoerman@pa.gov.

Federal Consistency under the Coastal Zone Management Act; Maintenance Dredging in Neshaminy State Park

This notice is published under section 306(d)(14) of the Federal Coastal Zone Management Act of 1972 (16 U.S.C.A. § 1455(d)(14)), regarding public participation during consistency determinations. The Department of Environmental Protection (Department), Coastal Resources Management Program has received notice that the All Seasons Marina is seeking a 10-year United States Army Corps of Engineers (USACE) permit for maintenance dredging of the marina basin located in Neshaminy State Park, Bucks County.

The applicant is seeking USACE authorization for an initial dredge event followed by up to three additional maintenance dredging events over the duration of the 10-year permit. Each dredging event is proposed to remove up to 21,000 cubic yards of accumulated sediments to a depth of -4 feet at mean low water with up to 2 feet of allowable over-dredge. The maximum volume of material to be dredged is 84,000 cubic yards. Dredged material will be disposed in an existing 6.4-acre confined disposal facility immediately to the east of the marina basin.

This project is subject to Department review for Federal consistency because it is a Federal license and permit activity and will have reasonably foreseeable effects on the Commonwealth's coastal resources or uses.

In accordance with National Oceanic and Atmospheric Administration (NOAA) regulations in 15 CFR Part 930, Subpart D (relating to consistency for activities requiring a Federal license or permit), All Seasons Marina has determined that the proposed activity will be conducted in a manner consistent with the applicable enforceable policies of the Commonwealth's NOAA-approved Coastal Resources Management Program. Interested parties may request a copy of the Federal Consistency Certification from the Department contact listed as follows.

Questions regarding this review should be directed to Matthew Walderon, Federal Consistency Coordinator, at (717) 772-2196 or RA-Fed_Consistency@pa.gov.

The Department will consider all comments received no later than August 14, 2017, before issuing a final Federal consistency concurrence or objection. Comments, including comments submitted by e-mail, must include the originator's name and address. Comments submitted by facsimile will not be accepted. Commentators are encouraged to submit comments using the Department's eComment system at www.ahs.dep.pa.gov/eComment. Written comments may also be submitted by e-mail to ecomment@pa.gov or by mail to the Policy Office, Department of Environmental Protection, 400 Market Street, Harrisburg, PA 17101.

Pennsylvania Compensation Rating Bureau; Filing for Rate and Rule Manual Revisions

On June 30, 2017, the Insurance Department (Department) received from the Pennsylvania Compensation Rating Bureau (Bureau) a filing that proposes revisions to the Bureau's underwriting guide for Classifications 972—Attendant Care Services, 942—Home Health Care—Professional Staff and 943—Home Health Care—Nonprofessional Staff.

Currently, assignment to Classifications 972 and 942/943 is based on whether payment to providers of attendant care services comes from the Commonwealth's Attendant Care Program or any of the following five Medicaid Waivers: Aging Waiver; Attendant Care Waiver; Comm-Care Waiver; Independence Waiver; or OBRA Waiver.

According to the Bureau, when more than 50% of a commercial home care agency's funding comes from one the previously listed sources, assignment is made to Classification 972. Otherwise, assignment is made to Classifications 942/943.

In the filing, the Bureau has proposed Classification 972 to apply only when: 1) the attendant care recipients qualify for Federal or State, or both, attendant care funding programs; and 2) the attendant care recipient is considered to be the employer of the caregiver for workers compensation purposes.

As proposed, Classification 942 will apply to commercial agencies providing home health care services to clients. The care provided is defined to be clinical medical care by skilled medical professionals.

Finally, Classification 943 is proposed to apply to commercial agencies providing home care services to clients. The care provided is defined to be unskilled and nonclinical.

According to the Bureau, 66 employers will be reclassified from Classification 972 to Classification 943 as a result of the filing. The reclassification will result in a rating value increase of 65.7% based on the April 1, 2017, Bureau loss costs. The current Bureau loss cost values are $2.85 for Classification 943 and $1.72 for Classification 972. The Bureau has informed the Department that all 66 employers affected by the filing have received a letter informing them of this filing.

The filing is available for review on the Bureau's web site at www.pcrb.com in the "Filings" section.

Interested parties are invited to submit written comments, suggestions or objections to Dennis Sloand, Insurance Department, Insurance Product Regulation, 1311 Strawberry Square, Harrisburg, PA 17120, desloand@pa.gov within 30 days after publication of this notice in the Pennsylvania Bulletin.

PENNSYLVANIA PUBLIC UTILITY COMMISSION

Electric Generation Supplier License Cancellations of Companies with an Expired Financial Security or Insufficient Financial Security Amount

Public Meeting held
July 12, 2017

Commissioners Present: Gladys M. Brown, Chairperson; Andrew G. Place, Vice Chairperson; John F. Coleman, Jr.; Robert F. Powelson; David W. Sweet

Electric Generation Supplier License Cancellations of Companies with an Expired Financial Security or Insufficient Financial Security Amount; M-2017-2584781

Tentative Order

By the Commission:

The Commission's regulations at 52 Pa. Code § 54.40(a) state that an Electric Generation Supplier (EGS) license will not be issued or remain in force until the licensee furnishes a bond or other security approved by the Commission. In addition, 52 Pa. Code § 54.40(d) states that the maintenance of an EGS license is contingent on the licensee providing proof to the Commission that a bond or other approved security in the amount directed by the Commission has been obtained.

Each EGS must file an original bond, letter of credit, continuation certificate, amendment, or other approved financial instrument with Rosemary Chiavetta, Secretary, Pennsylvania Public Utility Commission, 400 North Street, Harrisburg, PA 17120 prior to the EGS's current security expiration date. Each financial instrument must be an original document that displays a "wet" signature or digital signature, preferable in blue ink, and displays a "raised seal" or original notary stamp. The name of the principal on the original financial instrument must match exactly with the name that appears on the EGS's license issued by the Commission.

Failure to file before the financial security's expiration date may cause Commission staff to initiate a formal proceeding that may lead to the following: cancellation of each company's electric supplier license, removal of each company's information from the Commission's website and notification to all electric distribution companies, in which each company is licensed to do business, of the cancellation of the license.

As of June 30, 2017, each EGS listed in the Supplier Table below has not provided proof to the Commission that it has a bond or other approved security in the amount directed by the Commission, to replace its expired bond as noted in the table below.

Supplier Table—List of Electric Generation Suppliers

Docket Number	Company Name	Expired Financial Security Date	Commission Approved Amount
A-2015-2461133	ENERGYCONNECT, INC.	6/28/17	Yes
A-2013-2374566	HOVEY ENERGY, LLC	6/27/17	Yes
A-2011-2257924*	TERM POWER & GAS, LLC	6/8/17	Yes

*Taking title to electricity

As part of its EGS license validation procedures, the Commission's Bureau of Technical Utility Services sent a 90-day Security Renewal Notice Letter to each entity in the Supplier Table above stating that original documentation of a bond, or other approved security, must be filed within 30 days prior to each entity's security expiration date. None of the companies listed in the Supplier Table provided the required documentation.

Based on the above facts, we tentatively conclude that the EGSs listed in the Supplier Table are not in compliance with 52 Pa. Code § 54.40(a) and (d) and therefore it is appropriate to initiate the cancellation process for each EGS license of each company listed in the Supplier Table, without the necessity of a formal complaint, as being in the public interest; Therefore,

It Is Ordered That:

1. Cancellation of the Electric Generation Supplier Licenses of each company listed in the Supplier Table is hereby tentatively approved as being in the public interest.

2. The Secretary serve a copy of this Tentative Order upon the Office of Consumer Advocate, the Office of Small Business Advocate, the Bureau of Investigation & Enforcement, Department of Revenue—Bureau of Corporation Taxes, all electric distribution companies, all of the Electric Generation Suppliers in the Supplier Table and also cause a copy of this Tentative Order to be published in the Pennsylvania Bulletin with a 30-day comment period.

3. Absent the filing of adverse public comment or the filing of an approved security within 30 days after publication in the Pennsylvania Bulletin, the Bureau of Technical Utility Services shall prepare a Final Order for entry by the Secretary.

4. Upon entry of the Final Order described in Ordering Paragraph No. 3 above, each company listed in the Supplier Table will be stricken from all active utility lists maintained by the Commission's Bureau of Technical Utility Services and the Assessment Section of the Bureau of Administration, removed from the Commission's website, and notifications be sent to all electric distribution companies in which the Electric Generation Suppliers are licensed to do business.

5. Upon entry of the Final Order described in Ordering Paragraph No. 3, each electric distribution company in which the Electric Generation Suppliers are licensed to do business, shall return the customers of the Electric Generation Suppliers to default service.

Petition of the Township of Mahoning for a Declaratory Order that the Provision of Water and Wastewater Service to Isolated Customers Adjoining its Boundaries Does Not Constitute the Provision of Public Utility Service Under 66 Pa.C.S. § 102

July 12, 2017

Commissioners Present: Gladys M. Brown, Chairperson; Andrew G. Place, Vice Chairperson; John F. Coleman, Jr.; Robert F. Powelson; David W. Sweet

Petition of the Township of Mahoning for a Declaratory Order that the Provision of Water and Wastewater Service to Isolated Customers Adjoining its Boundaries Does Not Constitute the Provision of Public Utility Service Under 66 Pa.C.S. § 102; P-2017-2588977

Order

By the Commission:

On January 31, 2017, the Township of Mahoning (the Township or Mahoning), filed the above-captioned petition (Petition) for a declaratory order. In accordance with 52 Pa. Code § 5.42, the Township served a copy of its Petition on the Office of Consumer Advocate (OCA), the Bureau of Investigation and Enforcement (I&E), the Office of Small Business Advocate (OSBA) and each of the 33 customers located outside of the Township's limits. On March 2, 2017, the OCA filed an Answer to Township's Petition. On April 24, 2017, the Township filed a Supplement to Petition in Response to the Answer of the OCA.

Background

Section 331(f) of the Public Utility Code provides that the Commission "may issue a declaratory order to terminate a controversy or remove uncertainty." 66 Pa.C.S. § 331(f). In its Petition, the Township seeks a determination that the provision of water and wastewater service by the Township to 33 extraterritorial customers does not make the service subject to the Commission's jurisdiction. The Township asserts that the service to these "limited" customers is not service "to or for the public" within the meaning of Section 102 of the Public Utility Code. 66 Pa.C.S. § 102.

In its Petition, the Township avers that it filed the instant Petition because of Mahoning's desire to provide water distribution services and wastewater collection services (hereinafter collectively referred to as the "Services") to certain extraterritorial customers. The services that the Township proposed to provide to the extraterritorial customers historically were provided by the Mahoning Township Authority, a Pennsylvania Municipal Authority existing under the Municipality Authority Act, 53 Pa.C.S. §§ 5601—5623. On September 6, 2016, the Township, which created the Authority, initiated proceedings to dissolve the Authority and to take over the Authority's functions.

The Township further explained that the Authority opposed the dissolution and initiated litigation in the Court of Common Pleas of Columbia County, at Docket No. 392-2016, in an attempt to block the Township's effort. At the time that the Township filed the Petition, the litigation was ongoing.

On February 2, 2017, the Authority's special counsel sent a letter to the Court discontinuing its action and informing the Township that the Authority's Board of Directors had performed its last functions and would turn over all of the Authority's assets, including the water distribution system and the wastewater collection system (hereinafter collectively referred to as the "Systems") to the Township immediately. As of February 2, 2017, the Township has operated the Systems.

According to the Petition, the extraterritorial customers in question consist of twenty-six (26) users in Cooper Township and seven (7) users in Valley Township. The Township is not aware of any other public or private water distribution or wastewater collection systems operating in either of those Townships. The closest alternative system that could be utilized by the extraterritorial customers is the Danville Municipal Authority, which already provides water and wastewater treatment services to the Township's extraterritorial customers.¹

In its Answer, the OCA submits that the Petition should be denied or alternatively, referred to the Office of Administrative Law Judge for hearings to develop additional facts that are not presented in the Petition. In support, the OCA states that the extraterritorial customers are entitled to the protections afforded by the Public Utility Code and Commission regulations. The OCA also states that there is no "defined, group" of customers being served outside of Mahoning Township because the Township discusses in its Petition the possibility of adding two additional customers in the future.² Finally, the OCA asserts that the Township does not commit to maintain the same level of customer protections for the extraterritorial customers, or otherwise indicate that it has any formalized procedures for handling termination, billing, payments and complaints.

In response to the OCA Answer, Mahoning filed a Supplemental Petition providing additional details and protections for extraterritorial customers. As stated previously, Services are currently provided by the Township to 33 extraterritorial customers in Valley and Cooper Townships. The only water or wastewater system in close proximity to these extraterritorial customers in Cooper and Valley Townships is the Danville Municipal Authority; however, it would be necessary either to construct new transmission lines one or more miles in length, or to purchase transmission services from Mahoning Township in order for transmission of the water and wastewater through Mahoning's existing lines.

Finally, the Township, by virtue of Resolution No. 1 and Resolution No. 4, adopted on January 16, 2017 and April 17, 2017, respectively, specifically prescribed: (1) that the customers in Cooper and Valley Townships shall be subject to the same terms and rates as those customers within the Mahoning Township; (2) that Mahoning Township will restrict extraterritorial service to the 33 customers located in Cooper and Valley Townships; and (3) that any customer residing in Cooper and Valley Townships will be afforded the same due process rights as Mahoning Township customers. Supplemental Petition, Exhibit 6.

Mahoning has requested by this Petition a declaration that the Township is not subject to the Commission's jurisdiction so that it may save the cost and time burdens of tariff and reporting requirements, while simultaneously ensuring that these extraterritorial customers continue to receive Services under terms that are acceptable to the Commission and the customers.

² There are two unsold lots in the same subdivision as the extraterritorial customers in Valley Township.

Discussion

Based upon our consideration of these facts and circumstances, the Commission finds that it is appropriate to issue a Declaratory Order in response to the subject Petition.

In the Commission's judgment, the circumstances here are similar to those presented to the Commission in the matters of Lehigh Valley Cooperative Farmers v. City of Allentown, 54 Pa. P.U.C. 495 (1980); Petition of New Albany Borough, Docket No. P-00991775, 200 Pa. PUC Lexis 34 (2000); Petition of Laceyville Borough, Docket No. P-2008-2064117 (2008); Petition of Cochranon Borough, Docket No. P-2008-2035741 (2009) and Petition of the City of Titusville, Docket No. P-2013-2376600 (2014), wherein the Commission concluded that service to a limited number of isolated individuals outside of the municipal boundaries under special circumstances did not constitute public utility service subject to the Commission's jurisdiction.

In Lehigh Valley, New Albany Borough, Laceyville Borough, Cochranon Borough, and Titusville, the Commission reiterated that the test to determine whether a party is rendering service to the public is set forth in Borough of Ambridge v. Pa. Public Service Commission, 165 A. 47 (Pa. Super. 1933). In Ambridge, the Commission noted,

We find the distinction between public and private rendition of such service put definitely on the readiness to serve all members of the public to the extent of capacity: The test is, therefore whether or not such person holds himself out, expressly or impliedly, as engaged in the business of supplying his product or service to the public, as a class, or to any limited portion of it, as contradistinguished from holding himself out as serving or ready to serve only particular individuals. The public or private character of the enterprise does not depend, however, upon the number of persons by whom it is used, but upon whether or not it is open to the use and service of all members of the public who may require it, to the extent of its capacity; and the fact that only a limited number of persons may have occasion to use it does not make it a private undertaking if the public generally has a right to such use.

See also, Petition of Chicora Borough, P-00981355 (May 22, 1998).

Subsequently, the Commission applied the same rationale in Joint Application of Seven Fields Development Corporation, A-220007 and A-210062F2000 (October 1, 1999). In that case, the Commission granted an application filed by a jurisdictional utility seeking to transfer its assets used in the operation of its water system to the Borough of Seven Fields. The Commission noted that the borough would be providing water service to three customers that were located outside of the borough's limits. Moreover, the Commission took note of the fact that the borough committed to continue providing water service solely to these three customers at the same terms of service as are or will be offered to customers within the boundaries of the borough. Also, as in the instant case, the Borough of Seven Fields committed that it did not intend to offer service to the general public outside of its boundaries in the future. In the Seven Fields case, the Commission concluded that the limited nature of water service to such a defined group of customers should not realistically be subject to its jurisdiction. Order at p.4.

In Pilot Travel Center, LLC v. Pa. Public Utility Commission, 933 A.2d 123 (Pa. Cmwlth. 2007), appeal denied, 938 A.2d 1054 (Pa. 2007), the Commonwealth Court, in affirming the Commission's view on this issue, concluded:

The test for determining whether utility services are being offered "for the public" is whether or not such person holds himself out, expressly or impliedly, as engaged in the business of supplying his product or service to the public, as a class, or to any limited portion of it, as distinguished from holding himself out as serving or ready to serve particular individuals. The private or public character of a business does not depend upon the number of persons who actually use the service; rather, the proper characterization rests upon whether or not the service is available to all members of the public who may require it.

933 A.2d at 128.

In applying the standards enunciated in Ambridge, Lehigh Valley, Seven Fields, Laceyville Borough, Cochranon, Titusville and Pilot Travel Center to the facts of the case sub judice, we find that the limited extraterritorial service is not subject to Commission jurisdiction. The extraterritorial service provided by Mahoning is provided to a limited number of customers and is not available to the general public. Moreover, by virtue of the aforementioned Resolution No. 1 and Resolution No. 4, the Township has committed that it will continue to provide Services to the 33 extraterritorial customers in Cooper and Valley Townships and that it is not soliciting additional customers outside of the Township. Thus, Mahoning is not holding itself out as providing service to the public. See Bethlehem Steel Corp. v. Pa. Public Utility Commission, 713 A.2d 1110 (Pa. 1998). Based upon the facts as stated in the Mahoning's Petition, the Services by Mahoning to the 33 extraterritorial customers who are located in close proximity to the Township's water mains does not constitute the provision of service to or for the public. Mahoning's request to provide potential Services in the future to the two undeveloped lots that are in the same subdivision currently serviced by the Township does not alter our conclusion.

Finally, while we appreciate the concerns of the OCA that are raised in its Answer, OCA does not identify any contested facts that are material to the resolution of the issue presented. We note that an express condition of this exemption from Commission regulation is that the Township apply the same rates outside as well as within the Township limits and that the Township does not add any additional customers beyond those referenced in this Petition; Therefore,

It Is Ordered That:

1. The Petition for Declaratory Order filed by the Township of Mahoning on January 31, 2017, at Docket No. P-2017-2588977 is hereby granted.

2. The provision of Services by the Township of Mahoning to the 33 customers located outside of the Township is deemed to be non-jurisdictional because it is not service "to or for the public" within the intendment of Section 102 of the Public Utility Code, 66 Pa.C.S. § 102.

3. A copy of this Order shall be served upon the Township of Mahoning, Cooper Township and Valley Township, the Danville Municipal Authority and each of the individuals and offices listed in Mahoning's certificate of service.

4. The Secretary shall certify this Order and deposit it with the Legislative Reference Bureau for publication in the Pennsylvania Bulletin.

5. The Township of Mahoning is directed to cause to be published in a newspaper of general circulation in the Township of Mahoning area notice of this Order.

STAFF REPORT

I. Overview and Summary

This Staff Report has been prepared for the Pennsylvania Public Utility Commission (Commission) by the Law Bureau with the assistance of the Bureau of Consumer Services (BCS) in compliance with the Commission's directive in Review of Universal Service and Energy Conservation Programs, Docket No. M-2017-2596907 (Order entered May 10, 2017). That order directed that this Staff Report outline the statutory, regulatory, and policy frameworks of existing universal service and energy conservation programs and the processes required to initiate any proposed changes and that it be published and comments accepted.

The Electric Competition Act and the Gas Competition Act, passed in 1996 and 1999, respectively, mandated that the energy utilities have universal service programs and submit reports relative to services rendered and costs expended. Universal service programs have four components: a customer assistance program (CAP), a low-income usage reduction program (LIURP), a customer assistance and referral evaluation services (CARES) program, and a hardship fund program.³ The universal service programs of large utilities are subject to an approval process, for which the Commission has designated BCS as the responsible bureau. The smaller utilities must submit universal service plans and comply with reporting requirements.

The requirements for universal service programs are further addressed in Commission regulations and/or policy statements. Under Pennsylvania law, changes to the LIURP regulations or the universal service reporting requirements (USRR) would require a rulemaking proceeding. Changes to the CAP Policy Statement or creation of new policies can be implemented through further policy statement(s) or established as regulations pursuant to a rulemaking proceeding.

II. Introduction

"Universal service and energy conservation" is a collective term for the "policies, protections and services that help low-income customers^[4] to maintain service" as mandated by the Electric and Gas Competition Acts.⁵ The four universal service programs are: (1) CAP, which may provide discounted rates, arrearage forgiveness, and/or other benefits for enrolled low-income residential customers; (2) LIURP,⁶ which provides weatherization and usage reduction services to help them reduce their utility bills; (3) CARES, which provides information and referral services for low-income, special needs customers; and (4) hardship fund, which provides grants to customers who have had their utility service terminated or are threatened with termination.⁷ These universal service programs may include pilot programs beyond the required programs. The individual utilities frequently use other names to refer to their specific programs. The next section shall detail the statutory, regulatory, and policy frameworks underlying these programs.

³ See http://www.puc.state.pa.us/consumer_info/electricity/energy_assistance_programs.aspx.

⁵ Section 2801 of the Electric Competition Act (66 Pa.C.S. § 2801), and Section 2202 of the Gas Competition Act (66 Pa.C.S. § 2201).

⁶ A utility may spend up to 20% of its annual LIURP budget on customers having an arrearage and whose household income is at or below 200% of FPIG. See 52 Pa. Code §§ 58.1, 58.2 and 58.10.

⁷ See http://www.puc.state.pa.us/consumer_info/electricity/energy_assistance_programs.aspx.

III. Historical Perspective

This Commission and various stakeholders began to formally address low-income policies, practices, and services at least as early as 1984. See Recommendations for Dealing with Payment Troubled Customers, Docket No. M-840403.⁸ As a result of that proceeding, the energy utilities began filing usage reduction programs and considering how to address arrearages for low-income customers.

Customer Assistance Program

The Commission's CAP Policy Statement at 52 Pa. Code §§ 69.261—69.267 (adopted in 1992 and amended in 1999 and 2010) applies to Class A electric distribution companies (EDCs) and natural gas distribution companies (NGDCs) with gross annual operating revenue in excess of $40 million.⁹ It provides guidance on affordable payments and arrearages and establishes a process for utilities to work with BCS to develop CAPs. The Commission balances the interests of customers who benefit from CAPs with the interests of the other residential customers who pay for such programs. See Final Investigatory Order on CAPs: Funding Levels and Cost Recovery Mechanisms, Docket No. M-00051923 (Dec. 18, 2006) (Final CAP Investigatory Order) at 6-7.

Low-Income Usage Reduction Program

The Commission's LIURP regulations at 52 Pa. Code §§ 58.1—58.18 (adopted in 1993 and last amended in 1998) require covered energy utilities¹⁰ to establish fair, effective, and efficient energy usage reduction programs for their low-income customers.¹¹ The programs are intended to assist low-income customers in conserving energy and reducing residential energy bills.

CARES and Hardship Funds

CARES and hardship funds,¹² unlike CAPs, are not covered by express policy statements. CARES and hardship funds, unlike LIURP, do not have extensive regulatory provisions. For EDCs, Section 54.72 defines CARES, CARES benefits, hardship fund, and hardship fund benefits. Section 54.74 provides that universal service and energy conservation "may include CAP, LIURP, CARES, and Hardship Funds and other programs, policies and protections." Section 54.75 specifies what EDCs must report regarding CARES and hardship funds. Similarly, for NGDCs, Section 62.2 defines CARES, CARES benefits, hardship fund, and hardship fund benefits. Section 62.4 provides that universal service and energy conservation "may include CAP, LIURP, CARES, and Hardship Funds and other programs, policies and protections." Section 62.5 specifies what NGDCs must report regarding CARES and hardship funds.

Competition Acts

The Electricity Generation Customer Choice and Competition Act (Electric Competition Act), 66 Pa.C.S. §§ 2801—2812 (1997), and the Natural Gas Choice and Competition Act (Gas Competition Act), 66 Pa.C.S. §§ 2201—2212 (1999), opened the electric and natural gas markets, respectively, to competition. Their universal service provisions tie the affordability of electric service to a customer's ability to maintain utility service. The Competition Acts require the Commonwealth to continue, at a minimum, the policies, practices, and services that were in existence to assist low-income customers in affording utility service, as of the effective dates of the respective Competition Acts. 66 Pa.C.S. § 2802(10) for electric and § 2203(7) for gas. Universal service programs are subject to the administrative oversight of the Commission, which must ensure that the utilities run the programs in a cost-effective manner and that services are appropriately funded and available in each utility distribution territory. 66 Pa.C.S. § 2804(9) for electric and § 2203(8) for gas.

Universal Service Reporting Requirements

The Commission's Universal Service and Energy Conservation Reporting Requirements (Universal Service Reporting Requirements or USRR) for electric utilities at 52 Pa. Code §§ 54.71—54.78 (1998) require each EDC serving more than 60,000 residential accounts to submit an updated universal service and energy conservation plan (USECP) every three years to the Commission for approval. 52 Pa. Code § 54.77. Similarly, the Commission's USRR for natural gas utilities at 52 Pa. Code §§ 62.1—62.8 (2000) require each NGDC¹³ serving more than 100,000 residential accounts also to submit an updated USECP every three years to the Commission for approval. 52 Pa. Code § 62.7. These utilities are required to include CAP, LIURP, CARES, and hardship fund programs in their universal service portfolios. The Commission has made BCS responsible for monitoring and evaluating the utilities' universal service programs as part of the USECP approval process for the larger utilities. Under the USRR,¹⁴ certain EDCs and NGDCs provide data annually to the Commission detailing the degree to which universal service programs within its service territory are available and funded, including usage data and allocation of funds.¹⁵

Universal service reporting requirements are less formalized for the smaller utilities. Pursuant to Section 54.77, small EDCs (less than 60,000 residential accounts) are required to have universal service plans and to report the following information to the Commission every three years:

- (1) The universal service and energy conservation plan.
- (2) Expenses associated with low-income customers.
- (3) A description of the universal service and energy conservation services provided to low-income residential customers.
- (4) The number of services or benefits provided to low-income residential customers.
- (5) The dollar amount of services or benefits provided to low-income residential customers.

Further, the small EDCs are exempt from Sections 54.74—54.76 relating to universal service and energy conservation plans; annual residential collection and universal service and energy conservation program reporting requirements; and evaluation reporting requirements. Pursuant to Section 62.7, small NGDC (less than 100,000 residential accounts) are required to have universal service plans and have the same reporting obligations as the small EDCs. Similarly, they are exempt from Sections 62.4—62.6 relating to universal service and energy conservation plans; annual residential collection and universal service and energy conservation program reporting requirements; and evaluation reporting requirements.

2005 CAP Inquiry

In 2005, the Commission commenced a review of CAP funding levels and cost recovery mechanisms, noting that the Commission had not, however, adopted standards or criteria for evaluating whether an individual utility's universal service and energy conservation programs (of which CAPs are by far the largest component), are "appropriately funded." CAP Funding Levels and Cost Recovery Mechanisms, Docket No. M-00051923 (Order entered December 15, 2005) (2005 CAP Funding Order). That order further noted that the Commission had not resolved the question of what type of cost recovery mechanism best fulfills the statutory requirement for "full recovery" of the costs of these programs. Instead, the Commission was reviewing both CAP funding levels and cost recovery mechanisms on a case-by-case basis. For most utilities, these issues had been addressed in their restructuring proceedings or in later rate cases. In both types of proceedings, issues regarding CAPs were forced to compete for attention with a multitude of other ratemaking and policy issues. That order concluded that such CAP issues have not received the full, undivided attention of the Commission. 2005 CAP Funding Order at 2. The result was wide discrepancies among the utilities. 2005 CAP Funding Order at 3. The order recognized "growing importance" of CAPs as a "social safety net." The order articulated the Commission's "duty to develop general standards for deciding whether CAPs are 'appropriately funded,' and to determine what type of cost recovery mechanism best allows utilities to 'fully recover' CAP costs and other types of universal service costs." 2005 CAP Funding Order at 3. Comments were solicited.

The CAP Funding proceeding was ultimately terminated without promulgating CAP regulations or amending the CAP Policy Statement.¹⁶ The Commission did, however, retain the policy of allocating CAP costs to the only customer class whose members are eligible for the program—residential customers. Since the Commission first encouraged utilities to initiate CAP programs on a voluntary basis, it has allocated CAP costs to the residential class, with a few exceptions.¹⁷ Final CAP Investigatory Order at 26—31.

Pennsylvania State University Consumer Service Information System Project regarding LIURP

In January 2009, the Consumer Services Information System Project at Pennsylvania State University (CSIS PSU), under contract with the Commission, published a long-term study on PA's LIURP, including recommendations.¹⁸ No formal Commission action was taken on the

The matter was terminated without promulgating CAP regulations at Docket No. L-00060181 or amending the CAP Policy Statement at Docket No. M-00072036. The last order at this docket is the order proposing revision to the CAP Policy Statement. It called for comments which were submitted, but revisions to the Policy Statement were never adopted. Department of Human Services and Low-Income Heating and Energy Assistance Program

In 2009, the Pennsylvania Department of Human Services (DHS), then known as the Pennsylvania Department of Public Welfare (DPW), informed the utilities that they must apply LIHEAP grants directly to a customer's CAP bill or "asked-to-pay" (ATP) amount. Section 69.2659(ii-iii) of the Commission's Policy Statement (1) prohibited utilities from substituting a federal Low Income Home Energy Assistance Program (LIHEAP) grant for a CAP customer's monthly payment, and (2) required LIHEAP grants be applied to the CAP shortfall.²¹ The 2009 LIHEAP directive from DHS conflicted with these aspects of the Policy Statement. Utilities could no longer apply LIHEAP grants to a CAP customer's deferred arrears²² or to the CAP shortfall. On April 9, 2010, the Commission entered an Order suspending Sections 69.265(9)(ii-iii) of its Policy Statement.

The Commission has been working with the Department of Community and Economic Development (DCED) since 2008, on a state-wide weatherization initiative and inter-agency coordination effort regarding DCED's Weatherization Assistance Program (WAP) and LIURP. In 2016, DCED and the Commission agreed, pursuant to a memorandum of understanding (MOU), to share data and analyses of the two agencies' weatherization programs. This will allow for additional analysis in conjunction with the Commission's oversight of the EDCs' Act 129²³ low-income programs, and will also allow CSIS PSU to compile data from these weatherization programs and perform analyses under its existing contract with the Commission.

IV. Open Universal Service Proceedings

Comments filed in these three open universal service proceedings do not need to repeat the histories detailed in this Staff Report, but stakeholders are welcome to provide supplemental details or amendments regarding the history and background of universal service in the Commonwealth in those comments or comments to this Staff Report.

A. LIURP Review—Docket No. L-2016-2557886—By Secretarial Letter issued December 16, 2016, the Commission commenced Initiative to Review and Revise the Existing LIURP Regulations at 52 Pa. Code §§ 58.1—58.18, Docket No. L-2016-2557886. Comments and reply comments have been received. After consideration of those comments, as well as the relevant LIURP-related comments filed in Review of Universal Service and Energy

Conservation Programs, Docket No. M-2017-2596097, staff will formulate a recommendation regarding LIURP to the Commission.²⁴

B. Energy Affordability for Low-Income Customers—Docket No. M-2017-2587711—In 1992, the CAP Policy Statement established maximum energy burden ranges for low-income customers by heating source and income level. See Section 69.265(2)(i)(A—C) By Order entered May 5, 2017, the Commission initiated a study regarding home energy burdens in Pennsylvania²⁵ as a necessary first step in evaluating the affordability, cost-effectiveness, and prudence of universal service programs.

BCS, in conjunction with other necessary Commission bureaus, has been directed to initiate a study to determine what constitutes an affordable energy burden for Pennsylvania's low-income households and, based on this analysis, whether any changes in the Commission's CAP Policy Statement or other Universal Service and Energy Conservation Program Guidelines are necessary to bring these programs into alignment with any affordability recommendations. As part of this study, BCS shall finalize a scope of work by June 19, 2017. Additionally, BCS has been directed to conclude the study by February 5, 2018, and to report its findings to the Commission by May 5, 2018.

Thereafter, the Commission will publish the final report and provide a comment and reply comment period as necessary. This study should complement the Commission's current LIURP inquiry and possible rulemaking²⁶ and serve to inform any potential future changes to the CAP Guidelines.

C. Review of Universal Service and Energy Conservation Programs—Docket No. M-2017-2596907—By Order entered May 10, 2017, at this docket, the Commission initiated a comprehensive review of the entire universal service and energy conservation model.²⁷ Because the universal service programs are intertwined regarding design, budgeting, administration, reporting, and evaluation, the Commission found that it would be appropriate to incorporate the Commission's current work on LIURPs and energy affordability matters into this comprehensive review.

To initiate this comprehensive review, the Commission ordered the Law Bureau to develop for this Commission's review a report on the statutory, regulatory, and policy frameworks of existing universal service programs and the steps required to initiate any proposed changes, by June 9, 2017. This Staff Report is in response to the Commission's directive.

The May 10, 2017 Order also invited stakeholders to submit comments by August 8, 2017. Comments may include, but are not limited to, issues of program design, ²⁴ The LIURP proceeding at Docket No. L-2016-2557886 could proceed independently or as an element of the universal service, affordability, and energy burden reviews contemplated at Docket Nos. M-2017-2596907 and M-2017-2587711. The LIURP Secretarial Letter at Docket No. L-2016-2557886 restricted comments in the LIURP proceeding to the LIURP program. Since LIURP regulations already exist, amending the existing regulations might proceed faster than establishing new regulations, but the nuances of coordinated universal service planning could be missed without stakeholder input on coordination between the universal service programs. Staff therefore recommends that action on the LIURP regulations be deferred until any comments from the universal service proceeding at Docket No. M-2017-2506907 regarding coordinated universal service programs can be reviewed.

²⁵ "Energy burden" refers to the percentage of household income that is dedicated to paying utility bills. Duquesne Light Company USECP for 2017—2019, Docket No. M-2016-2534323 (Order entered March 23, 2017), at 28.

²⁶ See the Secretarial Letter issued December 16, 2016, at Docket No. L-2016-2557886, seeking stakeholder input on a number of topics regarding the scope of a potential future rulemaking to update existing LIURP Regulations at 52 Pa. Code §§ 58.1—58.18.

²⁷ Review of Universal Service and Energy Conservation Programs, M-2017-2596907 (Opinion and Order entered May 10, 2017).

¹⁹ See Final CAP Investigatory Order. As noted above, the CAP review matter was terminated without promulgating CAP regulations at Docket No. L-00060181 or amending the CAP Policy Statement at Docket No. M-00072036.

²⁰ On September 4, 2007, the Commission initiated a proposed rulemaking on USRR and CAPs at Docket No. L-00070186. That rulemaking was discontinued by Commission order entered on May 10, 2012 at that docket.

²¹ The CAP shortfall (also known as the CAP Credit) is the difference between the actual tariff rate for jurisdictional residential energy service and the discounted amount that a CAP participant is expected/asked to pay for that service.

²² When a customer enrolls in a CAP for the first time, any outstanding debt is set aside (deferred) for forgiveness. This debt is forgiven incrementally with each CAP payment.

implementation, costs, cost recovery, administration reporting, and evaluation. The comments may also address the Staff Report.

The May 10, 2017 Order directed that BCS convene a stakeholder meeting by October 7, 2017. The stakeholder meeting is tentatively scheduled for September 13 and 14, 2017, in Harrisburg, PA. Stakeholders will have until 30 days after the stakeholder meeting to submit reply comments. Reply comments may address issues raised at the stakeholder conference as well as previously filed comments. Thereafter, within 45 days, BCS is to report to the Commission a summary of the comments, feedback, and options developed.

The Commission will consider the initial feedback and results of the review of its LIURP Regulations and energy burden levels, as well as the reports from Law Bureau and BCS that are part of the instant comprehensive review, in making a determination regarding appropriate future actions, such as an en banc hearing, an Advanced Notice of Proposed Rulemaking, or a revised Policy Statement.

VII. Other Related Proceedings

A. Utility Base Rate Cases and Rider Proceedings— Currently, and in the past, utilities and stakeholders have on occasion addressed universal service and energy conservation issues in base rate cases and other proceedings such as demand-side management (DSM) dockets. This approach has, at times, created anomalies and inconsistencies with universal service guidelines and LIURP regulations. The Law Bureau and BCS typically do not participate in these types of proceedings.

*B. Energy Efficiency and Conservation (EE&C) Program Proceedings Pursuant to Act 129—Docket Nos. M-2008-2069887 (Phase I), M-2012-2289411 (Phase II), and M-2014-2424864 (Phase III)—*The Commission has been charged by the Pennsylvania General Assembly (General Assembly) with establishing an energy efficiency and conservation program (EE&C Program) relative to electric usage and consumption. The EE&C Program requires each EDC with at least 100,000 customers to adopt an EE&C plan to reduce energy demand and consumption within its service territory. 66 Pa.C.S. § 2806.1 (Act 129). On January 15, 2009, the Commission adopted an Implementation Order at Docket No. M-2008-2069887 establishing the standards each plan must meet and providing guidance on the procedures to be followed for submittal, review and approval of all aspects of EE&C plans.²⁸

The Commission is also charged with the responsibility to evaluate the costs and benefits of the EE&C Program by November 30, 2013, and every five years thereafter. Further, the Commission must adopt additional incremental reductions in consumption if the benefits of the EE&C Program exceed its costs. 66 Pa.C.S. § 2806.1(c)(3). In addition, the Commission was charged with the responsibility to compare the total costs of the EE&C Program to the total savings in energy and capacity costs. If the Commission determines that the benefits exceed the costs, the Commission shall set additional incremental requirements for reduction in peak demand for the 100 hours of greatest demand or an alternative reduction approved by the Commission. 66 Pa.C.S. § 2806.1(d)(2).

By order entered on June 19, 2015, the Commission tentatively adopted additional incremental reductions in electric consumption and peak demand for the period of

June 1, 2016 through May 31, 2021, designated Phase III. The incremental reductions thereafter became final by operation of law.²⁹ The June 19, 2015 EE&CP order also has specific provisions related to low-income customers, as did the earlier EE&CP orders.³⁰

VIII. Processes For Going Forward—Regulation, Policy, or Statute

A. Commission Regulations and Policies

An agency's regulations are valid and binding only if they are within the agency's statutory authority, reasonable, and promulgated in accordance with the requirements set forth in the Commonwealth Documents Law, the Commonwealth Attorneys Act and the Regulatory Review Act.³¹ Any regulations or amendment to the agency's regulations not promulgated in accordance with these requirements are invalid and not enforceable. Germantown Cab Co. v. Philadelphia Parking Authority, 993 A.2d 933 (Pa. Cmwlth. 2010). Any changes to the LIURP regulations or the USRR will require a rulemaking proceeding in compliance with the Commonwealth Documents Law, Commonwealth Attorneys Act, and Regulatory Review Act.

Changes to the CAP Policy Statement or statements of new policies³² regarding universal service matters can be implemented through further policy statements or can be established as regulations pursuant to a rulemaking proceeding.

1. Regulatory Review Process, i.e., Rulemaking

Regulations are subject to the Regulatory Review Act and may include an advance notice.

a. Stage 1: Proposed Rulemaking

1. (Optional: The agency may issue an advance notice of proposed rulemaking (ANOPR) to solicit public comment before officially entering the regulatory review process.)

2. Proposed rulemaking (Order, Annex, and Regulatory Analysis Form) is drafted by agency staff and counsel.

3. Proposed rulemaking requires approval at PUC Public Meeting.

4. Proposed rulemaking is sent to Attorney General (AG)/Budget Offices. AG reviews for form and legality; Budget Office reviews for fiscal impact and creates the fiscal note.

5. Proposed rulemaking is delivered to Legislative Committees, Pa. Bulletin, and the Independent Regulatory Review Commission (IRRC). Delivery to these regulatory entities must occur on the same day.

6. Proposed rulemaking is published in the Pa. Bulletin for public comments. Comment periods must be at least 30 days but may be longer and may allow reply comments.

7. At the close of the public comment period, IRRC has its own 30-day comment period. The close of the public

- Commonwealth Documents Law—45 P.S. §§ 1102-1208—Rulemaking Framework
- Administrative Code—71 P.S. § 232—Fiscal Notes

³² A "statement of policy" is a document, other than an adjudication or a regulation, which has been promulgated by an agency and which sets forth "substantive or procedural personal or property rights, privileges, immunities, duties, liabilities or obligations of the public or a part thereof." This may include but is not limited to implementations, guidelines, and interpretations. 1 Pa. Code § 1.4.

comment period marks the beginning of the agency's two-year regulatory deadline to deliver the final-form rulemaking.

b. Stage 2: Final-Form Rulemaking—Either Final-Form or Final-Omitted Form

8. (Optional: The agency may issue an advance notice of final rulemaking (ANOFR) to solicit additional public comment.)

9. Comments are reviewed, and the final-form rulemaking is drafted by agency and counsel.

10. Final-form rulemaking requires approval at PUC Public Meeting.

11. Final-form rulemaking is delivered to Legislative Committees and IRRC. Delivery to these entities must occur on the same day. Delivery must occur within two years of the close of the public comment period.

12. Final-form rulemaking is presented at IRRC Public Meeting.

13. If IRRC approves, final-form rulemaking is sent to AG/Budget Offices. AG reviews for form and legality; Budget Office reviews for fiscal impact and creates the fiscal note.

14. If AG approves, final-form rulemaking is delivered to Pa. Bulletin. Regulation is final and enforceable upon publication.

2. Commission Policy Statement Process

Policy statements are not subject to the Regulatory Review Act and may have one or two phases.

a. Optional Proposed Policy Phase

1. Proposed policy statement (Order, Annex, and Regulatory Analysis Form) is drafted by counsel.

2. Proposed policy statement requires approval at PUC Public Meeting.

3. Proposed policy statement is sent to Budget Office for review of fiscal impact. Budget takes up to 10 days to create a fiscal note.

4. Proposed policy statement is delivered to Pa. Bulletin for publication and public comment.

b. Final Policy Phase

1. Policy statement (Order, Annex, and Regulatory Analysis Form) is drafted by counsel.

2. Policy statement requires approval at PUC Public Meeting.

3. Policy statement is sent to Budget Office for review of fiscal impact. Budget takes up to 10 days to create a fiscal note.

4. Proposed rulemaking is delivered to Pa. Bulletin for publication.

B. Statutory Amendment

The ultimate process would be to consider seeking an amendment or addition to the Commission's enabling legislation, Title 66. Any statutory provisions would be up to the discretion of the General Assembly and subject to approval by the Governor.

IX. Publication of This Staff Report, Comments, and Use by Stakeholders

As directed by the Commission in Ordering Paragraph No. 1 of the May 10, 2017 Order at Docket No. M-2017-2596907, this Staff Report addresses the statutory, regulatory, and policy frameworks of existing Universal Service and Energy Conservation Programs and the processes required to initiate any proposed changes to these existing statutory, regulatory, and policy frameworks. The Staff Report will be published in the Pennsylvania Bulletin, available on the Commission's website, and served on all parties of record in this proceeding.

This Staff Report is being released as an informal staff opinion provided solely as an aid to stakeholders interested in the subject matter and those stakeholders that intend to file comments in accordance with Ordering Paragraph No. 2 of the May 10, 2017 Order at Docket No. M-2017-2596907. It is not binding on the Commonwealth or the Commission, nor is it indicative of how the Commission may decide to act on the subject matter in this or other dockets.³³ 52 Pa. Code § 1.96.
