By the Court

EUGENE E. FIKE, II,
President Judge

Som. R.C.P. 1910.60. Review Of Domestic Relations Orders Entered Pursuant to 23 Pa.C.S.A. § 4305.

A. When a right of review is not provided otherwise by statute or rule of court, a person or entity aggrieved by an order or other action of the Domestic Relations Section entered or taken pursuant to the provisions of 23 Pa.C.S.A. § 4305, shall have the right to contest the order or action by filing a written request for review with the Domestic Relations Section within ten (10) days after the entry of the order or other action. Upon receipt of the written request for review, the Domestic Relations Section shall schedule a conference before a Conference Officer to determine whether the order or other action was properly taken. Promptly after the conference, the Domestic Relations Conference Officer shall issue a decision either upholding or reversing the order or action.

B. A person or entity may appeal to the Common Pleas Court from a decision by the Domestic Relations Conference Officer, by filing a demand for court hearing with the Domestic Relations Section, within ten (10) days after issuance of the decision by the Domestic Relations Conference Officer. Hearing will be scheduled on the demand in accordance with the procedure for scheduling a demand for court hearing challenging a support order.
