QUESTIONS AND ANSWERS CONCERNING PENNSYLVANIA IOLTA

Statement of Purpose

The following is a representation of the questions most frequently asked of the Pennsylvania Interest on Lawyers Trust Account Board (the "IOLTA Board") and the answers given. Some of the answers paraphrase the actual Rules of Professional Conduct or Regulations of the IOLTA Board. Reference should be made to the Rules and to the Regulations when appropriate.

What is the Basic Concept of IOLTA?

Clients and third persons frequently transfer monies to lawyers to hold. Rule 1.15 of the Pennsylvania Rules of Professional Conduct generally requires the lawyer to deposit all monies of clients and third persons ("Rule 1.15 Funds") in a Trust Account. When the amount is large or if the funds will be held for an extended period of time, lawyers invest them for the benefit of the owner. These funds are known as Nonqualified Funds. But when the funds are nominal in amount or expected to be held for a short time, they cannot practically be invested to benefit the owner of the funds. These funds are Qualified Funds.

Rule 1.15 of the Pennsylvania Rules of Professional Conduct requires a lawyer to deposit Qualified Funds in a particular type of Trust Account: an income producing interest-bearing IOLTA Account. The result is that funds that would otherwise earn no income interest can be put to constructive use.

The lawyer's Eligible Institution bank transfers the income interest earned on IOLTA Accounts ("IOLTA Funds"), no less frequently than quarterly, to the IOLTA Board. The IOLTA Board distributes the IOLTA Funds for the delivery of civil legal assistance to the poor and disadvantaged, educational legal clinical programs and internships administered by law schools, the administration of justice, and for the administration and development of the IOLTA program.

How do lawyers comply with the IOLTA requirements of Rule 1.15?

IOLTA Accounts may be maintained only at Eligible Institutions approved by the Supreme Court of Pennsylvania.

An "Enrollment Form for Lawyers and Law Firms" can be used to direct the Eligible Institution financial institution to open or convert one or more of the lawyer's Trust Account(s) to income producing interest-bearing IOLTA Accounts. Submit the second copy of the enrollment form, along with a list of all the lawyers who use the IOLTA Account in the regular course of their practice, to the IOLTA Board.

On an annual basis as part of the licensing process, lawyers are required to certify compliance with Rule 1.15 of the Pennsylvania Rules of Professional Conduct regarding the handling of funds and other property of clients or third persons ("Third Party Owners") and the maintenance of their IOLTA Accounts.

What will happen if a lawyer does not comply with Rule 1.15?

If a lawyer does not comply with the requirements outlined in Rule 1.15 of the Pennsylvania Rules of Professional Conduct, he or she will be subject to the same disciplinary penalties as any lawyer who does not comply with any of the other requirements for the practice of law in Pennsylvania.

The IOLTA Board will refer to the Office of Disciplinary Counsel the names of lawyers who do not comply with IOLTA.

Are any exemptions from IOLTA participation allowed?

Yes, a lawyer may apply for an exemption from the requirement that all Qualified Funds be placed in an

IOLTA Account. However, the exemption will be granted by the IOLTA Board only for one of the reasons specified in Rule 1.15. Write to the IOLTA Board if you believe any of the permitted exemptions apply. Exemptions will be granted if:

(A) the nature of the lawyer's practice does not require the routine maintenance of a Trust Account in Pennsylvania;

(B) the establishment of an IOLTA Account would work an undue hardship on the lawyer or would be extremely impractical, based either on the geographical distance between the lawyer's principal office and the closest Eligible Institution approved financial institution or on other compelling and necessitous factors;

(C) the lawyer's historical annual Trust Account experience, based on information from the Eligible Institution financial institution in which the lawyer deposits Rule 1.15 Funds, demonstrates the service charges on the Trust Account would significantly and routinely exceed any income interest generated.

What funds are to be placed in IOLTA Accounts?

Qualified Funds are monies of a client or third person received by a lawyer, that in the good faith judgment of the lawyer, are nominal in amount or which the lawyer reasonably expects to be held for such a short period of time, such that sufficient interest income will not be generated to justify the expense of earning income interest to benefit the client or third person.

A lawyer will not be liable for damages or held to have breached his or her professional responsibility because monies are deposited in an IOLTA Account pursuant to the lawyer's judgment in good faith that the monies are Qualified Funds.

However, the lawyer should review the funds held in his/her IOLTA Account at reasonable intervals to determine whether circumstances have changed that require changes with respect to the Rule 1.15 Funds held in the IOLTA Account.

Who pays taxes on the interest income earned on IOLTA accounts?

Nobody. The Internal Revenue Service (IRS) has ruled that there are no tax consequences to the Third Party Owner, the lawyer or the IOLTA Board. Also, there is no IRS reporting requirement for the lawyer, Eligible Institution financial institution or Third Party Owner since all IOLTA accounts will use the Tax Identification Number of the IOLTA Board.

May a lawyers still open a separate account for funds of Third Party Owners?

Certainly. Rule 1.15 Funds are defined to include funds received from a client or third person in connection with a client-lawyer relationship, as an escrow agent, settlement agent, representative payee, or as a Fiduciary. Rule 1.15 Funds also include funds received as an agent, having been designated as such by a client or having been selected as such because of a client-lawyer relationship or the lawyer's status as a lawyer. The lawyer must determine whether Rule 1.15 Funds are Qualified Funds or Nonqualified Funds. Nonqualified Funds shall be placed in a Trust Account or in another investment vehicle specifically agreed upon by the lawyer and the Third Party Owner. Nonqualified Funds which are Fiduciary Funds shall be placed either in a Trust Account or in another investment or account which is authorized by the law applicable to the entrustment or the terms of the instrument governing the Fiduciary Funds. A lawyer must determine whether funds of Third Party Owners are Qualified Funds or Nonqualified Funds. Nonqualified Funds shall be placed in a Trust Account or in another investment vehicle specifically agreed upon by the lawyer and the Third Party Owner.

How does the IOLTA program affect financial institutions?

Financial institutions are not mandated to participate in IOLTA. However, financial institutions that wish to offer Trust Accounts into which lawyers can deposit Rule 1.15 Funds (whether Qualified or Nonqualified Funds) must be approved by the Supreme Court of Pennsylvania. A list of Eligible Institutions approved financial institutions can be obtained from the Disciplinary Board.

An IOLTA Account is an unsegregated Trust Account for the deposit of Qualified Funds by a lawyer. The income rate of interest payable on an IOLTA Account cannot be less than the highest rate of interest or dividend generally available from the Eligible Institution financial institution to its non-IOLTA Account customers when the IOLTA Account meets or exceeds the same minimum balance and other account eligibility qualifications. Eligible Institutions Financial institutions remit income earned the interest at least quarterly to the IOLTA Board.

Eligible Institutions Financial institutions must transmit to the IOLTA Board and to the lawyer who maintains the IOLTA Account a statement showing certain information. This includes, at a minimum, the name of the account, the service charges or fees deducted, if any, and the amount remitted from the lawyer's IOLTA Account. If available, the Eligible Institution financial institution shall also provide information regarding the average daily balance in the account.

Where do IOLTA Funds go?

Income Interest earned on IOLTA Accounts may be used only for the following purposes:

- (1) delivery of civil legal assistance to the poor and disadvantaged in Pennsylvania by non-profit corporations which are tax-exempt under the Internal Revenue Code;
- (2) educational legal clinical programs and internships administered by law schools located in Pennsylvania;
- (3) the administration of justice in Pennsylvania; and
- (4) the administration and development of the IOLTA program in Pennsylvania.

All disbursements and allocations of IOLTA funds are subject to the prior approval of the Supreme Court of Pennsylvania.

Who is the IOLTA Board?

The IOLTA Board is the Pennsylvania Interest on Lawyers Trust Account Board composed of nine members appointed by the Supreme Court of Pennsylvania.

What if a lawyer mistakenly deposits funds which are not Qualified Funds into an IOLTA Account?

As long as the lawyer used good faith judgment, the lawyer will not be liable in damages for placing Nonqualified Funds into an IOLTA Account, nor will the lawyer be held to have breached any fiduciary duty or responsibility because monies were deposited into an IOLTA Account. Additionally, if timely requested, a refund of income earned on an IOLTA Account and IOLTA interest received by the IOLTA Board attributable to the mistaken deposit, net of an administrative charge, will be made to the lawyer for distribution to the Third Party Owner.

May all lawyers in a law firm use the same IOLTA Account?

Yes. If a law firm established an IOLTA Account, each lawyer who deposits all Qualified Funds in that account will be deemed to be in compliance with IOLTA. This account must be set up according to IOLTA regulations. However, each lawyer is ultimately responsible to ensure that he or she is in compliance with IOLTA.

Can a lawyer deposit Qualified Funds into a credit union or brokerage account?

Rule 1.15 Funds in IOLTA Accounts, if maintained at credit unions and brokerages, may not be insured. Since all IOLTA Accounts must be insured, only those approved financial institutions which issue IOLTA Accounts can be used as depositories for Qualified Funds. The owner of the Rule 1.15 Funds must qualify for membership in the credit union in order for the funds to be insured.

Where may a lawyer deposit Qualified Funds?

IOLTA Accounts must be maintained in an Eligible Institution. An Eligible Institution is a Financial Institution which has been approved as a depository for trust accounts pursuant to Rule 221(h) of the Pennsylvania Rules of Disciplinary Enforcement ("Pa.R.D.E."). Financial Institutions include those entities which are identified in Rule 1.15(a)(4) and Pa.R.D.E. 221(a)(2). Information regarding Eligible Institutions can be found at www.paiolta.org. Eligible Institutions have various deposit insurance arrangements, and some may not have deposit insurance for some deposit arrangements. Lawyers are reminded of their responsibility under Rule 1.15(b) to safeguard appropriately all funds and property in the lawyer's possession in connection with a client-lawyer relationship.

What if a lawyer only practices law for part of the year?

The lawyer must comply with the IOLTA rules, even if he or she only practices law for part of the year.

What types of legal employment are excluded from IOLTA?

A lawyer whose employment does not result in the handling of Rule 1.15 Funds funds of a client or third person will generally be excluded from IOLTA. Examples include corporate or governmental lawyers, judges, and law school professors as long as they do not maintain a private practice.

What are some factors which should be used to determine whether monies are Qualified Funds?

Factors which can be used to determine which monies are Qualified Funds include: (1) the cost to the lawyer of establishing and maintaining account(s) benefitting the client or third person; (2) the Eligible Institution's financial institution's service charges; (3) the minimum deposit requirements; (4) the accounting fees; (5) the tax reporting requirements; (6) the nature of the transaction(s) or proceedings(s) involved; and (7) the likelihood of delay in the relevant transaction(s) or proceeding(s).

Must a lawyer who receives funds while acting as a fiduciary deposit those funds into an IOLTA Account?

Rule 1.15, as amended on September 4, 2008, specifically includes funds received by a lawyer as a personal representative, guardian, conservator, receiver, trustee, agent under durable power of attorney, or other similar positions as Rule 1.15 Funds. As such, those funds, pursuant to Rule 1.15(b), must be maintained separate from the lawyer's own property. Pursuant to Rule 1.15(d), Fiduciary Funds continue to be governed by the law, procedure and rules governing the requirements of confidentiality and notice applicable to the fiduciary entrustment. Pursuant to the provisions of Rule 1.15(e), the delivery, accounting and disclosure of Fiduciary Funds continues to be governed by the law, procedure and rules governing the requirements of fiduciary administration, confidentiality, notice and accounting applicable to the fiduciary entrustment. If the Fiduciary Funds are Qualified Funds, they may be deposited in an IOLTA Account, or they may be maintained in another account consistent with the Fiduciary entrustment. Rule 1.15(d), as amended in April 2005, specifically excludes funds which the lawyer receives while acting as fiduciary for an estate, trust, guardianship or conservatorship. However, Comment 7 to the Rule, as amended in April, 2005, does state that funds received by a lawyer while serving as an executor or trustee, if nominal in amount or expected to be held for such a short period of time that sufficient interest will not be generated to justify maintaining a segregated account may, in the discretion of the lawyer, be deposited into an IOLTA Account, although such deposit is not required.

Must a lawyer who receives funds of clients or third persons other than in connection with a client-lawyer relationship deposit those funds in a Trust Account, including an IOLTA Account?

Under certain circumstances, yes. The responsibilities of a lawyer which are identified in Rule 1.15 with respect to funds of clients or third persons are not restricted to funds received in connection with a client-lawyer relationship. The lawyer's responsibilities with respect to such funds may arise under Rules of Professional Conduct 1.15, 5.7 or both.

As amended by Order of the Supreme Court of Pennsylvania dated September 4, 2008, the definition of Rule 1.15 Funds specifically includes funds which the lawyer receives from a client or third person as an escrow agent, settlement agent, representative payee, as an agent having been designated as such by a client, or having been selected as an agent as a result of a client-lawyer relationship or the lawyer's status as a lawyer. Those funds are subject to Rule 1.15 and must be kept separate from the lawyer's own property. Pursuant to Rule 1.15(k), all Nonqualified Funds which are not Fiduciary Funds shall be placed in a Non-IOLTA Account or in another investment vehicle specifically agreed upon by the lawyer and the Third Party Owner. Qualified Funds must be placed in an IOLTA Account.

Rule of Professional Conduct 5.7 provides that a lawyer is subject to the Pennsylvania Rules of Professional Conduct with respect to the provision of both legal and nonlegal services: (i) if a lawyer provides nonlegal services that are not distinct from legal services; Rule of Professional Conduct 5.7 (e) defines "nonlegal services" as "services that might reasonably be performed in conjunction with and in substance are related to the provision of legal services, and that are not prohibited as unauthorized practice of law when provided by a non lawyer." Even if the nonlegal services are distinct from legal services, the lawyer is still subject to the Rules of Professional Conduct: (i) (ii) if the lawyer provides nonlegal services that are distinct from legal services, but the lawyer knows or reasonably should know that the recipient of the services might believe that the recipient of the services is receiving the protection of a client-lawyer relationship, or (ii) (iii) if the lawyer is an owner, controlling party, employee, agent, or is otherwise affiliated with an entity providing nonlegal services and the lawyer knows or reasonably should know that the recipient of the service might believe that the recipient is receiving the protection of a client-lawyer relationship. In each of these three cases, the lawyer will be subject to the obligations of Rule 1.15 of the Pennsylvania Rules of Professional Conduct and these regulations as if a client-lawyer relationship existed with the recipient of the services. The lawyer then must deposit all funds of the client or a third person which are received in connection with that relationship in a Trust Account, regardless of whether the funds resulted from legal or nonlegal services. If the funds are Qualified Funds, those funds are to be placed in an IOLTA Account.

Who pays the service charges for IOLTA Accounts?

Account service charges on an IOLTA Account will be paid by offsetting the service charges against income interest earned on that account.

Bank charges pertaining to the lawyer's practice (e.g. check printing charges, overdraft charges, charges for temporary extensions of credit, etc.) and costs billable to others (e.g. overdraft charges on deposited items, certified checks, wire transfers, etc.), will be the responsibility of the lawyer.

Annex A

TITLE 204. JUDICIAL SYSTEM GENERAL PROVISIONS

PART V. PROFESSIONAL ETHICS AND CONDUCT

Subpart A. PROFESSIONAL RESPONSIBILITY

CHAPTER 81. RULES OF PROFESSIONAL CONDUCT

Subchapter B. RULES FOR INTEREST ON LAWYERS TRUST ACCOUNTS

Preamble: Statement of Purpose

Rule 1.15 of the Pennsylvania Rules of Professional Conduct ("Pa.R.P.C.") has, since the adoption of the Rules of Professional Conduct, required lawyers to segregate property of clients and third persons from the lawyer's own property, and by extension, not to profit by use of property belonging to clients or third persons. This provision of the Pa.R.P.C. for the protection of the client or third person, is designed to ensure the ethical conduct of lawyers, and may not be waived by the client or third person. Pa.R.P.C. 1.15 mandates the maintenance of IOLTA Accounts for certain funds received by a lawyer in connection with a client-lawyer relationship or as otherwise described in the definition of Rule 1.15 Funds. In addition, Pa.R.P.C. mandates the maintenance of Trust Accounts (including IOLTA Accounts for Qualified Funds) if, under Pa.R.P.C. 5.7, the lawyer is subject to the Pa.R.P.C. and the lawyer receives funds in connection with services (legal or nonlegal) to the recipient of those services. IOLTA generates income where formerly there was none; this income will aid the citizens of the Commonwealth of Pennsylvania by improving access to the civil legal system by those who otherwise could not afford legal representation, improving the legal educational system in Pennsylvania via funding for legal clinical programs and internships, and assisting in the general administration of justice in Pennsylvania.

(a) ~~Rule 1.15 Funds are funds received by a lawyer in a representative capacity from or on behalf of a Third Party Owner. Generally: Pa.R.P.C. 1.15 requires the lawyer to maintain Rule 1.15 Funds funds of a Third Party Owner separate from the lawyer's own property, and to identify and safeguard the Rule 1.15 Funds funds appropriately. A lawyer may not personally profit from Rule 1.15 Funds.~~

(b) ~~(i) Received in connection with a client-lawyer relationship: Rule 1.15 Funds are funds received in connection with a client-lawyer relationship.~~

(c) ~~(ii) Funds received while acting as a Fiduciary: Funds received by a lawyer while acting as a personal representative, guardian, conservator, receiver, trustee, agent under durable power of attorney, or other similar fiduciary position are Rule 1.15 Funds. Rule 1.15(l) requires all Fiduciary Funds to be placed in a Trust Account or in another investment or account which is authorized by the law applicable to the entrustment or the terms of the instrument governing the Fiduciary Funds. If the Fiduciary Funds are Qualified Funds and are deposited in a Trust Account, that account must be an IOLTA Account.~~

(i) ~~Pa.R.P.C. 1.15 clarifies that a Fiduciary is not required to liquidate Fiduciary Funds in order to transfer non-income producing fiduciary account balances to an IOLTA Account.~~

(ii) ~~Pa.R.P.C. 1.15 does not prohibit a Fiduciary from making an investment in accordance with applicable law or the instrument governing the Fiduciary Funds.~~

(iii) ~~Funds which are controlled by a non-lawyer professional co-fiduciary are not considered Rule 1.15 Funds.~~

(iv) ~~Fiduciary Funds may always be placed in an investment or account authorized by the law applicable to the entrustment or authorized by the terms of the instrument (be it a trust agreement, will or other instrument) governing the Fiduciary Funds. However, all Fiduciary Funds in the possession of a lawyer are subject to the obligations of safeguarding, notification and recordkeeping set forth in Pa.R.P.C. 1.15 Pa.R.P.C.1.15(d) specifically excludes from its application funds received by the lawyer while acting as fiduciary for an estate, trust, guardianship, or conservatorship. However, if these funds are nominal in amount or reasonably expected to be~~

~~held for such a short period that sufficient interest will not be generated to justify maintaining a segregated account, these funds may be deposited in an IOLTA Account.~~

(d) ~~Other Rule 1.15 Funds: Funds which the lawyer receives from a client or third person as an escrow agent, settlement agent or representative payee are Rule 1.15 Funds. Funds received by a lawyer from a client or third person as an agent are Rule 1.15 Funds, if the lawyer has been designated to receive the funds as a result of a client-lawyer relationship or the lawyer's status as a lawyer.~~

(e)(iii) ~~Received in connection with nonlegal services: Under Rule 5.7 of the Pennsylvania Rules of Professional Conduct, there are three situations involving the provision of nonlegal services by a lawyer which trigger the applicability of the Pennsylvania Rules of Professional Conduct. These situations will trigger applicability of Pa.R.P.C. 1.15, in addition to those situations specifically identified in Pa.R.P.C. 1.15 These include:~~

(iA) ~~if a lawyer provides nonlegal services that are not distinct from legal services,~~

(iiB) ~~if the lawyer provides nonlegal services that are distinct from legal services, but the lawyer knows or reasonably should know that the recipient of the services might believe that the recipient of the services is receiving the protection of a client-lawyer relationship, or and~~

(iiiC) ~~if the lawyer is a owner, controlling party, employee, agent, or is otherwise affiliated with an entity providing nonlegal services and the lawyer knows or reasonably should know that the recipient of the service might believe that the recipient is receiving the protection of a client-lawyer relationship.~~

~~In each of these three cases, the lawyer will be subject to the obligations of Pa.R.P.C. Rule 1.15 of the Pennsylvania Rules of Professional Conduct and these Regulations as if a client-lawyer relationship existed with the recipient of the services. If a lawyer receives funds in connection with a relationship described in any of these situations, the funds are Rule 1.15 Funds and must be deposited either in an IOLTA Account or in a Non-IOLTA Trust Account for the benefit of the Third Party Owner.~~

(f) ~~Factors which should be used to determine whether, under the tests of Pa.R.P.C. 5.7, the nonlegal services (and funds received in connection therewith) are subject to the Pa.R.P.C. include:~~

(i1) ~~whether funds received in connection with the nonlegal services are maintained completely separate from funds received in connection with legal services;~~

(ii2) ~~whether the lawyer has advised the Third Party Owner in clear, unambiguous terms that the lawyer is acting in a nonlegal capacity, and is not receiving funds in connection with a client-lawyer relationship;~~

(iii3) ~~whether the Third Party Owner can reasonably expect to have the protection of the client-lawyer relationship cover the entire matter;~~

(iv4) ~~whether the lawyer performs both legal and nonlegal services from the same office; and~~

(v5) ~~whether the lawyer uses different letterhead in connection with legal and nonlegal services.~~

(iv) ~~Certain funds handled routinely by a lawyer may not be Rule 1.15 Funds. Rule 1.15 Funds are received by the lawyer in connection with a client-lawyer relationship. Rule 1.15 Funds are also funds received by the lawyer in connection with the provision of nonlegal~~ services under any of the circumstances described in Section 81.104(a)(iii) of these Regulations. These Rule 1.15 Funds must be deposited in an IOLTA Account or a Trust Account for the benefit of the Third Party Owner.

For example, if the lawyer as an agent for a title insurance company handles title insurance and real estate matters in connection with a client-lawyer relationship, or if the provision of title insurance and other services in connection with the real estate matter is not distinct from legal services provided to that recipient, or if the lawyer knows or has reason to know that the recipient of the services believes the relationship to be that of client-lawyer, funds received by the lawyer in connection with the relationship are Rule 1.15 Funds and must be placed in a Trust Account. If the Rule 1.15 Funds are Qualified Funds, the funds must be deposited in an IOLTA Account. The lawyer as title insurance agent may be required to maintain a separate settlement account for each underwriter to process funds handled by that lawyer in connection with acting as a title insurance agent. If the funds deposited in the settlement account are Qualified Funds, each settlement account must be an IOLTA Account.

(b) Subaccounting refers to a process whereby Nonqualified Funds are segregated by the lawyer or the lawyer's financial institution by Third Party Owner, and interest on each subaccount is separately calculated, reported, and paid to the Third Party Owner. Subaccounting attributes all of the interest earned on the Rule 1.15 Funds to the Third Party Owner.

(i) Nothing in these regulations shall be construed to prohibit a lawyer from maintaining and administering a separate subaccount for each Third Party Owner from whom Rule 1.15 Funds are received.

(ii) A lawyer who directly maintains a subaccounting system for Rule 1.15 Funds must comply not only with Pa.R.P.C. regarding such funds, but must also comply with applicable laws and regulations of the United States and of the Internal Revenue Service in particular.

(iii) Nothing in these regulations shall be construed to prohibit a lawyer from delegating to a financial institution the responsibility for maintaining and administering a separate subaccount for each Third Party Owner from whom the lawyer receives Rule 1.15 Funds.

(g) Qualified Funds: The lawyer should apply an economic benefits test to determine whether Rule 1.15 Funds are Qualified Funds. Rule 1.15 Funds are not Qualified Funds if the lawyer will hold the funds for such a length of time, or if the Rule 1.15 Funds are of sufficient amount that the income interest generated on the funds will exceed the cost of earning and conveying the income interest to Third Party Owner.

(i) Law firm compliance v. lawyer responsibility: A lawyer who is an employee or member of a law firm that maintains an IOLTA Account is presumed to be in compliance with IOLTA regulations when the lawyer uses only the law firm approved IOLTA Account for the deposit of all Qualified Funds entrusted to him or her. However, the lawyer is ultimately responsible to assure that he or she is in compliance with Pa.R.P.C. 1.15 and these regulations.

(ii) Good faith judgment: A lawyer must use good faith judgment in determining whether Rule 1.15 Funds are Qualified Funds. A lawyer will not be liable for damages or be held to have breached a fiduciary duty or responsibility because the lawyer deposited funds into an IOLTA

Account pursuant to the lawyer's judgment in good faith that the funds were Qualified Funds.

(iii) Nominal Rule 1.15 Funds: Funds that when considered alone are not large enough to earn net income interest for the Third Party Owner thereof are Qualified Funds.

(iv) Funds held for a short time: Funds which are not expected to be held for sufficient time to provide net income interest for the Third Party Owner are Qualified Funds.

(v) Factors which should be used to determine whether funds can reasonably be expected to generate net income interest for the Third Party Owner include:

(1) the cost to the lawyer of establishing and maintaining account(s) benefitting Third Party Owners;

(2) the account and service charges of the Eligible Institution financial institution in which the account is maintained;

(3) the minimum deposit requirements of the Eligible Institution financial institution in which the account is maintained;

(4) accounting fees likely to be incurred by the lawyer in connection with the funds;

(5) the lawyer's anticipated tax reporting requirement costs incurred in connection with the funds;

(6) the nature of the transaction(s) or proceeding(s) involved; and

(7) the likelihood of delay in the relevant transaction(s) or proceeding(s).

(hd) Examples of Rule 1.15 Funds, and Qualified Funds and Nonqualified Funds:

(i) Fiduciary Funds Estates, trusts, guardianships, etc.: Funds held by a lawyer as a personal representative, trustee, guardian, attorney-in-fact or the like are specifically included in excluded from the definition of Rule 1.15 Funds. However, if these funds are nominal in amount or reasonably expected to be held for such a short period that sufficient income interest will not be generated to justify the expense of earning income interest for the client or third person, these funds may be deposited in an IOLTA Account. If Fiduciary Funds are Qualified Funds and are deposited in a Trust Account, that account must be an IOLTA Account.

(ii) Conveying accounts/real estate closings: Funds generated from real estate closings will be Qualified are Rule 1.15 Funds, if the lawyer receives the funds in connection with a client-lawyer relationship or if Pa.R.P.C. 5.7 (a), (b), or (c) apply. Generally, these funds will be Qualified Funds, as they are held for a short period of time and are not expected to provide income interest for the Third Party Owner.

(iii) Advanced costs, fees, and refundable retainer accounts: Such advances are Rule 1.15 Funds. They are also Qualified Funds when they are nominal or held for a short period of time, and will remain Qualified Funds until earned/expended by the lawyer and thereby removed from the IOLTA Account.

(iv) Proceeds from dispute settlements/lawsuits: Generally Settlement funds are Rule 1.15 Funds. Such funds are also Qualified Funds if the settlement proceeds are nominal in amount or held for a short period of time. If settlement proceeds are not Qualified Nonqualified

Funds, they must be placed in a Trust Account or other investment vehicle specifically agreed upon by the lawyer and the Third Party Owner.

Section 81.105: Eligible Institutions Approved Financial Institutions

(a) The Supreme Court of Pennsylvania approves Financial Institutions in which a lawyer may maintain a Trust Account. Financial Institutions which are approved as depositories of Trust Accounts are Eligible Institutions. ~~A This list of Eligible Institutions approved financial institutions is published from time to time pursuant to Pa.R.D.E. 221.~~

(b) In order to be approved as an Eligible Institution, the Financial Institution must comply not only with applicable provisions of Pa.R.P.C. 1.15, but also Pa.R.D.E. 221.

(c) All lawyers must deposit Rule 1.15 Funds which are not Qualified Funds in a Trust Account with an Eligible Institution approved financial institution, unless an agreement exists between the Third Party Owner and the lawyer to use another investment vehicle. However, if the funds are Fiduciary Funds they may be maintained in an investment or account which is authorized by the law applicable to the entrustment or the terms of the instrument governing the Fiduciary Funds.

(d) All lawyers must deposit Rule 1.15 Funds which are Qualified Funds in an IOLTA Account with an Eligible Institution approved financial institution. Moreover, each financial institution must send a report to the lawyer showing the interest and account service charges concerning the IOLTA Account. The financial institution must report this same information to the IOLTA Board, and must also report the average daily balance in the account during the remittance period, if that information is available. However, if the funds are Fiduciary Funds, they may be maintained in an investment or account which is authorized by the law applicable to the entrustment or the terms of the instrument governing the Fiduciary Funds.

(e) Acceptable account title: The lawyer must specifically identify an IOLTA account with the words "IOLTA Trust Account" or "IOLTA Escrow Account" and the name of the lawyer or the law firm who maintains the account in the main title of the account.

(f) Acceptable title on checks/deposit slips: The word "IOLTA" need not be placed on checks or deposit slips.

(g) Provision of Information. The Eligible Institution must provide the following information to the IOLTA Board and to the lawyer who maintains the IOLTA Account at the time of each remittance:

- (i) The name of the account;
- (ii) The service charges or fees deducted, if any;
- (iii) The amount of income remitted from the account;
- (iv) The rate of income applicable to each account; and
- (v) If available, the average daily balance in the IOLTA Account.

(f) Credit unions: IOLTA Accounts maintained in credit unions may not be insured. IOLTA Accounts must not be established in a credit union unless only Rule 1.15 Funds of owners who are or are eligible to be members of the credit union are deposited into the account.

Section 81.106: Income Interest on IOLTA Accounts

(a) The rate of interest or dividend paid on IOLTA Accounts shall be not less than the highest rate of interest or dividend generally available from the Eligible Institution ~~financial institution to non-IOLTA customers when the IOLTA Account meets depositors generally for accounts with the same minimum balance or other eligibility qualifications and other account eligibility requirements.~~

(b) An Eligible Institution ~~A financial institution~~ shall be deemed to have satisfied the requirements of subsection (a) of this regulation only if the Eligible Institution is in compliance with Comparability Guidance published by the IOLTA Board from time to time. ~~rate of interest offered by the financial institution on IOLTA Accounts is not less than the rate of interest identified from time to time by the Board as the "safe harbor" rate in the Board's "Guidelines for Financial Institutions".~~

(c) Each Eligible Institution shall file with the IOLTA Board a Compliance Certification Form, certifying compliance with Comparability Guidance in effect from time to time. The Eligible Institution shall be responsible for filing a new Compliance Certification Form when information previously provided to the IOLTA Board becomes inaccurate. ~~Under no circumstances may the rate of interest payable on an IOLTA Account be less than the rate paid by the depository institution on negotiable order of withdrawal accounts or super negotiable order of withdrawal accounts.~~

(d) Remittance of income interest: ~~All~~Any income interest earned under the IOLTA program must be remitted to the IOLTA Board at least every quarter. The following information must be provided to the Board and to the lawyer who maintains the IOLTA Account at the time of each remittance:

- (i) The name of the account;
- (ii) The service charges or fees deducted, if any;
- (iii) The amount of interest remitted from the account; and
- (iv) If available, the average daily balance in the IOLTA Account.

Section 81.107: Service Charges on IOLTA Accounts

(a) Eligible Institutions ~~Financial institutions~~ may impose reasonable service charges for the administration of IOLTA Accounts. An Eligible Institution ~~A financial institution~~ may not deduct service charges from the principal balance in an IOLTA Account. Reasonable service charges, as well as regular account maintenance fees and transaction charges, can be deducted against the total amount of income interest to be paid on the IOLTA Account to which the service charges apply.

(b) All costs associated with check printing, overdraft charges, charges for a temporary extension of credit and similar bank charges shall not be assessed against the principal balance in or income interest earned or ~~on any~~ accrued income interest earned on an IOLTA Account. The lawyer maintaining the account shall be responsible for these costs.

(c) Costs for services such as overdrafts on deposited items, stopped payments, certified checks, and wire transfers at the request of the lawyer or a Third Party Owner ~~beneficial owner~~ shall not be assessed against principal balance in or income interest earned on an IOLTA Account. The lawyer or the Third Party Owner ~~beneficial owner~~ shall be responsible for these costs.

(d) Charges imposed by an Eligible Institution to file reports required by Pa.R.D.E. 221(m) shall be paid by the lawyer maintaining the Trust Account.

(e) As a general rule, a lawyer may not co-mingle the lawyer's own funds with Rule 1.15 Funds. However, the lawyer may deposit funds in an IOLTA Account in order to cover costs which may not be charged to the income or principal held in the IOLTA Account. The lawyer must maintain accurate records regarding those funds.

Section 81.108 Subaccounting and Recordkeeping

(a) Subaccounting refers to a process whereby the lawyer or the lawyer's Eligible Institution segregates Nonqualified Funds by Third Party Owner, and income on each subaccount is separately calculated, reported, and paid to the Third Party Owner. Subaccounting attributes all of the income earned on the Rule 1.15 Funds while in a Trust Account to the Third Party Owner.

(i) Nothing in these regulations shall be construed to prohibit a lawyer from maintaining and administering a separate subaccount for each Third Party Owner from whom Rule 1.15 Funds are received.

(ii) A lawyer who directly maintains a subaccounting system for Rule 1.15 Funds must comply not only with Pa.R.P.C. regarding such funds, but must also comply with applicable laws and regulations of the United States and of the Internal Revenue Service in particular.

(iii) Nothing in these regulations shall be construed to prohibit a lawyer from delegating to an Eligible Institution the responsibility for maintaining and administering a separate subaccount for each Third Party Owner from whom the lawyer receives Rule 1.15 Funds.

Section 81.1098: Exclusion and Exemptions from IOLTA Participation

(a) ~~Certain lawyers, because of their employment, are excluded from Pa.R.P.C. 1.15 (g).~~ A lawyer who does not receive Rule 1.15 Funds is excluded from IOLTA. Examples include lawyers employed full time in a corporate capacity, by local, state or federal government, as a law clerk, professor, or as a member of the judiciary. A lawyer who does not have an office in Pennsylvania, does not receive Rule 1.15 Funds in a representative capacity from Third Party Owners in the Commonwealth, and who is not otherwise required to maintain Rule 1.15 Funds in a Trust Account in the Commonwealth is not subject to IOLTA excluded from Pa.R.P.C. 1.15(g). A lawyer who is retired or no longer practices law need not maintain an IOLTA Account.

(b) Pa.R.P.C. 1.15(nh) permits limited exemptions from the requirement that all Qualified Funds must be maintained in an IOLTA Account. No exemption is automatic, although exemptions will be routinely granted under specified circumstances. The IOLTA Board may declare a lawyer exempt from the requirement of maintaining an IOLTA Account; alternatively, a lawyer may submit a written request for exemption.

(c) Nonqualified Funds are to be deposited in a Non-IOLTA Trust Account or in another investment vehicle specifically agreed upon by the lawyer and Third Party Owner, and the IOLTA Board is without power to grant an exemption from this requirement. If a lawyer is exempt from the requirement of maintaining an IOLTA Account, the lawyer must still deposit Qualified Funds in a Non-IOLTA Trust Account or in another investment vehicle specifically agreed upon by the lawyer and the Third Party Owner. Fiduciary Funds remain subject to the provisions of Pa.R.P.C. 1.15(l) and Section 81.104(c).

(d) Under the following circumstances, the IOLTA Board will routinely grant an exemption from the requirement that a lawyer maintains all Qualified Funds in an IOLTA Account:

(i) Low balance account: Any Trust Account which historically, generally based upon 12 consecutive months of activity, has an average daily balance of $5,000 ~~Three Thousand Five Hundred ($3,500) Dollars or less~~ (or such other amount as the IOLTA Board announces from time to time) will be exempt from being an IOLTA Account. The IOLTA Board may exempt from IOLTA, without application, a low balance account. A lawyer requesting an exemption based on a low balance account must, as a part of the written request for exemption, include an account analysis or written statement that demonstrates the amount of the average daily balance.

(ii) Account service charges routinely exceed income interest: Some Trust Accounts may have an average daily balance of more than $5,000 ~~$3,500~~, but because of the account service charges or the interest or dividend rates of the Eligible Institution financial institution, the charges would routinely exceed income interest earned on the Trust Account. In these cases, an exemption may be requested. A lawyer requesting an exemption based on these circumstances must, as part of the written request for exemption, include an account analysis or written statement that clearly shows the income interest earned, or the income interest that would have been earned, on the account each month for the past 12 months, plus the account service charges imposed on the account for each of the last 12 months.

(iii) Extreme impracticality or undue hardship: Under limited circumstances it would be unduly burdensome for a lawyer to maintain a Trust Account as an IOLTA Account. When claiming extreme impracticality or undue hardship, the lawyer should provide appropriate details demonstrating undue hardship. An example includes the lack of an Eligible Institution approved financial institution that offers IOLTA Accounts in the lawyer's geographical location.

(iv) Other compelling and necessitous reasons: There may be compelling and necessitous reasons justifying an exemption from the requirement that the lawyer maintain a Trust Account as an IOLTA Account. A lawyer who demonstrates a compelling and necessitous reason for not complying with IOLTA may request an exemption. A philosophical objection to IOLTA does not constitute a compelling and necessitous reason for an exemption.

(e) An exemption from the requirement that a lawyer shall maintain Qualified Funds in an IOLTA Account will remain in effect until the first to occur of:

(i) Three (3) years from the date that the exemption was granted; or

(ii) A change in the circumstances that formed the basis for the exemption, such that under Pa.R.P.C. 1.15 and these regulations the lawyer must deposit Qualified Funds in an IOLTA Account.

(f) A lawyer to whom an exemption has been granted and who desires to maintain the exemption must reapply for an exemption within six (6) months prior to the expiration of the exemption.

(g) A lawyer who has been granted an exemption and who has experienced a change in circumstances as described in Section 81.109(e)(ii) shall notify the IOLTA Board of that fact promptly and shall comply with the requirement that Qualified Funds be maintained in an IOLTA Account.

(he) Income Interest waived by a Third Party Owner: An exemption from the requirement that a Trust Account be maintained as an IOLTA Account will not be granted based on an agreement between a lawyer and Third Party Owner purportedly waiving the Third Party Owner's right to income interest or granting the lawyer the power to direct income interest earned on Rule 1.15 Funds to the lawyer or to another person of the lawyer's choice.

Section 81.1109: Requests for Exemptions and Reconsideration

(a) If the IOLTA Board denies a lawyer's request for an exemption from maintenance of an IOLTA Account, the lawyer may, within 30 days of written notice of denial from the IOLTA Board, request in writing a reconsideration of the IOLTA Board's decision. All requests for reconsideration shall set forth in detail additional facts, if any, not brought before the IOLTA Board in the request for exemption, as well as the reasons, if any, why an exemption should be granted.

(b) If the IOLTA Board has determined that a lawyer is exempt from the requirement of maintaining an IOLTA Account, the lawyer may, within 30 days of written notice from the IOLTA Board that the lawyer is exempt, request in writing a reconsideration of the IOLTA Board's decision. All requests for reconsideration shall set forth in detail facts, if any, why the lawyer should maintain an IOLTA Account, and the manner, if any, in which the ~~Board and the~~ purposes of the IOLTA program will be furthered by the lawyer's maintenance of an IOLTA Account.

(c) Notice shall be deemed to have been given to a lawyer under the provisions of subsections (a) and (b) of this Section 81.1109 upon the deposit by the IOLTA Board, postage prepaid, with the United States Postal Service of its written determination regarding the exemption, if any, of the lawyer from IOLTA.

(d) The IOLTA Board may delegate to its staff or to a committee of the IOLTA Board the authority to determine exemptions from IOLTA or to reconsider exemption denials or determinations.

Section 81.1110: Annual Certification of Compliance with Pa.R.P.C. 1.15

On or before July 1 of each year, each lawyer who is required by Pa.R.D.E. 219 to pay an annual fee must also file with the Administrative Office a signed statement on the prescribed form stating his or her familiarity and compliance with Pa.R.P.C. 1.15 in regards to handling funds, maintaining IOLTA Accounts and Pa.R.D.E. 221. Each lawyer is directed to Pa.R.D.E. 219(d).

Section 81.1121: Refunds

(a) The IOLTA Board may return income interest paid to the IOLTA Board under certain circumstances. If a lawyer mistakenly places Nonqualified Funds in an IOLTA Account, or if the lawyer reasonably believed that Rule 1.15 Funds were Qualified Funds, but the Rule 1.15 Funds were in fact not Qualified Funds, then the lawyer may apply for a refund of income interest paid to IOLTA.

(b) The following guidelines apply to applications for return of income interest:

(i) The lawyer must make the application in writing on firm letterhead.

(ii) The application must be accompanied by verification from the Eligible Institution ~~financial institution~~ in which the IOLTA Account is maintained of the income interest earned on the Rule 1.15 Funds for which a refund is sought. As needed for auditing purposes, the IOLTA Board may request additional documentation.

(iii) The application must be received by the IOLTA Board within six months after the Rule 1.15 Funds have been disbursed from the IOLTA Account.

(iv) The refund will be remitted to the lawyer for his/her distribution to the Third Party Owner. The IOLTA Board will issue an IRS (Internal Revenue Service) form 1099 to the lawyer who, in turn, is responsible for issuing an IRS form 1099 to the Third Party Owner.

(v) If the Eligible Institution ~~financial institution~~ has imposed a service charge with respect to the deposit, only the net amount of income interest paid to the IOLTA Board (reduced by applicable service charges) will be refunded.

(vi) The IOLTA Board ~~program~~ may deduct a processing charge from the refund.

Section 81.1131: Violations

(a) The IOLTA Board will refer to the Office of Disciplinary Counsel the name, address and circumstances surrounding any lawyer who, not being exempted from the maintenance of an IOLTA Account, fails or refuses to comply with the IOLTA provisions of Pa.R.P.C. 1.15 and these regulations.

(b) The IOLTA Board may reconsider its determination of IOLTA compliance based upon information obtained by the Office of Disciplinary Counsel during its investigation of a referral from the IOLTA Board for non-compliance.
