

PART II. GENERAL RULES OF ADMINISTRATIVE PRACTICE AND PROCEDURE

Chap.		Sec.
31.	PRELIMINARY PROVISIONS	31.1
33.	DOCUMENTARY FILINGS	33.1
35.	FORMAL PROCEEDINGS	35.1

Authority

The provisions of this Part II issued under section 506 of The Administrative Code of 1929 (71 P.S. § 186); section 35 of the Administrative Agency Law (71 P.S. § 1710.35) (Repealed); and 45 Pa.C.S. §§ 503, 701 and 723, unless otherwise noted.

Source

The provisions of this Part II adopted by JCD Order No. 9, dated April 20, 1971, 1 Pa.B. 1179, unless otherwise noted.

Notes of Decisions

Application

When the Department of State takes disciplinary action against a veterinarian’s license by issuing an order to show cause, the procedure that it follows is governed by the Administrative Agency Law and the General Rules of Administrative Practice and Procedure. The General Rules of Administrative Practice and Procedure permit the State Board of Veterinary Medicine (Board) to preside over a disciplinary hearing or to designate a presiding officer to hold the hearing and to issue a proposed report for the Board’s review. The ultimate decision on what, if any, action to take lies with the Board; the Board may hold an additional hearing, make new findings of fact, alter the sanctions recommended, reject the proposed report in its entirety or adopt the hearing examiner’s proposed report and order without alteration. There is no requirement that the Board provide a licensed veterinarian with a hearing in which the licensed veterinarian may directly address the full Board prior to the imposition of sanctions. Hammad v. Bureau of Prof’l & Occupational Affairs, State Bd. of Veterinary Med., 124 A.3d 374 (Pa. Cmwlth. 2015); appeal denied 131 A.3d 493 (Pa. 2016).

The rules for appeals before the Environmental Hearing Board are found in 25 Pa. Code Chapter 1021. The Board is not a Rules of Civil Procedure venue and although pleadings may be liberally amended under the Rules of Civil Procedure, that is not the case for Notices of Appeal before the Board. United Refining Co. v. Department of Environmental Protection, 1995 EHB 1264.

Since the Department of Public Welfare did not promulgate an express regulation either permitting or prohibiting extension of time, for good cause shown, to file a final cost report, reference to the general rules of administrative practice and procedure should have been made. Department of Public Welfare v. Overlook Medical Clinic, Inc., 544 A.2d 935 (Pa. Cmwlth. 1988).

When an agency has not adopted its own regulations, its practice and procedures are governed by the General Rules of Administrative Practice and Procedure. Celane v. Insurance Commissioner, 415 A.2d 130 (Pa. Cmwlth. 1980).

Because the Securities Commission had not adopted its own regulations, its practice and procedure was governed by the General Rules. Pioneer Finance Co. v. Securities Commission, 332 A.2d 565 (Pa. Cmwlth. 1975).

Construction; Overlapping Agencies

In a proceeding involving a subject over which two licensing boards have overlapping jurisdiction, even though one board interprets the other’s act in a manner inconsistent with other board, the interpretation will be given deference so long as it is consistent with the legislative intent of the General Assembly. Younkin v. State Real Estate Commission, 774 A.2d 1281 (Pa. Cmwlth. 2001).

Hearings

The insurance broker was not entitled to a hearing, before the Insurance Commission denied its licenses to represent new insurance carriers for lack of worthiness. The same broker was not entitled to a hearing before the Insurance Department placed a “hold” on the licensee’s application, as there was no property right in the licenses and such “hold” was determined not to be a final order or determination, however, once the Department’s investigation into the licensee application was completed, it would have a nondiscretionary duty to issue a decision. Stone and Edwards Ins. Agency, Inc. v. Insurance Department, 636 A.2d 293 (Pa. Cmwlth. 1994).

It is too plain for argument that due process requires an express and unequivocal notice in order for a hearing to be meaningful. R.P. v. Department of Public Welfare, 820 A.2d 882, 888 (Pa. Cmwlth. 2003).

Parties

Class actions are unnecessary in the administrative setting and unauthorized by the applicable law, since the General Rules of Practice and Procedure deal with the problem of similarly situated parties and no evidence indicates that the mechanisms provided therein are inadequate. Sullivan v. Insurance Department, 408 A.2d 1174 (Pa. Cmwlth. 1979).

Neither party status nor traditional aggrievement is necessary to challenge actions of an administrative agency; standing to appeal administrative decisions extends to persons, including nonparties, who have a direct interest in the subject matter, as distinguished from a direct, immediate, and substantial interest. Gambling Subsidies v. Gaming Control Board, 916 A.2d 624, 628 (Pa. 2007).

Prosecution

The agency's "walls of division" were adequately separated to avoid the commingling of any prosecutorial and adjudicatory functions in that the Insurance Commission delegated all prosecutorial functions to the Deputy Commissioner-Enforcement who, in implementing the Uniform Insurance Practice Act, had no interaction with the office of the Commission nor the office of the Administrative Hearings. Stone and Edwards Ins. Agency, Inc. v. Insurance Department, 636 A.2d 293 (Pa. Cmwlth. 1994).

Substantial Evidence

In a proceeding before a licensing board, "substantial evidence" is defined as such relevant evidence that a reasonable mind might accept as adequate to support a conclusion. Younkin v. State Real Estate Commission, 774 A.2d 1281 (Pa. Cmwlth. 2001).

Notes of Decisions

Applicability

The Board's regulation at 37 Pa. Code § 73.1(a)(4) concerns second or subsequent appeals, and, therefore, is not inconsistent with the General Rules of Administrative Practice and Procedure at 1 Pa. Code § 35.241, which governs requests for reconsideration. Petitioner's request for reconsideration was under § 35.241 and was not barred. Shaw v. Board of Probation and Parole, 812 A.2d 769 (Pa. Cmwlth. 2002).

Prosecution

Since the State Board of Nursing initiated prosecution against the licensed practical nurse by having authorized its prosecutors to take formal action against the nurse, the Board appropriately delegated the hearing of the matter to a hearing examiner. Stephens v. State Board of Nursing, 657 A.2d 71 (Pa. Cmwlth. 1995), appeal denied, 664 A.2d 978 (Pa. 1995).

Notes of Decisions

Regardless of the provision for liberality of construction of the rules of practice and procedure and provisions regarding inconsistency, the provisions of 1 Pa. Code § 31.11 explicitly provide that the date of filing is the date of receipt of the documents and not the mailing date. Skyvue Terrace, Inc. v. Department of Public Welfare, 482 A.2d 58 (Pa. § 31.3. Definitions.

The following words and terms, when used in this part, have the following meanings, unless the context clearly indicates otherwise:

Adjudication—An order, decree, decision, determination or ruling by an agency affecting personal or property rights, privileges, immunities, duties, liabilities or obligations of the parties to the proceeding in which the adjudication is made.

Agency—A department, departmental administration board or commission, officer, independent board or commission, authority or other agency of the Commonwealth now in existence or hereafter created, including—to the extent that it is an administrative agency within the meaning of PA. CONT. art. V, § 9—the Governor’s Office, but not including the Senate or House of Representatives of this Commonwealth or a court, political subdivision, municipal or other local authority, or an officer or agency of a court, political subdivision or local authority.

Agency head—The secretary of a department, a quorum of an authority or departmental administrative board or commission or independent board or commission, or another officer or group of officers whose action with respect to a matter pending before the agency exhausts opportunity for administrative review within the agency and constitutes the action of the administrative agency for the purposes of PA. CONT. art. V, § 9.

Applicants—In proceedings involving applications for permission or authorization which the agency may give under statutory or other authority delegated to it, the parties on whose behalf the applications are made.

Complainants—Persons who complain to the agency of an agency regulation or general order or anything done or omitted to be done in violation of the provisions of a statute or other delegated authority administered by the agency, or any orders, rules or regulations issued thereunder, or another alleged wrong over which the agency may have jurisdiction.

Formal record—The filings and submittals in a matter or proceeding, a notice or agency order initiating the matter or proceeding, and if a hearing is held, the following: the designation of the presiding officer, transcript of hearing, exhibits received in evidence, exhibits offered but not received in evidence, offers of proof, motions, stipulations, subpoenas, proofs of service, references to the agency head and determinations made by the agency head thereon, certifications to the agency head and anything else upon which action of the presiding officer or the agency head may be based; but not including a proposed testimony or exhibits not offered or received in evidence.

Interveners—Persons intervening or petitioning to intervene as provided by §§ 35.27—35.31, when admitted as a participant to a proceeding. Admission as an intervener may not be construed as recognition by the agency that the intervener has a direct interest in the proceeding or might be aggrieved by an order of the agency in the proceeding.

Issue—Includes to prescribe or promulgate.

Matter or proceeding—The elucidation of the relevant facts and applicable law, consideration thereof and action thereupon by the agency with respect to a particular subject within the jurisdiction of the agency, initiated by a filing or submittal or an agency notice or order.

Notarial officer—An officer authorized under § 35.148 (relating to officer before whom deposition is taken) to take depositions for use before an agency.

Office of the agency—The office of the secretary of the agency if the agency is a board, commission or authority; otherwise the office of the agency head.

Participant—A party, another person admitted by the agency to limited participation in a proceeding and staff counsel.

Petitioners—Persons seeking relief, not otherwise designated in this section.

Pleading—An application, complaint, petition, answer, protest, reply or other similar document filed in an adjudicatory proceeding.

Presiding officer—A member of the agency, or one or more trial examiners appointed according to law and designated, to preside at hearings or conferences, or other officers specially provided for and designated under statute to conduct specified classes of proceedings, but not including the agency head when sitting as such.

Proof of service—A certificate of service complying with § 33.36 (relating to form of certificate of service).

Proposed report—The written statement of the issues, the facts and the findings that a subordinate officer proposes the agency should make, with the reasons therefor, whether or not including a recommended order.

Protestants—Persons objecting on the ground of private or public interest to the approval of an application, petition, motion or other matter which the agency may have under consideration. Protestants desiring to become interveners in a proceeding before the agency shall file a petition for intervention as provided by §§ 35.27—35.31.

Regulation—Any provision of the Pennsylvania Code.

Respondents—Persons subject to a statute or other delegated authority administered by the agency, to whom an order or notice is issued by the agency instituting a proceeding or investigation on its own initiative or otherwise.

Rules—The provisions of this part.

Staff counsel—The counsel of the agency participating in a proceeding before the agency.

Submittal—An application, amendment, exhibit or other similar document filed in an ex parte or other nonadversary proceeding.

Subordinate officer—A presiding officer or other officer or employe of the agency, but not including the agency head.

Notes of Decisions

Although petitioners who sought a declaratory judgment of a resolution of the CAT Fund Board were not required to exhaust remedies before the Insurance Commissioner under the Financial Responsibility Law, 75 Pa.C.S. §§ 1761—1769, they were required to follow the General Rules of Administrative Practice Procedures since the CAT Fund is a Commonwealth Agency. Harleysville Mutual Insurance Co. v. Catastrophic Loss Trust Fund, 515 A.2d 1039 (Pa. Cmwlth. 1986).

An administrative agency has exclusive jurisdiction when the General Assembly has given it the power to adjudicate on a particular subject matter. Sunrise Energy, LLC v. FirstEnergy Corp., 148 A.3d 894 (Pa. Cmwlth. 2016).

§ 31.5. Communications and filings generally.

(a) Communications, submittals and pleadings should be addressed to the agency at the office of the agency unless otherwise specifically directed. Communication and filings should clearly designate the file number, docket number or similar identifying symbols, if any, employed by the agency, and should set forth a short title. The person communicating shall state his address, the party he represents and how response should be sent to him if not by first class mail.

(b) Submittals and pleadings, including documents filed under Chapter 35 (relating to formal proceedings) shall comply with Chapter 33 (relating to documentary filings) and the applicable provisions of this chapter.

(c) In a proceeding when upon inspection the agency is of the opinion that a submittal or pleading tendered for filing does not comply with this part and any applicable regulations of the agency or, if it is an application or similar document, does not sufficiently set forth required material or is otherwise insufficient, the agency may decline to accept the document for filing and may return it unfiled, or the agency may accept it for filing and advise the person tendering it of the deficiency and require that the deficiency be corrected.

(d) The agency may order any redundant, immaterial, impertinent or scandalous matter stricken from a document filed with it.

Subchapter B. TIME

- Sec.
- 31.11. Timely filing required.
 - 31.12. Computation of time.
 - 31.13. Issuance of agency orders.
 - 31.14. Effective dates of agency orders.
 - 31.15. Extensions of time.

§ 31.11. Timely filing required.

Pleadings, submittals or other documents required or permitted to be filed under this part, the regulations of the agency or any other provision of law shall be received for filing at the office of the agency within the time limits, if any, for the filing. The date of receipt at the office of the agency and not the date of deposit in the mails is determinative.

Notes of Decisions

Computation of Appeal

Petition for reconsideration of an O.H.A. order revoking the petitioner's personal care home license, which was received 2 days subsequent to date of the 15 day appeal period, was untimely as the date upon which the Department of Public Welfare received the petition and not the post-marked date was the controlling date for the appeal time computation. Colonial Manor Personal Care Boarding Home v. Department of Public Welfare, 551 A.2d 347 (Pa. Cmwlth. 1988); appeal denied 574 A.2d 72 (Pa. 1990).

Untimely Filing

An automobile dealer's protest to a decision of the manufacturer to locate a competitor within the dealer's market area which was received by the agency beyond the 20 day appeal period was untimely, notwithstanding the fact it was mailed on the 20th day, because a document is deemed filed when it is received by the agency. Bianchi Subaru v. State Board of Vehicle Manufacturers, Dealers and Salespersons, 548 A.2d 708 (Pa. Cmwlth. 1988).

Timeliness

Teacher was ineligible for enhanced benefits in the Public School Employee's Retirement System because he failed to make required election by deadline; this section requires that the time of filing any document is the date it was received by the Board, not the date it was mailed. Harasty v. Public Sch. Employees' Ret. Bd., 945 A.2d 783, 787, 788 (Pa. Cmwlth. 2008).

Because the case is otherwise easily disposed of on the merits, the court declined to consider application of the "prisoner mailbox rule" where the appeal was received 33 days after the date of mailing of the order from which the appeal was taken. Price v. Board of Probation and Parole, 781 A.2d 212 (Pa. Cmwlth. 2001).

Code § 702.11 (relating to filing); and 61 Pa. Code § 703.2 (relating to petition content).

§ 31.12. Computation of time.

Except as otherwise provided by law, in computing a period of time prescribed or allowed by this part or by the regulations of the agency or another provision of law, the day of the act, event or default after which the designated period of time begins to run may not be included. The last day of the period so computed shall be included, unless it is Saturday, Sunday or a legal holiday in this Commonwealth, in which event the period shall run until the end of the next day which is neither a Saturday, Sunday nor a holiday. A part-day holiday shall be considered as other days and not as a holiday. Intermediate Saturdays, Sundays and holidays shall be included in the computation.

Notes of Decisions*Computation of Appeal*

When the last day of an appeal period is a Saturday, the period is extended to the next Monday. Pioneer Finance Co. v. Securities Commission, 332 A.2d 565 (Pa. Cmwlth. 1975).

Holidays

Where July 3, 1983 fell on a Sunday and the following day was a legal holiday, the time period for the filing of a request for a hearing was extended to July 5, 1983. Getz v. Game Commission, 475 A.2d 1369 (Pa. Cmwlth. 1984).

§ 31.13. Issuance of agency orders.

(a) In computing a period of time involving the date of the issuance of an order by an agency, the day of issuance of an order shall be the day the office of the agency mails or delivers copies of the order to the parties, or if the delivery is not otherwise required by law, the day the agency makes the copies public. Orders will not be made public prior to the mailing or delivery to the parties, except where, in the judgment of the agency, the public interest requires. The day of issuance of an order may or may not be the day of its adoption by the agency. In any event, the office of the agency shall clearly indicate on each order the date of its issuance.

(b) At the time a proposed report becomes effective as an adjudication of the agency in the absence of agency review as provided for by § 35.226(a)(3) (relating to final orders), the office of the agency will issue and serve upon the parties of record an appropriate notice of the date the adjudication became effective as an agency adjudication or order.

(c) The date of entry of an order which is subject to review by the Commonwealth Court is governed by 210 Pa. Code Rule 108 (relating to date of entry of orders). The date of issuance of any other order shall be deemed to be the date of entry thereof for the purposes of computing the time for appeal under an applicable statute relating to judicial review of agency action.

Notes of Decisions

Computation of Appeal Period

Commission's statutory 15-day period within which to request review of Administrative Law Judge's decision is computed from date decision is mailed or delivered, not from date of decision. Metro Transportation Company v. Pennsylvania Public Utility Commission, 525 A.2d 24 (Pa. Cmwlth. 1987).

In computing any period of time involving the date of the issuance of an order by an agency, the day of issuance shall be the day the office mails or delivers copies of the order to the parties. Getz v. Game Commission, 475 A.2d 1369 (Pa. Cmwlth. 1984).

Date of Issuance

The date of issuance of a ruling is the date it is mailed to the party so long as such is clearly indicated on the ruling itself. Carol Lines, Inc. v. Pennsylvania Public Utility Commission, 481 A.2d 990 (Pa. Cmwlth. 1984).

For the purpose of appeal from an order, the date of issuance, and therefore date of entry, is the date of mailing. Pioneer Finance Co. v. Securities Commission, 332 A.2d 565 (Pa. Cmwlth. 1975).

§ 31.15. Extensions of time.

(a) Extensions of time shall be governed by the following:

(1) Except as otherwise provided by law, whenever by these rules or by a regulation or order of an agency, or a notice given thereunder, an act is required or allowed to be done at or within a specified time, the time fixed or the period of time prescribed may, by the agency head or the presiding officer, for good cause be extended upon motion made before expiration of the period originally prescribed or as previously extended; and upon motion made after the expiration of the specified period, the act may be permitted to be done where reasonable grounds are shown for the failure to act.

(2) Requests for the extension of time in which to file briefs shall be filed at least 5 days before the time fixed for filing such briefs.

(b) Except as otherwise provided by law, requests for continuance of hearings or for extension of time in which to perform an act required or allowed to be done at or within a specified time by these rules or a regulation or order of an agency, shall be by motion in writing, timely filed with the agency, stating the facts on which the application rests, except that during the course of a hearing in a proceeding, the requests may be made by oral motion in the hearing before the agency head or the presiding officer.

Notes of Decisions

Failure of hospital to recognize the date of a final appeal of an audit disallowance, based upon two letters and failure to call a given number should any questions arise, as well as, the failure to show fraud or a breakdown in the administrative process, precluded the hospital from receiving an extension for an appeal. Friends Hospital v. Department of Public Welfare, 551 A.2d 640 (Pa. Cmwlth. 1988).

Since the Department of Public Welfare did not promulgate an express regulation either permitting or prohibiting extension of time, for good cause shown, to file a final cost report, reference to this section should have been made. Department of Public Welfare v. Overlook Medical Clinic, Inc., 544 A.2d 935 (Pa. Cmwlth. 1988).

Since the regulations of the Pennsylvania Code specifically provide for the discretionary granting of extensions and variances, the officials in whom the discretion rests are quasi-judicial or quasi-prosecutorial officers, and in absence of allegations of bad faith or corruption the officials are immune from criminal prosecution in granting extensions and variances, even though they were granted ex parte. In re Dwyer, 406 A.2d 1355 (Pa. 1979).

§ 31.26. Service on attorneys.

In a proceeding where an attorney has filed a submittal on behalf of a client or has filed an appearance under § 31.24(b) (relating to notice of appearance), a notice or other written communication required to be served upon or furnished to the client shall also be served upon or furnished to the attorney (or one of the attorneys if the client is represented by more than one attorney) in the same manner as prescribed for his client, notwithstanding the fact that the communication may be furnished directly to the client.

Notes of Decisions

Notice To Attorneys

This section requires that notice must be given to the attorney where the attorney has entered an appearance for the client, even though the specific statutory provision provides only for service on the parties in interest; overruling Crown, Cork and Seal Corp. v. Workmen's Compensation Appeal Board, 543 A.2d 603 (Pa. Cmwlth. 1988). Philadelphia v. Workers' Compensation Appeal Board, 706 A.2d 1292 (Pa. Cmwlth. 1998).

Failure to mail a denial of a termination decision to the employer's counsel, when proper copies were mailed to the employer and its insurance carrier, was not a sufficient reason to permit the employer to file its appeal late, since the statutory provision required only notice to all parties in interest. Crown, Cork and Seal Corp. v. Workmen's Compensation Appeal Board, 543 A.2d 603 (Pa. Cmwlth. 1988); overruled Philadelphia v. Workmen's Compensation Appeal Board (Operacz), 706 A.2d 1292 (Pa. Cmwlth. 1998).

§ 31.28. Suspension and disbarment.

(a) An agency may deny, temporarily or permanently, the privilege of appearing or practicing before it in any way to a person who is found by the agency after notice and opportunity for hearing in the matter:

- (1) Not to possess the requisite qualifications to represent others.
- (2) Not to possess the requisite technical education, training or experience for a particular project or type of project submitted for agency approval.
- (3) To have engaged in unethical or improper conduct before the agency.

(b) For the purposes of subsection (a), practicing before an agency shall include, but shall not be limited to:

- (1) Transacting business with the agency.
- (2) The preparation of a statement, opinion or other paper by an attorney, accountant, engineer or other expert, filed with the agency in a pleading, submittal or other document with the consent of the attorney, accountant, engineer or other expert.
