Notes of Decisions*Immediate Action*

The notification requirements do not violate an offender's privilege against self-incrimination, since the notice admits only that an accident has occurred which may cause pollution; a telephone call by a borough police officer to a District Waterways patrolman employed by the Fish Commission is not sufficient notice to the Department of Environmental Resources. Commonwealth v. Shippensburg Borough, 2 Pa. D. & C.3d 417 (1977).

The intent of 25 Pa. Code § 101.2(a) is to alert others downstream about the possibility of pollution; the fact that the damage appeared to be done by the time it was discovered is no reason for failing to notify the Department of Environmental Resources. Commonwealth v. Shippensburg Borough, 2 Pa. D. & C.3d 417 (1977).
