Petition—A petition for investigation and certification or decertification of a collective bargaining representative filed under the act and this chapter.

Showing of interest—A designated percentage of public employes in an allegedly appropriate bargaining unit, or a bargaining unit determined to be appropriate, who are members of an employe organization, who have designated it as their exclusive bargaining representative, or who have signed a petition requesting an election for certification or decertification of public employe representatives. Notes of Decisions

Consolidated Petitions

If a petition for representation is filed by a union representative which requires a redetermination of unit appropriateness and if unit clarification petitions require an identical determination, it is not error to act on the consolidated petitions. Independent Association of Pennsylvania Liquor Control Board Employees v. Labor Relations Board, 409 A.2d 532 (Pa. Cmwlth. 1980).

Individual Employees

Once the Board exercises exclusive jurisdiction to determine an appropriate bargaining unit, the arbitrator may decide whether individual employees fall within the scope of that unit in contractual grievance procedures. West Shore School District v. West Shore Education Association, 519 A.2d 552 (Pa. Cmwlth. 1986); appeal denied 536 A.2d 1335 (Pa. 1987).

Petition Filing Required

Where aluminum workers union and the United Steel Workers Union of America merged, but failed to file a petition pursuant to subsection (b) of this section to amend the certification to reflect the merger, the court refused to find for purposes of Public Employee Relations Act that in the absence of certification USWA possessed an enforceable right to bargain on behalf of the merged unit. United Steel Workers of America v. Ford City Borough, 30 PPER (LRP) P30,031 (January 20, 1999).

Unit Clarification

Although section 604 of the Pennsylvania Employee Relations Act (P. L. 563) (43 P. S. § 1101.604) does not specifically outline a procedure for unit clarification, the regulations of the Board in subsection (a) do provide for unit clarification proceedings. Gateway School District v. Labor Relations Board, 470 A.2d 185 (Pa. Cmwlth. 1984).

§ 95.24. Amendment of certification.

- (a) If no question of representation exists, a petition for amendment of certification may be filed by the collective bargaining representative or by the public employer.
- (b) A petition for amendment of certification shall contain the following:

- (1) The name of the employer and the name of the certified employee organization involved.
- (2) The address of the employer involved.
- (3) Identification and description of the existing certification.
- (4) A statement by petitioner setting forth the details of the desired amendment and reasons therefor.
- (5) The names and addresses of other persons or employee organizations claiming to represent any employees in the unit covered by the certification and brief description of the contracts, if any, covering those employees in the unit.
- (6) The name, affiliation if any, and address of the petitioner.
- (7) A brief description of the process utilized in carrying out the affiliation.
- (8) Other relevant facts.

(c) When the requested amendment of certification serves to effectuate the policies of the act, the Board Representative will issue an order amending the certification or other appropriate order.

Authority

(c) After a charge has been filed, if it appears to the Board that formal proceedings in respect to the charge should be instituted, the Board, or any member of the Board, or the regional director, may issue and cause to be served upon the parties a complaint in the name of the Board, stating the alleged unfair practices, and containing a notice of hearing before a hearing examiner at a place stated in the complaint and at a time not less than 5 days after the service of the complaint unless involving charges under section 803 or 1201(b)(6) or (7) of the act (43 P.S. § 1101.803 or 1101.1201(b)(6) or (7)).

(b) A complaint, amended complaint or a part thereof, may be dismissed by the Board on its own motion or a charge may, with the approval of the Board, be withdrawn upon the motion of the complainant before the issuance of a final decision and order, upon due notice to all parties.

(c) Subject to the approval of the hearing examiner or the Board, an answer may be amended upon motion of the filing party before the commencement of the testimony. Notes of Decisions

New Cause of Action

The allegation of additional clauses to a pending charge of unfair practices adds allegation of a new cause of action and must therefore occur within 4 months of the act which allegedly constitutes the unfair practice. PSSU Local 668, AFL-CIO v. Pennsylvania Labor Relations Board, 30 PPER (LRP) P30,090, April 20, 1999.

§ 95.33. Prosecuting authority.

Cases in which complaints are actually issued by the Board shall be prosecuted before the Board, a member of the Board, or its hearing examiner, by the representative of the employee organization or party filing the charge, and, in addition to the charge, or in lieu of it, if the Office of the Attorney General sees fit, by a Deputy Attorney General, especially assigned to this type of case.

§ 95.34. Answers.

(a) The Board recognizes that the primary purpose of pleadings is the formulation of issues. Consequently, rules pertaining to pleadings will be liberally construed to effect that end.

(b) No answer need be filed in representation cases.

(c) The respondent shall, except in charges provided for in section 803 or 1201(b)(6) or (7) of the act (43 P. S. § 1101.803 or 1101.1201(b)(6) or (7)) file an answer to the original or amended complaint within 15 days from the service of the complaint. Answers shall be verified by the person filing them, and shall be filed with the Board at Harrisburg or at its regional offices. Copies of answers shall be served upon the parties to the proceeding. Proof of service of the answer shall be filed with the Board. A party who fails to file an answer or to specifically deny allegations in the complaint shall be deemed to admit only those averments relating to the identity of the parties; all other averments shall be deemed to be denied.

(d) In the discretion of the hearing examiner at the hearing, or in the discretion of the Board, an answer may be amended upon motion of the party filing it, upon due notice to the parties, before the issuance of the final decision and order. Notes of Decisions

Where the particular acts which were alleged to constitute unfair practices were not set forth in the complaint filed with the Board, and the complaint was never amended to include said acts, the Board properly did not consider those matters. Teamsters Local Union 77, v. Labor Relations Board, 492 A.2d 782 (Pa. Cmwlth. 1985).

Notes of Decisions*Service of Papers*

In affirming the lower court's denial of a request for allowance of an untimely appeal by the county, which request was based upon confusion resulting from a change of solicitors, the court noted under this section provides that where an attorney has entered his appearance all orders and other papers shall be served on that attorney. County of Lawrence v. Labor Relations Board, 469 A.2d 1145 (Pa. Cmwlth. 1983).

(a) The Board will give notice of election at least 10-calendar days before the date of the election. The notice will include a description of the bargaining unit, the form of the ballot, the times and places where the election is to be held, and a list of names of those eligible to vote or reference to the places where the list shall be filed and available for inspection.

(b) Notices may be posted by the Board officer or the Board may direct the employer to post such notices and orders and make a return of the posting.

(c) Notices shall be posted at the place of business of the employer at locations where employees in the requested unit work. The Board may post or order the public employer to post the other orders and notices as it may deem necessary or appropriate.

(b) In representation proceedings, the hearing examiner may, subject to § 95.11 (relating to request for certification) permit public employers, public employees and employee organizations to participate as parties without formal intervention, upon a showing of good cause which reasonably prevented them from having filed a timely motion to intervene.

Notes of Decisions*Intervention*

Petition to intervene filed by the Pennsylvania State Association of Township Supervisors was denied, where the association, which represents the interests of over 1,450 townships of the second class, merely alleged that the Labor Relations Board's inclusion of the township roadmaster in the bargaining unit "may impair" the ability of those townships to perform governmental functions, but nothing would impair a township from appearing before the board to demonstrate on the record facts which would support alleged supervisory status. In the Matter of the Employees of Winfield Township, 30 PPER (LRP) P30, 022 (1998).

Waiver

Where hearing examiner denies intervention in an order dismissing representative's petition and no exceptions are filed to that order under § 95.98(b), the issue is waived for purposes of further review. Donatucci v. Labor Relations Board, 547 A.2d 857 (Pa. Cmwlth. 1988).

§ 95.45. Continuances.

(a) Motions for a continuance made prior to a hearing shall be in writing, shall be filed with the Board at Harrisburg, and shall set forth the reasons for a continuance and the position of all parties or their representatives to the request. The motion may not be acted upon by the Board unless it is filed at least 72 hours prior to the hearing, and the ruling of the Board shall be final. Upon good cause shown, the 72 hour provision or the necessity of a written motion may be waived at the discretion of the Board.

(b) Conflicting engagements of counsel, whether before a court of record or an administrative tribunal, shall normally not constitute sufficient grounds for a continuance of any proceeding before the Board, unless the date for the appearance of counsel in the conflicting engagement was fixed before receipt of notice of the proceeding before the Board.

(c) Agreement of counsel may not of itself be sufficient cause for the granting of a continuance.

(d) At a hearing, the hearing examiner subject to the approval of the Board, may continue the hearing from day to day, or to adjourn it to a later date or a different place, by announcement of the change at the hearing or by other appropriate notice.

ELECTIONS§ 95.51. Election process.

(b) Ballots will be prepared and issued by the Board. Ballots will contain the name of each representative and a choice of “no representative.” The place of priority on the ballot will be determined by the chronological filing or appearance on the dockets of the Board but with the petitioner taking first priority. In a run-off election, the place of priority will be determined by the sequence appearing on the ballot at the prior inconclusive election.

§ 95.52. Procedures for onsite elections.

(a) Watchers. Each party to the election will be entitled to be represented by one watcher at each polling place or by additional watchers as the parties may agree, subject to limitations as the Board or its authorized agent may prescribe. Watchers for all parties shall be employees eligible to vote. However, if the employer is unable to find an individual on the list of eligible voters who is willing to serve as a watcher, the employer may choose a nonsupervisory or other appropriate person. If the unit includes supervisors, the parties may use as watchers persons who function at the same level of supervision.

(b) Polling area. Before the commencement of an onsite election, the agent of the Board will designate the polling area. No electioneering of any kind may take place within this area. A violation of this requirement by any party or its agent may be ground for setting aside the election.

(a) Ballot packet. Each eligible voter will be mailed a packet containing a ballot, a ballot envelope, a preaddressed stamped return envelope and instructions. The return envelopes will have a key number assigned to each voter to assist identification at the ballot count.

(b) Instructions. The instructions will direct the voter to mark the ballot in secret placing an "X" in the square of the desired choice without identifying the voter. The ballot shall then be folded, inserted into the ballot envelope, the ballot envelope sealed and inserted into the return envelope. The return envelope shall be sealed and the voter shall sign his name in the box provided on the reverse of the sealed return envelope. The instructions will also advise the voter of the date, established in the election order, by which return envelopes must be received by the Board to be canvassed.

(c) Duplicate packets. The posted election order will advise voters of a date by which voters who do not receive an election packet should contact the Board at the address or telephone number provided to receive a duplicate packet. The duplicate packets will contain the materials referenced in subsection (a) and be key numbered to prevent casting of more than one ballot by a voter.

(d) Ballot count. Returned ballots will be kept secure by the Board and remain unopened in their return envelopes until the date set for counting the ballots. Either by mail before the ballot count, with a copy to all parties, or at the ballot count, each party and the Board shall have an opportunity to challenge any ballots prior to the opening of the return envelopes. Appropriately challenged ballots will not be tallied and will remain in their return envelopes for subsequent proceedings and identification if necessary. Ballots which have not been challenged will be compared to the eligibility list, removed from the return envelope and the return envelopes destroyed. The ballots will then be commingled while remaining sealed in ballot envelopes. The ballot envelopes will then be opened and the results tabulated.

PROVISIONS FOR FORMAL PROCEEDINGS§ 95.91. Hearings.

(a) Hearings shall be open to the public unless otherwise ordered by the Board.

(b) Hearings shall be conducted by a hearing examiner designated by the Board. During the course of the proceeding, the Board may designate a new hearing examiner to take the place of the hearing examiner previously designated to conduct the hearing.

(c) The transcript of the testimony in hearings will become part of the record if no objections to the transcript are filed with the Board within 15 days after its deposit in the United States mail. The postmark shall be conclusive evidence of the date of mailing. Objections shall specify the matter objected to and the relief sought. The Board may order a hearing on the objections. The Board will make an order that may be necessary to conform the transcript to the occurrences at the hearing; and the conformed transcript will then be certified by the official stenographer, will be filed of record in the case, will be treated as official and part of the record for purposes of review upon appeal, and will be considered as prima facie accurate whenever thereafter offered in evidence.

(d) Motions made during a hearing and objections with respect to the conduct of a hearing, including objections to the introduction of evidence, shall be stated orally and shall be included in the stenographic report of the hearing. Final argument shall not be included in the stenographic report unless the hearing examiner shall so direct.

(e) If a motion to dismiss or preliminary objections challenging the jurisdiction of the Board are advanced, the hearing may be limited to testimony and evidence relating thereto prior to proceeding with testimony on the merits.

(f) The hearing examiner shall have full authority to control the conduct and procedure of the hearing and the record thereof, to admit or exclude testimony or other evidence, and to rule upon motions and objections subject to review by the Board.

(g) The hearing examiner shall see that a full inquiry is made into the matters in issue and to obtain a complete record of facts necessary for a fair determination of the issues by the Board.

(h) The hearing examiner may do any of the following:

- (1) Call and examine witnesses.
- (2) Direct the production of papers or other matter present in the hearing room.
- (3) Exclude irrelevant or immaterial testimony.
- (4) Introduce documentary or other evidence.
- (5) Take action during the progress of a hearing which will properly effectuate the policy of the act.

(i) At a hearing, parties shall have the right to call, examine and cross-examine witnesses and to introduce documentary or other evidence subject to the rulings of the hearing examiner.

(j) Concerning briefs and oral arguments the hearing examiner shall set the time required for the filing of briefs. A party filing a brief shall file the original with the hearing examiner and four copies with the Board, concurrently serving one copy on each other party to the hearing. Briefs shall be accompanied by a certificate of service.

(k) Proposed decision or recommendation shall be issued as follows:

(1) Unfair practice and unit clarification proceedings. After the close of the formal hearing, if any, the hearing examiner or Board agent conducting the hearing shall issue a proposed decision or may submit the record of the case to the Board for decision under instructions, if any, from the Board. The proposed decision shall be in writing and shall contain a statement of the case, findings of fact, conclusions of law and the order. The hearing examiner or Board agent shall cause a copy of the proposed decision to be served upon the parties.

(2) Representation proceedings. Proposed decision or recommendation shall be issued as follows for representation proceedings:

(i) Hearing examiner recommendations. After the close of the formal hearing in representation proceedings, the hearing examiner or Board agent conducting the hearing shall submit his recommendations and record to the Board Representative of the Board designated for the purpose of review of representation cases. The Board Representative will be designated by the Board at a regular meeting of the Board and the designation will be recorded in the minutes of the Board meeting.

(ii) Board Representative. Upon receipt of the recommendation and record of the hearing examiner the Board Representative shall adopt, reject or modify the recommendation and shall be authorized to issue and cause to be served on the parties an order directing an election or other appropriate action. A decision or order of the Board Representative shall set forth the findings of fact, conclusions of law, discussion and order or direction and shall be subject only to the filing of a request for review with the Board.

(iii) Request for review. Prior to the conduct of a representation election, an aggrieved party may file a written request for review with the Board accompanied by a statement of service. A request for review will be granted only where the order or direction of the Board Representative is clearly erroneous and prejudicially affects the rights of the party seeking review. The filing of a request for review with the Board will not operate, unless otherwise ordered by the Board, as a stay of any order or direction of the Board Representative.

(A) A request for review must be a self-contained document enabling the Board to rule on the basis of its contents.

(B) A party may file with the Board a timely statement in opposition to a request for review prior to the conduct of a representation election accompanied by a statement of service.

(I) Subsection (b) supplements 1 Pa. Code § 35.185 (relating to designation of presiding officers); subsections (f) and (h) supplement 1 Pa. Notes of Decisions

Bifurcation

The city has an adequate administrative remedy through the Labor Relations Board to determine whether the city's attorneys-employees could form a bargaining unit under the Public Employee Relations Act so that the Commonwealth Court lacked jurisdiction over the city's petition for review. Philadelphia ex rel. Harris v. Labor Relations Board, 641 A.2d 709 (Pa. Cmwlth. 1994).

A hearing examiner's decision to bifurcate a trial and limit testimony to the issue of timeliness of the filing of the petition was proper, since the Board's regulations clearly allow for bifurcation of issues where preliminary jurisdiction questions are raised, and also since the petitioner was not prejudiced by the bifurcation. Thomas v. Labor Relations Board, 485 A.2d 903 (Pa. Cmwlth. 1985).

§ 95.92. Contemptuous conduct.

(a) Contemptuous conduct shall be ground for exclusion from the hearing, and the refusal of a witness to answer questions which have been ruled to be proper shall be ground for striking out all testimony previously given by the witness on related matters. Misconduct of an aggravated character, when engaged in by an attorney or other representative of a party, shall be ground, after due notice and hearing, for suspension or disbarment by the Board from further practice before it.

§ 95.94. Depositions.

(a) Witnesses at hearings shall be examined orally under oath or affirmation, and a record of the proceeding shall be made and kept by the Board. If a witness resides outside this Commonwealth or through illness or other cause is unable to testify before the Board, its members or hearing examiner conducting the hearing or investigation, his testimony may, upon application, be taken by deposition.

(b) Applications to take depositions under this section shall be in writing or may be made orally at a hearing. The application shall set forth the reasons why the depositions should be taken, the name and post office address with zip code of the witness, and the time and place proposed for the taking of the deposition. The Board, any of its members or hearing examiner, as the case may be, may, upon the application, issue an order allowing the taking of the deposition. The order shall be served on the parties. The deposition may be taken before an officer authorized to administer oaths by the laws of the Commonwealth or of the United States or of the place where the examination is held, including an agent of the Board authorized to administer oaths.

(c) During the depositions, objections to questions or evidence shall be deemed waived unless made at the examination of the witness. The officer may not rule upon objections but shall note them on the deposition. The testimony shall be subscribed by the witness in the presence of the officer who shall attach his certificate stating that the witness was sworn or affirmed by him, that the deposition is a true record of the testimony and exhibits given by the witness, and that the officer is not of counsel or attorney to any of the parties nor interested in the outcome of the proceeding or investigation. If the deposition is not signed by the witness because he is ill, dead, cannot be found or refuses to sign it, that fact shall be included in the certificate of the officer and the deposition may then be used as fully as though signed. The officer shall immediately deliver an original and a copy of the transcript, together with his certificate, in person or by United States mail to the Board, its members or hearing examiner, as the case may be. The hearing examiner shall rule upon the admissibility of the deposition or any part of the deposition.

(d) Errors or irregularities in compliance with this section shall be deemed waived unless a motion to suppress the deposition or some part of it is made with reasonable promptness after the defect is ascertained or, with due diligence, might have been ascertained.

Code §§ 35.146 and 35.147 (relating to notice and application; and authorization of taking deposition); subsection (c) supersedes 1 Pa. Code § 35.150 (relating to scope and conduct of examination).

Notes of Decisions*Failure to File Exceptions*

Where union failed to except to hearing examiner's credibility determination that reduced Federal funding rather than improper motivation was basis for elimination of dispatcher position, union effectively waived any argument that elimination of position was retaliatory. Amalgamated Transit Union Local 168 v. County of Lackawanna Transit System Authority 29 PPER (LRP) P29,036 (1998).

The borough asserted that it did not commit an unfair labor practice by not proceeding to interest arbitration because it exercised its legislative power to abolish its police department and subcontract its police services. This issue, however, was not raised in the borough's exceptions to the hearing examiner's proposed decision and therefore, it was waived. Geistown Borough v. Labor Relations Board, 679 A.2d 1330 (Pa. Cmwlth. 1996); appeal denied 692 A.2d 568 (Pa. 1997).

The failure to take exception to a proposed decision by a Labor Relations Board examiner caused the order to become final upon the expiration of 20 days from its issuance. Donatucci v. Labor Relations Board, 547 A.2d 857 (Pa. Cmwlth. 1988).

Failure to seek reopening of the record before the Board, as permitted by 34 Pa. Code § 95.98(f)(2), acts as a waiver of the issue or reopening the record upon appeal of the adjudication to the court. County of Lawrence v. Labor Relations Board, 469 A.2d 1145 (Pa. Cmwlth. 1983).

An issue not of record may not be raised for the first time in exceptions to a Board's nisi certification order under subsection (a)(2). Intermediate Unit No. 22 v. Labor Relations Board, 466 A.2d 262 (Pa. Cmwlth. 1983).

Filing Time

In the absence of a postal service cancellation stamp or other independent means of verifying the timeliness of the exceptions received in a mailing envelope bearing a private postal meter stamp, the exceptions were deemed filed on the date they were received in the Labor Relations Board's office, 2 days beyond the filing deadline. Fraternal Order of Police, Lodge No. 5 v. City of Philadelphia, 31 PPER (LRP) P31,036 (2000).

The Pennsylvania Labor Relations Board has accepted, in the absence of U. S. Postal Form 3817, a timely postmark of exceptions within the 20-day period for the filing of exceptions; where the proposed decision and order was dated and mailed to the parties on June 25, the last day for the timely filing of exceptions was July 15, 1998, and exceptions postmarked on July 16, 1998, were not timely filed. Teamsters Union Local 776 v. Dauphin County, 29 PPER (LRP) P29,217 (September 15, 1998).

Specificity of Exceptions

Exceptions which challenged all sixty-three findings of fact made by the hearing examiner and, at least as to certain of those challenged findings, provide alternate findings and reiterated the complainants' legal analysis of its proffered findings in challenging the hearing examiner's conclusion were sufficiently specific to allow for meaningful review and were not dismissed for lack of specificity. Halfhill, et al. v. Private Industry Council of Westmoreland/Fayette, Inc., et al., 29 PPER (LRP) P29,004, 1997.
