CHAPTER 21. GENERAL PROVISIONS

- Sec. 21.1. Definitions.
- 21.2. Advertising by common carriers of passengers or household goods in use.

§ 21.1. Definitions.

The following words and terms, when used in this subpart, have the following meanings, unless the context clearly indicates otherwise:

Certificate—A certificate of public convenience as issued by the Commission.

Commission—The Pennsylvania Public Utility Commission.

Common carrier of property—A motor common carrier who or which transports property, other than household goods in use.

Corporation—A body corporate, joint stock company or association, domestic or foreign, its lessee, assignee, trustee, receiver or other successor in interest, having the powers or privileges of corporations not possessed by individuals or partnerships, but not including a municipal corporation except as otherwise expressly provided in the act.

Household goods in use—

(i) As used in connection with transportation, the term means personal effects and property used or to be used in a dwelling, when a part of the equipment or supply of the dwelling, and similar property if the transportation of the effects or property is arranged and paid for by either the household holder or by another party.

(ii) The term does not include:

(A) A motor carrier when the motor carrier provides transportation of household goods in containers or trailers that are entirely packed, loaded, unloaded or unpacked by an individual other than an employee or agent of the motor carrier.

(B) Transportation of property from a factory or store when the property is purchased by the householder with the intent to use it in the householder's dwelling.

Household goods in use carrier—A motor common or contract carrier that transports household goods in use.

Motor carrier—A common or contract carrier by motor vehicle.

Passenger carrier—A motor common or contract carrier that transports passengers.
