Notes of DecisionRecusals (affects § 403.1)*

Two Gaming Control Board members who recused themselves from deliberating and voting on individual category 2 slot machine license applications were not required to abstain from deliberating and voting on the remaining applications, even though Board was limited to awarding licenses to best two applicants out of five; their recusals were not predicated upon personal for financial interests that were immediate and direct, and argument that recusing members possessed the potential to exert undue influence on other Board members against the remaining applicants was rejected. Riverwalk Casino v. Pennsylvania Gaming Control Board, 926 A.2d 926, 940 (Pa. 2007)
