§ 431a.4. Responsibilities of a supplier.

(a) Within 1 year of the Board's issuance of a supplier license, the supplier shall establish and maintain a principal place of business in this Commonwealth. The principal place of business must be:

(1) Owned or leased by the supplier. If leased, the term of the lease must be at least as long as the term of the supplier's license.

(2) Where the supplier maintains all agreements, contracts and records, or copies thereof, pertaining to the supplier's business conducted in this Commonwealth.

(3) Large enough to accommodate all of the materials required under paragraph (2), the employees assigned to this office and the equipment required to carry out the employees' assigned duties.

(4) Equipped with a telephone.

(5) Staffed by at least one person during normal business hours.

(6) Open for inspection by Board personnel during normal business hours.

(b) A supplier shall submit to the Bureau of Licensing for review any agreements with a licensed manufacturer or with a slot machine licensee. The review may include, but not be limited to, financing arrangements, inventory requirements, warehouse requirements, warehouse space, technical competency, compensative agreements and other terms or conditions to ensure the financial independence of the licensed supplier from any licensed manufacturer or licensed gaming entity.

(c) A holder of a supplier license shall have a continuing duty to:

(1) Comply with the general requirements in Chapters 421a and 423a (relating to general provisions; and applications; statement of conditions; wagering restrictions).

(2) For publicly traded suppliers, provide notification of all SEC filings or, if the supplier is publicly traded on a foreign exchange, a copy of all filings submitted to the securities regulator that has jurisdiction over the foreign publicly traded corporation. The notification or copies of the filings shall be submitted to the Bureau of Licensing within 30 days after the date of filing with the SEC or securities regulator that has jurisdiction over the foreign publicly traded corporation.

(d) An employee of a licensed supplier who is a gaming or nongaming employee as defined in § 401a.3 (relating to definitions) shall obtain a permit under § 435a.3 (relating to occupation permit) or registration under § 435a.5 (relating to nongaming employee registration).

§ 431a.5. Supplier log books.

(a) A supplier licensee shall maintain a log book to register the individuals who enter the supplier licensee's principal place of business and each physical facility utilized by the supplier licensee to house inventory, replacement parts, supplies, transportation or delivery equipment.

(b) The supplier licensee shall record or cause to be recorded in the log book the following:

(1) The date, entrance time and departure time of each individual.

(2) The name of each individual entering the place of business or physical facility and who they represent.

(3) The signature of each individual.

(4) The purpose for the visit.

(5) For individuals who are not employees of the supplier, the individual's Board license, permit, certification or registration number, if applicable.

(c) Licensed, permitted or registered employees of a supplier are not required to register in the log book.

(d) Each log book required by this section shall be maintained at the entrance of the location to which it pertains and shall be made readily accessible for examination and inspection upon the demand of any agent, employee or representative of the Board, the Department of Revenue or the Pennsylvania State Police.

§ 431a.6. Change of control of a supplier licensee.

(a) For purposes of this section, a change of control of a supplier licensee will be deemed to have occurred when a person or group of persons acquires:

(1) More than 20% of a supplier licensee's securities, assets or other ownership interests.

(2) More than 20% of the securities or other ownership interests of a corporation or other form of business entity that owns directly or indirectly at least 20% of the voting or other securities or other ownership interests of the supplier licensee.

(3) Any other interest in a supplier licensee which allows the acquirer to control the supplier licensee.

(b) A supplier licensee shall notify the Bureau and the Bureau of Licensing by filing a Notification of Proposed Transfer of Interest Form immediately upon becoming aware of any proposed or contemplated change of control of the supplier licensee.

(c) Prior to acquiring a controlling interest in a supplier licensee, the acquirer shall file a petition in accordance with § 493a.4 (relating to petitions generally) requesting Board approval of the acquisition. The petition must include:

(1) A copy of all documents governing the acquisition.

(2) Completed applications for the acquiring company, as required under this chapter, principals as required under Chapter 433a (relating to principal licenses) and key employees as required under § 435a.2 (relating to key employee license).

(3) An affirmation that neither the acquirer nor any of its affiliates, intermediaries, subsidiaries or holding companies is a slot machine licensee and that the acquirer has neither applied for nor holds a manufacturer license.

(d) A person or group of persons seeking to acquire a controlling interest in a supplier licensee shall promptly provide any additional information requested by the Board and Board staff and cooperate with the Bureau in any investigations related to the petition filed under subsection (b).

(e) A person or group of persons may not acquire a controlling interest in a supplier licensee until the petition, required under subsection (b), has been approved. A person or group of persons seeking to acquire a controlling interest in a supplier licensee and the supplier licensee may enter into a sales agreement that is contingent on Board approval of the petition.

(f) The requirements of this section do not apply to the acquisition of a controlling interest in a supplier licensee when the following conditions are met:

(1) The acquirer is an existing licensed supplier.

(2) The existing licensed supplier has provided the Bureau and the Bureau of Licensing notification and a copy of all documents governing the acquisition at least 60 days prior to the acquisition.

(3) After reviewing the documentation, the Bureau and the Bureau of Licensing determine that the filing of a petition is not required.
