§ 55.4. Issuance.

(a) General rule. Except as otherwise provided in this section, the Department will issue a registration class sticker with the registration of a truck or truck-tractor in the registered gross weight classes 2 through 25 which does not display the proper registration class sticker or with the reclassification of a truck or truck-tractor in the registered gross weight classes 2 through 25.

(b) Combinations. The registration class sticker issued for a vehicle with a registered combination gross weight will indicate the registered gross weight class of the combination.

(c) Substitution or replacement. If a registration class sticker is lost, stolen, defaced or determined to be unusable due to windshield replacement, the registrant of the vehicle shall follow 75 Pa.C.S. § 1333 (relating to lost, stolen, damaged or illegible registration plate) in obtaining a substitute or replacement registration class sticker. For the purpose of obtaining a replacement registration class sticker, the phrase “registration class sticker” shall be substituted for “registration plate” wherever it appears in 75 Pa.C.S. § 1333.
