§ 91.4. Application.

(a) Pennsylvania licensed drivers. A person in possession of an unexpired Pennsylvania driver's license, or a Pennsylvania driver's license containing an expiration date no more than 4 years preceding the date of application, may apply for an identification card on a form furnished by the Department. The form shall be accompanied by the applicant's latest Pennsylvania driver's license and the appropriate fee.

(b) Others. Application for an identification card by a person other than specified in subsection (a) shall be made at a driver examination station of this Commonwealth. The applicant shall provide his name, address, date of birth, and a document verifying the applicant's date of birth and identity. The following are acceptable documents for proving identity and date of birth:

- (1) Birth certificate.
- (2) Baptismal certificate.
- (3) School certificate.
- (4) Passport.
- (5) Citizenship papers.
- (6) Marriage record.
- (7) Armed Forces ID card.

- (8) Immigration certificate.
 - (9) Selective service ID card.
 - (10) Pennsylvania driver's license.
 - (11) Pennsylvania identification card.
 - (12) Pennsylvania camera card.
- (c) Camera card. Camera cards shall conform with the following:
- (1) Each qualified applicant for issuance, renewal, or replacement of an identification card will be issued a camera card for presentation at a camera station.
 - (2) A camera card will be valid for the purpose of obtaining a photographic identification card for a period of 60 days from the date of issuance.
 - (3) The Department may, upon a showing of good cause by the applicant, issue an identification card which does not bear a photograph.
- (d) Fee. The fee for an identification card shall be $5.

§ 91.8. Return.

(a) Return upon demand. The Department may demand the return of an identification card issued under this chapter if any of the following apply:

(1) The application contained false or fraudulent information.

(2) The card was issued in error.

(3) The card has been used for fraudulent purposes.

(b) Surrender. An identification card shall be surrendered to the Department if one of the following applies:

- (1) The holder of the card receives his driver's license upon expiration of a term of suspension of the license.
- (2) The holder makes application at an examining station for a Pennsylvania learner's permit or driver's license.
